is not lawfully present in the United States. The following are, among others, some of the requirements to be issued the driver's license or identification card:

- A requirement that the applicant has filed a Colorado resident income tax return for the immediately preceding year;
- A requirement that the applicant can demonstrate being a resident of the state for the immediately preceding 2 years;
- A requirement to provide a documented social security number or individual taxpayer identification number; and
- A requirement to present a passport, consular identification card, or military identification document from the person's country of origin.

The bill changes these requirements by:

- Repealing the requirement that the applicant have filed a Colorado resident income tax return;
- Repealing the requirement that the applicant demonstrate being a resident of the state for the immediately preceding 2 years;
- Repealing the requirement that the applicant provide a documented social security number or individual taxpayer identification number; and
- Adding the following documents to the list of acceptable identification documents:
 - A photocopy of a passport issued by the applicant's country of origin;
 - A voter identification card with a photograph issued by the applicant's country of origin;
 - A driver's license, instruction permit, or identification card issued by the applicant's country of origin;
 - An identifying document issued by the United States department of homeland security, or its contractors or subcontractors, or the United States department of justice;
 - An identification card issued under the intensive supervision appearance program by the United States immigration and customs enforcement agency; and
 - A verification-of-release identification card issued by the office of refugee resettlement in the United States department of health and human services.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

1 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend 42-1-230 as
2 follows:

3 42-1-230. Exceptions processing - rules. Beginning September
4 1, 2014, the department of revenue shall provide the opportunity for
5 exceptions processing in person at a minimum of four regional offices
6 that are actually operated by the department of revenue and that issue
7 driver's licenses. The department shall promulgate rules to implement

21 SECTION 3. Appropriation. (1) For the 2024-25 state fiscal
22 year, $122,855 is appropriated to the department of revenue. This 23 appropriation is from the Colorado DRIVES vehicle services account in 24 the highway users tax fund created in section 42-1-211 (2), C.R.S. To 25 implement this act, the department may use this appropriation as follows:

26 (a) $92,120 for DRIVES maintenance and support;

27 (b) $6,720 for personal services related to vehicle services;

1 (c) $9,660 for personal services related to administration and
2 support; and

3 (d) $14,355 for the purchase of information technology services.

4 (2) For the 2024-25 state fiscal year, $14,355 is appropriated to 5 the office of the governor for use by the office of information technology.
6 This appropriation is from reappropriated funds received from the 7 department of revenue under subsection (1)(d) of this section. To 8 implement this act, the office may use this appropriation to provide
9 information technology services for the department of revenue.

10 SECTION 4. Act subject to petition - effective date -
11 applicability. (1) This act takes effect March 31, 2025; except that, if a 12 referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1 (3) of article V of the 13 state constitution against this act or an item, section, or part of this act
14 within the ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general
15 assembly, then the act, item, section, or part will not take effect unless
16 approved by the people at the general election to be held in November
17 2024 and, in such case, will take effect March 31, 2025, or on the date of 18 the official declaration of the vote thereon by the governor, whichever is 19 later.

20 (2) This act applies to applications submitted on or after the 21 applicable effective date of this act.
