RESIGNATION

December 18, 2018

Ms. Marilyn Eddins
Chief Clerk
Colorado House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
200 E. Colfax Ave.
Denver, CO 80203

Dear Ms Eddins:

It has been a great honor to serve the people of the State of Colorado these past six years in the House of Representatives. I have been grateful for the trust and confidence of my constituents, for whom I serve. I am also very appreciative of you and all of the staff in the Capitol and especially those in the House of Representatives.

On Sunday, December 16, 2018 the vacancy committee for Senate District 14 convened and selected me to assume the vacant Senate seat created by the resignation of Senator John Kefalas. As a result of my appointment to the Colorado State Senate, I offer my resignation from the Colorado State House of Representatives effective January 4, 2019 upon my being sworn into the Colorado Senate.

It has been an honor and I look forward to serving in the Senate.

Sincerely,

(signed)

Joann Ginal
Colorado State Representative

Representative Garnett moved that the following remarks of Speaker KC Becker and Representative Neville be printed in the House Journal. There being no objection the remarks were printed.

Speaker KC Becker addressed the members of the House of Representatives.

Good morning and welcome to your state capitol.

It is one my greatest honors to stand before you today.

I want to thank the constituents of my district which stretches from the Wyoming border in the north, to Mount Evans in the south– from Boulder to Kremmling - from Jackson, Grand, and Gilpin to Clear Creek and Boulder counties.

It’s an honor to represent you.

Thank you to Majority Leader Alec Garnett and to our entire leadership team who will help lead our chamber over the next two years. You all are awesome.

Minority Leader Neville, congratulations on being selected to lead your caucus once again and I hope to work together with you to serve the people of our great state.

I would also like to congratulate Representative Kyle Mullica and his family who welcomed the birth of a new baby girl, Autumn Grace, this week.
I look around this chamber and see many new faces… and a lot more Democrats…

I’d like to welcome our first years and returning legislators.

No matter your party, we are all here because we want Coloradans to succeed.

Running for office or stepping forward to participate in public service is never easy.

So on behalf of this chamber and our state, I extend thanks to you and your families and friends who have agreed to let us borrow you for the next two years.

Your support is key to our shared success.

Together, we are driven to build a fair economy that expands opportunity for all, to invest in our future, and to protect the Colorado Way of Life.

Today, we open the first regular session of the 72nd General Assembly.

Members, pack your energy and ideas with you every day because you are about to have some of the longest days wrapped into the shortest four months you’ll ever know.

Your patience will be tested, your sleep will shorten, your family will miss you and your waistline may grow.

But believe me the future is worth the fight and your efforts are worthwhile.

This November, Coloradans made history by electing the first Jewish and openly gay Governor.

We made history by electing a record number of people of color to our state legislature.

And we made history by electing 33 women to the House including 25 in the Democratic caucus alone and the first transgender representative in state Herstory.

Whether you’re a Republican, Democrat or Unaffiliated voter, I think we can all agree that this chamber is sending a strong message that when people participate in democracy, their government is more reflective of their state’s diverse background and ideas.

It is our shared hope that the number of women and people of color who were motivated to step forward and run for office will inspire the next generation of Coloradans to pursue public service and become more involved.

I am honored to accept this gavel and look forward to working with you all.

Now - I’ve watched a few of my predecessors break a few gavels trying to keep this chamber in order so let’s all hope this is the only gavel we need this session…

…but based on past experience, Marilyn please have a backup ready.

It is not lost on me that I am the third consecutive woman to serve as Speaker and the fourth in our state’s rich history.

Standing before you today, I know I won’t be the last.
I would be remiss if I did not thank those who have blazed a trail ahead of us including
I also want to acknowledge my father-in-law and sister-in-law, Ed and Shaun who are here today and my awesome parents, who unfortunately can’t be here today.
I am grateful for the care and love they gave to me and my siblings – three of whom are here with me now Karen, Alicia and Elle.
I’m most grateful that my parents decided to let me spend my summers as a teenager in the Rockies.
I was a Florida girl discovering the vast and transformative place that is the West.
Until then I had never seen mountains. I had never seen snow.
Actually, it was hailing when I said “oh my god snow” and my now lifelong friend turned to me with a smirk on her face and said “you dummy, that’s not snow, it’s hail.”
I truly fell in love with the West and feel lucky to call Colorado home.
My husband Miles and I have built our lives and family in Boulder.
I’m thankful for the love and support of Miles and our two boys - Ryder and Leo - who are here with us today.
11 years ago, Leo had just been born, he was 7 weeks old when the market tanked and I was laid off from my job. I think about how much has changed in those 11 years.
I certainly had no idea then that a run for local office would end up with me standing here before you as the Speaker of the House.
But a lot more has changed since Leo was born. Amazon was a fledgling company.
There was no bitcoin. No Lyft. No Ikon Pass. No marijuana store fronts.
No negative factor. No Affordable Care Act. and Representative Rochelle Galindo was still in high school.
11 years ago, there were only 36 women serving in the House and Senate combined.
Each year brings new issues to us at the capitol. But the more things change, the more they stay the same.
We’ve gone from a deep recession to a thriving state. But the advantages of Colorado’s growth and economic prosperity of the last 5 or 6 years haven’t been felt by every corner of our state.
Unemployment statewide is low and the President might be tweeting about the stock market – at least when it’s up - but many of our neighbors still find it hard to get ahead and they struggle with the rising cost of living.
Hardworking families are trying to save for the years down the road or even for the coming months.
And they are often one tragedy or paycheck away from financial distress.
That means we need to give them the tools they need to get ahead.

Last session, we passed bills to help Coloradans with the high cost of child care, increase the construction of affordable housing, and connect more Coloradans to the good, high-paying jobs our economy is now producing in great numbers.

But it’s not enough.

We are a state built on the value that people who work hard should be treated fairly. That means finally passing paid family leave because no one should have to risk financial ruin – or lose their job – to care for a new child or sick relative.

It also means that women and people of color should be paid equally for equal work.

We are committed to fighting for every Coloradan to be treated with the dignity, fairness and the respect they deserve.

Despite significant efforts from legislators on both sides of the aisle, the rural-urban divide continues to be a challenge.

While Colorado’s economy is working for some, it’s not working for everyone in rural communities and the legislature must do more to ensure that our successes touch all parts of our state.

That means taking steps in rural Colorado to reduce the cost of health care and kick starting more economic development to get more people into good paying jobs.

We must keep building on the bipartisan successes of workforce development programs in communities across the state.

Access to affordable housing continues to be out of reach for many people.

That means we need to invest state dollars in our affordable housing trust fund.

It is my hope and the hope of many in this chamber that we work together to problem solve and expand opportunity.

We are also committed to protecting the Colorado way of life,

And I cannot think of a more important challenge for us to take on than climate change.

Climate change is real.

It's threatening our thriving outdoor economy and our livelihoods.

Skiers are seeing smaller snow packs

Rafters are seeing smaller rapids

Anglers are seeing shallower waters

Mountain residents are seeing more frequent and more destructive wildfires
And our eastern plains are seeing more drought.

And unfortunately, Washington has once again chosen to bury its head in the sand while states and the rest of the world work to address the threat of climate change.

We will build a better future by expanding our commitment to renewable energy, giving local communities the tools they need to prepare for the impacts of climate change and creating strong goals to limit carbon pollution.

Our recent economic success shows that we can work together to protect our clean air and water and grow our economy at the same time.

It is also a point of pride for our state that the leading solutions and studies to this challenge are coming from Colorado’s institutions of higher education and innovative entrepreneurs.

We need to continue Colorado’s climate leadership for the sake of our economy, public health and clean air.

Colorado’s way of life is also threatened by the growing conflict between neighborhoods and oil and gas.

Our state has grown and schools and neighborhoods are butting up against oil and gas operations.

It’s time we update our laws to reflect this new paradigm.

That means, we must ensure communities feel more confident that the oil and gas happening nearby isn’t negatively impacting their air or water quality and their quality of life.

Colorado’s way of life is precious. It’s part of the reason people live, work, play and move here like I did so many years ago.

As we think about the Colorado way of life we must also think about investing in our future.

Many of our educators are having to work multiple jobs just to pay their own bills,

And many students have never had the experience of being in a fully funded school system.

We have recently passed bipartisan state budgets that invested hundreds of millions of new dollars into our schools, boosted per-pupil funding, made commitments to address the teacher shortage, and brought down the negative factor.

But, if we intend to leave our state in a better position than we found it, then we must do more.

We need to give our students, teachers and schools the tools they need to succeed.

That means we must continue to invest in early childhood education, K-12 and higher ed.

And it means we should make sure our students are well prepared for the jobs of the future in a modernizing economy.
Coloradans are also tired over the lack of investment in roads, bridges, and transit. That means coming up with creative and collaborative solutions to our transportation problems.

Coloradans – no matter their political affiliation or zip code – are fed up with high cost of health care and out of control prescription drug prices.

We hear from Coloradans nearly every day about their struggles with health care. We share the concerns of families and seniors across our state who agonize over access and rising costs.

In the absence of federal leadership in Washington, we at the capitol must address this challenge head on. That means, we must work together to address skyrocketing health care costs by promoting transparency in insurance, drug pricing and medical expenses, That also means we must tackle surprise billing and help provide more stability to our health insurance markets.

There is no time to waste. The health and well-being of Coloradans must continue to be a top priority because we are facing a public health epidemic. The opioid epidemic in the United States has claimed more lives than the entire Vietnam War.

During the last session we passed bills to help battle this epidemic by getting people the care and treatment they need and addressing prescribing practices. These bipartisan measures are a good start, but there is much more work to be done to end the stigma surrounding addiction and recovery. That means we must work together to save lives and end this epidemic.

There is another epidemic we must address – gun violence. Our state, our children, our families and even those who are now represented in this chamber have been personally impacted by this crisis. Coloradans are tired of living with the consequences of inaction. They are marching in the streets and taking to the halls of this building. And they are demanding action on gun sense legislation.

That means we will work to pass the life saving Extreme Risk Protection Order bill to prevent tragedies before they happen. Over the past few years, we have made significant bipartisan strides towards reforming our broken criminal justice system – we are even seeing consensus at the federal level on this issue so it is my hope that this is an area where we can continue to find common ground.

We’ve come a long way from when we were labeled “The Hate State.”
Last session, we were able to preserve a strong Colorado Civil Rights Division, and we’ve also made important progress for our LGBTQ community in recent years, but there is still work to do to ensure we have a more inclusive and more fair Colorado.

That means instead of building walls and barriers that seek to sow division and block progress, we will build bridges and partnerships that will power our people and our state forward.

Last session, we worked to address the culture of the capitol.

The Capitol must be a place where everyone feels safe and respected, and that means we will continue to focus on reforming the culture and work together – regardless of party – to implement necessary changes this session.

So now it’s time to work together.

Coloradans cast their votes for those who will fight to expand opportunity for all and to govern responsibly.

Coloradans chose compassion and opportunity over cruelty and chaos.

They want leaders who will stand for something – not against everything.

They want a government that will work for the people – not special interests.

We must continue to reach across the aisle and not be afraid to find those sweet spots that reflect the Colorado way.

This is a new and diverse group of lawmakers who will all bring influential ideas and renewed energy to this chamber and it’s on all of us to problem solve for the next one hundred and twenty days.

I am honored to serve as your Speaker – and a Speaker for all Coloradans.

I am excited about what we can accomplish together in order to protect the Colorado Way of Life.

Thank you.

God bless the State of Colorado and let’s get to work.

Minority Leader Neville addressed the members of the House of Representatives.

On a day like this, it’s right to be thankful:

- Thankful for our state and nation
- Thankful for our families and loved ones
- Thankful for God’s Providence in bringing us here to represent the people of Colorado.

I welcome you and congratulate you on your hard-earned electoral victories.

Madam Speaker and I disagree on many issues, but I have always appreciated her candor and respect for this place and the work we do here. I look forward to working with you, Madam Speaker.
Perhaps this is the place to comment on our politics more broadly.
Some people in our country don’t want us to talk, debate, or build relationships. They invoke labels like “racist”, or, “un-American” and the like to shut down conversations.
This is the trend in American politics and society.
But Professor Jonathan Haidt has said this trend, this reversion to tribes and safe spaces, can be overcome with conversations and relationships; that is, with good-old American civil discourse.

To “be tolerant” means to put up with, and to listen to, people we disagree with. Many people in this room wore the uniform of our country to preserve our fundamental right to free speech and debate – a right the law and constitution clearly afford to disagreeable, and even ‘intolerant’, people. We should shun and shame those who would try to deny us this most basic right, because in the end such people want to make conversation, comity and relationships in this place impossible.
In my experience, we’ve generally been very good at civility in the Colorado General Assembly. Anyone who’s read the annual “Digest of Bills” will see that almost every bill that’s become law in the past two years has had bipartisan support. Yet now, with a Democrat governor and senate, the House majority no longer needs bipartisan support – but history and wisdom suggest Coloradans will benefit from it.
Some might assume that the main job of the minority party is to obstruct the majority – but that’s not my view.
Let me explain. We are committed to the principles of smaller government and free enterprise. These commitments don’t spring from our loyalty to an old book or bumper sticker. They come from our observations about how individuals, governments, and markets have functioned best throughout human history. They are people-centered because they work for people.
Our commitment to smaller government comes from the realization that people make mistakes. People are fallible; people can be tempted. That’s true whether they are educated or ambitious, or both – or neither. We don’t want to give those in government too much power to interfere with our lives because they’re as prone to mistakes and temptation as the rest of us.
As to our commitment to free enterprise, well, that comes from our experience as a nation. In 230 years we have become the most powerful and prosperous country on earth. Neither the microwave oven, nor the iPhone, nor the light bulb was conceived by a government bureaucracy or a top-down approach to the economy. Instead, these and hundreds of other important inventions originated in the imagination of Americans who were free to dream and build.
Because our economic system provides opportunities for creators and visionaries while taking into account a realistic view of human nature, it offers a better life for moms and dads, for leaders and laborers, for the Daughters of the Revolution and the sons of immigrants. Our success hasn’t come by having a large government, but by having large freedoms that enable individuals to pursue their dreams and happiness.
The latest Colorado economic forecast was delivered to our office recently. Like last year, we have ONE BILLION DOLLARS more than anticipated. That’s but one feature of the economic revival that’s come via our Party’s leadership in Washington, but there are others:

- Unemployment is at an all-time low, especially and including the minority community
- The economy’s added 4.8 million jobs since November 2016
- Small business and consumer optimism remain near their all-time highs
- The GDP reflects strong and sustained growth

You see, when Americans are free from unnecessary regulations and over-taxation, they prosper; we want a government that provides security and justice, but mostly, we want to be left alone in our “pursuit of happiness”.

Here at the Capitol, when Republicans find policies that are consistent with the lessons of history, we advocate for them; when public policy ignores these realities, we oppose it because we want policy that works for people; we want a better life and a better future for everyone.

