Summary of Legislation

The bill requires that the Commissioner of Education convene an 11-member work group who are required to analyze relevant data and research related to dyslexia, and to evaluate the implementation and efficacy of other state legislation related to dyslexia screening and educator training. The work group must identify and recommend a statewide plan for supporting dyslexic students and training both existing and pre-service educators. The work group must submit a progress report by December 1, 2019, and a report of its recommendations to the commissioner no later than July 1, 2020, and by each July 1 thereafter. No later than February 1, 2020, and each February 1 thereafter, the commissioner must submit the report with any legislative recommendations to the General Assembly. The work group is repealed September 1, 2029.

Beginning with the 2020-21 school year this bill creates the pilot program to identify markers of dyslexia and enable effective interventions in the CDE. The CDE will consult with the work group in designing the pilot program, and select up to five local education providers (LEPs) who volunteer to participate. The LEPs will work with the CDE to use the results obtained from early literacy assessments to identify markers of dyslexia and provide support to early grade readers who may exhibit these markers.

Following the 2022-23 school year, the CDE must evaluate the implementation of the pilot program and the effectiveness of the piloted strategies to identify and support dyslexic students. No later than December 31, 2022, the department must prepare a final report for the General Assembly. The pilot program is repealed July 1, 2023.

State Expenditures

The bill increases state expenditures by $106,196 in FY 2019-20, and by $168,589 in FY 2020-21. New expenses are displayed in Table 2 and described below.

Work group. The bill requires that CDE convene an eleven-member work group to study identification of and support for dyslexic students. The work group will meet up to ten times in FY 2019-20, and up to four times in FY 2020-21. State expenditures increase for travel and expenses for both work group participants and CDE staff. The work group must include a state or national literacy expert and a state or national dyslexia expert. The CDE will arrange out-of-state travel for at least one national expert to attend at least two meetings in FY 2019-20. Work group expenses also include venue rental and catering, contracted facilitation, and resources for substitute teachers, such that the teacher members of the work group may attend meetings during the school year.

Pilot program. Implementing the pilot program in FY 2020-21 increases state expenditures for educator professional development materials and training, resources for substitute teachers, staff travel expenses, and evaluation. A professional evaluator will be selected in FY 2019-20, following a request for proposals (RFP) process, to allow for input in program design. This fiscal note assumes five participating school districts representing diverse geographic location and size, and up to 140 participating educators.

School District

School districts will have additional workload and expenses to participate in the pilot program and the work group.
