Summary of Legislation

The bill prohibits members and members-elect of the legislature from holding any other elected office while serving as a member of the General Assembly. The prohibition applies once the votes are certified for member-elects, or once the Secretary of State certifies a vacancy appointment.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

Prohibiting a member of the General Assembly from holding another elected position does not affect revenue or expenditures for any agency of state or local government; therefore, the bill is assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.