For example, if the Majority insists on passing an expensive and involuntary family leave program that will cost taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars, one that is ripe for abuse and damaging to business, we’ll oppose it because we know, and history teaches, that such a program will cost more than planned and be less efficient than planned, even as it makes Colorado less affordable for single moms, working families, and young people joining the workforce.

Similarly, this past November Coloradans said “no” to increased regulation of the oil and gas industry, and no wonder:

- We already have effective safeguards in place
- We already enjoy lots of industry/agency cooperation
- And people understand the critical role played by industry in providing jobs, healthcare, and a future for them and their families,
- Taxes paid by this well-regulated industry fund teachers, troopers, and transportation.

Increased regulation would not only contradict voters’ expressed will, it would also make Colorado less affordable, and thus hurt everyone – that’s why we’ll oppose it, should it be proposed.

The Denver Post recently published the results of a poll they’d conducted with millennials. Being a millennial myself, I was interested in what they had to say. The gist of the story was this: young professionals in Colorado are waiting to have children because they can’t afford them; the same holds true for their dream of owning a home. Single moms, working women and families in general groan under the burden of health care costs. Some of these costs are artificial because people are forced to buy coverage they neither need nor want, while others struggle with a system that lacks transparency and competition. We must develop and insist on creative market-based solutions that will work as opposed to big government ones that won’t. We must insure transparent pricing, more consumer choice, and voluntary participation. It’s not fair or compassionate when people are hurt by politicians who promise progress but deliver price increases.

Similarly, investing in transportation, that is, in roads and bridges, will improve our quality of life: it will cut down on commute times, make living outside cities more accessible and affordable, and it can be done by spending money we already have. Ninety-seven per cent (97%) of commuters use our roads and bridges, and that’s where we should invest our transportation dollars. There’s no reason a significant portion of our budget can’t be spent on transportation, especially at a time when our coffers are overflowing. Coloradans told us this past November they don’t want taxes raised to pay for the transportation projects we already have money for.

On a related note, Coloradans can’t afford to pay thousands of dollars more for the vehicles they use to work, take children to school, and vacation – but new environmental regulations will raise the price of both old and new cars. As surely as day follows night, these regulations will raise prices even as they do little to improve our environment.

The drip, drip, drip of paying for basic needs is draining Coloradans of the optimism and hope that should be natural for residents of this great state. It causes others to leave, and yet others to delay having children. The bills we debate this session will directly impact Colorado’s affordability, and if history teaches us anything, it teaches that government programs bring with them the very expensive baggage of unintended consequences.
Sadly, this baggage is relevant to the debate about “injection sites”. Some well-intentioned people would have you believe this is a compassionate approach to a complicated problem. Fact is, the causes of opioid addiction often are complicated. Yet Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein has pointed out that such sites violate federal law, and more importantly, they create serious safety risks for workers and neighborhoods, even as they ‘normalize’ self-destructive behavior. So-called safe injection sites are not the answer. Asking the taxpayer to foot the bill to continue addiction is a bad idea. Subsidizing the slow-motion suicide of our citizens is wrong. We can and must do better.

When it comes to Education, the founders of our state thought it so important that they required it to be publicly funded. Over the past several years, we’ve funded a lot. But when you spend or invest money, it’s only fair to expect some return. We’ve made a great financial investment, but we’re not getting a great return, especially in the minority community. According to the Department of Education,

- Local school districts receive on average slightly more than $15,000 per child per year.
- An average class of 23 students costs taxpayers about $345,000 per year.
- If those students began first grade together, taxpayers would have invested $4,140,000 in them by high school graduation.
- Yet according to the Department of Education’s own data, twenty-one percent (21%) of those students won’t graduate, and nearly 40% of those that do are unprepared to take a freshman class in college and must instead take remedial courses in math and English.
- Minority 4th grade student math success doesn’t reach 19% – that is, over 80% don’t meet expectations.
- 79% of African-American and 71% of Hispanic high school graduates need remediation before starting college.
- In a room where the likeness of Barney Ford is featured, we should demand better.
- Yet with far less money, a more diverse student population and far fewer resources, charter schools do better.
- In the past 8 years (2010-2017), Colorado student enrollment has increased 7%, the number of teachers employed has increased 10% – but the number of principals and assistant principals has gone up 24%.

What can we do?

- Get rid of costly state rules that force schools to hire administrators instead of teachers.
- Ask schools to refocus their efforts on academics and job training, and don’t ask them to do so many other things.
- Encourage districts to offer better pay for great teachers.
- Make it easier to remove bad teachers.
- Offer more educational choices for students and parents. In every other market – be it cellphones, cable TV, or automobiles – competition and consumer choice result in better products and more value for money. The same can happen in education.
- Children deserve hope, but our status quo system robs them of it.

The time has come for us to have an open mind to new approaches to education because it is obvious that what we’ve been doing isn’t working. We will work with Democrats on any bill that offers real hope for educational success.

Before Colorado was a state, it was a frontier, and that frontier spirit produced a constitution that mandated education spending; that same constitution made the right of gun ownership and self-defense explicit. Nevertheless, when killers use guns, some people advocate curtailing those rights. The fact is, since 1993, our national... population has increased 27%, the number of firearms in the country has increased 56% yet the number of gun homicides per 100,000 has been nearly cut in half, from 7 to 3.6. New laws designed to prevent the mentally ill from acquiring firearms are so badly written and open to abuse that they are more likely to rob the innocent of the ability to defend themselves than to prevent the mentally ill from killing. While we are prepared to look closely at such bills, we are not willing to leave the innocent defenseless so we might feel good about ourselves. The Second Amendment and other Constitutional rights define this nation and our state. We have the right to free speech, the right to freely exercise our religion, but above all we have the right to life. Without it, “liberty” and “the pursuit of happiness” are empty slogans. Americans are increasingly ‘pro-life’, in no small measure because of inventions like the sonogram that enables us to view the development of unborn babies. That’s where I first saw my three daughters, and many of you here have had the same experience. I pray this enlightened attitude makes its way to the Capitol.

In conclusion, we have choices to make:

- Will we expand state government at the expense of the average citizen or look for ways to lower the cost of doing business in Colorado to make Colorado more affordable?
- Will we plant fiscal bombs into the budget in the form of costly new programs, burdening us and our children for decades or develop more free enterprise oriented solutions?
- The bigger government approach doesn’t work. It creates more inequality, more dependence, and more social division, and if you doubt me on this, just look to the west where California now has the highest rate of poverty in the nation. Look to Illinois, which is on the verge of bankruptcy.

I look forward to working with colleagues on both sides of the aisle to make Colorado more affordable for working families and individuals, more hospitable for businesses, and more respectful and tolerant of the constitutional rights and liberties of all our citizens.

Thank you and God bless.

ADDRESS BY THE HONORABLE
Jared Polis

As we confront historic social and technological change throughout our country and our state, let me start by saying what an honor it is to serve as Colorado’s 43rd Governor.

Before I deliver the state of the state, I’d like to deliver a message to every kid in Colorado. In our state, you can do anything you can dream. Here in Colorado, we celebrate our differences, embrace our uniqueness, and believe that what you look like and who you love matters less than what you ARE like and what you do for your community. Be proud of who you are, because your future is FULL of opportunity.

To all the new members of the Legislature, welcome.

To all the returning members of the Legislature, thank you.

And a special shout-out to the record-setting number of women who are now serving in this building.

It’s only fitting that the very first state to elect any women TO its State House is now leading the way with a majority of women IN its State House. From Clara Cressingham, Carrie Holly, and Frances Klock, to Pat Schroeder, Polly Baca, Brianna Titone and every other trailblazing woman in this chamber today — Colorado’s barrier-breaking legacy is something we should all be proud of.

President Garcia,

Speaker Becker, Leader Holbert,
Leader Neville,
Members of the General Assembly,
Lieutenant Governor Primavera, Lieutenant Governor Lynne,
Chairman Harold Cuthair of the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe, Councilman Adam Red of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe, Attorney General Weiser,
Secretary of State Griswold, Treasurer Young,
Secretary Salazar,
Members of the State Board of Education, Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court, Denver Mayor Hancock,
Members of the Cabinet,
My staff,
First Gentleman Marlon Reis:
Thank you all for being here.
Thank you all for your support and good wishes over the past few days.
And thank you for all that you have done and all that you will do for Colorado.
Years ago I sat over there with the State Board of Education and I never thought I’d be up here like this, but hey, this is Colorado!
I hope you will all join me in thanking Colorado’s military members serving with honor across the globe, the National Guard troops who keep us safe, and the Colorado first responders who save lives in our communities day after day.
We are grateful for your service.
I would also like to specifically acknowledge Ute Mountain Ute Tribe Chairman Cuthair and Southern Ute Indian Tribe Councilman Red who are here today. Dianne and I are eager to work with both of you in the years ahead, and to continue strengthening our government-to-government relationships.
I stand here today with the big shoes of Governor Hickenlooper to fill. But, rest assured, I’ve got my blue sneakers on and I’m ready to keep us moving forward.
And I stand here incredibly proud to have Lieutenant Governor Dianne Primavera, a healthcare leader, a former legislator, and one of the toughest people on the planet, working with me to help shape Colorado’s future.
The state of our state is solid. It is strong. It is successful. It is daring. And it is bold.
While my predecessor and this Legislature should get credit for so much of Colorado’s progress, our strength lies first and foremost in the bold and pioneering spirit of our people.
Here in Colorado, we climb the highest mountains. We look far past the horizons. We dream, we dare, and we do.
That spirit has been alive and well under the leadership of Governor Hickenlooper as we overcame tough economic times to build one of the strongest state economies in American history.
But I’m not here just to talk about the current state of the state and all the incredible achievements of the past few years.
I’m here to talk about the state of what’s yet to come.
Because in the days, months, and years ahead, we are here to do more than build on the achievements of the past...
We are here to boldly forge a new path into the future. To make change work for us, rather than against us.
It’s true that our economy is strong. From agriculture and outdoor recreation to aerospace, bioscience, energy, and cannabis, we’ve watched industries succeed and create jobs.
We’ve become a model for how we can put politics aside and work together. But, despite all of our progress, far too many people are either barely getting by, or falling behind.

Our administration’s mission and mandate from the voters begins with tackling the everyday challenges that Coloradans face because of the rising costs of living... Providing every single child with quality early education; Finally lowering the outrageous cost of health care; Creating good-paying jobs in the clean-energy sector that can never be outsourced; and Achieving true tax reform that reduces taxes for hardworking Coloradans instead of giving breaks to special interests while forcing families to pay more.

Together, we’re going to build an economy where Coloradans from all walks of life don’t just get by, but thrive...

Whether it’s the small business owner in Eagle County whose health care costs are threatening their Colorado dream...
The rancher in Fort Morgan whose livelihood is threatened by drought...

Or the parents struggling to pay $400 a month for kindergarten tuition in Douglas County.

To these Coloradans across our state, I want to say: our administration will work tirelessly to make our state work better for you — so that you can earn a good living and share in our special way of life. And I know that this Legislature will do the same, because every single one of us wants to see every single Coloradoan succeed. A Colorado for all.

Part of what defines our Colorado way of life are the values that we live by — values like equality under the law, honesty, the sanctity of basic human rights, and a free market for exchange of goods and services. We see the erosion of these values in some quarters of our nation today — which makes them all the more precious.

Here in Colorado, we treat each other with respect. We reject efforts to intimidate immigrant families, or tear children from their parents’ arms. We don’t tolerate bigotry or discrimination of any kind. And we don’t accept hostage-taking as a form of governance.

Last summer, Marlon and I were having a conversation with our son Caspian, who was 6 at the time. He wanted to know the difference between all the various political parties — Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, Green, and so on. And at the end, he went over to his 4-year-old sister Cora and asked her, “What political party are you in?” And without missing a beat she answered, “the Happy Birthday Party.”

It was one of those moments every parent experiences, where your child shows you wisdom you can’t get from most adults. And it’s wisdom that will guide our approach to problem-solving in this administration.

Because what truly matters is not the letter next to our name or which side of the aisle we sit on. What matters is: will our ideas be good for Colorado? Will they reduce health care costs? Will they improve our schools and help our kids get a strong start? Will they expand economic opportunity to more Colorado families? This doesn’t mean any of us should abandon our values. What it does mean is that mere partisanship will never stop us from embracing good ideas or taking bold action. The people of Colorado elected each of us to deliver, not to grandstand.

So, in the spirit of putting problem-solving over partisanship, let’s work together. We all agree that every child deserves a great education, so let’s start there.

If we want Colorado to be a place where every person can build a great life for themselves, where our economy can continue to grow fueled by a skilled workforce, then our schools need to provide students with the tools they need to succeed.
One of the great joys of my life was starting the New America School and the Academy of Urban Learning — public charter schools for at-risk youth — and seeing how kids who had fallen through the cracks in our education system could take off and go on to achieve amazing things once they were given the opportunity.

It’s time for us to build a Colorado education system where every single child — regardless of their zip code — gets a great education that prepares them for a bright future. And it begins with preschool and kindergarten.

Our top priority this session is empowering every single Colorado community to offer free, full-day kindergarten, while expanding free preschool to 8,000 more Colorado children.

Our state’s strong economic growth means we have the power to do all of this right now without taking resources away from other areas of the budget. As Uncle Ben once said to Spiderman, “With great power comes great responsibility.” I know that together we can fulfill this responsibility, which many of you have been working on for years: Free Kindergarten Now.

Making full-day kindergarten available and accessible for all children sets kids up to be more successful in school and throughout their lives — improving performance, narrowing achievement gaps, leading to earlier identification and intervention for those with special needs, even increasing high school graduation rates down the road.

And all of us will share in those benefits. It will save taxpayer money in the long run by increasing incomes and decreasing the achievement gap. It will strengthen families, our communities, and our economy.

But today, the state only funds half-day kindergarten, leaving individual districts and parents holding the bag for the rest. And it is not cheap. Most districts charge tuition to pay for the extra half day. Some offer it free to students, but only by cutting funding for other priorities like teacher salaries or class size.

As a result, kindergarten in Colorado is a picture of inequality, where some students attend free full-day kindergarten, some must pay tuition, and other families get left behind because they cannot afford the cost.

In Colorado, families can pay upwards of $500 per month to enroll their kids in full-day kindergarten. That’s money that can instead go toward a good home, health care, a college fund, retirement savings, starting a small business, or simply a nice vacation once in a while.

Folks, Oklahoma figured all this out a long time ago. And with all due respect to our wonderful neighbors in the Sooner state, if they can do it, so can we.

What we are proposing is the single biggest expansion of early childhood education in Colorado history. It is an essential first step in our broader strategies for both early childhood and K-12 education, setting kids up for success right from the start. In fact, it will free up resources to get closer to an even more ambitious goal: full-day preschool available for every Colorado child, which the families of this state deserve, and which we are committed to achieving.

And I want to be clear: this is not a mandate, either for parents or for school districts. But for parents who believe public preschool and full-day kindergarten are the best option for their kids — and for school districts who want to offer these vital opportunities to families — we will do everything possible to make it happen.

School districts, education nonprofits, and bipartisan state legislators have done amazing work to raise public awareness of the benefits of full-day kindergarten and make it a top priority in this state.

