Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. The starting point for determining state income tax liability is federal taxable income. This number is adjusted for additions and subtractions (deductions) that are used to determine Colorado taxable income, which amount is multiplied by the state's 4.63% income tax rate. Currently, a person who is 55-64 years old may deduct up to $20,000 of amounts received as pensions or annuities from any source from federal taxable income, and a person who is 65 years old or older may deduct up to $24,000.

The bill eliminates these limits and allows a person to claim a state income tax deduction for the entire amount of his or her pension or annuity payments.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 39-22-104, amend (4) (f) (III) as follows:

39-22-104. Income tax imposed on individuals, estates, and trusts - single rate - definitions - repeal. (4) There shall be subtracted from federal taxable income:

(f) (III) For income tax years commencing on or after January 1, 1989, BUT PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2017, amounts subtracted under this paragraph (f) shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars per tax year; except that, for income tax years, commencing on or after January 1, 2000, BUT PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2017, amounts subtracted under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (f) shall not exceed twenty-four thousand dollars per tax year for any individual who is sixty-five years of age or older at the close of the taxable year. For the purpose of determining the exclusion allowed by this paragraph (f), in the case of a joint return, social security benefits included in federal taxable income shall be apportioned in a ratio of the gross social security benefits of each taxpayer to the total gross social security benefits of both taxpayers. For the purposes of this paragraph (f), "pensions ~~and~~ OR annuities" means retirement benefits that are periodic payments attributable to personal services performed by an individual prior to his or her retirement from employment and that arise from an employer-employee relationship, from service in the uniformed services of the United States, or from

1 contributions to a retirement plan which are deductible for federal income
2 tax purposes. "Pensions ~~and~~ OR annuities" includes lump-sum 3 distributions from pension and profit sharing plans to the extent that such 4 distributions qualify for the tax-averaging computation under section 402
5 (e) (1) of the internal revenue code, distributions from individual 6 retirement arrangements and self-employed retirement accounts to the 7 extent that such distributions are not deemed to be premature distributions 8 for federal income tax purposes, amounts received from fully matured
9 privately purchased annuities, social security benefits, and amounts paid 10 from any such sources by reason of permanent disability or death of the 11 person entitled to receive the benefits.

13 takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the day following the expiration of the 14 ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general assembly (August

18 within such period, then the act, item, section, or part will not take effect 19 unless approved by the people at the general election to be held in
