COLORADO COMMISSION ON UNIFORM STATE LAWS
2018 Annual Report
January 1, 2018

I. PREAMBLE

To the Honorable Governor, John Hickenlooper; the Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court, Nancy E. Rice; the Chief Judge of the Colorado Court of Appeals, Alan M. Loeb; the President of the Senate, Kevin Grantham; the Speaker of the House of Representatives, Crisanta Duran; and the members of the Colorado General Assembly. The Colorado Commission on Uniform State Laws (CCUSL) respectfully submits this Annual Report.

II. HISTORY OF THE UNIFORM LAW COMMISSION

In 1889, the New York Bar Association appointed a special committee on uniformity of laws. In the next year, the New York Legislature authorized the appointment of commissioners “to examine certain subjects of national importance that seemed to show conflict among the laws of the several commonwealths, to ascertain the best means to effect an assimilation or uniformity in the laws of the states, and especially whether it would be advisable for the State of New York to invite the other states of the Union to send representatives to a convention to draft uniform laws to be submitted for approval and adoption by the several states.” In that same year, the American Bar Association passed a resolution recommending that each state provide for commissioners to confer with the commissioners of other states on the subject of uniformity of legislation on certain subjects. In August, 1892, the Uniform Law Commission (ULC, also known as the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws) was formed, and the first national conference of ULC state commissioners convened in Saratoga, New York, three days preceding the annual meeting of the American Bar Association.
By 1912, every state was participating in the ULC. In each year of service, the ULC has steadily increased its contribution to state law. Because of that contribution, it very early became known as a distinguished body of lawyers. The ULC has attracted some of the best of the profession. In 1912, Woodrow Wilson became a member. This, of course, was before his more notable political prominence and service as President of the United States. Several people who later became Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States have been members: former Justices Brandeis and Rutledge and former Chief Justice Rehnquist. Legal scholars have served in large numbers. Examples are professors Wigmore, Williston, Pound, and Bogert. Many distinguished lawyers have served since 1892, though their names are not as well known in legal affairs and the affairs of the United States. This distinguished body has guaranteed that the products of the ULC are of the highest quality and are enormously influential upon the process of the law.

The ULC is a confederation of state interests. It arose out of the concerns of state government for the improvement of the law and for better interstate relationships. Its sole purpose has been, and remains, service to state government and improvement of state law.

III. THE OPERATION OF THE ULC

The ULC convenes as a body once a year. It meets for a period of eight to twelve days, usually in late July or early August. In the interim period between the annual meetings, drafting committees composed of commissioners meet to supply the working drafts that are considered at the annual meeting. At each national conference, the work of the drafting committees is read and debated. Each Act must be considered over a substantial period of years. An Act does not become officially recognized as a Uniform Act until the ULC is satisfied that it is ready for consideration in the state legislatures. It is then put to a vote of the states, during which each state caucuses and votes as a unit.

The governing body is the ULC Executive Committee, and is composed of the officers, certain ex officio members, and members appointed by the President of the ULC. Certain activities are conducted by standing committees. For example, the Committee on Scope and Program considers all new subject areas for possible Uniform Acts. The Legislative Committee superintends the relationships of the ULC to the state legislatures. A small staff located in Chicago operates the national office of the ULC. The national office handles meeting arrangements, publications, legislative liaison, and general administration for the ULC. The total staff numbers only fourteen people.

The ULC maintains relations with several sister organizations. Official liaison is maintained with the American Bar Association, which contributes each year to the operation of the ULC. Liaison is also maintained with the American Law Institute, the Council of State Governments, and the National Conference of State Legislatures on an ongoing basis. Liaison and activities may be conducted with other associations as interests and activities necessitate.
IV. ACTIVITIES OF THE COLORADO COMMISSIONERS

A. Participation of the Colorado commissioners in the ULC is provided for in part 6 of article 3 of title 2, Colorado Revised Statutes. Colorado's commissioners must be attorneys admitted to practice law in Colorado. Six members are appointed or reappointed by joint resolution of the General Assembly, of whom at least two must be legislators and at least two must be members of the public at large. Commissioners serve terms of two years.

In addition, any Colorado citizen who is elected as a life member of the ULC (after twenty years of membership) is a member of the Colorado Commission. The currently active life members are Thomas T. Grimshaw, Charles W. Pike, and Donald E. Mielke. The director of the Office of Legislative Legal Services, or the director's designee, has the same status as appointed members of the Commission and also serves as the ex officio secretary of the Colorado Commission. Thomas Morris currently serves as the director's designee to the Commission.

