Speaker Becker addressed the members of the House of Representatives.

Good morning everyone. Welcome to your Colorado State Capitol.

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome each and every one of you to the first day of our 2020 legislative session.

I’d like to first take a moment to greet and thank all of the family members and loved ones gathered here to watch as we continue our work on behalf of the people of Colorado. I know I speak for everyone in this Chamber when I say we appreciate your support — and your patience — as we take on this important work.

Thank you also to Majority Leader Alec Garnett and to our wonderful Democratic caucus and leadership team. You all are amazing.

To Minority Leader Neville and the Republican Leadership team — I look forward to working together to find bipartisan solutions to Colorado’s most pressing challenges — and hopefully to be done every day by 4:00 p.m.

While I’m truly excited to see all of my colleagues here today, I’d like to especially extend a warm welcome to Representative Mary Young, who will be starting her first session representing the people of Greeley in the legislature this year.

I’d also like to take this opportunity to mention someone who is dearly missed by everyone in this chamber, Representative Kimmi Lewis. As everyone who had the pleasure of meeting her knows, Kimmi was a devoted fighter for rural communities and a caring, responsive leader. Her spirit and tenacity will be dearly missed by all this session. I’d like to welcome our newest member, Richard Holtorf, who is the new Representative for House District 64. You, sir, have some big shoes to fill. We look forward to working with you.

This year, we also lost a true trailblazer and an incredible presence in this building, Speaker Ruben Valdez. The first Latino Speaker of the House in Colorado, Ruben Valdez was an inspirational figure, and a mentor to many.

I’d also like to recognize the former Speakers in attendance today: Speaker Frank McNulty and Speaker Terrance Carroll.

Finally, I’d like to recognize former legislators who are present: Representatives Max Tyler, Dave Young, Paul Rosenthal, and Matt Jones.

Other local elected officials: University of Colorado Regent Leslie Smith, Boulder City Council member Aaron Brockett, Boulder Valley School District Board Vice-chair Kathy Gebhardt, Boulder Valley School District Teacher Tina Mueh, Clear Creek County Commissioner Randy Wheelock, and Boulder County Commissioner Elise Jones.

Thank you all for being here.

A year ago, as I welcomed you to the start of the 72nd General Assembly, I wasn’t shy about our bold plans to work on behalf of the people of Colorado.
In my speech, I promised that as Speaker, I would work to keep this body focused on investing in our state’s bright future, building an economy that works for all, and protecting the Colorado Way of Life.

As I stood at this podium and accepted the Speaker’s gavel, I talked about the obstacles our state faces. I called on all of you to put your ideas, your passion, and your determination to work towards lowering the cost of health care, investing in education, building a fair economy, tackling climate change, combatting homelessness and the housing crisis, confronting the opioid epidemic, and reforming our criminal justice system.

Your response? One of the most historic, productive sessions in our state’s history.

120 long days flew by as the legislature wrote, discussed, debated 598 bills and 4,500 amendments. We passed laws that that are moving our state forward and protect the Colorado way of life for years to come.

We proved that although inaction and gridlock may have the federal government in a headlock, good government is alive and well in the Centennial State. While Washington D.C. gets itself stuck in the mud it’s so busy slinging, our state moves forward.

While some in D.C. are still looking for ways to repeal the Affordable Care Act and strip health care away from millions of Americans, we joined together, Republicans and Democrats, and found innovative ways to save consumers money on health care — like our bipartisan bill to prevent surprise medical bills from costing families thousands.

As Congress continues its decade-long failure to address the skyrocketing cost of prescription drugs, here at home we passed a first-in-the-nation bipartisan bill to cap the cost of insulin.

Although it wasn’t always easy, we took on some of the biggest challenges our state faces. While the Trump Administration denies scientific consensus on climate change and actively undermines efforts to address it by rolling back environmental protections left and right, we fought hard to protect the air we breathe, the water we drink, the mountains we hike, and the rivers we fish.

We took a measure to the voters and successfully secured new revenue for our water plan and passed landmark oil and gas reforms to give our communities a say in what goes on in their own backyards. We set our state down a path towards a clean energy future and set bold targets that we intend to meet while keeping our economy and the future of Colorado workers in mind.

As lawmakers, it is our responsibility to act on behalf of all Coloradans, to strive to address the very real and dire challenges that are facing too many in our state, and to invest in our future. That’s what our constituents sent us here to do. I don’t know of a single parent in Colorado who doesn’t want their children to have a better life than they did.

At least I know I do — I want Leo and Ryder to grow up in a more just, more compassionate, and more conscientious world. As a mom, that means trying to lead by example and pass on the values that I’d like to see in the world around me.
In this House, that means working to build an economy that works for all. That’s why I was so proud last year when we delivered on equal pay for equal work and created college savings accounts to help families plan for their children’s future.

Our effort to build an economy that works for all didn’t end there — we strengthened renters’ rights and the rights of mobile home park residents and made one of the largest investments in affordable housing in our state’s history.

Despite our state’s unique budget constraints, we managed to make significant investments in our future.

We paid down the budget stabilization factor by $100 million, boosting investment in our classrooms. We passed a budget that included $20 million for rural schools and $22 million for special education programs. And just in case you’ve never heard Governor Polis speak, I’ll have you know we also expanded full-day kindergarten to every school district in our state.

We did great things last year and truly made a difference in the lives of people in every corner of our state, from the Western Slope to the Front Range and from Southern Colorado to the Eastern Plains. We worked around the clock—literally—on behalf of our constituents because this House belongs to them. We work for the people, and there is more work to be done.

This year, we will strive to create a more just economy and to make our state affordable for all.

So as long as there are families facing the harrowing prospect or the cruel reality of homelessness, this House moves forward.

As long as there are Coloradans making the impossible choice of paying for prescription drugs or paying for groceries, this House moves forward.

As long as there are teenagers attempting to take their own lives or fearing a school shooting, this House moves forward.

As long as our schools are underfunded and our classrooms are overcrowded, this House must move our state forward.

Nationally, this year may go down as one of the most bitter and divisive our nation has ever been through. Obstructionism, corruption, and partisan logjams have driven Washington from bad to worse. And while I remain hopeful that a change will soon come in DC, I invite you to join me in taking matters into our own hands to prove once again that government can still work for the people.

The interim has flown by, and as we begin this new session, I am asking you to do it all again. Come to this job with fresh ideas for how we can make our state more affordable. Work together with diverse stakeholders on all ends of the political spectrum to find solutions.

Coloradans need and are demanding a more affordable state and a more just economy. Too many people are not feeling the benefits of our state’s growth. That’s where our focus should be. Every Coloradan should have the opportunity to share in our state’s prosperity.
To get there, we’ll have to have hard conversations and make difficult decisions, together. We’ll need Republicans and Democrats alike to work hard, listen to stakeholders on all sides, and come to the table ready to work. My door is always open, and all ideas that will improve the lives of Coloradans are ready to be considered.

We will need everyone at the table working to make housing, health care, and higher education more affordable.

We need everyone at the table working to create a more fair and more rational criminal justice system.

We need everyone at the table to enhance the rights of state employees to collectively bargain for better pay, better working conditions and benefits.

We need everyone at the table to promote responsible gun ownership and move forward on gun safety initiatives that have already been adopted on a bipartisan basis in states across the country.

We need everyone at the table working to heed the call on climate change and protect workers and communities impacted by a changing climate and energy economy.

We need everyone at the table to deliver on our school safety initiatives and increase access to mental health support, especially in our schools.

I have no doubt in this body’s ability to work together and find bipartisan ways to get things done.

House members have already reached across the aisle to make sure that we tackle the epidemic of teen nicotine use in our state.

Last year we promised to deliver on paid family leave. We brought our state closer than it’s ever been to guaranteeing that every working Coloradan can take the time off they need to care for a loved one or a newborn without fear of financial ruin.

The time is now. We need stakeholders on every side of the issue to return to the discussion and work out a paid family leave program that is fiscally sustainable, workable for business, and makes a real difference for working families.

We’ll also need everyone to come back to the table to tackle one of the most pressing issues facing this state — our retirement crisis. Our population is aging and our economy is changing. Forecasts show that 1 in 5 residents will be over 65 by 2050. Meanwhile, more and more people in Colorado are participating in the gig economy and taking nontraditional jobs.

A modern and flexible economy requires a modern and flexible retirement savings system — and that’s what we aim to achieve.

As we move forward this session, we must keep in mind the unique challenges that our state’s fiscal policies present. Colorado is handcuffed by a restrictive and antiquated law that doesn’t allow the state to benefit from our booming economy and doesn’t let us make the investments we need.
Transparency in our budget is critical so that Coloradans can easily learn about where their dollars go. That’s why I’m excited to announce that here in the next few months, a visual, interactive display of the state’s budget will be available for the public on the General Assembly website.

This is a critical step in providing Coloradans with an accurate and accessible picture of our state’s finances to increase their trust in how we prioritize these dollars because every single dollar counts.

Given our state’s restrictions, we have to keep in mind that our state’s revenue is precious. Every single dollar must be spent wisely. This means being thoughtful about any permanent decisions we make that could have an impact on our state’s bottom line.

Permanent tax cuts that only further inequalities, exacerbate the achievement gap, make our higher ed institutions less competitive, and hinder our ability to meet our already dire transportation needs will not put us on the path to becoming a more prosperous and equitable state.

How we prioritize within our budget is of vital importance. We need to ensure that all of our dollars are being used in service to key goals.

While we’ve made substantial investments in K-12 education funding by paying down the budget stabilization factor, we’ll remain focused on ways to bring it down even further and will continue working on longer term school funding solutions.

This session, we will once again face the challenge of finding new money to invest in our state’s transportation system. Over the past few years we’ve made great strides to make multi-year commitments and find creative ways to set aside a significant amount of funding for transportation. But there is no secret pot of money hiding in the couch cushions; continuing these investments remains a challenging issue.

If we are going to find actual solutions to invest more in transportation, members on both sides of the aisle will have to bring forward specific solutions that voters haven’t already rejected and that are serious attempts at bipartisan solutions.

Past proposals like unspecified, across the board budget cuts to every department impacting programs from services for the disabled to food inspections to school funding, is not a realistic approach and is not the answer. Cutting Coloradans off Medicaid isn’t the answer.

Members need to show us where they believe this money should come from and make good faith efforts to find common ground. I know this is an issue that every single one of us cares about, and if we’re going to make progress, we need to do it together.

I know we can do this. From criminal justice reform to the great work coming out of the School Safety Interim Committee, we’ve seen incredible bipartisan progress on important issues.

We must continue this progress for the people of this state.
Investing in our future will also mean continuing to grapple with a host of difficult health care challenges as we attempt to lower costs and improve access and affordability across our state.

While we work to keep Colorado healthy and strong, we won’t be dissuaded by a small chorus of loud voices who let their fear drive them to ignore the science of vaccines and endanger the lives of others.

We’ll stay strong and move forward on issues that may be difficult but that require our action and attention, like abolishing the death penalty once and for all in our state.

This session, we will continue our work to lower the cost of prescription drugs — an issue that affects Coloradans from the newborn nursery room to the hospice wing and at every point in between. We can and will increase transparency in drug pricing and address the root causes that have made the costs of prescription drugs soar.

Our work is cut out for us. As long as we keep in mind who we are working on behalf of, our path forward will remain clear. So join me, bring your best ideas to the table and let’s get things done.

