HOUSE BILL 20-1213

A BILL FOR AN ACT

Concerning the continuation of the Department of Agriculture’s regulatory functions related to persons who work with agricultural products, and, in connection therewith, implementing recommendations contained in the 2019 sunset report by the department of regulatory agencies concerning the "Commodity Handler Act" and the "Farm Products Act".

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at http://leg.colorado.gov.)

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment. Capital letters or bold & italic numbers indicate new material to be added to existing statute. Dashes through the words indicate deletions from existing statute.
Sunset Process - House Rural Affairs and Agriculture Committee. The bill implements recommendations of the department of regulatory agencies' sunset review and report on the licensing functions of the commissioner of agriculture (commissioner) regarding the "Commodity Handler Act" and the "Farm Products Act" by:

- Continuing the commissioner's licensing functions for 11 years, until 2031;
- Combining the "Commodity Handler Act" and the "Farm Products Act" in one article;
- Requiring rule-making regarding bond schedules, record keeping, minimal financial requirements, initial and renewal license requirements, credit sale contract requirements, and standard warehouse operation requirements;
- Requiring that financial statements submitted to the commissioner be prepared by a certified public accountant;
- Increasing the maximum bond amount that farm products dealers must file from $200,000 to $1 million; and
- For the definition of "small-volume dealer", repealing the limitation that a small-volume dealer cannot purchase $2,500 or more worth of farm products or commodities in a single transaction.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 24-34-104, repeal (18)(a)(IV); and add (26)(a)(IX) as follows:

24-34-104. General assembly review of regulatory agencies and functions for repeal, continuation, or reestablishment - legislative declaration - repeal. (18) (a) The following agencies, functions, or both, are scheduled to repeal on July 1, 2020:

(a)(I) EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (1)(a)(II) OF THIS SECTION, the applicant or licensee shall furnish the commissioner with evidence of minimum provisional insurance coverage in an amount sufficient to protect the applicant's storage obligations. If, at any time, the commissioner evaluates an applicant's provisional insurance coverage to be insufficient, the commissioner may require such additional insurance as the commissioner considers sufficient. Failure to provide evidence of the additional insurance within thirty days after written notice from the commissioner constitutes grounds for the suspension or revocation of the license.

(II) A SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER NEED NOT COMPLY WITH SUBSECTION (1)(a)(I) OF THIS SECTION.

(b)(I) EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (1)(b)(III) OF THIS SECTION, the applicant or licensee shall MUST furnish the commissioner with a financial statement that presents accurately the applicant's or licensee's financial condition. The commissioner may promulgate rules that clearly state the information required from each applicant or licensee under this section. Any financial statement submitted to the commissioner in support of a license application made pursuant to the provisions of this article 36 shall be confidential.

(II) Whenever the commissioner deems it appropriate, he or she may require any applicant for an initial license, any applicant for a renewal of a license, or any licensee to submit a financial statement or an audit prepared by a certified public accountant or any other information the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether the person is in an adequate financial position to carry out his or her duties as a licensee.

(III) A small-volume commodity handler need not comply with the financial statement submission requirement set forth in subsection (1)(b)(I) of this section.

(2) If a licensee fails to apply for license renewal before an annual date specified by the commissioner by rule, the licensee shall, upon application for a renewal license and before the license is issued, pay a penalty fee as established by the agricultural commission. The penalty fee shall be in addition to the license fee.

(1) The commissioner may deny an application for a license, or may refuse to renew a license, or may revoke or suspend a license, or may place a licensee on probation, as the case may require, if the licensee or applicant has:

(a) Violated any of the provisions of this article 36, PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104 or violated any of the rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to this article 36;

(b) Failed to place and keep the premises of the licensed business in the manner required under this article 36 PART 2;

   (c) Been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of any other state, or of the United States; except that, in consideration of the conviction of a felony, the commissioner shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101;

   (d) Committed fraud or deception in the procurement or attempted procurement of a license;

   (e) WITH RESPECT TO A COMMODITY HANDLER APPLICANT OR LICENSEE, failed or refused to execute and deliver to the commissioner a surety bond as required by section 35-36-119 SECTION 35-36-216;

   (f) Been determined by the commissioner to be in an inadequate financial position to meet liability obligations;

   (g) Failed to comply with any lawful order of the commissioner concerning the administration of this article 36 PART 2; OR

   (h) Had a license revoked, suspended, or not renewed or has been placed on probation in another state for cause, if the cause could be the basis for similar disciplinary action in this state.

   (2) All proceedings concerning the denial, refusal to renew, revocation, or suspension of a license or the placing of a licensee on probation shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24.

