		Fiscal Analyst:	Vanessa Reilly 303-866-4753 Vanessa.Reilly@state.co.us

Bill Topic: FREEDOM TO VOTE ACT

Summary of Fiscal Impact: No fiscal impact. The bill would have required major political parties to waive any fees charged to delegates or alternates to participate in party assemblies. It would have had no fiscal impact on state or local governments.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation was required.

Fiscal Note Status: This fiscal note reflects the introduced bill. This bill was not enacted into law; therefore, the impacts identified in this analysis do not take effect.

Summary of Legislation

This bill would have required that major political parties waive any fees charged to participate in a party assembly, upon request of a delegate or alternate. It also would have required major political parties to inform electors at party caucuses that electors chosen to be delegates or alternates are not required to pay a fee in order to participate in the party assembly.

Assessment of No Fiscal Impact

Party assemblies are organized and conducted by political parties. Any assembly-related fees are collected by the parties, not by state or by local governments. Therefore, the bill was assessed as having no fiscal impact.

Effective Date

The bill was deemed lost on third reading in the House of Representatives on April 1, 2019.
