

Roadmap - Education and support for people entering production agriculture in Colorado

High School - Agriculture Education Program (*SAEP – Experiential Learning)

Production Agriculture

Support:

Classes, workshops, Young Farmers Program, CSU Extension & Engagement, ABM Programs

Two Year Institutions (Community Colleges, Junior Colleges)

Transfer Programs

A.S. Degrees

Career & technical Programs

A.A.S Degrees & Certificates

*Internships & Cooperative Education (Experiential Learning)

Production Agriculture

Four Year University

B.S Degrees

Graduate Degrees

CSU Extension and Regional Engagement (Education & Technical Support)

*Internships (Experiential Learning)

Production Agriculture

Northeastern Junior College

A.S. Degrees (Transfer) DWD – State wide articulation agreements (60 Credits)

- Agriculture Business
- Agriculture Education
- Animal Science
- Soil & Crop Science
- Equine Science
- Horticulture

A.A.S. Degrees- (Career & Technical programs- 60-75 Credits)

- Production Agriculture
- Agribusiness
- Equine Management
- Equine Business Management

Certificates (Career & Technical programs - 9-30 Credits)

- Agriculture Business Management (ABM)
- Production Agriculture
- Agribusiness
- Precision Agriculture
- Beef Cattle Management

Two Year Schools that offer agriculture programs:

- Aims Community College
- Colorado Northwestern Community College*
- Colorado Mountain College*
- Front Range Community College *
- Lamar Community College *
- Mesa State University
- Morgan Community College*
- Northeastern Junior College*
- Otero Community College *
- Trinidad State Junior College*

Four Year Universities that offer agriculture programs

- Colorado State University –(Land Grant University) *
- Adams State
- Mesa State*

*Offer one or more of the following: Internships, cooperative education, and ABM.