On behalf of every veteran and every family struggling to afford the cost of housing, come to the table.

On behalf of future generations of Coloradans and their right to enjoy our state’s natural treasures just like we have, come to the table.

On behalf of every young person caught in an unjust criminal justice system, come to the table.

On behalf of every child in an underfunded classroom in Colorado and on behalf of the teacher working to give those kids the best education possible, come to the table.

On behalf of every person living with a chronic illness who’s rationed their prescription drugs because they couldn’t afford the cost, come to the table.

Come to the table and let’s move Colorado forward together — towards prosperity, towards justice, towards progress!

This will be my last session serving as your colleague and your Speaker. It will be my last session representing the wonderful people of the 13th district under the golden dome.

And while there’s a great deal left to do and a great deal of new memories to make before I close this chapter, I can already tell you that working here with you all has been the honor of a lifetime.

It is with immense pride that I declare the House open for business for the second regular session of the seventy-second General Assembly of the great State of Colorado.

Minority Neville addressed the members of the House of Representatives.

Let’s observe a Moment of silence for Representative Kimmi Lewis of Kim, Colorado and House District 64. Her family is grateful and our caucus is grateful for the kind and classy way all of you, on both sides of this aisle, honored her life.

Thank you Madam Speaker and Mr. Majority Leader. I’m grateful as well to be able to welcome our new Chief Clerk of the House, Robin Jones. Robin, I know you’ve worked hard these past months, and we’ll do everything we can to … keep you on your toes and to totally befuddle you. Just kiddin’.

We make a lot of decisions down here, sometimes we get it right sometimes we get it wrong. One thing I am absolutely certain about, is I made the right decision when I asked my stunningly beautiful wife to marry me. Honey, I couldn’t do this job without your gentle loving spirit by my side.

Madam Speaker, this is the fourth Opening Day speech I’ve given. It’s been an honor to serve as Minority Leader, and I’d like to take a moment to thank my colleagues.

You and your predecessors are a remarkable group of people. From entrepreneurs to engineers, from ranchers and civil servants to lawyers and pilots, from servicemen and women to businessmen and women, I’m proud to have served alongside you. You are accomplished people, and your constituents are fortunate to have had you, as you are they. You represent Colorado from Grand Junction to Burlington, from Fort Collins to Trinidad. You are the voice of so many people, and I appreciate you.

Like it or not, here in this room we are all professionals – professional politicians, at least for now. And sometimes I hear the explanation, “it’s not personal, it’s politics.” Let me confide in you: it’s all personal to me. It’s personal because I’m blessed to be a husband, and a father of three daughters. I wouldn’t be here but for them. Colorado is our home. Many of you have a similar story. And so what we do in this room over the next 120 days matters a lot. It’s personal.

In this room we’ll forge political fortunes, but more importantly, the future of our children. In this room, politics matter – but so does principle.

Government exists to protect life, preserve freedom, and promote justice. People must be free to pursue not just happiness and prosperity, but also wholeness and dignity. In many respects, our laws are the ground rules for this.

This role of “protecting life” and “preserving freedom” was laid down by our founders. They understood the time would come when life, liberty and other rights would be threatened because our founders understood human nature.

That also means they recognized the inherent dignity of all persons: the wise, the wellborn and the rich alongside the ones regarded as ‘nobodies’ by the world. Republicans understand this dignity extends to the “most-able” among us; it also extends to those who need our care and protection – including unborn children.

These are the people we’ve been sent to represent, and defend, in this remarkable era.
We live in a time of unrivaled prosperity. Life is good for a good many people.

A recent editorial in the Wall Street Journal was entitled, “The 99% get a bigger raise.” It explained that employee compensation rose 4.5% in 2017, and 5% in 2018. Not just for the rich. The 99%.

The numbers were even higher in Colorado, with wages and salaries increasing 6.1% in 2019.

Inflation is low, just like unemployment. Minorities are finding work in record numbers.

Businesses and individuals are optimistic about the future.

This didn’t happen by accident. It was planned. It was predictable, because the same burst of economic energy came when presidents Kennedy and Reagan cut taxes and regulation. Republicans understand that government can’t create prosperity; it can only create conditions that enable the imagination and hard work of Americans to be rewarded. Thanks to President Trump, those conditions exist.

The reverse is also true. A large and money-hungry state government takes the shine off national prosperity. When a government demands more in taxes (whether they’re called taxes or fees), workers have less to share with their children, their families, and their communities. Their incentive to work shrinks.

So in a state like California, a state held hostage to public sector unions and the progressive ideology, there are big problems:

the highest rate of poverty in the nation;
the highest rate of homelessness in the nation;
a large exodus of the middle class;
a huge wealth gap between the rich and the poor.

That’s not the future we want for Colorado, and judging from recent issue-driven referenda, that’s not what most Coloradans want, either. What we want to be is Colorado, proud and free; we do not want to be eastern California.

In the past five years Colorado taxpayers have handed the government a pay increase (in the form of higher General Fund revenues) that’s five times larger than population growth (27%/5.8%). In the recent election voters told the politicians to do their job with the money taxpayers have already provided. Republicans listened.

I don’t know about you, but I come to each legislative session with a certain frame-of-reference. Students in bioethics are taught, “First, do no harm” (echoes of the Hippocratic Oath). That’s also a pretty good place for legislators to start. If I can put it another way for us, “First, do no harm to life, or liberty, or the promotion of justice, mercy and prosperity.”
One area where we’re not prospering is education. There are many great teachers and schools in Colorado. And every year we’re spending more on them.

Almost 37% of the state’s General Fund went to public education in 2018-19.

According to recent audited figures from the Department of Education (2017-18) Colorado school districts collect nearly $14,000 per student on average from all sources.

That works out to $322,000 a year for a class of 23 students (and $3.86 million for their 1st-to-12th grade experience). That’s a lot of money by anyone’s reckoning.

But many parents know something’s not right.

For example, when it comes to high school science, fewer than 11% of black and Hispanic students “met or exceeded expectations” on the 2018 standardized test (CMAS), while a paltry 35% of white students did. That’s not right.

8.4% and 9.1% of fourth grade black and Hispanic students (respectively) “met or exceeded expectations” on the 2018 CMAS Social Studies exam, yet on the 7th grade test, the scores of these groups were 4.5% and 5.3%. In other words, scores got about 50% worse between fourth and seventh grade. That’s not right.

You might have noticed I provided results from 2018. The results from 2019 are worse. That’s not right.

Our problem isn’t a lack of money. We’re spending more than ever.

It’s a lack of imagination when it comes to offering parents and students more choice in education; when it comes to setting the right priorities, when it comes to putting our students first. We need to make it right.

Some of that is the legislature’s fault – we pass laws that require more administrators, when what we really need are more and better teachers. By law we can’t set their salaries, but we can provide school districts more discretion to put more money into classrooms.

It’s amazing to me that in a society where we can choose whether to shop online or in stores, can choose from several versions of iPhones, or Galaxies, or whatever, where we have choices about how to receive news, where to watch movies, and a host of other things. We still have people that want to limit our choices in education.

That’s not the way forward.

It’s no secret that children in urban environments face particular challenges when it comes to education. It’s also no secret that a great teacher, an effective teacher, can make a huge difference in the lives of those children. Whether it’s a gift or a calling, the work they do is important. Far too often these teachers are undervalued, and leave. And their students are the ones to suffer. For that reason, I’ll be supporting an education bill to provide a hefty financial supplement to insure that great teachers, doing great work among the under served, are appreciated and rewarded. We need their service.
For years teachers have paid for things like notebooks and pens for students out of their own pockets; this year we’ll support a bill to cover those costs.

We’ll give rural and underperforming districts more options to create a better future for themselves, one that puts students first.

And we’ll support parents by making the school rating system more transparent for them.

The vast majority of our caucus has signed up for education bills this year with a twist: to give parents and their students more choice, to prioritize spending and make better choices for our children. To put students and their families first. These are the values Coloradans support because they know our children will benefit.

Providing more education choice for students and their parents and guardians, and having better spending priorities will not only benefit students, but also our freedom and our democratic process. The ignorant are easily misled. We rely on an educated people, a genuinely educated people.

When it comes to business, people should know that we don’t regard business as the enemy of the people. Businesses are the employers of the people. Businesses are the people. And so we don’t believe it’s the role of government to pick winners and losers, to take from one group, punish its success, and give to others while calling it ‘compassion’ and claiming the middleman is “compassionate.”

That approach divides people. It hurts everyone. It divides people into oppressors and victims, when really, we’re all in this together.

Last year, we saw a particularly bad example of one-sided legislation along these lines.

The Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission has slashed well approvals by 57%, and permits by 58%. Haliburton has announced layoffs, and Petroshare filed for bankruptcy citing changes in our laws. Many other companies are struggling. Meanwhile, outlook for the state economy dropped from 63.4 in third quarter 2018 to 49.6 for third quarter 2019 according to the Denver Business Journal, with business leaders citing the new environmental legislation.

So what happens when a man or woman loses a good-paying job as a result? Is a child supposed to be consoled that they’ve helped save the world when mom or dad can’t pay the mortgage? When they’re forced to leave friends and relocate to another city or state?

Bad policies have real-world consequences. People get hurt. Families get hurt. It’s all so avoidable if we’d just remember, “do no harm.”

When opportunities arise for us to work with Democrats to pass legislation that is good for Colorado and all its people, we’ll do it. We’re not afraid of working with the other side and giving credit where credit’s due.

But when bad laws are proposed, when life and liberty and justice are threatened – we’ll stand up and fight. When we see a legislative car accident coming, when we see policy that’s been tried and failed in Colorado or somewhere else, we’ll try to stop it.

Of course it won’t be easy. The average citizen doesn’t realize that for the past 20 years the left has assembled an enormous collection of special interest groups that owe their very existence to the money that Democrats send their way in the form of government grants and the like. The groups have their websites and committee witnesses, and most of the public doesn’t understand where these people come from or how they get paid.

But I ask myself, what about the average man and the average woman? We are committed to be their voice and to fight for their values. And that’s what we’ll do this session.

If the rights of parents to safeguard and make decisions about their young child’s healthcare are threatened, as they were last year over vaccines, we’ll fight it.

The parents of these children recognize the helpful role played by the Governor in these debates, we hope it will continue.

If the rights of parents to supervise the sex education of their children are threatened, as they were last year, we’ll fight it.

If the rights of Coloradans to protect their children against criminals with force are threatened by irresponsible or unworkable new gun laws, we’ll fight them.

If a new payroll tax is imposed under the guise of a “fee” to establish a state ‘family leave’ bureaucracy, we’ll fight it.

If free market reforms to healthcare are traded-in for a new, expensive state version of Obamacare, we’ll fight it.

And if families and the poor are forced to pay higher utility costs, more for the vehicles they need and use, and suffer under new environmental regulations based on the flawed vision of Climate Alarmists, we will fight it.

A lot of what’s done here is done under the label of “compassion.” I use the word myself. But the fact is, the people of our state are compassionate. They give millions to charities to feed the poor, house the homeless, educate children, help those with addictions and build up faith communities. In addition to the millions they give to charities, Coloradans also enable the state government to care for the least among us, those who cannot care for themselves. For example, every year taxpayers support families with disabled children. It costs tens of thousands of dollars per family, but it’s the right thing to do. It’s the compassionate thing to do.

But calling something “compassionate” doesn’t make it so.

It’s no compassion to underwrite the slow-motion suicide of our fellow citizens with safe injection sites. Are you kidding me?

