department of public safety, subject to the availability of a suitable aircraft at a reasonable price as determined by the state treasurer in consultation with the division. Payments under the financing agreement are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly from the Colorado firefighting air corps fund, from the general fund, or from any other legally available source of money. The financing agreement that is entered into must authorize the state or the division to receive fee title to the fire hawk helicopter on or before the expiration of the terms of the financing agreement.
