4 (a) The state of Colorado has experienced substantial economic
5 growth since the last recession and because of that growth the state has 6 been able to effectively provide needed services for all Coloradans;

9 properly prepare for both good and bad economic times that lie ahead;
10 and

11 (c) A long-range financial forecast will allow each state agency
12 to anticipate and strategically plan for future contingencies that may 13 impact the state agency's ability to provide needed services, and it will 14 provide additional information to the general assembly so that it can 15 appropriate money in light of possible future changes.

16 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 2-3-209 as 17 follows:

18 2-3-209. Long-range financial plan - definitions. (1) AS USED