And it’s no compassion to endanger Americans by shielding violent alien criminals from federal law. Are you kidding me?
It would be “compassionate,” or at least very nice, to improve our roads and bridges. To shorten commutes. To give people access to attainable housing outside expensive and sometimes dangerous metro areas. Governor Polis says he’ll spend $550 million from the General Fund on Transportation. Republicans will gladly work with him on this because it will help everybody. But if Governor Polis can’t get Democrat legislators to support his agenda, or if they propose some bait-and-switch scheme or the sort of new taxes that voters have repeatedly rejected, all Coloradans will suffer.

Let me conclude with this. In this House, we are committed not merely to political outcomes, but to a process. A process designed to encourage debate and discovery. A process that involves personal relationships – the very opposite of the name-calling we see elsewhere. It’s a place where a man or woman’s word is their bond.

I appreciate that while Madam Speaker and I don’t often see eye-to-eye, we can look each other in the eye. The Majority Leader and I, though we don’t always see eye-to-eye (mainly because he’s about 2 feet taller than me) … can look each other in the eye. It is good for this House, and the people, when leaders are true to their word.

And so I have a suggestion for this session. Above all, “do no harm.” In all we do, let’s protect life, let’s preserve freedom, and let’s promote its benefits for all the people of Colorado. May God bless this House, and this Great State. Thank you.

Representative Garnett moved that the remarks of Speaker Becker and Minority Leader Neville be printed in the House Journal. There being no objection, the remarks are printed.

ADDRESS BY THE HONORABLE
Jared Polis

Good morning everyone.

And a good morning to everyone.

Speaker Becker,
Leader Holbert,
Leader Neville,
Members of the General Assembly from across our great state,
Lieutenant Governor Primavera,
Southern Ute Indian Tribal Chairman Christine Sage,
Ute Mountain Ute Tribe Chairman Manuel Heart,
Councilman Archie House Jr.,
Attorney General Phil Weiser,
Secretary of State Griswold,
Treasurer Young,
Members of the State Board of Education,
Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court,
Aurora Mayor Coffman
Members of the Cabinet,
Our dedicated First Gentleman Marlon Reis
Thank you all for gathering here this morning.

Before we begin, I want to offer my gratitude to the so many people whose tireless dedication to our safety allows us to gather here today and keeps Coloradans safe: the members of our military serving across Colorado and abroad, and our law enforcement officers, and first responders.

They deserve our deepest thanks.

I would also like to honor the memory of those brave Colorado service members and first responders who made the ultimate sacrifice to keep us safe.
Some of their families are in the audience today. I would like to ask them to stand, so we can acknowledge the sacrifice that those families have made.
We also had a recent loss in this chamber. I want to offer my condolences to the family of the late Representative Kimmi Lewis, who we know represented farmers, and ranchers and her Eastern Plains and Southern Colorado constituents with passionate resolve, and we want to express our dear condolences to the family of Kimmi Lewis.

And finally, we wish a speedy recovery to another of our own, Senator Lois Court. Her determination, her experience, her quick wit will be sorely missed at the Capitol.

And finally, as she begins her last year as Speaker, I want to give a special thank you to Speaker KC Becker for her leadership of this chamber. Her passionate dedication to our people and our planet is truly unmatched.

We know that we are blessed to live in a place as special and amazing as Colorado.

Our state’s breathtaking natural beauty, our strong economy, our optimistic and forward-thinking people, truly make Colorado the envy of the nation, and attract people from all over the world who want to visit us, and sometimes move here, to join us in enjoying that amazing Colorado Way of Life.

That doesn’t happen by accident.

This success happens because for decades, Coloradans from across the continental divide, across the political divide, have worked together in good faith to find common ground, to protect what keeps Colorado special, and to build an even better state.

I am grateful that the men and women in this building are continuing in that tradition.

Working together last year, we lowered health care costs, we lowered taxes for small businesses, we provided more affordable housing, we made the largest ever state investment in transportation, and delivered free Full Day Kindergarten for all!

That’s a pretty darn good start for this General Assembly. On issue after issue, the good-faith and thoughtful and bipartisan work of the members of this chamber really helped move our state forward.

We should be proud that 95% of the bills that I signed into law last year were passed with Republican and Democratic votes.

We shouldn’t take for granted this cooperative spirit. Instead, we should work to strengthen it.

Because the notion that we’re all in this together is a much better approach to solving problems than ever trying to go it alone.

When we realize that our fates are interconnected, and that we are better together, we can solve any problem, however large, that we encounter.

And so we stand here today on the cusp of a new decade: it’s the 2020s — The future! — with a renewed spirit to build on the progress that we have made.
Colorado does a lot of things well — and we need to keep doing those things well.

After all, Mikaela Shiffrin didn’t just hang up her skis after becoming the best women’s skier of her generation!

And I don’t think Mallory Pugh or Lindsay Horan stopped showing up to practice after the U.S. Women’s National Team won the World Cup!

No — they continued to strive for greatness, which is really what we all must do.

Our state has seen tremendous gains in jobs and economic growth, in population and tourism, in national and international prestige.

And yet when I travel around our state and listen to constituents, and I’m sure it’s the same with you and your constituents, it’s clear folks still feel that they’re on an economic treadmill where paychecks just don’t keep up with the increasing cost of living.

From student loans to health care costs to renter mortgage, Coloradans feel like they are running faster and faster, but often not getting ahead.

Too many of our fellow Coloradans are anxious that just one hardship — a job loss, a medical emergency, a recession, a natural disaster, or an unforeseen challenge — could send them into a financial tailspin.

There is a generation of older Coloradans who wonder when or even if they will be able to retire with dignity.

And there is a generation of younger people, saddled with student debt and threatened by the climate crisis, who fear for their future and the world that they’ll inherit.

And Coloradans wondering, in this ever-changing modern economy, how to get ahead financially while also finding the time to enjoy the things that make life worth living: whether it’s a day out exploring our beautiful public lands, or taking a family vacation, or just making it home in time to go to your kids’ soccer game. Just a chance to get off that treadmill for a little while.

Well, with all due respect to the exercise equipment industry, we don’t prefer treadmills in Colorado.

We prefer trails.

We love and enjoy the climb; striving to reach the peak, identifying the next peak, and doing it all over again, always reaching to achieve more.

Stagnation just isn’t in our DNA. When a challenge arises, we get moving.

I mean why do you think I wear my blue sneakers everywhere, right?

This is who we are. It’s why we are so successful.

And so it is our job as public officials to build a state that allows Coloradans to reach the mountaintop and the next mountaintop — by saving families money, by protecting our natural wonders that grace every corner of our state, by widening the pathway to prosperity, instead of leaving too many folks feeling like they’re just running in place.

And that pathway to prosperity often begins with a great education.

Last year at this podium, I asked you to join me in taking the bold step of providing free full-day kindergarten for every kid in Colorado.

And you delivered!

The Lieutenant Governor’s granddaughter will be appreciating that soon, she is with us today.

Thanks to parents, and advocates, and teachers, and dedicated legislators like Representatives Jim Wilson and Barbara McLachlan, and Senators Rhonda Fields and Senator Jeff Bridges, members of the JBC, a unanimous vote in the Senate, a supermajority in the House, we took a really important step to improve our kids’ education, to save families money, and to boost our economy.

And I want to show you what that means. I want to introduce you to someone in the audience today.

Samantha Hosmer, who is seated in the gallery — if you could rise, Samantha — is a mother of two from Erie, she had to leave her job in 2014 to care for a newborn daughter Fiona and her son Logan, who needs extra support for social and emotional challenges.

And this past Fall, when it came time to enroll Fiona in Kindergarten, Samantha and her husband knew that a full day at school was important, but it wasn’t something that they could afford.

Thanks to your work on free full-day kindergarten, Fiona is getting that full day of instruction, Samantha’s family is not only saving over $300 a month, but she was also able to return to full-time work as a special ed paraprofessional, able to support her family and two children with more earnings. Thank you, Samantha.

And now it’s time to continue that work.

Studies show that preschool is every bit as important and critical for a child’s development as kindergarten.

It’s not that parents don’t want their kids in preschool — It’s that too many parents can’t afford it.

Last year we were thrilled to work with you to fund 5,100 additional slots for at-risk children in the Colorado Preschool Program.

And in my budget this year, we’re proposing to help an additional 6,000 children attend preschool, which for the first time will bring coverage to half of all eligible Colorado families.

We should feel good about reaching this milestone. But it has taken more than three decades to get half the job done. We know we must do better, which is why over my first term I’m committed to achieving universal access to quality preschool for 4-year-olds by the end of my first term.

And early childhood education isn’t just about giving our kids a great start in life, although, truly, that is where we start. Every dollar invested in high-quality preschool produces a seven dollar return on investment to taxpayers with higher earnings, lowers special education needs, less dependency on public assistance, and lower crime rates.

This isn’t just the right thing to do, it’s really the smart thing to do. And it’s time to get it done.

In addition to making those essential investments in early childhood education, we also worked with you to address other areas of our K-12 education last year.

We expanded loan forgiveness for rural educators to help address our rural teacher shortage, expanded dropout prevention programs to end the school-to-prison pipeline.

Last year, we reduced the Budget Stabilization Factor — the debt owed to our schools — by $100 million, and this year we’re calling for an additional $52 million.

And while we’re at it, our teachers, of course one of the most important professions in our society, shouldn’t have to work a 2nd or 3rd job just to make ends meet.

We know that under Colorado’s system of local control, individual districts set teacher salaries. But when I speak with school leaders, they want to pay teachers better.

But because of our fiscal rules, the state spends too much money backfilling some of the wealthiest districts not only in the state, but in the country.

And that is truly at the root of our school funding issues. Together, we can fix this systemic problem and finally raise pay for our hardworking educators.

Our work on education is incredibly important. But we can’t fulfill our promise of a better future for our kids if we don’t do a better job of keeping them safe when they walk through the schoolhouse door.

One of the most difficult days of my administration personally, for our state of Colorado, was responding to the STEM school shooting in Highlands Ranch. Where eight students were injured, and Kendrick Castillo lost his life heroically preventing more bloodshed.

Kendrick’s parents, John and Maria, are with us today and I want to show our acknowledgment for the heroism of their son. I will never forget visiting with them shortly after the STEM tragedy. John told me how he would spend every weekend together hunting, building robotics, creating memories. He told me Kendrick was more than just his only son — but was his best friend.

And like millions of parents across our state, and many of us here our parents, I imagined myself in their shoes. And I know that we all did. The disbelief. The devastation. The anger. And the pain.
The despair of losing a child to senseless violence is a weight that too many parents have been forced to bear for too long.

And I want to commend the school safety interim committee for their bipartisan work on this important issue.

And I look forward to working with all of you to do more to keep our kids safer, because no parent should ever have to go through what John and Maria have gone through.

Every child deserves a safe opportunity to learn, to make friends, to create memories, and to grow up and graduate, and move on to a successful life. Thank you for joining us in recognition of your tragic sacrifice John and Maria Castillo.

Most of the time, but not all of the time, that path to success involves some higher education degree — whether that’s a work certificate, a credential, a two-year degree, a four-year degree, an industry-recognized certificate, an apprenticeship.

But rising costs are putting higher education out of reach for too many Coloradans. And the burden of student debt isn’t only holding back an entire generation of young people from buying a home or starting families — but it’s holding back our economy as a whole.

