Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

The bill requires local juvenile services planning committees to devise a plan to manage dually identified crossover youth. A dually identified crossover youth is a youth involved in both the juvenile justice system and the child welfare system. The plan must contain descriptions and processes to include the following:

- ! A process for the identification of dually identified crossover youth at the earliest reasonable point of contact;
- ! A method for collaborating and exchanging information with other judicial districts;
- ! A process for promptly communicating information about the youth's crossover status between the child welfare and juvenile justice systems and to notify each other of the new involvement in the respective system or information that may aid in the identification of dually identified crossover youth;
- ! A process for identifying the least restrictive appropriate placement;
- ! A process for sharing and gathering information in accordance with applicable laws and rules;
- ! A process for the development of a single case management plan and identification of the lead agency for case management purposes;
- ! A process that facilitates the sharing of assessments and case planning information;
- ! A process for a multi-disciplinary group of professionals to consider decisions that include: Youth and community safety, placement, provision of needed services, alternatives to detention and commitment, probation, parole, permanency, education stability, and case closure; and
- ! A requirement that dually identified crossover youth placed in a secure detention facility who are deemed eligible for release by the court be placed in the least restrictive setting whenever possible to reduce the disparity between dually identified crossover youth and nondually identified crossover youth in secure detention.

The bill allows marijuana tax cash fund money to be used for the development of local dually identified crossover youth plans and services.

4 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend 19-2-211 as 5 follows:

6 19-2-211. Local juvenile services planning committee -
7 creation - duties - identification and notification of dually identified
8 crossover youth. (1) If all of the boards of commissioners of each
9 county or the city council of each city and county in a judicial district
10 agree, there may be created in the judicial district a local juvenile services
11 planning committee that is appointed by the chief judge of the judicial 12 district or, for the second judicial district, the presiding judge of the 13 Denver juvenile court from persons recommended by the boards of 14 commissioners of each county or the city council of each city and county
15 within the judicial district. The committee, if practicable, must include,
16 but need not be limited to, a representative from the county department
17 of HUMAN OR social services, a local school district, a local law
18 enforcement agency, a local probation department, the division of youth
19 services, private citizens, the district attorney's office, and the public
20 defender's office and a community mental health representative and a 21 representative of the concerns of municipalities. The committee, if 22 created, shall meet as necessary to develop a plan for the allocation of 23 resources for local juvenile services within the judicial district for the 24 fiscal year. The committee is strongly encouraged to consider programs
25 with restorative justice components when developing the plan. The plan
26 must be approved by the department of human services. A local juvenile 27 services planning committee may be consolidated with other local

1 advisory boards pursuant to section 24-1.7-103.

2 (2) THE PLAN MUST INCLUDE FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF DUALY