Now it’s time for us to finally cross the finish line. Free, full-day kindergarten by fall of 2019. Let’s get it done.
Colorado has the fastest growing economy in the country. It’s time our students, families, and dedicated teachers started sharing in that success.

And here are three other areas we can make real progress on together, if we truly value our students — and their teachers.

First, our educator shortage is having a devastating effect on public schools across this state. We’re 3,000 teachers down from where we need to be, and schools in rural communities are feeling the brunt of the impact.

We should offer student loan relief for teachers who serve in these high-need areas. It’ll enable more schools to make good on their potential to provide our children with the very best education. And it’ll help more hardworking educators afford daily life as indispensable members of the communities where they teach.

Every day, we entrust Colorado’s educators with our children’s safety, with helping them grow into successful, compassionate adults. Educators deserve our respect. They deserve our gratitude. And they deserve to be compensated as the hardworking professionals they are.

Second, more than 750,000 Coloradans are carrying over $19 billion dollars in student loan debt. We can lessen this burden by bringing more transparency to the student-loan process and providing basic consumer protection for borrowers.

And a third area where we can have a major impact is graduation rates. While we have made some progress over the past few years, Colorado still only ranks in the middle of all states with our graduation rate from high school.

Colorado’s Education Leadership Council has done admirable work shining a light on this problem and examining how it can be solved.

We need to invest in proven programs that prevent students from falling through the cracks, and work with local communities to provide students the support they need to succeed in high school and in life.

This means recognizing that it is hard for a student to learn if they are hungry, homeless, or struggling with trauma or mental illness.

I know there are many thoughtful and innovative proposals here in the legislature to improve behavioral health resources in our schools. I look forward to working with you to help our most vulnerable students overcome the barriers they face through no fault of their own, and graduate from high school as healthy adults.

In the 21st century economy, a high school degree is more important than ever for economic success. If we are going to make sure students are prepared for careers in the booming areas of Colorado’s economy — fields like technology and renewable energy — then the first step is to look at innovative solutions for reducing dropout rates.

When our students rise, our state rises even more.

Another top priority — one that we know has lit a fire under Americans here in our state and across this country — is health care. Governor Hickenlooper and this Legislature did admirable, bipartisan work expanding access to affordable health care in Colorado — overseeing the expansion of Medicaid, expanding access to vital reproductive health services, and cutting the uninsured rate to an unprecedented six-and-a-half percent.

But despite all the progress we’ve made, health care costs are still rising today, and families are still being ripped off.

It’s time for us to build a health care system where no person has to choose between losing their life savings and losing their life. It’s time for Coloradans to pay a fair price for the prescription drugs they need. It’s time for folks experiencing mental illness or addiction to get treatment, not jail time.

And we must work to make Colorado as family-friendly as possible. As a first step, with our budget package coming on the 15th, I will be including a formal request to provide paid parental leave for all state employees. And together, we should take comprehensive action. It’s time to finally establish a paid family and medical leave program in Colorado — so that employees aren’t having to choose between keeping their paycheck and caring for their child, a sick relative, an aging parent, or themselves.

Look, if all this were easy, it would have been done already. Progress is always hard, and overcoming these challenges will be a long journey. But the people of Colorado need and deserve nothing less, and our work begins now.

Another immediate step we’re taking is the creation of the first-ever Office of Saving People Money on Health Care.

We aren’t giving this office a fancy name to make it SOUND important. Instead we’re giving it a simple name because it IS important.

Led by Lieutenant Governor Primavera, The Office of Saving People Money on Health Care will form the beating heart of our efforts to reduce patient costs for hospital stays and expenses, improve price transparency, lower the price of prescription drugs, and make health insurance more affordable.

And let me say a bit about why Dianne is the very best person to take on this challenge.

Many of you in this chamber had the opportunity to serve with Dianne during her four terms in the State House, and you saw her at work as one of the fiercest, most knowledgeable patient advocates we’ve ever had.

As a young woman raising her two young kids, Dianne was diagnosed with breast cancer and told she had less than five years to live. She knows firsthand how our healthcare system makes getting sick even harder by robbing people of their financial security at the same time they’re struggling to reclaim their health.

Dianne survived cancer, got well, worked hard for Colorado AND raised two amazing daughters who are here with us today.

She dedicated her life to helping others get quality, affordable health care and we just couldn’t ask for anyone better to lead this administration’s health care efforts.
Dianne is a fighter and she is living proof that, with strength, courage, and resilience, we can overcome all obstacles and solve any challenge.

And as Dianne has said, health care is something that affects everyone, no matter our political beliefs. It is not a partisan issue.

We must work to get a grip on the opioid epidemic, which has taken thousands of lives, devastated our communities, and stretched our resources to the breaking point. In 2017 alone, more than 550 Coloradans died because they overdosed on either prescription or illicit opioids. I look forward to working with legislators from both parties on solutions that focus on both addiction prevention and access to effective treatment.

And we must tackle the outrageous health care costs facing Coloradans — particularly in rural and mountain counties. There’s no reason for anybody to lose their savings or their home simply trying to keep up with rising health care costs.
And there is no reason a family in Glenwood Springs or Gunnison should pay twice as much for health care as a family in Denver.

We’ll empower the Division of Insurance to protect consumers and support rural and mountain communities working to lower their health care costs.

We’ll establish a reinsurance program to reduce costs and save Coloradans money.
This is a proven solution to reduce health care costs that has worked in other states, and it’s one we should embrace in Colorado.

And finally, we will address the appalling costs of prescription drugs. Canada has the same drugs from the same manufacturing plants that we have here in the United States — but often at one-half, one-third, yes, even one-quarter of the cost.

Together with the Legislature, I look forward to setting up a way for Colorado to safely import prescription drugs from Canada. The burden that prescription drug costs place on families is simply too crushing for us not to act boldly.

Our ultimate objective is to bring universal, high-quality, affordable care to every Colorado family. We know that won’t happen overnight, but the work we will do together in this legislative session will put us on the right path and bring us closer to our goal.
Together we can save Coloradans money, help small businesses across the state, and clear away barriers that prevent Coloradans from receiving needed life-saving health care.
Now, I want to say something that I know has total and complete bipartisan agreement in this room: Colorado is the best state in the nation, and frankly, it isn’t even close.
It’s our job to keep it that way.
Here in Colorado, we pride ourselves on our unbeatable quality of life and the breathtaking beauty of the state we proudly call home. Protecting our special way of life for ourselves and future generations is one of the most sacred responsibilities we all share.
Not only do our majestic mountains and plains provide endless opportunities to enjoy our natural world with friends and family and to find solitude — they also are vital to our economic success.
Colorado is now proudly the home of the Outdoor Retailer Show, a testament to our collective commitment to public lands and the outdoor recreation economy.
We will continue to defend our public lands, promote access to outdoor recreation, and stand up for the outdoor industry’s 230,000 and growing Colorado jobs.

While the outdoor recreation economy continues to expand opportunities in rural Colorado, we must also double down on supporting Colorado’s rich farming and ranching tradition.
Though our agriculture exports have nearly quadrupled over the last two decades, the last few years have been difficult for farmers and ranchers. Volatile commodities markets, a damaging trade war from Washington, an increasingly serious water shortage — are all making life harder for the men and women of our agriculture industry.
We need to make sure today’s farmers and ranchers, and tomorrow’s, have the tools to succeed. And I couldn’t be more excited that our nominee for Agriculture Commissioner, Kate Greenberg, will be the first woman to hold the position. Kate has spent her career focused on the future of farming rather than the past, which is exactly what today’s challenges call for.
The lifeblood of our agriculture industry is water — which is why we must commit to a bipartisan and sustainable funding source for the Colorado Water Plan. Governor Hickenlooper, along with the leadership of John Stulp, did extraordinary work bringing together a coalition of Coloradans from all corners of our state to create the Water Plan. Now we’re going to do our part by implementing it.
We will also partner with organizations like the Rocky Mountain Farmers Union’s Co-Op Development Center and others to reduce barriers to employee ownership and grow wages in the agriculture sector. And we’ll work with the Rural Colorado Venture Capital Fund to expand access to capital and help the next generation of farmers thrive.
And we’ll make good on the promise of industrial hemp. With our world-class universities like Colorado State and Adams State, which are at the forefront of hemp innovation, and with the leading hemp manufacturers and cultivators already here, we will seize the opportunity to make Colorado the national leader in industrial hemp production.

And when we talk about protecting Colorado’s way of life, we need to talk about climate change.
Climate change is a scientific reality. It’s real. There’s no pretending otherwise for farmers and ranchers who are facing historic water shortages. There’s no pretending otherwise for the 46,000 women and men who work in Colorado’s ski industry and see their jobs threatened by decreased snowpack.

And there will be no pretending otherwise in this administration. We’re going to confront this challenge head-on — not only because we must, but because we want to take advantage of the huge opportunities associated with being a leader in the growing green-energy economy.

I launched my campaign for Governor in Pueblo at an all-solar coffee-roasting small business, just 10 miles from the Vestas Wind Turbine factory, which employs 800 Coloradans today.

I did so to demonstrate that our commitment to reaching 100% renewable energy by 2040 is not just about climate change. It’s about saving money for consumers with cheaper energy, and it’s about making sure the good-paying green jobs of the future are created right here in Colorado.

Today the work begins setting Colorado on course to reach that goal.

That means modernizing both our grid infrastructure and our regulatory processes to ensure all Coloradans are reaping the full suite of benefits associated with swift adoption of renewable energy.

It means working to electrify our cars and buses and trucks.

And it means taking advantage of modern technology to use energy more efficiently — cleaning our air and saving consumers money in the process.

As Governor, my goal is to lead the statewide transition to a clean, sustainable, and growing economy. It is imperative for our climate, our security, our health, and our economic growth for all Coloradans.

We will lead with policies that support, enable, and accelerate market investment.

We will work with stakeholders across Colorado on outcomes-based approaches that promote innovation, and that deliver emissions reductions from all sources, reductions in consumer costs, and sustainable economic growth for communities across Colorado.

We will build upon significant work and commitment by communities, businesses, and people throughout the state. Today 62,800 people are employed in advanced energy in Colorado. Xcel Energy has committed to achieving 80% carbon reduction by 2030 and 100% carbon-free electricity by 2050.
Communities like Pueblo, Summit County, Fort Collins, Denver and others across the state have embraced strong climate goals. We are already leading the way forward right here in Colorado, and now we will build on that progress.

Make no mistake — with price declines and technology advances, the move toward renewable energy is already taking place and will only accelerate. But as we embrace the renewable-energy future, we must also do right by all the men and women in today’s energy workforce. Some of the hardest-working people in Colorado today work in the coal and oil-and-gas industries and we will not leave them behind.

We will embrace the skills and experience these Coloradans bring to the table.
Their help will be needed and rewarded at every single step of this transition.

And we will support the communities these jobs have sustained, to ensure they can continue to thrive in the renewable-energy economy.

Creative financing mechanisms that exist today can ensure that consumers pay lower rates as we move to renewables, and help provide for a transition that is just and fair both for workers and for communities directly impacted.

Colorado has always been, and must always be, a place where we respect the dignity of hard work. Providing for ourselves and our families is at the core of the Colorado Way of Life we all love. And a strong economy cannot be built on any one sector, or any one region of the state, on its own.

Our mission is to help businesses of all kinds start, grow, thrive, and create good-paying jobs across Colorado, from the Western Slope and the Eastern Plains, to the Front Range, Southern Colorado, and the San Luis Valley.

We will value every job. We will respect every worker and every shareholder. We will protect the rights of workers to organize and collectively bargain for the pay and benefits they deserve, and the rights of shareholders to lead their companies.
And just as we stand up for workers and good jobs, so too must we stand up for our communities — and their right to have a voice when it comes to industrial activities within their borders. It’s time for us to take meaningful action to address the conflicts between oil-and-gas drilling operations and the neighborhoods they impact, and to make sure that all of our communities have clean air and water.

This is a vital quality-of-life issue for Colorado families.

To keep our economy moving in the right direction, we must upgrade our antiquated roads and highways and limited public transit options. They are simply not equipped to sustain a growing 21st-century economy.

Thanks to the bipartisan commitment made last year to dedicate additional funds to transportation, we have hundreds of millions of dollars to improve our roads over the next few years.

That’s a strong foundation to work from but it’s not enough. We must come together around a bipartisan funding mechanism for our future transportation needs that the voters of this state will accept.

We also need to expand access to broadband. I’m eager to work with legislators to cut red tape that forces communities to go through costly and lengthy elections to build out their own broadband infrastructure. And at the same time, we’ll continue the good work of the Hickenlooper administration in supporting the creation of Strategic Regional Broadband plans to make high-speed internet access a reality across our entire state.

In the 21st-century economy, broadband is critical infrastructure that EVERYONE must have access to. Let’s work together to give it to them.

So many of the important issues Coloradans face today boil down to opportunity.
The opportunity to grow and start a business. The opportunity to enjoy Colorado’s special way of life, our majestic outdoors. The opportunity to get a great education that leads to a successful future.

But for Colorado to be a place where these opportunities are available for all, and not just some, we need to make our economy work better for middle-class families.

One way we’ll do this is by working with you to make our tax code more fair, so that we can reduce rates for Colorado families and small businesses. Our tax code gives too much power to the special interests who can afford expensive lobbyists, while forcing ordinary families to pay more. As legislators, I know that many of you find these tax giveaways offensive.

Unlike budget expenditures, which you vote on every year, these tax expenditures are on autopilot, some since the 1930s. We need a tax code that reflects today’s realities rather than yesterday’s distortions. Let people keep more of their hard-earned money rather than give it away to special interests.

The Legislature and the Auditor, thanks to your efforts, have gotten off to a good start by closely examining which deductions are benefiting our economy, and which are being exploited by corporations at Coloradans’ expense. I want to work with you to close these loopholes and pass the savings on to families by lowering the income tax rate.

For instance, many of the changes in President Trump’s tax law were giveaways to the most influential corporations in the country. Some big businesses pay less, while many families here in Colorado have to pay more. We should not blindly copy President Trump’s policies into our state tax code. We do not need to take the bad with the good. Instead, we should reflect the good in our tax code and change the bad to put families and small businesses ahead of special interests as nearly every other state has done.
Also, 90 percent of the retailers in our state are small businesses. It's time to cap the vendor fee, which is a giveaway to the largest and most profitable retailers in the nation, and use the savings to lower rates, which will benefit small businesses and millions of working Coloradans. That's extra money Colorado families can use on home repairs, a college fund, or any of the other innumerable expenses that folks are having a harder and harder time keeping up with as the cost of living keeps going up. We want to make Colorado better for everyone. Broadening the base while lowering rates leads to more growth and a stronger economy. We look forward to working with you to seek tax efficiencies and clear-eyed policies that make everyone better off.

