Water Resources Review Committee. Current law specifies that an appropriation of water cannot be based on speculation, as evidenced by either of the following:

1. The applicant does not have either a legally vested interest or a reasonable expectation of procuring such an interest in the lands or facilities to be served by the appropriation, unless the appropriator is a governmental agency or an agent in fact for the persons proposed to be benefited by the appropriation; or

The applicant does not have a specific plan and intent to divert, store, or otherwise capture, possess, and control a specific quantity of water for specific beneficial uses.

The bill requires the executive director of the department of natural resources to convene a work group to explore ways to strengthen current anti-speculation law and to report to the water resources review committee by August 15, 2021, regarding any recommended changes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 37-98-103, add (8)

as follows:

(8) (a) The executive director of the department of natural resources shall convene a work group during the 2020 interim to explore ways to strengthen current water anti-speculation law. The department and the attorney general shall support the efforts of the work group.

(b) The work group consists of current or former employees of the department from the state engineer's office and the Colorado water conservation board appointed by the executive director, one or more current employees of the attorney general's office appointed by the attorney general, one or more current or former employees of the judicial department appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court, and such other stakeholders as the executive director determines would be helpful to promote the work group process or work product.

(c) The work group shall submit a written report to the COMMITTEE BY AUGUST 15, 2021, REGARDING ANY RECOMMENDED CHANGES.

(d) THIS SUBSECTION (8) IS REPEALED, EFFECTIVE SEPTEMBER 1,
