Joint Budget Committee. Section 1 of the bill is a nonstatutory legislative declaration stating the critical need for the provision and financing of auxiliary services throughout rural areas of the state. Auxiliary services are aids and services that assist in effective communication with a person who is deaf, hard of hearing, or deafblind.

Section 2 requires the Colorado commission for the deaf, hard of hearing, and deafblind (commission) to arrange for the provision of auxiliary services in rural areas of the state, including the provision of training and outreach regarding the auxiliary services. The commission is required to report annually on the program to the joint budget committee.

Section 3 amends the definition of "entity" regarding entities eligible to apply to the commission for grant money to remove the requirement that a not-for-profit organization must be a community-based organization to be eligible to apply for grant money.

Section 4 directs the public utilities commission to implement a cost-recovery mechanism to support the provision of auxiliary services in rural areas of the state.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds and declares that:

4 (a) Auxiliary services are aids and services that assist in effective
5 communication with a person who is deaf, hard of hearing, or deafblind;

6 (b) There is a severe shortage of auxiliary services available in
7 rural parts of the state;

8 (c) While the federal "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990",
9 42 U.S.C. sec. 12101 et seq., requires governmental entities and private
10 businesses to provide auxiliary services free of charge to auxiliary
11 services users, it is difficult for local governments and businesses in rural
12 areas to cover the extensive costs associated with providing auxiliary
13 services, including travel, to rural areas; and

14 (d) To help level the playing field for all persons who are deaf,
15 hard of hearing, or deafblind in the state, it is imperative that the state

1 develop a statewide program to help organize, dispatch, and finance the
2 provision of auxiliary services throughout rural areas of the state.

3 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 26-21-106, add (9)