Our tax reform proposal will not change how much money the state collects or affect investment in public priorities one way or the other. It simply asks the largest, most influential corporations to start paying their fair share so that individuals, families, and small businesses can pay less. As we address the inequities in our tax code, so too must we address the inequities in our criminal justice system. That means tackling discriminatory practices that make people of color, individuals living with mental illness, and Coloradans experiencing poverty more likely to face incarceration. And it means working to make sure Coloradans who do serve prison or jail time are able to live a dignified and fulfilling life after they've paid their debt to society. Criminal justice reform is an economic necessity and a human-rights necessity. We won’t follow on this issue. We'll lead.

It’s not easy folks, but it is simple: every Coloradan wants the opportunity to earn a good life. And we can break down the barriers that hold them back by bringing high-quality early education to every family, lowering health care costs, creating good-paying jobs here, and saving families money on their tax bill. What makes Colorado unique isn’t just the boldness of our ideas. It is the resilience and the spirit of our people, who make change happen, who bring these bold ideas to life.

Our shared responsibility is to turn challenges into opportunities and ideas into action. So, now is the time to unite in our common purpose and move Colorado forward. Together, we will build a Colorado that works for ALL. Let’s get to work. Thank you.

God bless you.

And God bless the great state of Colorado.

Chief Justice Nathan B. Coats

Madam Speaker Becker, Senate President Garcia, distinguished members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

My thanks for your generous invitation for a co-ordinate branch of the government to address you in this chamber. This has become a very worthwhile and meaningful tradition in the state, and I would like to express both the appreciation of the judicial branch and my personal hope that the tradition continues long into the future.

Let me begin by introducing my fellow justices, who have also come to represent the branch today. Although we make all important decisions en banc, or as a whole court, with each justice having equal voting power, after the Chief Justice we measure seniority by longevity on the court. In order of seniority, then, my colleagues are Justice Monica Marquez; Justice Brian Boatright; Justice Will Hood; Justice Rich Gabriel; and since we last appeared in this chamber for a State of the Judiciary address, our newest members, Justice Melissa Hart; and Justice Carlos Samour.

I would also like to introduce the State Court Administrator, Chris Ryan, whom I have asked to sit with the court today. And finally, I am pleased to introduce my wife, Dean Emerita of the Sturm College of Law at DU, Mary Ricketson . . . and my daughter, currently a deputy district attorney at my old office in Denver, Johanna Coats.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in this jurisdiction actually wears two very distinctly different hats. Although the Chief has an important leadership role in the organization and conduct of the business of the court, the position of Chief Justice can best be described as “first among equals.” The Chief has equal, but no more than equal, voting power with the other members of the court. Unlike the United States Supreme Court, where the Chief Justice is nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate into the specific slot of Chief, the Chief Justice of the Colorado Supreme Court is selected by and serves at the pleasure of the court itself.

In addition, however, Article VI, section 5 of the state constitution also specifies that the Chief Justice selected by a majority of the court “shall be the executive head of the judicial system” of the state. It is in that latter capacity, as the chief executive officer of the judicial branch of government, that I address you today.

In thanking you for the invitation to speak, I referred to us as coordinate branches of government, and I would like to explain what I understand to be the coordinate nature of our relationship. Although we are very expressly and purposefully organized in the constitution as separate but co-equal branches of government, we are not only co-equal branches, but in fact we share what might be described as a symbiotic, or cooperative, relationship. In an important sense, each depends on the other. The roles assigned to each of us, although different, are necessarily cooperative, both being essential to the fulfillment of the core obligations of government.

As limited by the constitution, the fundamental law from which each of our branches derives its powers and authority, and apart from that portion of the legislative power of government that you have willingly delegated to the executive, in the form of the administration, this body is clearly the law giver with regard to matters concerning the governance of the state generally. You indisputably set policy for the state, and enact that policy into governing law, to be carried out and enforced by the executive branch. The power of the judiciary, on the other hand, is largely limited, except for supervising its own operations and the practice of law, to making judgments about the nature and effect of policy choices already made by others. With regard to the laws enacted by you, our role in the system is limited to determining what you meant in enacting those laws, how you intended them to apply in individual cases, and that they do not conflict with the constitution. Similarly, where you have left it to others to arrange their own affairs, whether by contract, lease, will, or any other legally enforceable arrangement, it is the role of the judiciary to determine what those parties intended. The core function of the judiciary is therefore to provide appropriate forums, a fair process, and neutral and impartial decision-makers, schooled at interpreting the law according to well-established principles, which permit your constituents to resolve their grievances and order their important affairs, with the force of law. Included within your function – the legislative function of government – is, of course, both the power and duty to raise and allocate the resources necessary for the functioning of state government, regardless of the particular branch exercising governmental power. Both the executive and judicial branches are dependent upon you for the resources required for them to fulfill their constitutional obligations. It is therefore both natural and proper for us to regularly report to you how we are fulfilling those obligations and offer our professional assessment of the resources we need to continue to do so. Although I am now well into my 19th year serving as a justice on the supreme court, and I have, for more than the last 40 years, been an advocate, close court-watcher, and participant in the boards, committees, and other organs established by the supreme court to assist with the conduct of its business and supervisory obligations, I measure my responsibilities as Chief only in months. I am quite proud of the accomplishments of the branch I now have the honor to lead, and with your indulgence, I would like to give you a brief overview of what I am finding. As you might well imagine, over the 40 years I have served the judicial branch, it has grown along with the state whose people it serves. We now have 64 counties in the state, the last being Broomfield, which was created just over 20 years ago. For about the last half-century, the counties of the state have been organized into 22 judicial districts. The district courts are the trial courts of general jurisdiction, meaning they can hear both civil and criminal cases of all kinds, while the county courts are limited to deciding the less serious criminal offenses, or misdemeanors, and certain civil cases with lesser amounts in controversy. Each county and judicial district must have at least one judge, but of course in light of growing populations and case filings, the vast majority have many more. Counting some 40 magistrates, who are authorized to perform only limited judicial tasks, along with the county and district court judges, the total number of judicial officers in the state now approaches 400. In 1969, this legislative body created an intermediate appellate court, the court of appeals. At that time, the court of appeals was comprised of 7 judges, with limited authority, to help deal with the burgeoning backlog of trial court judgments awaiting appellate review. Since that time, you have continuously expanded the authority of the court of appeals to include the review of all but very select kinds of cases – like cases involving water rights – and to keep pace with ever increasing demand, you have correspondingly increased the size of that court to 22 judges. The ultimate legal authority with regard to matters of state law, however, rests with the 7-member state supreme court. In one form or another, the supreme court has authority over virtually every kind of legal dispute that can arise in state, over all lower courts of the state, as well as over the practice of law in the state. While the court of appeals has become the workhorse of appellate review in the state, now resolving some 2,300 appeals a year, the Colorado Supreme Court, like the United States Supreme Court, has become largely a court of discretionary review, which means that for the most part we choose the cases we will decide based on how important they are and how broadly our decision will impact other cases throughout the state, rather than just correct errors in individual cases. While the Colorado Supreme Court, like the United States Supreme Court in federal system, therefore fully resolves, by published opinion, a lot fewer cases than the court of appeals, it nevertheless has to evaluate in detail some 1,100 petitions for review each year, just to pick the ones that will likely have the biggest impact.
In addition to the 1969 creation of the modern court of appeals, several other initiatives, taking effect roughly around the same time, radically altered the nature of the judiciary in this state and its relationship to the state legislature, and they did so in ways that are critical to a complete understanding of the current state of the judicial branch.
With regard to the method of selecting state judges, and therefore the very nature and make-up of the judging profession in this state, an amendment to the state constitution in 1966 created a kind of merit selection system, in which applications for judicial openings are reviewed by independent commissions in each judicial district - or by a separate statewide commission for openings on the appellate courts. The members of the nominating commissions are chosen according to a constitutionally established formula, to include both lawyers and non-lawyers and a balance of political party affiliation. Each nominating commission is chaired by a justice of the supreme court, who serves as a non-voting member. The ultimate selection of judges by the governor is then limited to a short list of two or three qualified applicants, forwarded to him by the appropriate commission.
While perhaps no system of selection involving human beings can be entirely objective, and the selection process in this jurisdiction was clearly designed to account for very diverse views in the community concerning the appropriate credentials for being a judge, after chairing commissions all over the state for going on 20 years, that have been responsible for sending names to the governor for some 75 judgeships, I can truthfully say that I have never witnessed overtly partisan, or party, politics to be a factor in any judicial selection. Since the adoption of our merit selection system, more and more legal scholars, judges, and political figures throughout the country have touted it, and more and more states have adopted some version of it.
In addition to the make-up of the judiciary of the state, the organization and funding of the judicial branch also underwent a big change during roughly this same period.
In 1970, after years of debate, the general assembly pretty much assumed the role of funding the state judicial system - apart from providing the courthouses themselves, that is - and in particular, funding a centralized support mechanism to assist the supreme court in administering that judicial system. In commenting on the value of this system of state financing several years later, former Chief Justice Pringle was quoted as saying, “State funding makes it possible to budget on a system wide basis, makes it possible to shift personnel, as well as judges, on a temporary basis when workloads require, permits economies of scale, facilitates the overall development of a management information system, makes it possible to meet unusual emergencies, and makes greater operational efficiency possible through control of resources and the development of cost and caseload data that show meaningful comparisons among courts and among different kinds of cases.”
To satisfy the vast array of legal needs of the people of this state and the need to fairly and appropriately hear and finally resolve their grievances, the branch now operates 410 courtrooms throughout the state. And while the responsibility for financing the physical structures housing those courtrooms remains with the individual counties, for nearly the last half-century it has therefore been the statutory responsibility of the state to furnish those courtrooms and fund the judges and necessary supporting staff, now accounting for some 3,800 full time equivalent positions, with a budget approaching $600M.

I must pause here for a brief aside on this body’s provision of funding for courthouses themselves. Although the individual counties remain responsible for providing courthouses for their own county and district courts, since 2014 this body has also provided additional funding to assist with construction and remodeling of court facilities in areas of the state incapable of doing so by themselves. In that regard, allow me a word of thanks to you and praise for the joint efforts of the judicial and county officials in the 12th judicial district in bringing on line just this past September a much needed, modern courthouse in Alamosa, now housing one county and four district court courtrooms.

Supplemental funds from the state were instrumental in finding a funding solution for that facility. Similarly, assistance from the state through the underfunded facilities fund is making possible a new courthouse to replace the 1904 facility in Walsenburg, the dire condition of which my predecessor, Chief Justice Nancy Rice, described so colorfully in this chamber several years ago.

Through efficiencies involving computer and other technological advances, as well as the centralization of a host of administrative and support functions, we have managed to free up judicial officers from many of the collateral, but time-consuming tasks, that once diverted them from their core function: sitting in judgment of actual cases and controversies. But at some point, the need for more well-trained, impartial judges simply cannot be got around.

To assist you in the rational allocation of scarce resources among competing interests, we have for more than 20 years now measured need much more precisely than older methods of simply extrapolating from general metrics like population growth and changes in overall case filings. By collecting data on the time actually spent on different duties and different kinds of cases, we have been able to provide you with figures – in the form of empirical, weighted caseload studies - more precisely demonstrating demand, which you have relied on to increase the number of judges in the state a number of times since then. In fact, since 2000, you have regularly credited these calculations to increase the number of district court judges statewide. In the past, we have generally not made any request until the demand was beyond dispute; and so in 2001, for example, you agreed and approved an increase of 25 district court judges, and again in 2007, another 32, to meet the burgeoning demand in each instance.

Using this same system of measurement, the branch is now prepared to represent to you that we are currently operating with about 77% of the district court judges actually needed in the state. I am happy to report that a bill has already been introduced in the Senate to increase the number of district court judgeships by 15, precisely allocated throughout the state according to greatest need, which would bring that 77% figure to about 82% of actual demand. While not completely offsetting existing need, members of both our branches who have looked at the demand consider this figure both realistic and sufficient to prevent serious shortages in the immediate term. At this time, may I offer my special thanks to Senators Lee and Gardner, and Representatives Herod and Carver for sponsoring this much needed measure.

The need for more impartial decision-makers is being driven largely from two directions: the first is the easily measured jump in felony case filings throughout the state in recent years; the second is perhaps more subtle and has more to do with the expanding role of the judicial branch, alongside the legislative and executive branches, in addressing the broader societal problems giving rise to this increasing need for legal services.