So last year we took action working with you to increase the General Fund investment in higher education by a historic 13%, an increase that we are building on in our new budget.

Together we expanded concurrent enrollment and dual programs so students can spend less time and less money getting the degree they need to succeed.

And thanks to new legislation last year, we are putting $100 into a college savings account for every single Colorado child born or adopted beginning January 1st of this year.

I want to take a moment to congratulate Jorge Esteban Herrera-Delgado, born at 12:07 a.m. on New Year’s Day in Montrose, and Cecily DiCerbo, born at 12:13 a.m. in Summit County. The first two beneficiaries of this new program!

I also want to congratulate the authors of that proposal — Senate Majority Leader Steve Fenberg, a new dad himself who narrowly missed the deadline for college saving account, and Leslie Herod — and I want to highlight the next affordability effort they are spearheading called “Get On Your Feet” loan forgiveness plan. A program would provide debt relief to Coloradans who graduate from 2- or 4-year degree and our on an income-based repayment program, helping them transition into the workforce often when the need is the greatest.

This work isn’t just about helping student borrowers get out of the hole — it’s about growing the economy for everyone.

After graduation day, when the caps and gowns are hanging in the closet, and the diplomas are hanging on the wall, graduates deserve an economy that’s brimming with opportunity to earn a good living.
We need to keep our economy strong, but also — we need to make sure our economy works for everyone.

And when I say everyone, that means everyone.

Because in Colorado, we believe your future shouldn’t be pre-determined by the color of your skin, or your parents’ income, or your religion, or your age, or your disability status, or where you live in our great state, or where you were born, or who you love, or your gender identity. We mean in a Colorado For All and that means everybody.

And that’s why I was proud to work with you and sign a bill guaranteeing that men and women get paid the same wage for the same work.

It’s why we are proud to support our minority-, women-, and veteran-owned businesses.

It’s why we were excited to open the doors of our brand-new veterans One Source center in Grand Junction several months ago, to increase pay for some of our brave National Guard service members.

We just deploy 150 to the Balkans last week. I was able to join them in saying farewell to their families for about ten months as they represent Colorado proudly on their peacekeeping work on the Balkans.

That’s also why our administration has expanded apprenticeships to support the next generation of workers.

It’s why we passed bipartisan criminal justice reform measures that help expand opportunities, saving taxpayers money, and I know that I look forward to continue working with you on vital pre-trial reforms to build on that progress.

And we’re proud in Colorado to continue supporting our aerospace industry that bolsters our national defense and creates good, high-paying jobs.

We’re honored to work with tribal leadership, including those represented here today, to expand opportunities in our Native communities.

It’s also why we’re investing in every corner of our state: enhancing rural economic development, helping our rural hospitals thrive, investing in rural broadband, supporting the next generation of farmers and ranchers, and keeping Colorado the number one state in the nation for industrial hemp.

We also look forward to working with you to help folks retire with dignity, and I’m proud to join you in supporting the Colorado Secure Savings Plan Board recommendations, which Treasurer Dave Young has been leading, to help more Coloradans save for a secure retirement.

And finally, in the face of unprecedented hostility from this White House toward our immigrant and refugee communities, we say loudly and proudly that in Colorado we stand with DREAMers and refugees.

I was proud to appoint Marissa Molina, the first DREAMer in Colorado history to serve on a state board or commission, to the board of Metropolitan State University, and I’d like to take a moment to recognize Marissa, who is here today. Marissa.
In Colorado, we still need the federal government to pass comprehensive, bipartisan immigration reform, and I urge the Supreme Court to do the right thing by the DREAMers.

But in the meantime, we should acknowledge how aspiring Americans like Marissa are working today to make Colorado even better.

In Colorado, we don’t build walls of exclusion — we build ladders of opportunity for everybody.

But of course, opportunity is only one side of the coin.

The other side is affordability. And as our state has grown, so has the cost of living.

The common thread in our work is to save Coloradans money — whether that’s on education, on health care, on utility bills, on housing — and we should do more to save Coloradans money on their taxes too.

This year, due to a strong economy and a bipartisan deal from 2005, every Coloradan will receive real tax relief as our state income taxes goes down to a historic low of 4.5%. And that’s for all taxpayers, that's for individuals, for corporations, and for every small business in our state.

In addition last session, we delivered a tax cut for 144,000 small businesses, our retailers, or mom and pop shops, by cutting wasteful subsidies to big box retailers, and we still had money left over to invest in affordable housing and improving health care.

I am very enthusiastic about working with you to deliver permanent income tax relief, and we should continue down this path of eliminating tax breaks for special interests so that we can lower the rates for everyone without reducing state revenue.

A broader base taxed at a lower rate will boost economic growth with the ancillary benefit of preventing the corrosive influence of crony capitalism.

In the 1960s, President Kennedy delivered a historic tax cut, saying the tax system, "exerts too heavy a drag on growth... siphons out... too large a share of...purchasing power...[and] reduces the financial incentives for personal effort, investment, and risk-taking."

And in 2010, President Obama directed his economic team towards, “closing loopholes and simplifying income taxes for corporations and individuals... to rid the code of its complex buildup of deductions, credits and exemptions, thereby broadening the base of taxes collected and allowing for lower rates."

Now first to our credit, our state tax system is much better than the federal one, so let’s start with some credit where it’s due.

But we also know that it’s not just Democrats like JFK and Obama who want to save you money on taxes. I think I might have heard a thing or two from my Republican friends and our colleagues about it as well.
So in the spirit of collaboration, I am proud to announce today that we will be creating a bipartisan study group to work on making our tax code more fair by looking at ways to broaden the base and lower the rate by the end of my first term, and we look forward to working with you to make that happen. Broadening the base and lowering the rate will lead to higher wages, and make balancing the family budget that much easier.

In the meantime, I certainly look forward to working with you on other creative ways that we can provide tax relief and invest in roads and schools.

And as we work to broaden our base and lower the rates, we also need to focus fiscally for saving more for a rainy day.

Last year I asked the legislature to put away an additional $180 million into savings to replenish what was spent in the Great Recession, but only an additional $40 million was placed in reserve. So this year I urge you to replenish our reserves and recessionary tools with an additional $118 million to bring us in line with the national average and better prepare us for a future downturn, whenever it happens.

And I want to commend my cabinet and Budget Director for taking the lead on this by finding $73 million in savings, in General Fund savings, $238 million in savings overall, to make sure taxpayers are getting the biggest bang for their buck.

We’re also working with Treasurer Young on a legislative package that will provide future Legislatures and Governors with the tools to rebuild and replenish our coffers as a recovery is happening.

With so many pressing needs today, putting money in reserves is always a hard ask, I get that, but we truly have an obligation to save during good times like these so that we can weather the next storm whenever it comes.

At the end of the day, there is one issue, that from family budgets, and worries, and costs, continues to reign over so many others when it comes to affordability: and that’s the high cost of health care.

I’m sure you’ve heard a thing or two about from your constituents, many of you have lived that experience yourself.

Americans still pay twice as much for health care than those living in other developed nations, and for most of us it’s our biggest expense after rent or mortgage.

Nearly one in five Coloradans forego health care because of the cost.

One in three can’t afford their prescription drugs they need, often leading to higher costs over time.

And 13% of Americans — 1 out of 8 who live in this country — said they knew someone who died because they could not afford treatment.

This must change.
And it is starting to change for the better, thanks to your bipartisan work — and the tremendous work of our Lieutenant Governor Dianne Primavera who heads up our Office of Saving People Money on Health Care.

Last session, we passed historic bipartisan legislation to tackle surprise out-of-network billing, enact new transparency requirements for hospitals, allow for the importation of cheaper prescription drugs from Canada.

And perhaps the biggest accomplishment in health care last year was our reinsurance program — a bipartisan effort led by Representatives Julie McCloskie and Janice Rich and Senators Kerry Donovan and Bob Rankin.

Thanks to reinsurance, health care rates on the individual market have gone down this year by an average of 20%!

And the savings are even higher where Coloradans were getting ripped off the worst in the Eastern Plains, and Southern Colorado, and the Western Slope!

And we should be proud of this work. But a lot of the time, the best ideas don’t come from inside this building — they come directly from our communities.

And I want to give you another example of what’s happening in health care and how our working is helping deliver savings, working with you. In Summit County, the Peak Health Alliance pools individuals and employers together, and uses their combined purchasing power to negotiate down the prices with hospitals to directly save consumers money. Our Division of Insurance is already working with the Colorado Business Group on Health to help replicate and expand this successful consumer purchasing model in Grand, Eagle, Archuleta, Dolores, La Plata, Montezuma and San Juan counties, and I know there is more to come.

I want to introduce you to someone that our policies directly helped who saw first hand how broken our system is and the decisions we make in this building can fix it.

Glenn Brady is a small business owner in Summit County. Glenn is a single father because his wife Kelly tragically passed away from cancer in 2018, leaving a hole in their family, with his three young daughters who I met just before this speech. But as if the loss of a loved one wasn’t enough, the Bradys were hit with hundreds of thousands of dollars in medical debt.

Glenn was also frustrated by the high cost of insurance for himself and his three daughters, Luci, Ava, and Adelaide. But thanks to the bipartisan reinsurance program that we passed last year, and the Peak Health Alliance, Glenn is saving $7,000 a year on the very same health insurance plan he had last year. Glenn.

Before this he was telling me he might’ve even saved a little bit more than $7,000 as he was tallying it up. And what that means, because healthcare is something, you have three daughters, you’re a single parent, you simply can’t go without. And to be able to afford that and also make sure that he’s able to honor the promises that he made to his late wife Kelly, that his kids would have the best education and tutoring, and braces, and her death wouldn’t interrupt their kids activities or lives.

The savings Glenn has realized are helping to pay for those things that Kelly wanted for her kids and fulfill the promises he made to Kelly, and her final wishes, and ensure that their wonderful three daughters grow up with all of the opportunities we would want for our own sons and daughters. Thank you Glenn.

The Reinsurance is delivering real savings, but the peace of mind of having health coverage is truly priceless. We are asking in our budget for a modest $18 million investment in reinsurance to continue to protect these savings for Glenn and hundreds of thousands of Coloradans for another year.

We know that health care costs won’t magically go down on their own. We all need to work on it. We need good ideas from the left, the right, the center, from everywhere.

This year I’m proud to support legislation to require prescription drug price transparency, and a proposal to provide Coloradans a public option to increase freedom and choice in the healthcare marketplace.

I want to thank Senator Donovan, Representative Dylan Roberts, Representatives Marc Catlin for their leadership on launching this important concept.

It’s really simple market economics. When you have more choices as a consumer, companies have to compete for your business, which means lower prices.

We estimate that a public option will save Coloradans an additional 9-18% on their individual premiums.

Furthermore, the public option will empower folks in the 22 Colorado counties where there is currently only one insurer, and no choice.

We know, you might have heard, that there are powerful special interests with a stake in preserving the status quo.

Colorado happens to have the 2nd highest hospital profit margin in the country.

And Front Range hospitals with over $2 billion dollars in profits in 2018, let me say that again $2 billion dollars in profits in a single year, are already using some of those profits from overcharging patients to run ads against legislation that would save families money.

We won’t let that work.

Just this year, we’re also seeing pharmaceutical drugs coming to market with a price tag of over $2 million for a single dose.

And of course those folks are going to fight legislation that will bring some sanity to the pricing. I get that.

