

My purpose statement:

To recognize the significant, positive impact of the cannabis industry on Colorado's economy, culture, and the legal landscape, we the undersigned residents of Colorado call upon the Colorado General Assembly to remove the Columbine as the state flower and officially designate the Cannabis flower as the new state flower.