With regard to the first, for various reasons, which may be the subject of debate, felony filings in this state in the last five years have climbed by more than 40%. Our data indicate that this trend is statewide, not limited to filing practices in any particular districts. Lest someone leap to the conclusion that this represents a problem for criminal cases alone, it would be well to take stock of the impact this startling explosion is having on the availability of judge time on every other aspect of our judicial system. As the result of both constitutional and statutory provisions designed to protect the rights of those charged with committing crimes, criminal cases cannot be delayed for lack of available courtroom time, in the same way as almost all other legal matters, unpleasant as that reality may seem. The immediate and undesirable effect of this surge in criminal demand is therefore to starve virtually every other aspect of the justice system of much needed resources and cause often extremely harmful delay in the resolution of pressing, noncriminal legal problems. The state is replete with examples of Chief Judges having to reassign their judges from handling civil cases of various kinds to handling criminal cases; and in districts where different case types are typically handled in a single court, judges are not infrequently having to simply allocate more of their available courtroom time for their criminal docket, making less available for pending civil cases. Not only are civil cases being crowded off the docket, but in some places criminal matters are having to be handled in a way that impacts logistical and security concerns. In Denver, for example, criminal matters are regularly being handled in courtrooms that would otherwise be devoted to civil matters, despite the fact that those courtrooms operate out of the City and County Building, which lacks the logistical and security advantages for which the new Lindsay-Flanigan criminal facility was specifically designed.
Few legal matters are more emotional and anxiety provoking than family law matters involving the dissolution of marriages; decisions about the custody, parenting time, and financial support of the children; and the division of marital property. Quite apart from the breakup of marriages, however, the plight of abused or dependent and neglected children is among the most urgent problems needing timely resolution by the courts. And yet the delay resulting from a lack of available judge time greatly elevates the anxiety level of adults and children alike in these situations, and prolongs uncertainty concerning the permanency of child placement, reducing the likelihood of satisfactory outcomes for many children.
But there are any number of examples of hardship suffered by very ordinary people when they are unable to get a timely resolution of important legal matters affecting their lives, relationships, property, or finances. Whether the matter needing legal attention is large or small, delay caused by backlog can be terribly significant for the people actually involved. Delay caused by backlog and a lack of available judicial decision-makers adversely affects not only the contractual arrangements of large commercial enterprises but of small businesses and consumers as well; not only property disputes among large corporations involving, for example, valuable mineral or water rights, but perhaps even more so among small farmers or homeowners needing some degree of certainty concerning their financial arrangements; not only the devolution of large estates of wealthy decedents but also pressing questions of guardianship of the elderly or infirm and the distribution of even modest assets among the survivors of non-wealthy decedents; and not only wrongful death actions and substantial monetary claims for debilitating personal injuries but even common insurance disputes over property damage or the medical costs of injuries that are ordinary enough but nevertheless beyond the means of the damaged parties.
In addition to sheer volume, however, the need for more judges and specialized support staff is also being driven by both the changing nature of the people typically appearing in court and the changing role of the judiciary in helping to solve the more fundamental societal problems leading these people to court in the first place. Not so long ago, a debate raged in the judicial community about the appropriateness of involving the courts too directly in treatment and rehabilitation. At least in this state, I believe that time is largely past.
The judicial department in general, and the district courts in particular, are increasingly involved in innovative approaches to dealing with societal problems that go beyond, and are often the cause of, criminal or other anti-social behavior – problems like poverty, addiction, and mental illness. One specific example of an approach that is particularly demanding of judge time is the ever-expanding use of what has come to be referred as “problem-solving courts.” Problem-solving courts can take many forms and be directed at a wide array of different social ills – like drug or alcohol dependency courts – or specific classes of defendants – like veterans’ courts.
But the approach they share is close monitoring, with regular reappearances of participating criminal defendants, by judicial officers themselves rather than only by probation officers or treatment providers, with the objective of immediate step by step increases of rewards and punishments, for compliance or non-compliance, with judicial directives. The increasing demand for these kinds of courts reflects their success with regard to rehabilitation and reducing recidivism, but in order to be successful they require extensive courtroom supervision and place additional demands on judge and staff time. While these approaches appear to be extremely beneficial for the individuals involved and for society in general, and they are clearly much less costly overall than simply imposing punitive sentences, their immediate impact on judge-intensive supervision, and therefore the need for more judges, is great.
Even in more traditional courtroom proceedings, however, the increasing numbers of folks appearing without legal assistance of any kind is taking a toll on judge time.
Each year, fully 75% of the parties appearing before judges in domestic relations cases throughout the state are not represented by counsel. While judges cannot act as lawyers for self-represented parties, basic fairness requires more lengthy explanations about the proceedings and available options, greatly slowing down even what might otherwise be the most perfunctory formalities. The judicial branch continues to work on a number of initiatives with the practicing bar and the other two branches to provide greater access to justice, including the use of Sherlocks, or Self-Represented Litigant Coordinators, in courthouses all over the state, as a way of assisting pro se litigants and saving valuable judge time.
Finally, let me briefly mention the expanding role of the probation department. In line with these other initiatives, the probation department is being asked to supervise higher and higher risk individuals, requiring greater and greater supervision for the protection of the public. While actual numbers of supervisees may not have dramatically increased, the staff-hours involved in providing this alternative to incarceration are therefore steadily and predictably increasing. Colorado probation is by far the largest single sentencing option in Colorado. The active probation population in probation is more than 80,000 people. Our average daily population is about 4 times the number of inmates in department of corrections custody, nearly 9 times the size of the parole population and over 20 times the size of community corrections.
In this state, the probation function continues to reside within the supervision of the judicial branch of government, and it has proven to be one of the most cost-effective ways of supervising and rehabilitating many individuals convicted of crimes. For adults, the annual cost per person is just over $1,500 compared to $6,000 for someone on parole, nearly $9,000 in community corrections, and over $38,000 in prison.
As long as sentencing courts have available to them probation as an effective alternative means of rehabilitation and reducing recidivism, rather than much more costly and less effective incapacitation by incarceration, the community will benefit.
But because probation is a function of the judicial branch of government in this state, funds cannot merely be shifted within the executive branch’s department of corrections from one form of supervision to another, but must be separately appropriated for the judicial branch.
Let me close by saying that if it were not already apparent, let me reemphasize how pleased I have been with what I have discovered since taking on the responsibility for overseeing the judicial system in this state, and just how proud I am of the department.
We have a highly skilled, impartial, and dedicated corps of judges in this state, intent on providing, to the best of their ability, the kind of justice the people of this state deserve. After working closely now for some time with the State Court Administrator I have every confidence that he is equally intent upon ensuring that all those under his supervision do all they can to assist the judges of this state in having sufficient time and resources to perform their core function of acting as neutral decision-makers for the benefit of the people of the state. While the burden ultimately falls on you, as legislators, to wisely allocate the resources of the state, I can assure you that under my watch, the judiciary will continue to provide you with the most reliable and helpful data we can to assist with that task.

Thank you once more for the opportunity to address you today.

"SECTION 14. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend as relocated by House Bill 19-1172 12-205-102 as follows:

12-205-102. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the practice of athletic training by a person who does not possess a valid registration LICENSE issued pursuant to this article 205 is not in the best interests of the people of the state of Colorado. It is not, however, the intent of this article 205 to restrict the practice of a person duly licensed, certified, or registered under any part of or article of this title 12 or other laws of this state from practicing within the person's scope of practice and authority pursuant to those laws.

SECTION 15. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 12-205-104, amend as relocated by House Bill 19-1172 (4)(a) introductory portion as follows:

12-205-104. Definitions. As used in this article 205, unless the context otherwise requires:

(4)(a) "Athletic training" means the performance of those services that require the education, training, and experience required by this article 205 for registration LICENSURE as an athletic trainer pursuant to section 12-205-108. "Athletic training" includes services appropriate for the prevention, recognition, assessment, management, treatment, rehabilitation, and reconditioning of injuries and illnesses sustained by an athlete:

SECTION 16. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend as relocated by House Bill 19-1172 12-205-105 as follows:

12-205-105. Use of titles restricted. Only a person registered LICENSED as an athletic trainer may use the title "athletic trainer" or "registered athletic trainer" "LICENSED ATHLETIC TRAINER", the letters "A.T." or "A.T.C." AS A TITLE, or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is an athletic trainer.

SECTION 17. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 12-205-107, amend as relocated by House Bill 19-1172 (1)(a); and relocate as added by Section 4 of House Bill 19-1083 (2) as follows:

12-205-107. License required - repeal. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this article 205, in order to practice athletic training or represent oneself as being able to practice athletic training in this state, a person must:

(a) Possess a valid registration LICENSE issued by the director in accordance with this article 205 and any rules adopted under this article 205; and

(2) (a) On August 2, 2019, each active athletic trainer registration becomes an active athletic trainer license by operation of law. This conversion does not affect any prior discipline, limitation, or condition imposed on a licensee; limit the director's authority over a licensee; or affect a pending investigation or administrative proceeding. The director shall treat an application for an athletic trainer registration, pending as of the effective date of this subsection (2), as an application for athletic trainer licensure.

(b) This subsection (2) is repealed, effective July 1, 2024.

SECTION 18. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 12-205-108, amend as relocated by House Bill 19-1172 (1) introductory portion, (1)(f), (2), and (3) as follows:

(3)(a) An applicant for registration to be licensed by endorsement, shall file an application and pay a fee as prescribed by the director and shall hold a current, valid license or registration in a jurisdiction that requires qualifications substantially equivalent to those required for registration by subsection (1) of this section.
(b) To be licensed by endorsement, an applicant for registration shall submit, with the application, verification that the applicant has actively practiced for a period of time determined by rules of the director or has otherwise maintained continued competency as determined by the director.
(c) Upon receipt of all documents required by subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b) of this section, the director shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualifications to be licensed by endorsement.

12-205-113. Mental or physical examination of licensees. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a registrant LICENSEE is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the registrant LICENSEE to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Unless due to circumstances beyond the registrant's LICENSEE'S control, if the registrant LICENSEE refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director may suspend the person's registration LICENSE until the results of the examination are known and the director has made a determination of the registrant's LICENSEE's fitness to practice. The director shall proceed with an order for examination and shall make his or her determination in a timely manner.

(2) The director shall include in an order requiring a registrant LICENSEE to undergo a mental or physical examination the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the registrant LICENSEE is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article 205, the registrant LICENSEE is deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The registrant LICENSEE may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician chosen by the registrant LICENSEE and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the registrant LICENSEE from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The testimony and reports submitted by the registrant LICENSEE may be considered by the director in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician designated by the director.

After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the following:

HB19-1037 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee of the Whole with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add article 41 to title 40 as follows:

ARTICLE 41

Colorado Energy Impact Assistance Act

PART 1

ENERGY IMPACT ASSISTANCE BONDS

40-41-101. Short title. The short title of this article 41 is the "Colorado Energy Impact Assistance Act".

40-41-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Colorado's electric utilities will continue to face the need to retire existing electric generating facilities to reduce electricity rates for customers and ensure the health and well-being of Colorado's natural environment and residents;

(b) The closure of electric generating facilities may have direct economic impacts on Colorado communities where the facilities are located, electric generating facility workers, and communities where fuels for the facilities are produced;

(c) Customers of Colorado's electric utilities have an interest in ensuring that their utilities are providing efficient and cost-effective electric generation;

(d) Colorado communities and workers may be directly affected by the closure of electric generating facilities, and it is in the best interest of the state to ensure that Colorado's workforce is able to adapt to the state's changing energy portfolio;

(e) There are alternative financing mechanisms used by more than twenty other states since 1997 that will result in lower costs to electric utility customers, and the use of these mechanisms can ensure that both the costs of retiring electric generating facilities located in the state and transition costs for directly affected Colorado communities and electric generating facility workers can be financed in a way that reduces the total amount of costs being included in customer rates;

(f) Customer costs of alternative financing mechanisms can be minimized by achieving the highest possible credit rating from independent credit rating agencies, which requires special procedures and conditions including:

(I) The use of limited purpose bankruptcy-remote financing entities to issue ratepayer-backed bonds;

(II) The creation of a properly structured and implemented adjustment mechanism to adjust the charge dedicated to the repayment of the bonds to enable consistent,
ACCURATE, AND TIMELY REMITTANCES TO THE FINANCING ENTITIES FOR THE BENEFIT OF BONDHOLDERS; AND

(III) A STATE PLEDGE THAT CONSTITUTES AN ENFORCEABLE PROMISE THAT THE STATE WILL NOT TAKE ANY ACTION THAT WOULD PREVENT, OBSTRUCT, IMPAIR, OR LIMIT THE PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON SECURITIZED ELECTRIC UTILITY RATEPAYER-BACKED BONDS AS THOSE AMOUNTS BECOME LEGALLY DUE AND OWING; AND

(g) TO IMPLEMENT THIS ALTERNATIVE FINANCING MECHANISM, IT IS NECESSARY TO AUTHORIZE THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION TO REVIEW AND APPROVE ONE OR MORE FINANCING ORDERS THAT ADVANCE
THESE GOALS IF IT DEEMS SUCH APPROVAL APPROPRIATE AND IN THE INTEREST OF RATEPAYERS.

(2) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FURTHER FINDS AND DECLARES THAT:

(a) IT IS THE POLICY OF THE STATE TO ASSIST COLORADO ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY WORKERS WHO ARE DIRECTLY IMPACTED BY THE RETRACTION OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES, THE COMMUNITIES WHERE THE FACILITIES ARE LOCATED, AND THE COMMUNITIES WHERE FUELS FOR THE FACILITIES ARE PRODUCED;

(b) IT IS THEREFORE IN THE INTEREST OF THE STATE AND ITS CITIZENS TO ENCOURAGE AND FACILITATE THE USE OF SECURITIZED
RATEPAYER-BACKED BONDS AS A METHOD FOR ENABLING ELECTRIC UTILITIES TO LOWER THE COST OF FINANCING THE RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS AND TO EMPower THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION TO REVIEW SUCH SECURITIZATION MECHANISMS TO DETERMINE WHETHER THEY ARE CONSISTENT WITH THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND WORTHY OF APPROVAL;

(c) THE PRIMARY PURPOSE OF THIS ACT IS TO AUTHORIZE THE ISSUANCE OF LOW-COST SECURITIZED RATEPAYER-BACKED BONDS, THE PROCEEDS OF WHICH MUST BE USED SOLELY:

(I) TO PROVIDE TRANSITION ASSISTANCE TO COLORADO COMMUNITIES AND ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY WORKERS THAT ARE DIRECTLY IMPACTED BY THE RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES;

(II) TO LOWER RATES PAID BY ELECTRIC UTILITY CUSTOMERS BY REDUCING FINANCING COSTS OF CERTAIN RETIRED ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES; AND

(III) TO MAKE AVAILABLE CAPITAL INVESTMENT FOR MODERNIZED FACILITIES AND SERVICES INCLUDING LEAST-COST ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES AND OTHER SUPPLY-SIDE AND DEMAND-SIDE RESOURCES; AND

(d) AN ADDITIONAL PURPOSE OF THIS ACT IS TO CREATE THE COLORADO ENERGY IMPACT ASSISTANCE AUTHORITY TO ASSIST WITH THE

40-41-104. Financing orders - application requirements.
(1) AN ELECTRIC UTILITY MAY APPLY TO THE COMMISSION FOR A FINANCING ORDER AS AUTHORIZED BY THIS SECTION.

(2) (a) AN INVESTOR-OWNED OR OTHER REGULATED ELECTRIC UTILITY MAY FILE AN APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO ISSUE CO-EIA
BONDS IN ONE OR MORE SERIES, IMPOSE, CHARGE, AND COLLECT CO-EIA

OF AN ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY IN COLORADO THAT HAS PREVIOUSLY BEEN APPROVED BY THE COMMISSION.

APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO ISSUE CO-EIA BONDS IN ONE OR MORE SERIES, IMPOSE, CHARGE, AND COLLECT CO-EIA CHARGES, AND CREATE
CO-EIA PROPERTY RELATED TO THE RETIREMENT OF AN ELECTRIC

(c) THE COMMISSION SHALL TAKE FINAL ACTION TO APPROVE, DENY, OR MODIFY ANY APPLICATION FOR A FINANCING ORDER AS DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (2)(a) OR (2)(b) OF THIS SECTION IN A FINAL ORDER ISSUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMISSION'S RULES FOR ADDRESSING APPLICATIONS.

(a) An estimated schedule for the retirement;
(b) A specification of the effects of the proposed CO-EIA bond financing on the retirement;
(c) A proposed methodology for allocating the revenue requirement for the CO-EIA charge among customer classes;
(d) A description of the nonbypassable CO-EIA charge required to be paid by customers within the electric utility's service area for recovery of CO-EIA costs;
(e) An estimate of the net present value of electric utility customer savings expected to result if the financing order is issued as determined by a net present value comparison between the costs to customers that are expected to result from the financing of the undepreciated balances of electric generating facilities with CO-EIA bonds and the costs that would result from the application of traditional electric utility financing mechanisms to the same undepreciated balances; and
(f) One or more alternative financing scenarios in addition to the preferred scenario contained in the application.

40-41-105. Issuance of financing orders. (1) Following notice and hearing on an application for a financing order as required by the Commission's rules, practice, and procedure, the Commission may issue a financing order if the Commission finds that:

(a) The CO-EIA costs described in the application related to the retirement of the electric generating facilities are reasonable;
(b) The proposed issuance of CO-EIA bonds and the imposition and collection of CO-EIA charges:
(I) Are just and reasonable;
(II) Are consistent with the public interest;
(III) Constitute a prudent and reasonable mechanism for the financing of the CO-EIA costs described in the application; and
(IV) Will provide substantial, tangible, and quantifiable benefits to customers that are greater than the benefits that would have been achieved absent the issuance of CO-EIA bonds; and
(c) The proposed structuring, marketing, and pricing of the CO-EIA bonds will:
(I) Significantly lower overall costs to customers or significantly mitigate rate impacts to customers relative to traditional methods of financing; and
(II) Achieve the maximum net present value of customer savings, as determined by the Commission in a financing order, consistent with market conditions at the time of sale and the terms of the financing order.

