SOMB is an integral part of Colorado's practice of sentencing most persons who commit sex offenses to community settings, rather than jail or prison. The standards set by SOMB permit all stakeholders, including victims of crime, judges, prosecutors, and those convicted to have knowledge of and certainty in the statewide, evidence-based standards that will govern supervision and treatment. Please vote yes on HB 20-1404. Sincerely, Amanda Gall Sexual Assault Resource Prosecutor Colorado District Attorneys' Council