   (3) Any previous violation of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104 by the applicant or any person connected with the applicant in the business for which the applicant seeks to be licensed or, in the case of a partnership or corporation applicant, any previous violations of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104 by a partner, officer, director, or stockholder of more than thirty percent of the outstanding shares, is sufficient grounds for the denial of a license.

(1) Acceptance of commodities for storage by a warehouse operator shall constitute a bailment and not a sale. Stored commodities shall not be liable subject to seizure upon process of a court in an action against the bailee, except upon action by owners of the stored commodities or the commissioner to enforce the terms thereof; but, in the event of the failure or insolvency of a bailee, commodities shall be first applied exclusively to the settlement on an equal basis of all outstanding negotiable warehouse receipts and other open storage obligations for commodities so stored with the bailee.

(2) Forwarded commodities shall be used only to meet the storage obligation to the forwarding warehouse operator.

(3) The purchase of a commodity does not constitute a bailment.

(1) When a commodity handler purchases commodities for which payment has not been made, the commodity handler, within thirty days after the receipt of the commodities, shall provide the producer or owner of the commodities with the credit sale contract. The credit sale contract must contain the following information:

   (a) The class, grade, and quantity of the commodities purchased, and the date of the purchase;
   (b) The charges for handling, if any;
   (c) The name and address of the producer or owner and the signature of the commodity handler;
   (d) The contract number;
(e) The words "not a storage contract" printed in block capital letters in bold-faced type, conspicuously on the first page of the contract;

(f) One or more statements specified by the commissioner by rule, including one that warns a producer that entering into a credit sale contract entails a risk that the bond may not completely protect the producer from loss in the event of a failure of the commodity handler.

(2) (a) A commodity handler or a small-volume commodity handler shall retain records for a period of two years and shall keep the records at the commodity handler's or the small-volume commodity handler's place of business at all times.

(b) (I) With respect to a credit sale contract, a commodity handler shall retain records for a period of two years after the date of completion of the credit sale contract.

(II) The records must reflect those credit sale contracts that have been cancelled and those that are still open. The records shall be kept at the commodity handler's place of business at all times.

(3) The commissioner shall require an annual report of the status of the credit sale contracts may be required by the commissioner along with the financial statement required in section 35-36-106 35-36-204 (1)(b).

(4) A commodity handler or small-volume commodity handler shall consecutively number all credit sale contracts entered into by a commodity handler shall be consecutively numbered by the commodity handler, and make available copies thereof shall be made available by the commodity handler of the credit sale contracts for inspection and examination by the commissioner or his or her THE COMMISSIONER'S authorized agents.

(5) A commodity handler issuing credit sale contracts shall maintain allowable net assets of not less than twenty-five thousand dollars and shall maintain reserves in an amount equaling or exceeding FIFTY-One hundred percent of the value of all of that commodity handler's open credit sale contracts, which value shall be determined with reference to the daily bid price. The reserves may be in the form of any one or a combination of the following:

(a) Cash;

(b) Commodity assets, including commodities and warehouse receipts or other evidences of storage of commodities;

(c) Credit sale contracts with other commodity handlers licensed by the department; OR

(d) An irrevocable letter of credit in favor of the commissioner, which letter of credit shall be subject to the provisions of section 35-36-216. OR

(e) Net worth of the commodity handler of at least four times the value of the open credit sale contracts.

(6) A SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER SHALL NOT ENTER INTO OR OFFER TO ENTER INTO A CREDIT SALE CONTRACT.

35-36-208. [Formerly 35-36-110] Commodity grades established - rules. The department may promulgate rules concerning commodity grades in accordance with the standards established by the United States department of agriculture as the official grain standards of the United States government.

35-36-209. [Formerly 35-36-112] Negotiable warehouse receipts - rules. (1) A negotiable warehouse receipt must be either a paper or an electronic document. At no time may a paper receipt and an electronic receipt represent the same lot of the commodity. A licensee may issue warehouse receipts by use of a written warehouse receipt system, an electronic warehouse receipt system, or both.

(2) The department is the sole source of paper negotiable warehouse receipts and shall furnish those receipts at cost.

(3) Instead of a paper document, a licensee may issue an electronic negotiable version of a warehouse receipt generated by a vendor licensed and approved by the United States department of agriculture if the receipt contains the same information as the paper version of a warehouse receipt. The electronic version of a warehouse receipt carries the same rights and obligations as the paper version. A holder of an electronic version of a warehouse receipt may redeem the warehouse receipt by applying an electronic signature registered and authenticated by a vendor credited by the United States department of agriculture.

