"Colorado Seed Potato Act" (Act) and the seed potato advisory committee (committee) by:

- ! Extending the committee indefinitely, subject to review under the Act in 2028;
- ! Replacing a member of the committee who is an employee of the department of agriculture with a member who is a potato grower who does not grow seed potatoes, with a preference for a potato grower with an operation in the western slope region of the state, but only when commercial cultivation begins in the western slope region;
- ! Repealing a requirement that one member of the committee who represents the Colorado Certified Potato Growers Association be the association's sitting president; and
- ! Repealing a provision that sets and staggers the initial terms of the members of the committee.
