

Recovery Ready Colorado is an initiative to bring awareness, and recognize the importance of a cultural change to remove stigma from the recovery process and People In Recovery (PIR). Your participation will help create advocacy for substance use disorder recovery and highlight Colorado resources for healthy-living in recovery.

Sponsored by the Colorado Attorney General's Office of Community Engagement, Young People in Recovery and partners across the state.

are you recovery ready?

TakeMedsSeriously.org