(4) The commissioner may promulgate rules regarding the issuance, use, and records requirements of negotiable warehouse receipts.

35-36-210. [Formerly 35-36-113] Use of scale tickets and negotiable warehouse receipts. (1) It is unlawful to issue paper negotiable warehouse receipts other than those furnished by the department. The A licensee shall issue these receipts consecutively, as numbered, and each receipt must state the date on which it is actually issued.

(2) Nothing in this article 36 shall be construed to prevent PART 2 PREVENTS the issuance of nonnegotiable scale tickets or other nonnegotiable evidences EVIDENCE of a similar nature showing the date on which the commodities were received, the quantities received, and the condition of the commodities upon their delivery.

(3) When partial withdrawal of a commodity is made by an owner, the warehouse operator shall make an appropriate notation thereof on the depositor's nonnegotiable warehouse receipt or on such other records as may be prescribed by the department. If, BEFORE THE PARTIAL WITHDRAWAL OF THE COMMODITY, the warehouse operator has theretofore issued a negotiable warehouse receipt to the owner, the warehouse operator shall claim, cancel, and replace it with a new negotiable warehouse receipt, showing the amount of the owner's commodity remaining in the public warehouse.

(4) Every commodity handler receiving commodities for storage or handling shall immediately, upon receipt of each load, issue to every person delivering the commodity a scale ticket, which MUST contain the net weight of each separate draft or load of the commodity and the dockage, if any, to be levied at the time of delivery, and such other information as may be required by the department.

(5) Acceptance of commodities for storage by a warehouse operator for which a negotiable warehouse receipt is issued shall constitute a bailment process and not a sale. If a warehouse operator fails to claim and cancel a negotiable warehouse receipt issued on delivery for commodities stored in the warehouse operator's public warehouse and the negotiation of which would transfer the right of possession of that commodity, the warehouse operator is liable, to a good faith purchaser for value, for his or her failure to deliver to the purchaser all the commodities specified in the receipt. This liability shall apply whether the purchaser acquired title to the negotiable warehouse receipt before, on, or after the delivery of any part of the commodity by the warehouse operator.

35-36-211. [Formerly 35-36-114] Commodity handler records - separate and distinct - time of maintenance - definition. (1) A commodity handler operating another business in conjunction with, or in proximity to, the handler's commodity handling business shall keep a complete set of records for the commodity handling business, entirely separate and distinct from the accounts and records of that other business. The deposits of commodities for the account of another business or for commodities owned by the commodity handler shall be entered in the books of the commodity handler in the same manner as those of other depositors. For the purpose of this section, "other business" shall mean any other separate and legally established enterprise that is distinct and separate from the legal and financial transactions of the commodity handling business.

(2) Commodity handlers shall maintain adequate records and systems for the filing and accounting of negotiable warehouse receipts, cancelled negotiable warehouse receipts, scale tickets, and other documents and transactions necessary or common to the commodity handling industry. A commodity handler shall retain cancelled negotiable warehouse receipts, copies of scale tickets, and copies of other documents evidencing ownership or ownership liability.
shall be retained by the commodity handler for a period of at least three years after the date of cancellation.

(3) A commodity handler or small-volume commodity handler shall post a position report shall be posted daily; however, if a daily position report poses a substantial hardship, the commissioner may authorize, in writing, a weekly position report. The position report shall MUST include, but need not be limited to, total stocks by commodities received or loaded out, forwarding of commodities to terminal storage, conversions of whole commodities to feed, negotiable warehouse receipt obligations, open storage obligations, credit sale contracts, and public-warehouse-owned commodities.

(4) A scale ticket shall be issued for each receipt of commodities. A copy of the scale ticket shall be given to the owner. The commodity handler's copy shall be filed with all other such copies in numerical sequence and shall file and retain voided scale tickets at the commodity handler's place of business. Scale tickets shall be issued in numerical sequence. An issued scale ticket shall MUST contain the following: Sequential number; date; owner's name; commodity handler's name; commodity; test weight with dockage, if applicable; grade, if assigned; gross weight; tare weight; and net weights, in the case of weights from hopper scales.

(5) A settlement sheet shall be maintained for each owner and shall contain the following: Owner's name; scale ticket numbers; total receipts; total withdrawals; test weight; and grade, if assigned. A copy of a current settlement sheet shall be provided to the owner upon request.

35-36-212. [Formerly 35-36-115] Warehouse operator's liability for disposal of tainted commodities. (1) A warehouse operator shall be liable for any loss or deterioration of commodities in a public warehouse caused by the warehouse operator's failure to exercise reasonable care of the commodities.