(2) The financing order must:
(a) Determine the maximum amount of CO-EIA costs that may be financed from proceeds of CO-EIA bonds authorized to be issued by the financing order;
(b) Notwithstanding the limitation on the use of ratepayer funds set forth in section 40-3-114, provide that an AMOUNT OF CO-EIA BOND PROCEEDS EQUAL TO FIFTEEN PERCENT OF THE NET PRESENT VALUE OF ELECTRIC UTILITY CUSTOMER SAVINGS ESTIMATED PURSUANT TO SECTION 40-41-104 (3)(e) BE TRANSFERRED TO THE AUTHORITY BY THE ELECTRIC UTILITY TO WHICH THE FINANCING ORDER APPLIES FOR USE BY THE AUTHORITY IN PROVIDING TRANSITION ASSISTANCE AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 40-41-202 AND PAYING ITS REASONABLE AND NECESSARY ADMINISTRATIVE AND OPERATING COSTS AS AUTHORIZED BY SECTION 40-41-201 (3)(f); EXCEPT THAT THE COMMISSION
MAY CONSIDER, AND IF DETERMINED AS PART OF AN EVIDENTIARY PROCEEDING TO BE APPROPRIATE, APPROVE THE USE OF UP TO AN ADDITIONAL TEN PERCENT OF THE NET PRESENT VALUE FOR SUCH USE BY THE AUTHORITY IF THE COMMISSION FINDS THAT FIFTEEN PERCENT IS NOT ADEQUATE TO MEET THE SCOPE OF LOCAL NEEDS;

(c) DESCRIBE THE PROPOSED CUSTOMER BILLING MECHANISM FOR CO-EIA CHARGES AND INCLUDE A FINDING THAT THE MECHANISM IS JUST AND REASONABLE;

(d) DESCRIBE THE FINANCING COSTS THAT MAY BE RECOVERED
THROUGH CO-EIA CHARGES AND THE PERIOD OVER WHICH THE COSTS
MAY BE RECOVERED, WHICH MUST END NO EARLIER THAN THE DATE OF FINAL LEGAL MATURITY OF THE CO-EIA BONDS;

(e) DESCRIBE THE CO-EIA PROPERTY THAT IS CREATED AND THAT MAY BE USED TO PAY, AND SECURE THE PAYMENT OF, THE CO-EIA BONDS AND FINANCING COSTS AUTHORIZED IN THE FINANCING ORDER;

(f) AUTHORIZE THE APPLICANT ELECTRIC UTILITY TO FINANCE CO-EIA COSTS THROUGH THE ISSUANCE OF ONE OR MORE SERIES OF CO-EIA BONDS. AN ELECTRIC UTILITY IS NOT REQUIRED TO SECURE A SEPARATE FINANCING ORDER FOR EACH ISSUANCE OF CO-EIA BONDS OR FOR EACH SCHEDULED PHASE OF THE PREVIOUSLY APPROVED RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES APPROVED IN THE FINANCING ORDER.

(g) INCLUDE AN ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM FOR MAKING EXPEDITIOUS PERIODIC ADJUSTMENTS IN THE CO-EIA CHARGES THAT CUSTOMERS ARE REQUIRED TO PAY PURSUANT TO THE FINANCING ORDER AND FOR MAKING ANY ADJUSTMENTS THAT ARE NECESSARY TO CORRECT
FOR ANY OVER COLLECTION OR UNDER COLLECTION OF THE CO-EIA CHARGES IN PAST PERIODS OR TO OTHERWISE GUARANTEE THE TIMELY PAYMENT OF CO-EIA BONDS AND FINANCING COSTS AND OTHER REQUIRED AMOUNTS AND CHARGES PAYABLE IN CONNECTION WITH CO-EIA BONDS;

(h) INCLUDE ANY ADDITIONAL FINDINGS OR CONCLUSIONS DEEMED APPROPRIATE BY THE COMMISSION;

(i) SPECIFY THE DEGREE OF FLEXIBILITY AFFORDED TO THE ELECTRIC UTILITY IN ESTABLISHING THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE CO-EIA BONDS, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, REPAYMENT SCHEDULES, EXPECTED INTEREST RATES, AND OTHER FINANCING COSTS;

(j) SPECIFY THE TIMING OF ACTIONS REQUIRED BY THE ORDER SO THAT:

(I) THE CO-EIA BONDS ARE ISSUED AS SOON AS FEASIBLE
FOLLOWING THE ISSUANCE OF THE FINANCING ORDER, INDEPENDENT OF THE SCHEDULE OF CLOSING AND DECOMMISSIONING OF THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY;

(II) THE ENERGY ASSISTANCE FUNDS ARE TRANSFERRED TO THE AUTHORITY AS SOON AS FEASIBLE, BUT NO LATER THAN THE EARLIER OF THE DATE ON WHICH THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY CEASES OPERATION; AND

(III) THE APPLICANT ELECTRIC UTILITY FILES TO REDUCE ITS RATES
AS REQUIRED IN SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE INCEPTION OF THE CO-EIA CHARGES AND INDEPENDENTLY OF THE SCHEDULE OF CLOSING AND DECOMMISSIONING OF THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY; AND

(k) SPECIFY A FUTURE RATEMAKING PROCESS TO RECONCILE ANY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE PROJECTED PRETAX COSTS INCLUDED IN THE AMOUNT FINANCED BY CO-EIA BONDS AND THE FINAL ACTUAL PRETAX COSTS INCURRED BY THE ELECTRIC UTILITY IN RETIRING THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY. THE RECONCILIATION MAY AFFECT THE ELECTRIC UTILITY’S BASE RATES OR ANY RIDER ADOPTED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION
(4) OF THIS SECTION, BUT SHALL NOT AFFECT THE AMOUNT OF THE BONDS OR THE ASSOCIATED CO-EIA CHARGES PAID BY CUSTOMERS.

(3) A FINANCING ORDER ISSUED TO AN ELECTRIC UTILITY MUST PERMIT AND MAY REQUIRE THE CREATION OF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY’S CO-EIA PROPERTY PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(e) OF THIS SECTION TO BE CONDITIONED UPON, AND SIMULTANEOUS WITH, THE SALE OR OTHER TRANSFER OF THE CO-EIA PROPERTY TO AN ASSIGNEE AND THE PLEDGE OF THE CO-EIA PROPERTY TO SECURE CO-EIA BONDS.

(4) A FINANCING ORDER SHALL REQUIRE THE APPLICANT ELECTRIC UTILITY, SIMULTANEOUSLY WITH THE INCEPTION OF THE COLLECTION OF CO-EIA CHARGES, TO REDUCE ITS RATES THROUGH A REDUCTION IN BASE RATES OR BY A NEGATIVE RIDER ON CUSTOMER BILLS IN AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE REVENUE REQUIREMENT ASSOCIATED WITH THE UTILITY ASSETS BEING FINANCED BY CO-EIA BONDS.

40-41-106. Effect of financing order. (1) A FINANCING ORDER REMAINS IN EFFECT UNTIL THE CO-EIA BONDS ISSUED AS AUTHORIZED BY THE FINANCING ORDER HAVE BEEN PAID IN FULL AND ALL FINANCING COSTS RELATING TO THE CO-EIA BONDS HAVE BEEN PAID IN FULL.

(2) A FINANCING ORDER REMAINS IN EFFECT AND UNABATED
NOTWITHSTANDING THE BANKRUPTCY, REORGANIZATION, OR INSOLVENCY OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY TO WHICH THE FINANCING ORDER APPLIES OR ANY AFFILIATE OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY OR SUCCESSOR ENTITY OR ASSIGNEE.

(3) SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION
40-41-109, A FINANCING ORDER IS IRREVOCABLE. THEREFORE, NOTWITHSTANDING SECTION 40-6-112 (1), THE COMMISSION MAY NOT REDUCE, IMPAIR, POSTPONE, OR TERMINATE CO-EIA CHARGES APPROVED IN A FINANCING ORDER OR IMPAIR CO-EIA PROPERTY OR THE COLLECTION OR RECOVERY OF CO-EIA REVENUE.

(4) NOTWITHSTANDING SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION, UPON ITS OWN MOTION OR AT THE REQUEST OF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY OR ANY OTHER PERSON, THE COMMISSION MAY COMMENCE A PROCEEDING AND ISSUE A SUBSEQUENT FINANCING ORDER THAT PROVIDES FOR REFINANCING, RETIRING, OR REFUNDBING CO-EIA BONDS ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE ORIGINAL FINANCING ORDER IF:

(a) THE COMMISSION MAKES ALL OF THE FINDINGS SPECIFIED IN SECTION 40-41-105 (1) WITH RESPECT TO THE SUBSEQUENT FINANCING ORDER; AND

(b) THE MODIFICATION PROVIDED FOR IN THE SUBSEQUENT FINANCING ORDER DOES NOT IMPAIR IN ANY WAY THE COVENANTS AND TERMS OF THE CO-EIA BONDS TO BE REFINANCED, RETIRED, OR REFUNDED.

40-41-107. Effect on commission jurisdiction. (1) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (2) OF THIS SECTION, IF THE COMMISSION ISSUES A FINANCING ORDER TO AN ELECTRIC UTILITY, THE COMMISSION SHALL NOT, IN EXERCISING ITS POWERS AND CARRYING OUT ITS DUTIES PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE 41:

(a) CONSIDER THE CO-EIA BONDS ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE FINANCING ORDER TO BE DEBT OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY OTHER THAN FOR INCOME TAX PURPOSES UNLESS IT IS NECESSARY TO CONSIDER THE CO-EIA BONDS TO BE SUCH DEBT TO ACHIEVE CONSISTENCY WITH PREVAILING UTILITy DEBT RATING METHODOLOGIES;

(b) CONSIDER THE CO-EIA CHARGES PAID UNDER THE FINANCING ORDER TO BE REVENUE OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY;

(c) CONSIDER THE CO-EIA COSTS OR FINANCING COSTS SPECIFIED IN THE FINANCING ORDER TO BE THE REGULATED COSTS OR ASSETS OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY;

(d) DETERMINE ANY PRUDENT ACTION TAKEN BY AN ELECTRIC UTILITY THAT IS CONSISTENT WITH THE FINANCING ORDER TO BE UNJUST OR UNREASONABLE.

(2) NOTHING IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION:

(a) AFFECTS THE AUTHORITY OF THE COMMISSION TO APPLY OR MODIFY ANY BILLING MECHANISM DESIGNED TO RECOVER CO-EIA CHARGES;

(b) PREVENTS OR PRECLUDES THE COMMISSION FROM INVESTIGATING THE COMPLIANCE OF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF A FINANCING ORDER AND REQUIRING COMPLIANCE WITH THE FINANCING ORDER; OR

(c) PREVENTS OR PRECLUDES THE COMMISSION FROM IMPOSING REGULATORY SANCTIONS AGAINST A REGULATED ELECTRIC UTILITY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF A FINANCING ORDER OR THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS ARTICLE 41.

(3) THE COMMISSION MAY NOT REFUSE TO ALLOW THE RECOVERY OF ANY COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH THE RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES BY AN ELECTRIC UTILITY SOLELY BECAUSE THE ELECTRIC UTILITY HAS ELECTED TO FINANCE THOSE ACTIVITIES THROUGH A FINANCING MECHANISM OTHER THAN CO-EIA BONDS.

40-41-108. Electric utility customer protection - legislative declaration. (1) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HEREBY FINDS AND DECLARES THAT:

(a) THE USE OF CO-EIA BOND FINANCING WILL BRING SUBSTANTIAL BENEFITS TO COLORADO ELECTRIC UTILITY CUSTOMERS AND TO COLORADO ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY WORKERS AND COLORADO COMMUNITIES THAT ARE DIRECTLY IMPACTED BY THE RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES; AND

(b) BECAUSE, SUBJECT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 40-41-109, THE COMMISSION'S APPROVAL OF A FINANCING ORDER IS IRREVOCABLE, TYPICALLY ADDRESSES VERY LARGE AMOUNTS OF FINANCING UNDERTAKEN PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE 41, AND CAN ONLY BE SUPERSEDED BY THE COMMISSION THROUGH THE ISSUANCE OF A SUBSEQUENT FINANCING ORDER TO THE LIMITED EXTENT AND IN THE LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES SPECIFIED IN SECTIONS 40-41-106 (4) AND 40-41-114 (3), IN ADDITION TO ITS OTHER POWERS AND DUTIES, THE COMMISSION HAS THE DUTY TO PERFORM AND AUTHORITY REQUIRED TO PERFORM COMPREHENSIVE DUE DILIGENCE IN ITS EVALUATION OF AN APPLICATION FOR A FINANCING ORDER AND HAS THE DUTY AND AUTHORITY TO OVERSEE THE PROCESS USED TO STRUCTURE, MARKET, AND PRICE CO-EIA BONDS.

(2) IN ADDITION TO ANY OTHER AUTHORITY OF THE COMMISSION:

(a) THE COMMISSION MAY ATTACH SUCH CONDITIONS TO THE APPROVAL OF A FINANCING ORDER AS THE COMMISSION DEEMS APPROPRIATE TO MAXIMIZE THE FINANCIAL BENEFITS OR MINIMIZE THE FINANCIAL RISKS OF THE TRANSACTION TO CUSTOMERS AND TO DIRECTLY IMPACTED COLORADO WORKERS AND COMMUNITIES;

(b) THE COMMISSION MAY SPECIFY DETAILS OF THE PROCESS USED TO STRUCTURE, MARKET, AND PRICE CO-EIA BONDS, INCLUDING THE SELECTION OF THE UNDERWRITER OR UNDERWRITERS;

(c) THE COMMISSION SHALL REVIEW AND DETERMINE THE REASONABLENESS OF ALL PROPOSED UP-FRONT AND ONGOING FINANCING COSTS; AND

(d) THE COMMISSION SHALL ENSURE THAT THE STRUCTURING, MARKETING, AND PRICING OF CO-EIA BONDS MAXIMIZES NET PRESENT VALUE CUSTOMER SAVINGS, CONSISTENT WITH MARKET CONDITIONS AND THE TERMS OF THE FINANCING ORDER.

