Final Reading
May 9, 2018

1 WHEREAS, Sgt. Ricard had many hobbies, including spinning
2 wool, weaving, and knitting, so skilled that she knitted angora wool baby 3 booties for several of her grandchildren from wool she spun from the 4 rabbits she raised; and

5 WHEREAS, In addition to raising rabbits, Sgt. Ricard raised 6 chickens, sheep, and geese and occasionally horses, pigs, and an emu, but 7 her prized pet was her tiny poodle Joshua, who her kids lovingly referred 8 to as "little brother"; and

9 WHEREAS, Among her many talents, Sgt. Ricard also loved to 10 sew and every year sewed pajamas for her family, a tradition started by 11 her grandmother on a farm in Minnesota where she often spent her 12 summers; and

13 WHEREAS, An accomplished cook, Sgt. Ricard worked for 14 Copper Mountain for a total of sixteen years, fourteen of which she 15 worked in the pastry kitchen, and rose up through the ranks due to her 16 diligence and strong work ethic to become its pastry chef for her last two 17 years there; and

18 WHEREAS, In her mid-forties, Sgt. Ricard was determined to 19 work with inmates and felt it was her religious calling to help prisoners, 20 so she gave up her career as a pastry chef to become a corrections officer; 21 and

22 WHEREAS, From 2003 to 2007, Sgt. Ricard was proud to work
23 as a corrections officer at Buena Vista Correctional Facility and was later
24 transferred to Arkansas Valley Correctional Facility in Crowley, 25 Colorado; and

26 WHEREAS, Sgt. Ricard shared her passion for baking with the 27 inmates and spent a lot of time teaching them basic baking skills that they 28 could apply once out in the real world; and

29 WHEREAS, On September 24, 2012, Sgt. Ricard, while in the 30 kitchen area during breakfast preparation with another corrections 31 sergeant, was violently attacked by an inmate; and

32 WHEREAS, Sgt. Ricard succumbed to her wounds and died; and

33 WHEREAS, Tony Carochi, director of prison operations for the

1 Colorado Department of Corrections, said Sgt. Ricard wanted to make a
2 difference and change people's lives: "In all things, Mary gave us 3 kindness, honesty, and, above all, courage."; and

4 WHEREAS, Governor John Hickenlooper shared that sentiment,
5 stating, "[Sgt. Ricard] was a believer. She believed in people, and that 6 every soul, no matter how far off the track, can be redeemed."; and

7 WHEREAS, Sgt. Ricard loved people, and dedicating her life to 8 helping those around her meant so much to her; now, therefore,

9 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-first General Assembly
10 of the State of Colorado, the House of Representatives concurring herein:

11 (1) That Highway 207, between Manzanola, Colorado, and 12 Crowley, Colorado, be renamed the "Sgt. Mary Ricard Memorial 13 Highway";

14 (2) That the Colorado Department of Transportation may accept 15 and expend gifts, grants, and donations for the purpose of the initial 16 placement of the two signs to mark Highway 207 as the "Sgt. Mary 17 Ricard Memorial Highway"; and

18 (3) That the Colorado Department of Transportation may explore 19 a cooperative agreement with the Board of County Commissioners for 20 Otero and Crowley Counties for the maintenance of the markings for the 21 "Sgt. Mary Ricard Memorial Highway".

22 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Resolution be sent 23 to Sgt. Mary Ricard's husband Timothy Ricard; daughter Katherine
24 Smith; sons Jack Benson, Benjamin Ricard, and Joseph Benson; Thomas
25 and Jean Ricard; father James Leidal; and Department of Corrections
26 Executive Director Rick Raemisch.