But we don’t represent the special interests — we represent the people. And the people are crying out for relief on high health care costs. We can and we will do better.
Another way we can reduce health costs and ensure a healthier population is by standing up to Big Tobacco to reduce underage smoking and teenage vaping and address our highest-in-the-nation teenage vaping rate. And we look forward to working with you to make progress on that issue.

Reducing costs on our health care will also help us tackle one of our most pressing problems — our state’s behavioral, mental health, and addiction crisis.

Last year, thanks to your help, I appointed a Behavioral Health Task Force to conduct a top-to-bottom review of Colorado’s behavioral health system and author a strategic plan for reform by June of this year.

Our state already spends $1.4 billion on mental and behavioral health, we need to make our system patient-centric and more efficient so we can help more people when they need it.

I want to thank CDHS Director Michele Barnes, Representatives Lois Landgraf, and Tracy Kraft-Tharp, and Dafna Michaelson Jenet for their dedication and work on behavioral health, as well as Senator Brittany Pettersen and Rep. Chris Kennedy and the members of the Opioid Study Committee for all of their strong work. I look forward to collaborating with all of you on desperately-needed reforms for behavioral health.

And, by the way, often those reforms can save money. It’s a frustration of many hospitals and providers that they don’t have adequate step-down facilities that may not only incur a lower billing rate, but are more appropriate to deliver a better patient outcome for folks who should not necessarily be hospitalized, but need a kind of step down facility treatment.

And finally, we want to work with you to find a way to enact paid family and medical leave for more Coloradans. The Federal Family and Medical Leave Act allows for unpaid leave, but that often forces families to choose between getting a paycheck and caring for a newborn child, an aging parent, or themselves. And for many who don’t have months of rent or mortgage saved up that’s not a real choice.

I’m hopeful that together we can construct a unique Colorado solution that provides paid time off to many more Coloradans as soon as possible, without straining state resources or forcing taxpayers to bear the financial risk.

I know that it is no easy task. You know one of my favorite sayings is “if it was easy, it would’ve been done already.” We’re not left with the easy things to do, we’re left with the hard ones. It’s going to take negotiations and compromise to get it done.

But I am committed to putting in the hard work, and in fact, let’s lead by example in the next fiscal year by extending this benefit to our exceptional state employees who make Colorado run.

We need to plan not only for our own health and well-being, but for our state’s.

And true leadership is planting trees knowing that we may not live long enough to enjoy the shade of.

Previous generations were wise enough to understand that there are some things that you cannot replace. That once they are gone, they are gone.
Of course, I’m talking about protecting our iconic public lands and wild areas and what keeps Colorado special — whether it’s the ground under our feet, the water we drink, the air we breathe — really the most essential parts of what it means to be a Coloradan.

Our majestic lands define our state and also power our economy by making us an international destination for tourism and for outdoor recreation.

But like so many things in our state, growth threatens our enjoyment, and our benefit, from some of our natural treasures.

In a very real sense, we are loving some of our public lands to death.

Admissions to state parks have skyrocketed, which is great, but that means there is more need for upgraded trails, bathrooms, parking and facilities, and it’s urgent.

So we are asking the Legislature for a one-time infusion from the General Fund to make important capacity improvements across our State parks system.

This money will also go towards opening our newest state park at Fishers Peak!

I was delighted to stand with Senate President Garcia, Senator Crowder, JBC Chair Esgar as we announced this new, spectacular state park that will run from near Trinidad all the way to the New Mexico border, and will reap enormous benefits for our economy and Southern Colorado residents.

We know our state’s growth also affects our ever-scarce water supply.

I was glad to see Prop DD — led by House Majority Leader Alec Garnett and House Minority Leader Patrick Neville and Senators Kerry Donovan and John Cooke — pass at the ballot box. Congratulations.

In addition to the future revenues that we'll derive from DD, I've also called for another $10 million investment in the Colorado Water Plan and look forward to meeting those commitments.

As we’ve all noticed, our growth isn’t just impacting our public lands and our water — it’s also making our roads and bridges more congested, less safe. All of us are spending more time sitting in traffic, which means less and less time with our loved ones and less economic productivity.

Thanks to good-faith bipartisan work, the state was able to make a historic multi-year investment in transportation infrastructure.

My administration held listening sessions in every county in the state to hear directly from folks about their priorities, and we’ve worked to develop a plan to use our precious resources in the most effective ways that we can: relieving congestion on key choke points on Highway 25 and Highway 70, making busy streets in our cities move quicker, and making the biggest investment in rural roads in modern Colorado history.

But the General Fund alone cannot meet our state's needs, and voters have rejected three straight ballot measures in the last two years to fund roads, even while our existing revenue source — the fuel tax — is bringing in less and less at a time when our needs are growing. Thus Coloradans look to us in this building to think big and do more to fund our roads.

As we look towards a future where new users and changing technology that needs to pay its fair share, we should also give local jurisdictions and CDOT more flexibility around working together on funding regional projects.

But we cannot create a system that excludes rural Colorado. We need to deliver for everyone in our state, and it’s going to take all of us in this room working together, not playing politics, to get it done and solve it.

By investing in our infrastructure and providing more affordable and convenient transportation options, we can relieve traffic congestion, reduce harmful emissions that blacken our skies, and also boost our entire economy.

Reducing traffic and getting people places quicker also helps us address our air quality and carbon emissions. When it comes to the climate, it is an issue that impacts all of us in this chamber, everyone of our constituents, and indeed every person on the face of the Earth.

In the western United States, we of course are seeing firsthand how a changing climate is already impacting our water supply, our outdoor recreation industry, our farming and ranching communities, and our taxpayers.

It is causing more frequent, more devastating, and more expensive natural disasters.

Thirteen of the largest fires in Colorado’s recorded history have occurred since 2010.

All 20 have occurred since 2000.

I want to commend the brave Colorado firefighters who are heading to Australia right now to do their part in helping contain one of the worst wildfires in the history of civilization.

This is a truly global crisis. And we are never going to solve air quality or climate issues if everyone looks at the person next to them and says, “you do something about the climate.”

If we want to preserve our way of life for future generations, then we all need to lead on clean air and climate.

And in fact, the states and counties that embrace the renewable energy future will reap the economic benefits.

That’s why we have taken bold action to put us on the path to achieving 100% renewable energy by 2040.

But the truth is that due to the price reductions and technological advances, the shift towards renewable energy is happening, and is being driven by the private sector that sees a profitable future in renewable energy.

Just this morning, Tri-State and its members announced that they will be replacing their remaining coal power in the state of Colorado with thousands of megawatts of cheaper and cleaner renewable energy sources by 2030. This announcement will result in a 90% reduction in the utilities’ in-state greenhouse gas emissions.

This transition includes expanded energy efficiency programs and a significant investment in electric vehicle charging stations across rural Colorado.

We're also excited to work with Tri-State to allow its 17 member co-ops across the state to help make sure they are empowered to help generate more renewable energy locally. We want communities to have the option of reaping the benefits of clean, low-cost local energy generation, and with talks underway, we're hopeful that significantly more local flexibility in Tri-State members will be finalized by April of this year.

This transition will mean lower energy costs, more renewable energy jobs, it means reduced air pollution. It is a bold step to protect the future of the planet and prepare Colorado to succeed in the future.

But we need to recognize the disruption caused to workers, families, and communities that are impacted by the private sector’s turn away from coal. That’s why I intend to work with utilities including Tri-State and our new Office of Just Transition to expand opportunities in renewable energy and help ensure that no worker and no community is left behind.

We’re confident that this transition works because it’s happening right now.

Here is an example in Pueblo. The EVRAZ steel plant uses a lot of energy, and EVRAZ had to find a cheaper power source to stay competitive and to stay in Pueblo.

So, working with Xcel Energy, they are building the largest behind-the-meter solar project in American history to power the steel plant, creating hundreds of solar jobs, keeping thousands of steel manufacturing jobs in Pueblo, reducing costs, and helping to save our way of life — all at the same time.

This is what our renewable energy future looks like. It is about innovation, about growing jobs, growing opportunity, saving people money, and doing our part to reduce air pollution in the process.

And we don’t have any time to waste.

Those of you who know me well know that I’m a big science fiction fan.

Last year we had a Spiderman quote. This year, it’s not Star Wars — it’s Lord of the Rings.

In the first part of the trilogy, Frodo, the protagonist, laments that he must carry this awesome burden of saving the world from a growing darkness.

Gandalf, his guide, responds with a charge that I think really applies to all of us here in this chamber today:

“All we have to decide is what to do with the time that is given to us.”

Every lawmaker here — myself included — is term-limited.

What do we want our legacy to be?
When our great-grandchildren open their history books, what do we want them to read about us in our time?

Will it say that we were too scared to tackle the big issues?

That we were too timid to act on evidence right under our noses?

That we were perhaps too cynical to even try?

Or will we be remembered as the generation that rose to the challenge of our time?

That looked beyond the daily news cycle or the next election and found a way to work together to forge a brighter future, and that lived up to the expectations of our children and our grandchildren, whose future we hold in our hands.

We have the power to do the right thing. All we need is the courage to use it.

Colorado has always been a state of trailblazers, of frontiersmen and women. Ours is a state of can-do people and can-do attitude.

We don’t back down from a challenge, and we don’t quit when the going gets tough.

The state of our state is strong. It is forward-thinking. It is dynamic. It is bold. It is courageous.

STATE, VETERANS, & MILITARY AFFAIRS

After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the following:

HB20-1031 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee of the Whole with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:
(a) State holidays are intended to honor prominent figures in United States history and acknowledge other civic events and celebrations in Colorado.
(b) Although Christopher Columbus is recognized as a voyager who arrived in what is now known as the Caribbean Sea, he never traveled to or entered the territory that became the United States. He had no knowledge of or contact with the area now known as the state of Colorado, providing no rationale for a Colorado state holiday in his name. In 1492, he was welcomed by the indigenous Taino people to their homeland on the island of Quiiqueya, which Columbus renamed Hispaniola. Fifty years later, the Taino people had been nearly exterminated by Columbus and his successors.
(c) Frances Xavier Cabrini was a humanitarian champion of immigrants and children in the United States. Cabrini first came to Colorado in 1902. In 1905, she opened the Queen of Heaven Orphanage for girls in a residence in north Denver.
(d) In her lifetime, Cabrini was responsible for founding sixty-seven institutions, including schools, hospitals, and orphanages throughout the United States and in South and Central America.
(e) In 1909, Cabrini negotiated the purchase of a rural property to serve as a summer camp for the girls living in the orphanage. The land was on the eastern slope of Lookout Mountain in Golden and had no reliable source of water.
(f) During Cabrini's last visit to Colorado in 1912, while staying at the mountain camp, she directed the girls to dig under a specific rock where they found a spring of fresh water. That spring continues to provide water to the property today.

(g) The land upon which Cabrini established her orphanage and camp is the traditional territory and homeland of the Cheyenne, Arapaho, and Ute indigenous nations. Those indigenous peoples, and all indigenous peoples, have a special, sacred relationship with water, similar to that of Cabrini.

(h) Cabrini was naturalized as a United States citizen in October 1909. Recognizing the first Monday in October as Frances Xavier Cabrini Day in recognition of Cabrini's contributions to the state of Colorado creates an opportunity to promote an appreciation, tolerance, and understanding of the different cultures that make up our state.