(4) IN PERFORMING ITS RESPONSIBILITIES UNDER THIS ARTICLE 41, THE COMMISSION MAY ENGAGE OUTSIDE CONSULTANTS AND COUNSEL, SELECTED BY THE COMMISSION, WHO ARE EXPERIENCED IN SECURITIZED ELECTRIC UTILITY RATEPAYER-BACKED BOND FINANCING SIMILAR TO CO-EIA BONDS. THESE OUTSIDE CONSULTANTS AND COUNSEL HAVE A DUTY OF LOYALTY SOLELY TO THE COMMISSION AND SHALL NOT BE INVOLVED, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY THROUGH AFFILIATES, IN TRADING DEBT OR EQUITY SECURITIES ISSUED BY OR ON BEHALF OF ANY ELECTRIC UTILITY THAT HAS APPLIED FOR A FINANCING ORDER. THE EXPENSES ASSOCIATED WITH ANY ENGAGEMENT SHALL BE PAID BY THE APPLICANT UTILITY AS THEY ARE INCURRED, SHALL BE INCLUDED AS FINANCING COSTS AND INCLUDED IN THE CO-EIA CHARGE, ARE NOT AN OBLIGATION OF THE STATE, AND ARE ASSIGNED SOLELY TO THE TRANSACTION.

(5) IF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY'S APPLICATION FOR A FINANCING ORDER IS DENIED OR WITHDRAWN OR FOR ANY REASON NO CO-EIA BONDS ARE ISSUED, ANY COSTS OF RETAINING EXPERT CONSULTANTS AND COUNSEL ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSION, AS AUTHORIZED BY SUBSECTION (4) OF THIS SECTION, SHALL BE PAID BY THE APPLICANT ELECTRIC UTILITY AND SHALL BE CONSIDERED BY THE COMMISSION AS A PRUDENT DEFERRED EXPENSE FOR RECOVERY IN THE ELECTRIC UTILITY’S FUTURE RATES.

PETITION FOR SUSPENSION AND REVIEW OF THE FINANCING ORDER ONLY IN THE DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF Denver. In the case of any petition for suspension and review, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the action as expeditiously as practicable and shall give the action precedence over other matters not accorded similar precedence by law.

40-41-110. Electric utilities - duties. (1) The electric bills of an electric utility that has obtained a financing order and caused CO-EIA bonds to be issued:
(a) Must explicitly reflect that a portion of the charges on the bill represents CO-EIA charges approved in a financing order issued to the electric utility and, if the CO-EIA property has been transferred to an assignee, must include a statement that the assignee is the owner of the rights to CO-EIA charges and that the electric utility or other entity, if applicable, is acting as a collection agent or servicer for the assignee;
(b) Must include the CO-EIA charge on each customer's bill as a separate line item titled "energy impact assistance charge" and may include both the rate and the amount of the charge on each bill. The failure of an electric utility to comply with this subsection (1) does not invalidate, impair, or affect any financing order, CO-EIA property, CO-EIA charge, or CO-EIA bonds, but does subject the electric utility to penalties under applicable commission rules; and
(c) Must explain to customers in an annual filing with the commission the rate impact that financing the retirement of electric generating facilities has had on customer rates.
(2) An electric utility that has obtained a financing order and caused CO-EIA bonds to be issued must demonstrate in an annual filing with the commission that CO-EIA revenues are applied solely to the repayment of CO-EIA bonds and other financing costs.

40-41-111. CO-EIA property. (1) CO-EIA property that is described in a financing order constitutes an existing present property right or interest in an existing present property right even though the imposition and collection of CO-EIA charges depends on the electric utility to which the financing order is issued performing its servicing functions relating to the collection of CO-EIA charges and on future electricity consumption. The property right or interest exists regardless of whether the revenues or proceeds arising from the CO-EIA property have been billed, have accrued, or have been collected and notwithstanding the fact that the value or amount of the property right or interest is dependent on the future provision of service to customers by the electric utility or a successor or assignee of the electric utility.
(2) CO-EIA property described in a financing order exists until all CO-EIA bonds issued pursuant to the financing order are paid in full and all financing costs and other costs of the CO-EIA bonds have been recovered in full.
(3) All or any portion of CO-EIA property described in a financing order issued to an electric utility may be transferred, sold, conveyed, or assigned to a successor or assignee that is wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the electric utility and is created for the limited purpose of acquiring, owning, or ADMINISTERING CO-EIA PROPERTY OR ISSUING CO-EIA BONDS AS AUTHORIZED BY THE FINANCING ORDER. ALL OR ANY PORTION OF CO-EIA PROPERTY MAY BE PLEDGED TO SECURE CO-EIA BONDS ISSUED PURSUANT TO A FINANCING ORDER, AMOUNTS PAYABLE TO FINANCING PARTIES AND TO COUNTERPARTIES UNDER ANY ANCILLARY AGREEMENTS, AND OTHER FINANCING COSTS. EACH TRANSFER, SALE, CONVEYANCE, ASSIGNMENT, OR PLEDGE BY AN ELECTRIC UTILITY OR AN AFFILIATE OF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY IS A TRANSACTION IN THE NORMAL COURSE OF BUSINESS FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 40-5-105 (1)(a).

(4) IF AN ELECTRIC UTILITY DEFAULTS ON ANY REQUIRED PAYMENT OF CHARGES ARISING FROM CO-EIA PROPERTY DESCRIBED IN A FINANCING ORDER, A COURT, UPON APPLICATION BY AN INTERESTED PARTY AND WITHOUT LIMITING ANY OTHER REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO THE APPLYING PARTY, SHALL ORDER THE SEQUESTRATION AND PAYMENT OF THE REVENUE ARISING FROM THE CO-EIA PROPERTY TO THE FINANCING PARTIES. ANY SUCH FINANCING ORDER REMAINS IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT NOTWITHSTANDING ANY REORGANIZATION, BANKRUPTCY, OR OTHER INSOLVENCY PROCEEDINGS WITH RESPECT TO THE ELECTRIC UTILITY OR ITS SUCCESSORS OR ASSIGNEES.

(5) THE INTEREST OF A TRANSFEREE, PURCHASER, ACQUIRER, ASSIGNEE, OR PLEDGEE IN CO-EIA PROPERTY SPECIFIED IN A FINANCING ORDER ISSUED TO AN ELECTRIC UTILITY, AND IN THE REVENUE AND COLLECTIONS ARISING FROM THAT PROPERTY, IS NOT SUBJECT TO SETOFF, COUNTERCLAIM, SURCHARGE, OR DEFENSE BY THE ELECTRIC UTILITY OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE REORGANIZATION, BANKRUPTCY, OR OTHER INSOLVENCY OF THE ELECTRIC UTILITY OR ANY OTHER ENTITY.

(6) A SUCCESSOR TO AN ELECTRIC UTILITY, WHETHER PURSUANT TO ANY REORGANIZATION, BANKRUPTCY, OR OTHER INSOLVENCY PROCEEDING OR WHETHER PURSUANT TO ANY MERGER OR ACQUISITION, SALE, OTHER BUSINESS COMBINATION, OR TRANSFER BY OPERATION OF LAW, AS A RESULT OF ELECTRIC UTILITY RESTRUCTURING OR OTHERWISE, MUST PERFORM AND SATISFY ALL OBLIGATIONS OF, AND HAS THE SAME DUTIES AND RIGHTS UNDER A FINANCING ORDER AS THE ELECTRIC UTILITY TO WHICH THE FINANCING ORDER APPLIES AND SHALL PERFORM THE DUTIES AND EXERCISE THE RIGHTS IN THE SAME MANNER AND TO THE SAME EXTENT AS THE ELECTRIC UTILITY, INCLUDING COLLECTING AND PAYING TO ANY PERSON ENTITLED TO RECEIVE THEM THE REVENUES, COLLECTIONS, PAYMENTS, OR PROCEEDS OF CO-EIA PROPERTY DESCRIBED IN THE FINANCING ORDER.

40-41-112. CO-EIA bonds - legal investments - not public debt - pledge of state. (1) BANKS, TRUST COMPANIES, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS, INSURANCE COMPANIES, EXECUTORS, ADMINISTRATORS, GUARDIANS, TRUSTEES, AND OTHER FIDUCIARIES MAY LEGALLY INVEST ANY MONEY WITHIN THEIR CONTROL IN CO-EIA BONDS. PUBLIC ENTITIES, AS DEFINED IN SECTION 24-75-601 (1), MAY INVEST PUBLIC FUNDS IN CO-EIA BONDS ONLY IF THE CO-EIA BONDS SATISFY THE INVESTMENT REQUIREMENTS ESTABLISHED IN PART 6 OF ARTICLE 75 OF TITLE 24.

(2) CO-EIA BONDS ISSUED AS AUTHORIZED BY A FINANCING ORDER ARE NOT DEBT OF OR A PLEDGE OF THE FAITH AND CREDIT OR TAXING POWER OF THE STATE, ANY AGENCY OF THE STATE, OR ANY COUNTY, MUNICIPALITY, OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE. HOLDERS OF CO-EIA BONDS HAVE NO RIGHT TO HAVE TAXES LEVIED BY THE STATE OR BY ANY COUNTY, MUNICIPALITY, OR OTHER POLITICAL SUBDIVISION OF THE STATE FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE PRINCIPAL OR interest on co-eia bonds. the issuance of co-eia bonds does not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the state or a political subdivision of the state to levy any tax or make any appropriation for payment of principal or interest on the co-eia bonds.

(3) (a) the state pledges to and agrees with holders of co-eia bonds, any assignee, and any financing parties that the state will not:

(i) take or permit any action that impairs the value of co-eia property; or

(ii) reduce, alter, or impair co-eia charges that are imposed, collected, and remitted for the benefit of holders of co-eia bonds, any assignee, and any financing parties, until any principal, interest, and redemption premium payable on co-eia bonds, all financing costs, and all amounts to be paid to an assignee or financing party under an ancillary agreement are paid in full.

(b) a person who issues co-eia bonds may include the pledge specified in subsection (3)(a) of this section in the co-eia bonds, ancillary agreements, and documentation related to the issuance and marketing of the co-eia bonds.

40-41-113. assignee or financing party not automatically subject to commission regulation. an electric utility, assignee, or financing party that is not already regulated by the commission does not become subject to commission regulation solely as a result of engaging in any transaction authorized by or described in this article 41.

40-41-114. effect of other laws and judicial decisions. (1) if any provision of this article 41 conflicts with any other law regarding the attachment, assignment, perfection, effect of perfection, or priority of any security interest in or transfer of co-eia property, the provision of this article 41 governs to the extent of the conflict.

(2) effective on the date that co-eia bonds are first issued, if any provision of this article 41 is held to be invalid or is invalidated, superseded, replaced, repealed, or expires, that occurrence does not affect any action allowed under this article 41 that was lawfully taken by the commission, an electric utility, an assignee, a collection agent, a financing party, a bondholder, or a party to an ancillary agreement before the occurrence, and any such action remains in full force and effect.

(3) nothing in subsection (1) or (2) of this section precludes an electric utility for which the commission has initially issued a financing order from applying to the commission for:

(a) a subsequent financing order amending the financing order as authorized by section 40-41-106 (4); or

(b) approval of the issuance of co-eia bonds to refund all or a portion of an outstanding series of co-eia bonds.

40-41-115. choice of law. the laws of the state govern the validity, enforceability, attachment, perfection, priority, and exercise of remedies with respect to the transfer of an interest or right or creation of a security interest in any co-eia property, co-eia charge, or financing order.
40-41-116. Security interests in CO-EIA property. (1) The creation, perfection, and enforcement of any security interest in CO-EIA property to secure the repayment of the principal of and interest on CO-EIA bonds, amounts payable under any ancillary agreement, and other financing costs are governed by this section and not by the "Uniform Commercial Code", title 4.

(2) The description or indication of CO-EIA property in a transfer or security agreement and a financing statement is sufficient only if the description or indication refers to this article 41 and the financing order creating the CO-EIA property.

(3) (a) A security interest in CO-EIA property is created, valid, and binding as soon as all of the following events have occurred:
(I) The financing order that describes the CO-EIA property is issued;
(II) A security agreement is executed and delivered; and
(III) Value is received for the CO-EIA bonds.

(b) Once a security interest in CO-EIA property is created under subsection (3)(a) of this section, the security interest attaches without any physical delivery of collateral or any other act. The lien of the security interest is valid, binding, and perfected against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract or otherwise against the person granting the security interest, regardless of whether such parties have notice of the lien, upon the filing of a financing statement with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall maintain a financing statement filed pursuant to this subsection (3)(b) in the same manner in which the secretary maintains financing statements filed pursuant to article 9 of title 4. The filing of any financing statement pursuant to this subsection (3)(b) is governed by article 9 of title 4 regarding the filing of financing statements.

(4) A security interest in CO-EIA property is a continuously perfected security interest and has priority over any other lien, created by operation of law or otherwise, which may subsequently attach to the CO-EIA property unless the holder of the security interest has agreed in writing otherwise.

(5) The priority of a security interest in CO-EIA property is not affected by the commingling of CO-EIA property or CO-EIA revenue with other money. An assignee, bondholder, or financing party has a perfected security interest in the amount of all CO-EIA property or CO-EIA revenue that is pledged for the payment of CO-EIA bonds even if the CO-EIA property or CO-EIA revenue is deposited in a cash or deposit account of the electric utility in which the CO-EIA revenue is commingled with other money, and any other security interest that applies to the other money does not apply to the CO-EIA revenue.

(6) Neither a subsequent order of the commission amending a financing order as authorized by section 40-41-106 (4), nor application of an adjustment mechanism as authorized by section 40-41-105 (2)(g), affects the validity, perfection, or priority of a security interest in or transfer of CO-EIA property.

40-41-117. Sales of CO-EIA property. (1) (a) A sale,
ASSIGNMENT, OR TRANSFER OF CO-EIA PROPERTY IS AN ABSOLUTE TRANSFER AND TRUE SALE OF, AND NOT A PLEDGE OF OR SECURED TRANSACTION RELATING TO, THE SELLER'S RIGHT, TITLE AND INTEREST IN, TO, AND UNDER THE CO-EIA PROPERTY IF THE DOCUMENTS GOVERNING THE TRANSACTION EXPRESSLY STATE THAT THE TRANSACTION IS A SALE OR OTHER ABSOLUTE TRANSFER. A TRANSFER OF AN INTEREST IN CO-EIA PROPERTY MAY BE CREATED ONLY WHEN ALL OF THE FOLLOWING HAVE OCCURRED:

(I) THE FINANCING ORDER CREATING AND DESCRIBING THE CO-EIA PROPERTY HAS BECOME EFFECTIVE;

(II) THE DOCUMENTS EVIDENCING THE TRANSFER OF THE CO-EIA PROPERTY HAVE BEEN EXECUTED AND DELIVERED TO THE ASSIGNEE; AND

(III) VALUE IS RECEIVED.

(b) UPON THE FILING OF A FINANCING STATEMENT WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE, A TRANSFER OF AN INTEREST IN CO-EIA PROPERTY IS PERFECTED AGAINST ALL THIRD PERSONS, INCLUDING ANY JUDICIAL LIEN OR OTHER LIEN CREDITORS OR ANY CLAIMS OF THE SELLER OR CREDITORS OF THE SELLER, OTHER THAN CREDITORS HOLDING A PRIOR SECURITY INTEREST, OWNERSHIP INTEREST, OR ASSIGNMENT IN THE CO-EIA PROPERTY PREVIOUSLY PERFECTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SUBSECTION (1) OR SECTION 40-41-116. THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL MAINTAIN A FINANCING STATEMENT FILED PURSUANT TO THIS SUBSECTION (1)(b) IN THE SAME MANNER IN WHICH THE SECRETARY MAINTAINS AND IN THE SAME RECORD-KEEPING SYSTEM IN WHICH THE SECRETARY MAINTAINS FINANCING STATEMENTS FILED PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 9 OF TITLE 4. THE FILING OF ANY FINANCING STATEMENT PURSUANT TO THIS SUBSECTION (1)(b) IS GOVERNED BY ARTICLE 9 OF TITLE 4 REGARDING THE FILING OF FINANCING STATEMENTS.

