Draft operative provisions

Section 4. Portal

- The state may establish a legal access portal to provide legal information, form support, referrals, and digital-rights navigation resources.
- The portal may include public guidance, triage tools, and rights education.

Section 5. Protected legal preparation

- To the maximum extent permitted by law, records of recognized legal-assistance sessions may receive work-product or confidentiality protections identified by law or rule.

Required construction clauses

- Independent operation. This act operates independently and remains effective whether or not any related measure or companion act is adopted.
- Severability. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
- Single-subject construction. This act shall be construed to embrace only the single subject described in its title and no separate subject shall be inferred from a remedy, definition, recordkeeping duty, funding mechanism, or construction clause that is necessarily and properly connected to that subject.