V. A SUMMARY OF NEW ULC ACTS

The following are summaries of new acts adopted in final form by the ULC at the most recent ULC annual meeting:

- The Uniform Regulation of Virtual Currency Businesses Act creates a statutory framework for regulating virtual currency business activity. The act covers businesses engaged in the exchange of virtual currencies for cash, bank deposits, or other virtual currencies; the transfers of virtual currency between customers; and certain custodial or fiduciary services. It also includes provisions on licensing requirements; reciprocity; consumer protection; cybersecurity; anti-money laundering; and supervision of licensees.

- The Uniform Directed Trust Act addresses the division of a trustee’s traditional responsibilities regarding estate planning and asset management among several specialists. This act clarifies the duties and responsibilities of both directed trustees and those who have the power to direct them.

- The Uniform Guardianship, Conservatorship, and Other Protective Arrangements Act is an updated version of the Uniform Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Act, originally promulgated in 1969 as part of the Uniform Probate Code. This new version is a modern guardianship statute intended to protect the individual rights of both minors and adults subject to a guardianship or conservatorship order.

- The Uniform Parentage Act (2017) is a revision of the Uniform Parentage Act (UPA) of 2000, which was adopted in 11 states. The UPA covered several topics including the parent-child relationship, voluntary acknowledgments of paternity, registry of paternity, genetic testing, and proceedings to adjudicate parentage of children of assisted reproduction. This revised act addresses issues related to same-sex couples, surrogacy, the right of a child to genetic information, de facto parentage, and parentage of children conceived through sexual assault.

- The Uniform Protected Series Act provides a comprehensive framework for the formation and operation of a protected series limited liability company (LLC). A protected series LLC has both “horizontal” liability shields, as well as the standard “vertical” liability shield. About 15 jurisdictions have some kind of series statute, but they vary widely.

- The Model Veterans Treatment Court Act provides guidelines for the establishment of veterans’ courts. Veterans’ courts have been established in various states, including Colorado, to ensure that veterans in the criminal justice system receive the treatment and support necessary for successful rehabilitation. Although these courts already exist in many judicial districts, very few states have legislation on veterans’ courts.

VI. CCUSL RECOMMENDATIONS FOR ENACTMENT AND FOR OTHER ACTION

The Colorado commissioners held two hearings in September and November of 2017 to discuss this year’s ULC-approved acts, as well as continue discussions regarding ULC-approved acts from prior years, in order for the Colorado commissioners to make legislative recommendations to the General Assembly. Based on feedback received from stakeholders and other interested parties, including representatives of the Colorado Bar Association, the CCUSL will not be introducing any of the ULC’s newly approved acts this session, but may introduce some of them in the future after additional discussion with interested parties.
The Colorado commissioners have voted to introduce the following acts during the General Assembly’s 2018 Regular Session: the Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act\(^1\) and the Colorado Uniform Trust Code\(^2\), both of which have been under consideration for a couple of years.

Colorado commissioners will continue to meet with stakeholders, including representatives of the Colorado Bar Association, to discuss and decide whether the following uniform acts should move forward for introduction in Colorado in a future legislative session: the Uniform Directed Trust Act, the Guardianship, Conservatorship, and Other Protective Arrangements Act, the Uniform Parentage Act, and the Uniform Wage Garnishment Act.

The Colorado Commission voted at its November meeting to send a letter to the General Assembly’s Committee on Legal Services requesting that, on a prospective basis, the practice of publishing ULC official comments in the Colorado Revised Statutes be discontinued. Instead, the Commission will ask the Committee to direct the revisor of statutes to include in the statutes cross references that would refer the reader to the ULC’s website where the applicable official comments would be found. This proposed change would be prospective only; no comments currently published in the statutes would be removed. Nor is the change intended to have any effect on how the statutes are construed.

VII. ENACTMENT RECORD, TO DATE

Colorado has an enviable record for enacting Uniform Acts. More than one hundred individual acts have been adopted in Colorado. A complete listing of Uniform Acts adopted by Colorado is attached as Appendix A.

1 The ULC approved the Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act in 2016 in order to update various provisions, including gift cards and other stored-value cards, life insurance benefits, securities, dormancy periods, and the use of contract auditors.

2 The Uniform Trust Code (UTC) was first approved by the ULC in 2000, last amended in 2010, and has been approved in more than half the states. The Colorado Bar Association (CBA) undertook the task of adapting the UTC to Colorado law and is assisting in the bill drafting process. Because the uniform act adopted in Colorado will include amendments to fit within current Colorado law, the Colorado version will be called the Colorado Uniform Trust Code.