(2) Therefore, in order to preserve the number of state holidays while commemorating the contributions of Cabrini to Colorado and the United States, the general assembly hereby replaces Columbus day with Frances Xavier Cabrini day as a legal state holiday.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 24-11-101, amend
(1) as follows:

24-11-101. Legal holidays - effect. (1) The following days, viz:
The first day of January, commonly called New Year's day; the third Monday in January, which shall be observed as the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; the third Monday in February, commonly called Washington-Lincoln day; the last Monday in May, commonly called Memorial day; the fourth day of July, commonly called Independence day; the first Monday in September, commonly called Labor day; the second first Monday in October, commonly called Columbus Frances Xavier Cabrini day; the eleventh day of November, commonly called Veterans' day; the fourth Thursday in November, commonly called Thanksgiving day; the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas day; and any day appointed or recommended by the governor of this state or the president of the United States as a day of fasting or prayer or thanksgiving, are hereby declared to be legal holidays and shall, for all purposes whatsoever, as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance and the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, drafts, bank checks, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments and also for the holding of courts, be treated and considered as is the first day of the week commonly called Sunday.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 5-1-301, amend (6)
as follows:

5-1-301. General definitions. In addition to definitions appearing in subsequent articles, as used in this code, unless the context otherwise requires:

(6) "Business day" means any calendar day except Sunday, New Year's day, the third Monday in January observed as the birthday of Dr.
Martin Luther King, Jr., Washington-Lincoln day, Memorial day,
Independence day, Labor day, Columbus Frances Xavier Cabrini day,
Veterans' day, Thanksgiving day, and Christmas day.

SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 6-1-102, amend (2.5)
as follows:

6-1-102. Definitions. As used in this article 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

(2.5) "Business day" means any calendar day except Sunday, New Year's day, the third Monday in January observed as the birthday of Dr.
Martin Luther King, Jr., Washington-Lincoln day, Memorial day,
Independence day, Labor day, Columbus Frances Xavier Cabrini day,
Veterans' day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

SECTION 5. Act subject to petition - effective date. This act takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the day following the expiration of the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general assembly (August 5, 2020, if adjournment sine die is on May 6, 2020); except that, if a referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1 (3) of article V of the state constitution against this act or an item, section, or part of this act within such period, then the act, item, section, or part will not take effect unless approved by the people at the general election to be held in November 2020 and, in such case, will take effect on the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor."

24-4.1-403. Certification forms - signature requirement - limitation on factors for consideration. (1) UPON REQUEST, A CERTIFYING OFFICIAL FROM A CERTIFYING AGENCY SHALL EXECUTE AND SIGN THE CERTIFICATION FORM WHEN IT IS DETERMINED THAT THE VICTIM:

(a) WAS A VICTIM OF QUALIFYING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY; AND

(b) HAS BEEN HELPFUL, IS BEING HELPFUL, OR IS LIKELY TO BE HELPFUL TO THE DETECTION, INVESTIGATION, OR PROSECUTION OF THAT QUALIFYING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY.

(2) (a) FOR PURPOSES OF DETERMINING HELPFULNESS PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (1)(b) OF THIS SECTION, A VICTIM IS HELPFUL, HAS BEEN HELPFUL, OR IS LIKELY TO BE HELPFUL TO THE DETECTION, INVESTIGATION, OR PROSECUTION OF THAT QUALIFYING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY IF THERE IS NO DOCUMENTATION THAT THE VICTIM REFUSED OR FAILED TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE REASONABLY REQUESTED BY LAW ENFORCEMENT.

(b) A CERTIFYING AGENCY’S INABILITY TO COMMUNICATE WITH A VICTIM DUE TO THE VICTIM’S LANGUAGE SHALL NOT BE CONSIDERED A REFUSAL OR FAILURE TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE.

(3) THE CERTIFYING AGENCY SHALL NOT CONSIDER ANY OTHER FACTORS IN DECIDING WHETHER TO SIGN THE CERTIFICATION FORM, EXCEPT THE FACTORS LISTED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION.

(4) IF A CERTIFYING OFFICIAL OR AGENCY SIGNS THE CERTIFICATION FORM, THE OFFICIAL OR AGENCY SHALL RETURN THE SIGNED CERTIFICATION FORM TO THE REQUESTOR, ALONG WITH, FREE OF CHARGE, OFFENSE REPORTS RELATED TO THE CRIMINAL ACTIVITY SUBJECT TO RELEASE BY LAW. THE TIMING OF RELEASE OF SUCH REPORTS FOR OPEN CASES IS SUBJECT TO THE CERTIFYING AGENCY’S DISCRETION.

(5) THE CERTIFYING AGENCY IS NEITHER A SPONSOR NOR A DECISION-MAKER OF THE U VISA. A CERTIFYING OFFICIAL’S COMPLETION OF A CERTIFICATION FORM IS NOT SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE THAT AN APPLICANT FOR A U VISA HAS MET ALL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS AND DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT THE VICTIM WILL RECEIVE A U VISA. IT IS THE EXCLUSIVE RESPONSIBILITY OF FEDERAL IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS TO DETERMINE WHETHER A PERSON IS ELIGIBLE FOR A U VISA. COMPLETION OF A CERTIFICATION FORM BY A CERTIFYING OFFICIAL MERELY VERIFIES FACTUAL INFORMATION RELEVANT FOR FEDERAL IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS TO DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY FOR A U VISA. BY COMPLETING A CERTIFICATION FORM, THE CERTIFYING OFFICIAL ATTESTS THAT THE INFORMATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF THE CERTIFYING OFFICIAL’S KNOWLEDGE.

(6) More than one victim may be identified and provided with certification, depending upon the circumstances.

(7) If a certifying official or agency declines to sign the certification form, the official or agency shall, in writing, notify the requestor of the reason for the denial. The denial notification must contain a detailed explanation of the reason for the denial, consisting of one of the following:

(a) The requestor was not a victim of a qualifying criminal activity;

(b) Lack of helpfulness, including documented instances of failure or refusal to comply with reasonable requests for assistance; or

(c) Lack of jurisdiction over the certification form request due to the certifying agency not having been involved in the detection, investigation, or prosecution of the qualifying criminal activity.

(8) Upon receiving notice that a request for a certification form pursuant to this section is denied, a requestor may provide supplemental information to the certifying agency and request that the certification form denial be reviewed by the certifying agency. A requestor may also seek a certification form from multiple certifying agencies.

24-4.1-404. Prohibition on disclosure of victim's immigration status. A certifying agency is prohibited from disclosing the personal identifying information or immigration status of a victim or person requesting the certification, except to comply with federal law or process.

24-4.1-405. Duty to inform victims. Certifying agencies shall provide information regarding the U visa and the agency's procedures for certification to victims.

24-4.1-406. Reports. On or before September 1, 2021, and on or before each March 1 thereafter, a certifying agency that receives a request for a certification shall report to the Division of Criminal Justice in the Department of Public Safety on an annual basis the number of requests for certification received, the number of certifications that were signed, the total number that were denied, the number denied for each reason supporting the denial, and the number of decisions that fell outside the prescribed completion deadlines. The division shall make the reports available to the public upon request.

SECTION 2. Act subject to petition - effective date - applicability. (1) This act takes effect September 1, 2020; except that, if a referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1 (3) of article V of the state constitution against this act or an item, section, or part of this act within the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general assembly, then the act, item, section, or part will not take effect unless approved by the people at the general election to be held in November 2020 and, in such case, will take effect on the date of the official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor.

(2) This act applies to requests and resubmitted requests for certifications made on or after the applicable effective date of this act.".

"SECTION 1. Short title. The short title of this act is the
"Creating a Respectful and Open World for Natural Hair Act of 2020" or the "CROWN Act of 2020".

SECTION 2. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:
(a) Throughout the history of the United States, society has used hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles, in conjunction with skin color, to classify people on the basis of race;
(b) Like skin color, a person's hair has served as a basis of race discrimination;
(c) Racial discrimination can and does occur because of longstanding racial biases and stereotypes associated with hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles;
(d) For example, routinely, people of African descent are deprived of educational and employment opportunities because they are adorned with natural or protective hairstyles in which hair is tightly coiled or tightly curled or worn in locs, cornrows, twists, braids, Bantu knots, or Afros;
(e) Racial discrimination is reflected in school and workplace policies and practices that bar natural or protective hairstyles commonly worn by people of African descent, as well as people of Jewish, Latinx, or Native American descent;
(f) The state should acknowledge that people who have hair texture or wear a hairstyle that is historically and contemporarily associated with persons of African, Jewish, Latinx, or Native American descent systematically suffer harmful discrimination in schools, workplaces, and other contexts based upon longstanding race stereotypes and biases;
(g) A clear and comprehensive law should address the systematic depprivation of educational, employment, and other opportunities on the basis of hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles that are commonly associated with race;
(h) Clear, consistent, and enforceable legal standards must be provided to redress the widespread incidences of race discrimination based upon hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles in schools, workplaces, housing, places of public accommodations, and other contexts;

(i) It is necessary to prevent educational, employment, and other decisions, practices, and policies generated by or reflecting negative biases and stereotypes related to race;

(j) The state must play a key role in enforcing state antidiscrimination laws, including the standards established under the "CROWN Act of 2020", in a way that secures equal educational, employment, and other opportunities for all people regardless of their race and protects against race discrimination based on hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles; and

(k) It is necessary to prohibit and provide remedies for the harms suffered as a result of race discrimination on the basis of hair texture, hair type, and protective hairstyles.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 22-2-117, amend
(1)(b)(VIII) and (1)(b)(IX); and add (1)(b)(X) as follows:

(I) At least a dozen communities in Colorado, known as "Ready for 100" cities, have committed to obtaining one hundred percent renewable energy by 2025 to 2035. In addition, at least two dozen communities, known as "Colorado Communities for Climate Action", have organized to advocate for climate change solutions. These communities, which represent more than one million Coloradans, are exploring ways to reach their energy and climate goals within their desired time periods.

(II) A key element of the Governor's policy initiative, entitled "Roadmap to 100% Renewable Energy by 2040 and Bold Climate Action", prioritizes supporting local commitments to one hundred percent renewable energy.

(III) The ability of a community to achieve its energy goals is currently limited by the energy supply and decarbonization timeline of the electric utility that serves that community's geographic area. The ability to procure electricity from alternative wholesale suppliers may enable communities to achieve their energy goals substantially faster and more cost-effectively.

(IV) Community choice energy (CCE, also commonly known as community choice aggregation or CCA), is a local energy model that has been adopted in a number of states and has proven to be effective in helping communities achieve their renewable energy or cost-containment goals, or both. The study of CCE would answer key questions and illuminate the possible benefits and challenges of adapting the CCE model as an option for Colorado communities.

(V) In the CCE model, communities that are served by an investor-owned electric utility may choose their wholesale electricity suppliers, while the electricity continues to be delivered by the incumbent utility. In states that have enabled CCE to date, CCE is not permitted in communities that are served by a cooperative electric association or a municipally owned electric utility.

(VI) In the CCE model, an investor-owned electric utility continues to own and operate its transmission and distribution system to serve both CCE customers and its own customers, with appropriate compensation, and the utility continues to implement demand-side management programs, manage customer service, and provide metering and billing services. The utility continues to own its power generation to serve its own customers. If a community chooses to adopt CCE, the utility would deliver the electricity from one or more alternative suppliers to CCE customers.

