(2) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(e) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has engaged or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, the director may issue a final cease-and-desist order directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

The director may issue cease-and-desist orders under the circumstances and in accordance with the procedures specified in section 12-20-405. <=Redundant with cease-and-desist common provision, 12-20-405. Recommend repealing and replacing with reference to common provision.=>

12-235-114. [Formerly 12-35.5-114] Mental and physical examination of licensees. (1) (a) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROCEDURES SPECIFIED IN SECTION 12-30-108, the director may order the licensee to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. <=Subsection (1)(a) redundant with mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108. (b) If a licensee refuses to submit to a mental or physical examination that has been properly ordered by the director pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and the refusal is not due to circumstances beyond the licensee's control, the refusal constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-35.5-111 (1)(h). When a licensee has refused to submit to an examination, the director may suspend the licensee's license in accordance with section 12-35.5-112 until:

(I) The results of the examination are known; and

(H) The director has made a determination of the licensee's fitness to practice. <\{The unhighlighted portion of paragraph (b) is consistent with the mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108 (1)(b). However, the highlighted portion refers to "grounds for discipline" rather than "may suspend the license... until the required examinations are conducted" in the common provision, 12-30-108 (1)(b)(I). Is there a substantive difference in practice? Also, in the above language, there is reference to suspending the license, but the language does not specify that the director is to lift the suspension once the licensee submits to the exam. The director is permitted to maintain the suspension until the exam results are known and the director has determined the licensee's fitness to practice. These criteria do NOT appear in the mental/physical exam common provision. Is this a substantive difference in how the provision is applied?\}>

(c) The director shall proceed with an order for examination and determination of a licensee's fitness to practice in a timely manner. <\{Paragraph (c) contains unique language that is not in the mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108, so we assume it should be retained.\}>

(2) In an order to a licensee pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director shall include the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of any disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the licensee is deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications. <\{Subsection (2) redundant with mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108 (1)(c) and portions of (2). <\{Note that the common provision, 12-30-108 (2) 1st sentence, contains the following language that does NOT appear in this section: "Every nurse LICENSEE, CERTIFICATE HOLDER, OR REGISTRANT AUTHORIZED TO PRACTICE A HEALTH CARE PROFESSION REGULATED BY A PART OR ARTICLE OF THIS TITLE 12 shall be deemed, by so practicing or by applying for renewal registration of such nurse's THE license, CERTIFICATE, OR REGISTRATION, to have consented to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board APPLICABLE REGULATOR." Should this provision be specifically excluded from applicability to massage therapists since it does not appear in the mental/physical exams provision in the massage therapy practice act?\}>

Note that the common provision, 12-30-108 (2) 3rd sentence, also contains the following language that does NOT appear in this section: "Subject to applicable federal law, such nurse THE LICENSEE, CERTIFICATE HOLDER, OR REGISTRANT shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the production of medical records to the board REGULATOR from health care providers that may be necessary for the evaluations EXAMINATIONS described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) . . . Should this provision be specifically excluded from applicability to massage therapists since it does not appear in the mental/physical exams provision in the massage therapists practice act? >

(3) (2) The licensee may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician or other licensed health care professional chosen by the licensee and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the licensee from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The director may consider the testimony or examination reports in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. <{Stricken from mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108 (2), so recommend retaining this provision.}>

(4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director and shall not be deemed public records nor made available to the public: <{Redundant with mental/physical exams common provision, 12-30-108 (4). 12-235-117. [Formerly 12-35.5-116.5] Confidential agreement to limit practice.

(1) If a massage therapist has a physical illness; a physical condition; or a behavioral or mental health disorder that renders him or her unable to practice massage therapy with reasonable skill and safety to clients, the massage therapist shall notify the director of the physical illness; the physical condition; or the behavioral or mental health disorder in a manner and within a period determined by the director. The director may require the massage therapist to submit to an examination to evaluate the extent of the physical illness; the physical condition; or the behavioral or mental health disorder and its impact on the massage therapist's ability to practice massage therapy with reasonable skill and safety to clients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a massage therapist with a physical illness; a physical condition; or a behavioral or mental health disorder is able to render limited services with reasonable skill and safety to clients, the director may enter into a confidential agreement with the massage therapist in which the massage therapist agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the physical illness; the physical condition; or the behavioral or mental health disorder, as determined by the director under the circumstances and in accordance with the procedures and requirements specified in section 12-30-107.

(b) As part of the agreement, the massage therapist is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the director.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(3) By entering into an agreement with the director pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, a massage therapist is not engaging in activities prohibited pursuant to section 12-35.5-111. The agreement does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the director. However, if the massage therapist fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, the failure constitutes a prohibited activity pursuant to section 12-35.5-111 (1)(g), and the massage therapist is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-35.5-112. \(\text{Above subsections redundant with confidential agreements common provision, 12-30-107. Recommend repealing most of the language and amending as indicated.}\)>
