BY REPRESENTATIVE(S) McCluskie, Amabile, Bird, Boesenecker, Brown, Daugherty, Dickson, Duran, Froelich, Hamrick, Joseph, Kipp, Lindsay, Lindstedt, Lukens, Mauro, McCormick, McLachlan, Michaelson Jenet, Sharbini, Snyder, Vigil, Woodrow, Young.

CONCERNING THE APPROVAL BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SPEAKER'S APPOINTMENT OF DANIEL WOLF TO THE INDEPENDENT ETHICS COMMISSION.

WHEREAS, Section 5 (2)(a)(II) of article XXIX of the Colorado constitution provides that one member of the Independent Ethics Commission created in section 5 (1) of that article, hereafter referred to as the "Commission", shall be appointed by the House of Representatives, and section 24-18.5-101 (2)(a), Colorado Revised Statutes, provides that said appointment shall be made by the Speaker of the House of Representatives with the approval of two-thirds of the members elected to the House; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to such authority, Speaker Julie McCluskie appoints Daniel Wolf to the Independent Ethics Commission to succeed Commissioner Annie Kao upon the conclusion of her term; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf is a real estate, business, and commercial law attorney with over thirty years of diverse and wide-ranging experience, primarily practicing in Summit and Eagle Counties and surrounding mountain communities; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf lives in Silverthorne where he has raised his family for the past twenty-five years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf is active in both his community and the Colorado Bar Association; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf is widely recognized as an authority on complex legal issues and represents a wide variety of entities ranging from small businesses to publicly traded businesses; contractors of all sizes; workers in Leadville to wealthy foreign nationals in Vail; condominium associations to nonprofits; doctors to veterinarians to engineers, and other professionals; restaurants to retail stores to hotels; and local special districts; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf has helped and advised clients on all types of legal issues in a wide range of settings, including before judges; county, municipal, and other governmental boards; and commissions; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf provides independent and unvarnished counsel to clients, including many boards, on all manner of issues, including ethical issues and compliance with applicable laws; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf is a founder, trustee, and a former long-time chairman of The Peak School in Frisco, Colorado; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf has served on the boards of directors for the Vail Valley Chapter of the Salvation Army and Team Breckenridge Sport Club; and

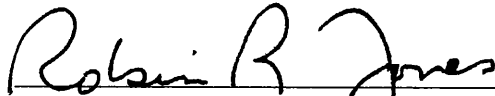

WHEREAS, Mr. Wolf was appointed to, and currently serves on, the Fifth Judicial District Judicial Performance Commission and has served two terms on the Fifth Judicial District Nominating Commission; and

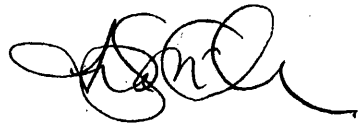

WHEREAS, On the basis of his extraordinary service as an experienced attorney, his resolution of diverse and complex legal issues, and his impressive community outreach and knowledge, Daniel Wolf has demonstrated the qualifications that will allow him to serve as a respected member of the Colorado Independent Ethics Commission in an exemplary manner and to provide leadership on matters of ethics in a way that will reflect well upon the House of Representatives, the Colorado General Assembly, and the State of Colorado; now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-fourth General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

That the House of Representatives hereby approves Speaker Julie McCluskie's appointment of Daniel Wolf to the Independent Ethics Commission for a four-year term commencing July 1, 2023, and ending June 30, 2027.

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of this House Resolution be sent to the Chair of the Independent Ethics Commission, the Executive Director of the Independent Ethics Commission, and Mr. Wolf.