(VII) This section concerns the "wholesale, opt-out" model of CCE, pursuant to which individual customers are automatically enrolled and retain the right to opt out of their COMMUNITY’S CCE OFFERINGS AND PURCHASE THEIR ELECTRICITY FROM THE UTILITY UNDER ITS TRADITIONAL "BUNDLED SERVICE". THE RETAIL MODEL OF CCE, IN WHICH INDIVIDUALS IN Deregulated "Retail CHOICE" STATES CAN SHOP FOR THEIR ELECTRICITY FROM AMONG MANY COMPETING SUPPLIERS, DOES NOT PROMOTE THE STABLE REVENUE CONDITIONS NEEDED FOR DEVELOPMENT OF HIGH LEVELS OF RENEWABLE ENERGY. THE RETAIL CCE MODEL IS EXPLICITLY NOT THE SUBJECT OF THIS SECTION.

(VIII) A well-designed wholesale, opt-out CCE program would introduce an element of wholesale competition and community-level choice into the supply of electricity and could provide communities that have ambitious renewable energy goals with a means to reach those goals more quickly and cost-effectively.

(IX) This section pertains only to the study of CCE, not to its implementation. While CCE in other states shows the potential for communities to make local energy decisions, reach their energy goals, reduce energy costs, and foster local economic development and local employment, it is prudent to first study the financial feasibility and the regulatory, legal, and environmental implications of CCE in Colorado before any consideration of enabling CCE as an option for communities in Colorado.

(X) The two independent studies described in this section will answer key questions about the potential viability of CCE in Colorado and will identify best practices and lessons learned from the experiences of states that have already implemented CCE. The studies will provide the information needed to determine whether CCE would provide net benefits to Colorado communities.

(b) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is in the public interest to direct the commission to evaluate the viability of the wholesale, opt-out model of CCE in Colorado and to answer key questions about CCE in Colorado through two investigations:

(I) By overseeing a third-party financial feasibility study;

and

(II) By conducting its own investigatory proceeding using the mechanism of an investigatory docket to study regulatory and legal issues.

(2) Definition. As used in this section, "community choice energy" or "CCE" means a mechanism that allows cities or counties, or groups of cities and counties, to combine their purchasing power and choose one or more alternative wholesale electricity suppliers on behalf of the residents, businesses, and municipal facilities in the jurisdiction while the incumbent utility maintains its existing generation and continues to own and operate its transmission and distribution system and deliver the electricity to both its own customers and CCE customers.

(3) Feasibility study. (a) In accordance with this subsection
(3), the commission shall oversee, and report to the general assembly the conclusions of, a study on the financial feasibility of allowing CCE in Colorado.

(b) The commission shall:

(I) Select, through a transparent and competitive
SOLICITATION OVERSEEN DIRECTLY BY THE COMMISSIONERS AND ISSUED ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 1, 2020, AN INDEPENDENT AND QUALIFIED AGENT TO PERFORM THE STUDY, USING SELECTION CRITERIA THAT ENSURE THE AGENT DOES NOT CARRY BIASES THAT ARE ESPECIALLY FAVORABLE OR UNFAVORABLE TO CCE OR TO INVESTOR-OWNED UTILITIES;

(II) DETERMINE THE SCOPE OF, AND SPECIFIC QUESTIONS TO BE ADDRESSED BY, THE STUDY, SUBJECT TO THE GUIDELINES SET FORTH IN THIS SUBSECTION (3);

(III) ACQUIRE THE DATA NECESSARY TO EFFECTIVELY CONDUCT
THE STUDY FROM THE INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES IN A TIMELY FASHION, UTILIZING CONFIDENTIALITY AND NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENTS AS NEEDED; AND

(IV) REPORT THE PROCESS AND CONCLUSIONS OF THE FEASIBILITY STUDY, AS WELL AS THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE CONCURRENT
INVESTIGATORY DOCKET SET FORTH IN SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION, IN A FINAL REPORT TO THE TRANSPORTATION AND ENERGY COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE AND THE ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, OR THEIR SUCCESSOR COMMITTEES, ON OR BEFORE JUNE 1, 2021.

(c) THE PURPOSE OF THE STUDY IS TO ASSESS FINANCIAL FEASIBILITY AND RISK, INCLUDING THE POTENTIAL FOR RATE COMPETITIVENESS, PRINCIPLES FOR CALCULATING THE AMOUNT AND DURATION OF ANY TRANSITION FEES, AND AN ESTIMATE OF SUCH FEES, ALSO KNOWN AS EXIT FEES, THAT COMMUNITIES FORMING A CCE AUTHORITY WOULD PAY TO OFFSET THEIR FAIR SHARE OF THE COSTS OF UTILITY ASSETS AND CONTRACTS THAT WERE PROCURED ON THEIR BEHALF AND PREVIOUSLY APPROVED. THE AGENT SHALL MAKE THESE ASSESSMENTS AND DEVELOP THESE PRINCIPLES USING INDUSTRY BEST PRACTICES AND ASSUMING A RANGE OF SCENARIOS THAT INCLUDE:

(I) THE LEVEL OF CCE PARTICIPATION IN COLORADO, INCLUDING
THE NUMBER OF ELIGIBLE COMMUNITIES THAT CHOOSE TO FORM OR JOIN A CCE AUTHORITY AND THE ASSUMED OPT-OUT RATE OF THEIR CUSTOMERS, TO EVALUATE THE MARKET SCALE AND REVENUE GENERATION NEEDED FOR CCE TO SUCCEED IN COLORADO;

(II) FACTORS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE EXIT FEE CONSIDERATION, INCLUDING THE AGE AND TIME OF SERVICE COMMENCEMENT OF GENERATION ASSETS AND EXISTING CONTRACTS; AND

(III) RATE ANALYSIS TO DETERMINE THE POTENTIAL FOR CCE TO BE COST-COMPETITIVE IN COLORADO, ASSUMING DIFFERENT LEVELS OF RENEWABLE ENERGY CONTENT THAT CORRESPOND TO THE RENEWABLE ENERGY STANDARD SPECIFIED IN SECTION 40-2-124 AS WELL AS SCENARIOS EXCEEDING STATE REQUIREMENTS, INCLUDING ONE HUNDRED PERCENT RENEWABLE ENERGY, AND CONSIDERATION OF REASONABLY ANTICIPATED TRENDS AND CONTINGENCIES AFFECTING THE PRICES OF FOSSIL FUELS AND RENEWABLE ENERGY RESOURCES AND THE MIX OF NEW RENEWABLE ENERGY RESOURCES VERSUS RENEWABLE ENERGY CERTIFICATES.

(d) THE SCOPE OF THE STUDY IS LIMITED TO CONSIDERATION OF THE FEASIBILITY OF ALLOWING CCE IN AREAS NOT CURRENTLY SERVED BY MUNICIPALLY OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES OR COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATIONS.

(4) Investigatory docket. (a) ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 1, 2020,
AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SUBSECTION (4), THE COMMISSION SHALL OPEN AN INVESTIGATORY DOCKET TO ACCEPT TESTIMONY AND DOCUMENTATION FROM STAKEHOLDERS, INDEPENDENT ENERGY AND UTILITY EXPERTS, REGULATORS FROM STATES IN WHICH CCE HAS BEEN IMPLEMENTED OR IS UNDER CONSIDERATION, REPRESENTATIVES OF OPERATIONAL CCE AUTHORITIES, AND OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES. THE GOAL OF THE PROCEEDING IS TO CONSIDER THE REGULATORY IMPLICATIONS AND LEGAL IMPACTS OF POSSIBLE FUTURE CCE-ENABLING LEGISLATION AND PROVIDE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. CONCLUSIONS SHOULD INCLUDE BEST PRACTICES AND LESSONS LEARNED FROM STATES THAT HAVE ENABLED CCE AT THE WHOLESALE LEVEL. THE COMMISSION SHALL EMPLOY PROCEDURES THAT PROMOTE A PRODUCTIVE, EFFECTIVE, AND EVIDENCE-BASED PROCESS.

(b) THE COMMISSION SHALL SOLICIT INPUT FROM A BROAD AND INCLUSIVE RANGE OF STAKEHOLDERS AND PRESENTERS TO ENSURE THAT THE PROCESS IS NOT DOMINATED BY ANY ONE GROUP OR VIEWPOINT.
STAKEHOLDERS AND PRESENTERS MAY INCLUDE:

(I) COMMUNITIES WITH DECLARED GOALS REGARDING CARBON EMISSIONS OR ENERGY SUPPLY CHOICES;

(II) BUSINESS GROUPS;

(III) ENVIRONMENTAL ADVOCATES;

(IV) CONSUMER ADVOCATES;

(V) ELECTRIC UTILITIES, INCLUDING INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES, MUNICIPALLY OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES, AND COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATIONS;

(VI) INDEPENDENT POWER PRODUCERS;

(VII) POWER MARKETERS;

(VIII) RENEWABLE ENERGY DEVELOPERS;

(IX) CONSULTANTS OR OTHER EXPERTS IN ENERGY PROJECT FINANCING;

(X) CONSULTANTS OR OTHER EXPERTS IN ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND DISTRIBUTED ENERGY RESOURCES;

(XI) REPRESENTATIVES OF OPERATIONAL CCE AUTHORITIES THAT USE THE WHOLESALE CCE MODEL; AND

(XII) MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

(c) THE TOPICS AND QUESTIONS TO BE EXPLORED IN THE DOCKET
MAY INCLUDE:

(I) WHETHER THE COMMISSION WOULD REQUIRE ADDITIONAL STATUTORY AUTHORITY TO CONDUCT A RULE-MAKING PROCEEDING
CONCERNING THE CREATION OF CCE AUTHORITIES IN COLORADO;

(II) THE APPROPRIATE SCOPE OF REGULATORY OVERSIGHT OF CCE OPERATIONS, ON A SCALE RANGING FROM COMPREHENSIVE AS WITH INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES TO MINIMAL AS WITH MUNICIPALLY OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES;

(III) WHICH ASPECTS, IF ANY, OF CURRENT OR ANTICIPATED
INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY REGULATION BY THE COMMISSION SHOULD APPLY TO CCE AUTHORITIES AS WELL, AND TO WHAT EXTENT, INCLUDING REGULATION IN THE AREAS OF:

(A) RESOURCE ADEQUACY PLANNING;

(B) ASSURANCE OF RELIABILITY AND HOW THIS IS PAID FOR;

(C) COMPLIANCE WITH RENEWABLE ENERGY STANDARDS AND EMISSIONS REDUCTION TARGETS;

(D) SUPPLEMENTAL DEMAND-SIDE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS OFFERED BY CCE AUTHORITIES;

(E) TIME-OF-USE RATES OR OTHER RATE REQUIREMENTS IF MANDATED FOR INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES; AND

(F) STANDARDS FOR REQUESTS FOR PROPOSALS;

(IV) THE APPROPRIATE CONSIDERATIONS FOR ESTABLISHING REASONABLE EXIT FEES AT A LEVEL THAT PROVIDES COST RECOVERY FOR STRANDED INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY ASSETS AND CONTRACTS
AND DIRECT TRANSITION COSTS, AND THAT PROTECTS NON-CCE CUSTOMERS, BUT DOES NOT UNDULY BURDEN CCE CUSTOMERS, INCLUDING THE POTENTIAL FOR EXIT FEES TO VARY OVER TIME OR BY LOCATION, THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SPECIFIC EXPIRATION PERIOD FOR EXIT FEES, MEASURES TO MITIGATE EXIT FEES THROUGH POTENTIAL CONTRACT TRANSFER OR RESALE TO CCE AUTHORITIES OR OTHER BUYERS, AND APPROPRIATE FORECASTING OF DEPARTING LOAD TO AVOID OVER-PROCUREMENT;