(2) If a warehouse operator discovers that, as a result of a condition of a commodity placed in the warehouse operator's public warehouse of which the warehouse operator had no notice at the time of deposit, the commodity is a hazard to other commodities or to persons or to the public warehouse and if the commodity is not immediately removed by the owner upon the warehouse operator's request, the warehouse operator may sell the commodity after reasonable notice to all persons known to claim an interest in the commodity. If the warehouse operator is unable to sell the commodity after a reasonable effort, the warehouse operator may dispose of it in any other lawful manner, and shall incur no liability to the owner for the disposition.

(3) At any time before the sale or disposition authorized in this section, the warehouse operator shall deliver the commodity to any person entitled to it upon proper demand and payment of all charges incurred for the specific lot of that commodity.

(4) The commissioner may reject as unsuitable for storage any area of the warehouse operator's premises, unless that area is used for storing the warehouse operator's own commodities.

(2) Complaints of record made to the commissioner and the results of his or her THE COMMISSIONER'S investigations may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be closed to public inspection during the investigatory period and until dismissed or until notice of hearing and charges is served on a licensee, unless otherwise provided by court order.

(3) The commissioner, upon consent of the licensee or upon obtaining an administrative search warrant, has the right to inspect any commodity handler's OR SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER'S place of business where commodities are stored, handled, or received and any records pertaining to storage obligations and commodity positions kept by the commodity handler OR SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER that pertain to the operation thereof OF THE PLACE OF BUSINESS. The property, books, records, accounts, and papers pertaining to storage obligations and commodity positions of every commodity handler shall—be OR SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER ARE subject to inspection and copying by the commissioner.

(4) The commissioner shall have HAS full authority to administer oaths and take statements, to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of all books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles, or instruments, and to compel the disclosure by the witnesses of all facts known to them relative to the matters under investigation. Upon the failure or refusal of any witness to obey any subpoena, the commissioner may petition the district court, and, upon a proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey such an order of the court shall be punishable as a contempt of court.

(5) The commissioner may examine the ledgers, books, accounts, memoranda, and other documents and the commodities, scales, measures, and other items in connection with the business of any licensee relating to whatever transactions may be involved.

(6) The commissioner shall not be required to investigate or act upon complaints regarding transactions that occurred more than one hundred twenty days prior to the date upon which the commissioner received the written complaint.

(7) If the investigation is against a licensee, the commissioner shall proceed to ascertain the names and addresses of all producers, dealers, or owners of commodities, together with the accounts unaccounted for or due and owing to them by the licensee, and shall request the producers, dealers, or owners to file verified statements of their respective claims with the commissioner. If a producer, dealer, or owner so requested fails, refuses, or neglects to file a verified statement in the office of the commissioner within thirty days after the date of the request, the commissioner shall thereupon be relieved of any further duty or action under this part on behalf of the producer, dealer, or owner.

(8) In the course of any investigation, the commissioner may attempt to effectuate a settlement between the respective parties.
(9) (a) If the commissioner determines, after concluding an investigation on any complaint, that reasonable grounds exist to believe that a licensee has violated any of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2, the commissioner shall notify the licensee that the complaint is valid and shall inform the licensee of his or her opportunity to request a hearing, in writing, on the complaint within ten days after the date of the notice.

(b) Upon the receipt of a request for a hearing from a licensee or if the commissioner determines that a hearing concerning any licensee is necessary, the commissioner shall cause a copy of the complaint or the grounds specified in section 35-36-107, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing, to be served personally or by mail upon the licensee. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated or in which the transactions involved allegedly occurred or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct the hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105. Thereafter, the commissioner shall enter a decision specifying the relevant facts established at the hearing. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has not violated any of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104, the COMMISSIONER SHALL DISMISS THE complaint. If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104, and that the licensee has not yet made complete restitution to the person complaining, the commissioner shall determine the amount of damages, if any, to which the person is entitled as the result of the violation and shall enter an order directing the offender to pay the amount to the person complaining on or before the date fixed in the order. A copy of the decision shall be furnished to all the respective parties to the complaint.

(10) As a result of the hearing, the commissioner may also enter any order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee or may place the licensee on probation if the commissioner determines that the licensee has committed any of the unlawful acts specified in section 35-36-123 SECTION 35-36-217 or that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this article 36 PART 2 OR SECTION 35-36-104.

(11) (a) If a person against whom an order, as specified in subsection (9)(c) of this section, is made and issued fails, neglects, or refuses to obey said THE order within the time specified in the order, the commissioner may thereupon issue a further order to that person directing the person to show cause why his or her THE PERSON'S license should not be suspended or revoked for failure to comply with said THE order.

