A BILL FOR AN ACT

101 CONCERNING LIMITATIONS ON CERTAIN DEBT COLLECTION ACTIONS.

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

The bill establishes a 180-day prohibition on any new extraordinary debt collection actions from the effective date of the bill. An extraordinary collection action is defined as an action in the nature of a garnishment, attachment, levy, or execution to collect or enforce a judgment on a debt as defined under the "Colorado Fair Debt Collection Practices Act" (FDCPA). The use of an extraordinary collection action during the period of the prohibition constitutes an unfair and unconscionable means of collecting a debt under the FDCPA. The administrator of the "Uniform Consumer Credit Code" (administrator) is authorized to issue an order extending the prohibition for up to an additional 180 days if the administrator finds that the extension is necessary to preserve the resources of state and local agencies or to protect the residents of Colorado from economic hardship as a result of the disaster emergency caused by COVID-19.

The bill amends provisions concerning property that is exempt from levy and sale under a writ of attachment or execution as follows:

- ! The value of household goods that are exempt is increased from $3,000 to $6,000;
- ! The value of a motor vehicle that is exempt is increased from $7,500 to $15,000;
- ! The value of a motor vehicle kept and used by an elderly or disabled debtor that is exempt is increased from $12,500 to $20,000; and
- ! An exemption for up to $7,000 in a depository account in the name of the debtor is added.

In addition, the formulas for determining the amount of earnings subject to garnishment are amended to increase the amount of a debtor's earnings that are exempt.

An attempt to collect amounts in excess of what is permitted under statutes limiting garnishment, attachment, and execution is an unfair or unconscionable debt collection practice for purposes of the FDCPA.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds and declares that:

4 (a) The COVID-19 epidemic has the potential to cause and has
5 caused economic hardship for Coloradans beyond those directly and 6 intimately affected by the declared disaster emergency. The economic
7 hardships caused, directly or indirectly, by the declared disaster
8 emergency may be made worse by the involuntary disablement of 9 property by extraordinary collection actions such as attachment,
10 garnishment, execution, and levy. Involuntary disablement of property
11 through these extraordinary collection actions contributes to significant 12 numbers of bankruptcies, foreclosures, evictions, and repossessions,

1 which threaten to create and do create further economic harm beyond
2 those directly affected.

3 (b) Existing regulations may not adequately protect consumers in 4 the context of a declared disaster emergency and may not be sufficient to 5 prevent the further economic harm caused by extraordinary collection
6 actions. It is therefore necessary to provide additional protections to 7 Colorado consumers.

8 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 24-33.5-704.3
9 as follows:

10 24-33.5-704.3. Temporary prohibition on extraordinary