(V) THE APPROPRIATE CONDITIONS, LIMITATIONS, AND PROCEDURES UNDER WHICH CUSTOMERS MAY OPT OUT OF CCE AND RECEIVE BUNDLED SERVICE FROM THE INCUMBENT INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY;

(VI) WHETHER ANY OTHER CONSUMER PROTECTIONS WOULD BE REQUIRED AND THE MEANS OF PROVIDING THOSE PROTECTIONS;

(VII) POTENTIAL CHALLENGES FOR CCE START-UP OR CONTINUING OPERATIONS, INCLUDING THE AVAILABILITY OF FINANCING AND CREDIT RATING CONSIDERATIONS, AND STRATEGIES TO OVERCOME THOSE CHALLENGES;

(VIII) WHAT REGULATORY AND LEGAL ISSUES HAVE ARISEN IN OTHER STATES THAT HAVE ADOPTED THE WHOLESALE, OPT-OUT MODEL OF CCE AND POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS FOR THOSE ISSUES;

(IX) WHETHER AN INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY THAT REMAINS THE SOLE PROVIDER OF DISTRIBUTION, TRANSMISSION, AND OTHER SERVICES TRADITIONALLY PROVIDED BY THE UTILITY, SUCH AS METERING AND BILLING, SHOULD ALSO BE THE PROVIDER OF LAST RESORT FOR SUPPLYING ELECTRICITY TO CUSTOMERS WHO OPT OUT OF CCE;

(X) THE APPROPRIATE PROCESS FOR APPROVAL OF CCE ON BEHALF OF CUSTOMERS WITHIN A JURISDICTION;

(XI) WHETHER CCE AUTHORITIES SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO OFFER DEMAND-SIDE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS THAT EITHER EXPAND UPON OR REPLACE SUCH PROGRAMS OFFERED BY THE INCUMBENT INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY;

(XII) REGULATORY AND POLICY CONSIDERATIONS RELATED TO FORMING CCE AUTHORITIES IN A STATE THAT DOES NOT CURRENTLY BELONG TO A REGIONAL TRANSMISSION ORGANIZATION OR PARTICIPATE IN A WHOLESALE ELECTRICITY MARKET, AND POSSIBLE SOLUTIONS, INCLUDING CONSIDERATIONS IN THE AREAS OF:

(A) WHETHER LEGISLATION SHOULD BE ADOPTED TO GUARANTEE OPEN ACCESS AND FAIR PRICES FOR TRANSMISSION SERVICES;

(B) RECOMMENDATIONS FOR LEGISLATIVE OR ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES, OR BOTH, CONCERNING WHOLESALE MARKET ACCESS AND DEVELOPMENT IN COLORADO;

(C) WHETHER THERE ARE OTHER LEGISLATIVE AND REGULATORY MODIFICATIONS NECESSARY TO SUCCESSFULLY IMPLEMENT CCE IN COLORADO;

(XIII) WHAT, IF ANY, MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS AND STANDARDS SHOULD APPLY TO INDEPENDENT POWER PRODUCERS AND POWER MARKETERS WHO WISH TO SUPPLY ENERGY TO A CCE AUTHORITY;

(XIV) WHAT, IF ANY, DATA-SHARING REQUIREMENTS SHOULD BE IMPOSED ON INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES TO HELP ENSURE THAT A CCE AUTHORITY OR A JURISDICTION INVESTIGATING WHETHER TO FORM OR JOIN A CCE AUTHORITY CAN REASONABLY EVALUATE ITS FINANCIAL AND TECHNICAL VIABILITY AND IMPLEMENT ITS CCE PROGRAM;

(XV) HOW CCE MIGHT FACILITATE OR IMPede INCREASED INTEGRATION OF DISTRIBUTED ENERGY RESOURCES, SUCH AS ROOFTOP SOLAR, COMMUNITY SOLAR, AND BATTERY ENERGY STORAGE INTO DISTRIBUTION SYSTEMS, AND FACILITATE OR IMPEDE INCREASED INVESTMENT IN BENEFICIAL ELECTRIFICATION INCLUDING ELECTRIFICATION OF TRANSPORT;

(XVI) THE APPROPRIATE CONSIDERATIONS FOR ENSURING THAT THE IMPLEMENTATION OF CCE DOES NOT INCLUDE CUSTOMERS IN THE CERTIFICATED TERRITORIES OF MUNICIPALLY OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITIES
OR COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATIONS;

(XVII) THE IMPACT OF ALLOWING CCE IN COLORADO ON THE ABILITY OF COLORADO TO REACH ITS CLEAN ENERGY AND GREENHOUSE GAS REDUCTION GOALS AND WHAT LEGISLATIVE AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS FOR CCE WOULD BE NEEDED TO FACILITATE REACHING THOSE GOALS;

(XVIII) THE IMPACT, BOTH POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE, OF CCE IN COMMUNITIES THAT HAVE FORMED OR JOINED A CCE AUTHORITY IN STATES THAT HAVE ENABLED THE WHOLESALE, OPT-OUT MODEL OF CCE;

(XIX) THE IMPACT OF CCE ON LOW-INCOME CUSTOMERS, INCLUDING THE AVAILABILITY OF LOW-INCOME PROGRAMS OFFERED THROUGH THE INVESTOR-OWNED ELECTRIC UTILITY TO CCE CUSTOMERS AND THE ABILITY OF CCE AUTHORITIES TO ESTABLISH ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS TO ASSIST LOW-INCOME CUSTOMERS; AND

(XX) THE RISKS A CCE AUTHORITY MIGHT FACE THAT MERIT CONSIDERATION, SUCH AS RESOURCE PRICE RISKS, CONTRACT RISKS, OR LOAD DEFECTION, AND THEIR SIGNIFICANCE.

(d) Report. The Commission shall summarize its findings, conclusions, and recommendations from the investigatory docket and from the concurrent feasibility study required in subsection (3) of this section in a final report to the Transportation and Energy Committee of the Senate and the Energy and Environment Committee of the House of Representatives, or their successor committees. The Commission shall submit the report on or before June 1, 2021.
Recommendations may be split into majority views and dissenting views if necessary.

(5) Repeal. This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2023.

"SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 19-1-103, amend (78) as follows:

19-1-103. Definitions. As used in this title 19 or in the specified portion of this title 19, unless the context otherwise requires:

(78) (a) "Neglect", as used in part 3 of article 3 of this title, means acts that can reasonably be construed to fall under the definition of child abuse or neglect as defined in subsection (1) of this section.

(b) A CHILD IS NOT NEGLECTED WHEN ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN INDEPENDENT ACTIVITIES THAT A REASONABLE AND PRUDENT PARENT WOULD CONSIDER SAFE GIVEN THE CHILD'S MATURITY, CONDITION, AND ABILITIES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO:

(I) TRAVELING TO AND FROM SCHOOL, INCLUDING WALKING, RUNNING, BICYCLING, OR OTHER SIMILAR MODE OF TRAVEL;

HB20-1228 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee on Appropriations with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, page 2, after line 1 insert:

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) There has been a philosophical shift and accompanying statutory changes at the state and federal level regarding response to sexual assault victims. That shift acknowledges that providing victim-centered reporting options can:
  (I) Begin to restore the power and control victims lose during an assault;
  (II) Promotes improved long-term outcomes for victims; and
  (III) Improves investigations and stronger prosecutions.
(b) In 2005, the federal "Violence Against Women Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 3796gg-4 (b)(3), made clear victims of sexual assault cannot be charged, directly or indirectly, for a medical forensic exam and the associated testing of any evidence. The "Violence Against Women Act" also stated victims do not have to work with law enforcement to receive a medical forensic exam. Collectively, these provisions are known as forensic compliance.
(c) Through bills in 2008, 2013, and 2015, the state of Colorado came into compliance with the federal "Violence Against Women Act" forensic compliance provisions and created Colorado's current statutory structure that enables victims to determine a course of action with multidisciplinary responders acting from the victims' decisions. This included establishing the sexual assault victim emergency payment program, section 18-3-407.5 (3)(b), to pay for the evidence collection portion of the medical forensic exam collected pursuant to section 12-240-139 (1)(b).
(d) Victims of sexual assault who decide to undergo a medical forensic exam often experience frustration while waiting for the results of the DNA analysis. A lengthy and sometimes opaque process, there are currently no safeguards for victims to ensure they know the status or outcome of evidence testing. Communication about their evidence's progress is disparate and can leave victims feeling unsupported and forgotten.
(e) Establishing a confidential tracking system for survivors to know the status of their forensic medical evidence is one part of the solution. However, a nexus of issues affecting sexual assault victims' access to medical forensic exams and payment options prior to their evidence even being sent for testing exists. At this time, Colorado has no consistent and consolidated evaluation data on the efficacy of its sexual assault forensic compliance laws and the associated interplay of medical forensic evidence knowledge, access, cost, and payment that collectively create the conditions for such evidence to be tested in the first place.
These issues must be evaluated prior to the implementation of a tracking system to ensure the best possible infrastructure, medical, and criminal justice response exists for survivors of sexual assault in Colorado.
(f) While such an evaluation project is underway, there are several survivor rights the state of Colorado should enshrine to ensure survivors are receiving the best possible care and response from the criminal justice system."

Renumber succeeding sections accordingly.

Page 2, strike lines 12 and 13 and substitute:
"(2) (a) THE DIVISION, IN CONJUNCTION WITH A STATEWIDE COALITION THAT ADVOCATES FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT, SHALL CONVENE A STATEWIDE MULTIDISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE TO STUDY HOW TO IMPLEMENT A STATEWIDE TRACKING SYSTEM TO ALLOW A VICTIM OF SEXUAL ASSAULT TO TRACK THE STATUS OF THE VICTIM'S FORENSIC MEDICAL EVIDENCE. THE COMMITTEE MUST INCLUDE:
(I) Law enforcement, including the Colorado Bureau of Investigation;
(II) System and community-based advocates;
(III) Medical professionals;
(IV) District attorneys; and
(V) Other key stakeholders.

(b) To ensure any tracking system implemented in the state of Colorado is the most helpful it can be for victims of sexual assault and practitioners, the committee created pursuant to subsection (2)(a) of this section shall, as soon as practicable, but no later than December 1, 2021:

(I) Research forensic medical evidence collection costs for law enforcement agencies in relation to their overall evidence budgets and the effects of this on their ability to pay for medical forensic exams as required by section 18-3-407.5 (1);

(II) Determine the average costs of medical forensic exams statewide and whether the current sexual assault victim emergency payment program payment limits pursuant to section 18-3-407.7 (2)(c) are sufficient to meet the need;

(III) Determine whether victims are receiving medical bills they are prohibited from receiving pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 3796gg-4 (b)(3);

(IV) Assess whether law enforcement agencies are sending forensic medical evidence for testing within twenty-one days as required by the rule promulgated pursuant to section 24-33.5-113;

(V) Research whether victims are being encouraged to decline a medical forensic evidence exam, including intimate partner violence cases of assault by strangulation as described in section 18-3-202 (1)(g), because law enforcement cannot afford to pay the cost of evidence collection pursuant to section 18-3-407.5 (1);".
