Draft operative provisions

Section 4. Accounts

- A designated trust or program may establish child solvency funds and restricted minor accounts as authorized by law.
- Minor accounts shall be administered in a manner that protects the child and limits unauthorized diversion.

Section 5. Authorized uses

- Authorized uses may include essential support, protected savings, milestone disbursements, and other uses identified by law or rule.

Required construction clauses

- Independent operation. This act operates independently and remains effective whether or not any related measure or companion act is adopted.
- Severability. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
- Single-subject construction. This act shall be construed to embrace only the single subject described in its title and no separate subject shall be inferred from a remedy, definition, recordkeeping duty, funding mechanism, or construction clause that is necessarily and properly connected to that subject.
- Revenue and fee construction. Any money authorized by this act shall be construed and administered only in the manner and to the extent permitted by applicable constitutional and statutory limitations.
