Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) Human trafficking is a serious problem in Colorado and across the nation;

(b) Among the diverse populations affected by human trafficking, minors, especially homeless and runaway youth, are particularly at risk of being trafficked for sex and involuntary labor;

(c) Minors who are forced into involuntary servitude and commercial sexual activity are more properly identified as victims and not as criminals; and

(d) Human trafficking in all forms creates a cycle of violence and impacts victims, families, and communities.

(2) The general assembly further finds and declares that:

(a) As a result of the diverse systems that touch these minors' lives, professionals in the child welfare, law enforcement, treatment, nonprofit, and faith-based communities must collaborate to develop a multidisciplinary approach to protect children and youth who are victims of human trafficking. This multidisciplinary approach needs to emphasize prevention, protection, prosecution, and partnerships.

(b) Protecting minors who are victims of human trafficking from further trauma by recognizing them as victims rather than criminals is beneficial for the minors involved and therefore in the public interest.

(3) It is therefore the intent of the general assembly to:

(a) Offer pathways that direct victimized minors away from juvenile delinquency by making available to those minors appropriate and comprehensive rehabilitative services;

(b) Offer protection and provide consistency in the treatment, care, and support of minors who are victims of human trafficking so they may continue to heal from the traumatic environment of being trafficked in a restorative justice manner; and

(c) Help create a safe haven for minors who are victims of human trafficking to come forward without fear and identify their traffickers and perpetrators.

(4) Therefore, the general assembly declares that the general assembly joins the federal government and other states around the nation in passing legislation to further combat human trafficking and protect minors who are victims of human trafficking.
