practice act, clinical social worker candidates and addiction counselor candidates to the list of mental health licensee candidates who are subject to disciplinary actions and injunctions by their respective regulatory boards.

Section 3 updates the definition of "registrant" by adding a cross reference for clinical social worker candidates and by adding addiction counselor candidates to the definition.

Section 4 adds unlicensed psychotherapists to the section of law that clarifies that mental health professionals cannot administer or prescribe drugs or practice medicine.

Current law prohibits a person who practices religious ministry from publicly claiming to be a licensed, certified, or registered mental health professional unless the person possesses the proper credentials. Section 5 adds certified addiction specialists and certified addiction technicians to the list of mental health professionals and makes a technical change to that same section of law.

Sections 6, 7, 9, and 10 delete obsolete language from the social worker practice act, the marriage and family therapist practice act, the licensed professional counselor practice act, and the addiction counselor practice act concerning the initial appointment of members to their respective regulatory boards.

Section 8 replaces the term "psychotherapists" with the proper term "mental health professionals" in the definition of "marriage and family therapy practice".

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 12-30-110, amend
3 (4)(b) and (7)(b.5) as follows:

4 12-30-110. Prescribing or dispensing opiate antagonists -
5 authorized recipients - definitions. (4) (b) A law enforcement agency
6 or first responder; an employee or volunteer of a harm reduction
7 organization; a school district, school, or employee or agent of a school;
8 a person described in section 25-20.5-1001; A MENTAL HEALTH
9 PROFESSIONAL; or a unit of local government acting in accordance with 10 this section is not subject to civil liability or criminal prosecution, as 11 specified in sections 13-21-108.7 (3) and 18-1-712 (2), respectively.

1 (7) As used in this section:

2 (b.5) "Mental health professional" means a psychologist, social
3 worker, marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor,
4 UNLICENSED psychotherapist, or addiction counselor licensed, registered,
5 or certified under article 245 of this title 12.

6 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend 12-245-101
7 as follows:

8 12-245-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
9 hereby finds and determines that, in order to safeguard the public health,
10 safety, and welfare of the people of this state and in order to protect the 11 people of this state against the unauthorized, unqualified, and improper
12 application of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, 13 professional counseling, psychotherapy, and addiction counseling, it is 14 necessary that the proper regulatory authorities be established and 15 adequately provided for.

16 (2) The general assembly therefore declares that there shall be 17 established a state board of psychologist examiners, a state board of social 18 work examiners, a state board of marriage and family therapist examiners,
19 a state board of licensed professional counselor examiners, a state board
20 of unlicensed psychotherapists, and a state board of addiction counselor
21 examiners with the authority to license, register, or certify, and take 22 disciplinary actions or bring injunctive actions, or both, concerning
