Summary of Legislation

Under current law, both “misdemeanor traffic offense” and “traffic misdemeanor” are used to describe the same type of traffic offense. The bill amends instances of “traffic misdemeanor” to make “misdemeanor traffic offense” the uniform term used throughout statute.

State Expenditures

In FY 2026-27 only, workload will increase in the Judicial Department to update the description of offenses in the law table. This increase is expected to be minimal, and no change in appropriations is required.

Local Government

Similar to the state, in FY 2026-27 only workload and costs will increase for district attorneys to update their shared case management system and printed materials. This increase is expected to be minimal and absorbable.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect 90 days following adjournment of the General Assembly sine die, assuming no referendum petition is filed.