(b) In such case, a copy of said THE order to show cause, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing, thereupon, shall be served personally or by mail upon the person involved. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct the hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105 and thereafter shall enter an order and decision specifying the facts established at the hearing and either dismissing the order to show cause, or directing the suspension or revocation of the license held by the licensee, or making such other conditional or probationary orders as may be proper. A copy of said THE order and decision shall be furnished to the licensee.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting LIMITS

WAS COMMITTED.

(12) Whenever the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the commissioner to ascertain the names and addresses of all persons specified in subsection (7) of this section, the commissioner, after exercising due diligence and making a reasonable inquiry to secure said THE information from all reasonable and available sources, shall IS not be liable or responsible for the claims or the handling of claims that may subsequently appear or be discovered. After ascertaining all claims, assessments, and statements in the manner set forth in subsection (7) of this section, the commissioner may then demand payment on the bond or irrevocable letter of credit on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been determined by the commissioner as valid and, in the instance of a bond, may settle or compromise said THE claims with the surety company on the bond and execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand, the commissioner may bring an action on the bond on behalf of the producer, dealer, or owner.

(13) For the purpose of this section, a transaction is deemed to have occurred:

(a) On the date that possession of commodities is transferred by a claimant; or

(b) In the case of delayed payment transactions, on the contractual date of payment or, if there is no contractual date of payment, thirty days following the transfer of title.

(14) A COMMODITY HANDLER OR SMALL-VOLUME COMMODITY HANDLER SHALL MAINTAIN a public warehouse shall be maintained by the commodity handler in a manner adequate to provide a convenient and safe means of ingress and egress to the various storage bins and compartments by those persons authorized to make inspections.

If the commissioner determines from the facts specified that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this article 37 PART 3 OR SECTION 35-36-104, and that the licensee has not yet made complete restitution to the person complaining, the commissioner shall determine the amount of damages, if any, to which the person is entitled as the result of the violation and enter an order directing the offender to pay the person complaining the amount of DAMAGES on or before the date fixed in the order. The commissioner shall cause to be furnished a copy of the decision shall be furnished to all the respective parties to the complaint.

(9) As a result of the hearing, the commissioner may also enter any AN order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee or may place the licensee on probation if the commissioner determines that the licensee has committed any of the unlawful acts specified in section 35-37-118 section 35-36-313 or that the licensee has violated any of the provisions of this article 37 Part 3 or section 35-36-104.

(10) (a) If a person against whom an order, as specified in subsection (8)(c) of this section, is made and issued fails, neglects, or refuses to obey the order within the time specified in the order, the commissioner may thereupon issue a further order to that person directing him or her THE PERSON to show cause why his or her THE PERSON'S license should not be suspended or revoked for failure to comply with the order.

(b) In such case IF THE COMMISSIONER ISSUES AN ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (10)(a) OF THIS SECTION, a copy of the order to show cause, together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing thereupon ON THE ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE, shall be served personally or by mail upon the person involved. Service shall be made at least ten days before the hearing, which shall be held in the city or town in which the business location of the licensee is situated or at any convenient place designated by the commissioner.

(c) The commissioner shall conduct the hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-105 and thereafter shall enter in his or her THE COMMISSIONER'S office an order and decision specifying the facts established at the hearing and either dismissing the order to show cause, or directing the suspension or revocation of the license held by the licensee, or making such other conditional or probationary orders as may be proper. THE COMMISSIONER SHALL CAUSE A copy of the order and decision shall TO be furnished to the licensee.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the power of the commissioner to revoke or suspend a license when satisfied of the existence of any of the facts specified in section 35-37-118.

(11) Whenever the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the commissioner to ascertain the names and addresses of all persons specified in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner, after exercising due diligence and making a reasonable inquiry to secure said information from all reasonable and available sources, shall not be liable or responsible for the claims or the handling of claims that may subsequently appear or be discovered. After ascertaining all claims, assessments, and statements in the manner set forth in subsection (6) of this section, the commissioner may then demand payment on the bond or irrevocable letter of credit on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been determined by the commissioner as valid and, in the instance of a bond, may settle or compromise the claims with the surety company on the bond and execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand, the commissioner may bring an action on the bond on behalf of the producer, dealer, small-volume dealer, or owner.

(12) For the purpose of this section, a transaction is deemed to
have occurred:

(a) On the date that possession of farm products is transferred by a claimant; OR

(b) On delayed payment transactions, on the contractual date of payment, or, if there is no contractual date of payment, thirty days following the transfer of title.