(2) THE CHARACTERIZATION OF A SALE, ASSIGNMENT, OR TRANSFER AS AN ABSOLUTE TRANSFER AND TRUE SALE AND THE CORRESPONDING CHARACTERIZATION OF THE PROPERTY INTEREST OF THE ASSIGNEE IS NOT AFFECTED OR IMPAIRED BY THE EXISTENCE OR OCCURRENCE OF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING:

(a) COMINGLING OF CO-EIA REVENUE WITH OTHER MONEY;

(b) THE RETENTION BY THE SELLER OF:

(I) A PARTIAL OR RESIDUAL INTEREST, INCLUDING AN EQUITY INTEREST, IN THE CO-EIA PROPERTY, WHETHER DIRECT OR INDIRECT, OR WHETHER SUBORDINATE OR OTHERWISE; OR

(II) THE RIGHT TO RECOVER COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH TAXES, FRANCHISE FEES, OR LICENSE FEES IMPOSED ON THE COLLECTION OF CO-EIA REVENUE;

(c) ANY REcourse THAT THE PURCHASER MAY HAVE AGAINST THE SELLER;

(d) ANY INDEMNIFICATION RIGHTS, OBLIGATIONS, OR REPURCHASE RIGHTS MADE OR PROVIDED BY THE SELLER;

(e) AN OBLIGATION OF THE SELLER TO COLLECT CO-EIA REVENUES ON BEHALF OF AN ASSIGNEE;

(f) THE TREATMENT OF THE SALE, ASSIGNMENT, OR TRANSFER FOR TAX, FINANCIAL REPORTING, OR OTHER PURPOSES;

(g) ANY SUBSEQUENT FINANCING ORDER AMENDING A FINANCING ORDER AS AUTHORIZED BY SECTION 40-41-106 (4); OR

(h) ANY APPLICATION OF AN ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM AS AUTHORIZED BY SECTION 40-41-105 (2)(g).

40-41-118. Use of CO-EIA bond proceeds by an electric utility - definition. (1) FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, "LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCE" MEANS AN INCREMENTAL SUPPLY-SIDE OR DEMAND-SIDE RESOURCE THAT, WHEN INCLUDED IN AN ELECTRIC UTILITY'S GENERATION PORTFOLIO, PRODUCES THE LOWEST COST AMONG ALTERNATIVE RESOURCES, CONSIDERING BOTH SHORT-TERM AND LONG-TERM COSTS AND ASSESSING THE LIKELIHOOD OF CHANGES IN FUTURE FUEL PRICES AND FUTURE ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS, AMONG OTHER CONSIDERATIONS.

(2) SUBJECT TO COMMISSION APPROVAL AS REQUIRED BY SUBSECTION (3) OF THIS SECTION, AN ELECTRIC UTILITY THAT ISSUES CO-EIA BONDS MAY EXPEND OR INVEST AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE AMOUNT OF CO-EIA BOND PROCEEDS PLUS, AT ITS DISCRETION, OTHER FINANCIAL RESOURCES, IN A MANNER THAT DEMONSTRABLY BENEFITS RATEPAINTER INTERESTS, AS FOLLOWS:

(a) TO PURCHASE POWER TO REPLACE ELECTRICITY GENERATED BY THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES THAT WERE RETIRED IF THE COMMISSION DETERMINES THAT THE PURCHASED POWER IS A LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCE AND IS CONSISTENT WITH THE ELECTRIC UTILITY'S APPROVED INTEGRATED RESOURCE PLAN;

(b) TO BUILD AND OWN ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES THAT ARE LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES, THE ADDITION OF WHICH IS NOT INCONSISTENT WITH THE ELECTRIC UTILITY'S APPROVED INTEGRATED RESOURCE PLAN;

(c) TO BUILD, OWN, OR PURCHASE ELECTRICITY STORAGE CAPACITY TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH INVESTMENT IS EITHER REQUIRED BY LAW OR RULE OR IS NEEDED TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES THAT THE ELECTRIC UTILITY IS ABLE TO ADD TO ITS GENERATION PORTFOLIO; AND

(d) TO INVEST IN NETWORK MODERNIZATION TO THE EXTENT THAT THE MODERNIZATION IS NECESSARY TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES ABLE TO BE ADDED TO THE ELECTRIC UTILITY'S SYSTEM; EXCEPT THAT PROCEEDS MAY NOT BE USED FOR NEW TRANSMISSION FACILITIES.

(3) IN CONSIDERING ANY APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF THE USE OF CO-EIA BOND PROCEEDS, THE COMMISSION SHALL:

(a) USE ITS REGULAR PROCESS FOR CONSIDERATION OF APPLICATIONS;

(b) FOR LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES, DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE LEVELS OF ELECTRIC UTILITY RESOURCE OWNERSHIP, AS PROVIDED FOR IN SUBSECTION (2)(b) OF THIS SECTION, WHICH LEVELS MUST BE NO LESS THAN THE FULL VALUE OF THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES THAT WERE RETIRED AS AUTHORIZED BY THE FINANCING ORDER, AND PURCHASED POWER, AS PROVIDED FOR IN SUBSECTION (2)(a) OF THIS SECTION; AND

(c) FULLY CONSIDER THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 40-2-123 CONCERNING NEW ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES AND FUTURE ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS.

(4) WHEN AN ELECTRIC UTILITY ACQUIRES LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES TO REPLACE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES THAT WERE RETIRED AS AUTHORIZED BY A FINANCING ORDER, THE ELECTRIC UTILITY MAY OWN AN EQUIVALENT AMOUNT OF REPLACEMENT LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES, AS MEASURED BY ENERGY OR CAPACITY AND TO THE EXTENT NEEDED TO SERVE EXISTING LOAD, AS FOLLOWS:

(a) UP TO AN ADDITIONAL FORTY PERCENT OF LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES IF THE LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES ARE ACQUIRED TO THE EXTENT NEEDED TO SERVE EXISTING LOAD THROUGH A BUILD-OPERATE-TRANSFER AGREEMENT;
(b) ANY LARGER AMOUNT OF LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES THAT IS AUTHORIZED BY THE COMMISSION; AND
(c) AN INDEPENDENT EVALUATOR, SELECTED AND EMPLOYED BY THE COMMISSION AND PAID BY THE ELECTRIC UTILITY, Performs A REVIEW, THE RESULTS OF WHICH THE INDEPENDENT EVALUATOR SHALL REPORT TO THE COMMISSION TOGETHER WITH AN EVALUATION OF THE SALE OF THE LEAST-COST GENERATION RESOURCES TO THE ELECTRIC UTILITY.

COLORADO ENERGY IMPACT ASSISTANCE AUTHORITY

40-41-201. Colorado energy impact assistance authority - creation - board - general powers and duties. (1) The Colorado energy impact assistance authority is hereby created. The authority is an independent public body politic and corporate, is not an agency of state government, and is not subject to administrative direction by any department, commission, board, or agency of the state. The authority is a public instrumentality, and its exercise of its powers and execution of the duties as specified in this article 41 is the performance of an essential public function.

(2) (a) The authority is governed by a board of directors, which consists of seven directors appointed by the governor as follows:
(I) One director who has professional job training experience;
(II) One director who has professional experience in rural economic development;
(III) One director who has electrical trades labor experience; and
(IV) Four directors appointed without occupational requirements, but the governor shall strongly consider appointing a director who is licensed to practice law in Colorado, a director who has professional finance experience, and at least one director who resides in an area directly impacted by the retirement of one or more electric generating facilities.

(b) The governor shall appoint the initial directors of the board for terms beginning September 1, 2019. Directors serve for five-year terms; except that two of the directors shall serve initial terms of three years. The governor may remove a director for misfeasance, malfeasance, willful neglect of duty, or other cause after notice and a public hearing unless the director being removed expressly waives in writing his or her right to notice and a public hearing. The governor shall fill any vacancy on the board by the appointment of a new director for the remainder of the unexpired term of the director whose departure caused the vacancy.

(c) Directors of the board serve without compensation but are entitled to reimbursement for all necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties under this article 41. Reimbursement of directors must be paid by the authority.

(3) The purpose and mission of the authority is to expend money received from electric utilities that are issuing CO-EIA
BONDS AS AUTHORIZED BY FINANCING ORDERS AND FROM OTHER SOURCES
FOR THE PURPOSE OF MITIGATING DIRECT IMPACTS TO COLORADO WORKERS AND COMMUNITIES RESULTING FROM THE RETIREMENT OF ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITIES. IN FURTHERANCE OF ITS MISSION, AND IN ADDITION TO ANY OTHER POWERS AND DUTIES GRANTED TO THE AUTHORITY BY THIS ARTICLE 41, THE AUTHORITY HAS THE FOLLOWING GENERAL POWERS:

(a) To have the duties, privileges, immunities, rights, liabilities, and disabilities of a body corporate and political subdivision of the state;
(b) To have perpetual existence and succession;
(c) To adopt, have, and use a seal and to alter the same at its pleasure;
(d) To adopt rules, bylaws, orders, and resolutions necessary for the regulation of its affairs, the conduct of its business, the exercise of its powers, and the fulfillment of its duties and mission as specified in this Article 41;
(e) To fix the time and place of board meetings, which must be held at least four times per year and, consistent with the open meetings law under Part 4 of Article 6 of Title 24, the method of providing notice of board meetings. At least one board meeting per year must be held in-person, and other meetings may be held using audio or video telecommunications technology.
(f) To pay its reasonable and necessary administrative and operating costs from any revenue that it receives;
(g) To sue and be sued;
(h) To appoint, hire, retain, and terminate officers and employees and contract with agents, attorneys, accountants, auditors, financial advisers, investment bankers, and other professional consultants to the extent needed to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this Article 41;
(i) To enter into contracts and agreements, including memorandums of understanding or intergovernmental agreements with one or more agencies or political subdivisions of the state or another state or with the federal government, not inconsistent with this Article 41 or any other laws of the state. The authority may enter into a contract or agreement with an appropriate state agency to help the authority administer the distribution of its money as transition assistance, and, if it does so, the money administered remains money of the authority until it is distributed and is not money or revenue of the state.
(j) To acquire space, including office space, equipment, services, supplies, and insurance necessary to execute its powers, duties, and mission under this Article 41;
(k) To deposit its money in any banking institution within the state or in any depository authorized in Section 24-75-603, to appoint, for the purpose of making such deposits, one or more persons, who shall give surety bonds in such amounts and form and for such purposes as the board requires, to act as custodians of its money, and to otherwise deposit and invest its money as permitted by Part 6 of Article 75 of Title 24; and
(l) To have and exercise any other powers necessary or incidental to or implied from the specific powers and duties
GRANTED IN THIS SECTION.

40-41-202. Mitigation of impacts - specific powers and duties of authority - local advisory committees. (1) In order to mitigate the direct impacts to Colorado workers and local communities resulting from the retirement of electric generating facilities, the authority has the following specific powers and duties:

(a) To determine the direct impacts that the retirement of an electric generating facility owned by an electric utility will have on Colorado workers and communities and to consult with the department of local affairs, local governments, electric utilities, labor unions, and any other persons who possess relevant information in making any such determination;

(b) To receive payments from electric utilities required to make payments to the authority pursuant to the provisions of a financing order and maintain a balancing account to hold any excess money not needed in the short run that has separate subaccounts for each electric utility that makes payments to the authority; and

(c) (I) To provide transition assistance, which the authority may either provide directly or, except as otherwise provided in subsection (1)(c)(II) of this section, may provide indirectly by disbursing money to the department of local affairs, to any local government or agency of local government, to any nonprofit corporation or educational institution, to any for-profit corporation, to any community development agency, or to any eligible applicant, as defined in section 8-83-303(4), for its use in mitigating direct impacts to workers and local communities resulting from the retirement of electric generating facilities.

(II) The authority shall disburse at least thirty percent of all transition assistance directly to Colorado workers, and the authority shall not disburse money as transition assistance to the department of local affairs or a local government or agency of local government if the receipt of the money would trigger or increase the amount of any refund of excess state or local government revenue required by section 20 of article X of the state constitution, but may compensate the department or a local government or agency of local government for services contracted for pursuant to section 40-41-201(3)(i).

(2) When determining how best to address the direct impacts to a local community resulting from the retirement of electric generating facilities and provide transition assistance, the authority shall take into consideration the advice of a local advisory committee, which the authority shall establish in conjunction with each board of county commissioners, municipal governing body, and school district that includes all or a portion of the impacted community. A local advisory committee:

(a) consists of one member appointed by each participating board of county commissioners, municipal governing body, school district, and local labor union for affected workers;

(b) shall advise the authority with respect to the nature and scope of the direct impacts to the community resulting from the retirement of an electric generating facility and the development of a transition assistance plan for the community;
AND

(c) MAY EITHER BE DISSOLVED BY THE AUTHORITY WHEN THE TRANSITION ASSISTANCE IS COMPLETED OR MAINTAINED TO ADVISE THE AUTHORITY REGARDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE TRANSITION ASSISTANCE.

40-41-203. Voluntary contributions to authority by utilities.
(1) NOTWITHSTANDING THE LIMITATION ON THE USE OF RATEPAYER FUNDS SET FORTH IN SECTION 40-3-114, UPON THE RETIREMENT OF AN ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY, AN ELECTRIC UTILITY MAY, AT ITS SOLE DISCRETION, TRANSFER TO THE AUTHORITY AN AMOUNT OF UP TO FIFTEEN PERCENT OF THE NET PRESENT VALUE OF OPERATIONAL SAVINGS CREATED BY THE RETIREMENT OF THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY, WHETHER OR NOT THE ELECTRIC UTILITY HAS OBTAINED A FINANCING ORDER AND ISSUED CO-EIA BONDS IN CONNECTION WITH THE RETIREMENT OF THE ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY. A DECISION BY A COLORADO ELECTRIC UTILITY TO TRANSFER A PERCENTAGE OF THE NET PRESENT VALUE OF OPERATING SAVINGS TO THE AUTHORITY SHALL BE DEEMED BY THE COMMISSION TO BE A PRUDENT ACTION BY THE UTILITY.

(2) FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SECTION, THE NET PRESENT VALUE OF OPERATIONAL SAVINGS CREATED BY THE RETIREMENT OF AN ELECTRIC GENERATING FACILITY IS THE NET PRESENT VALUE OF THE ANNUAL
THE ESTIMATED COST OF ENERGY GENERATED OR PURCHASED TO REPLACE THE ENERGY PREVIOUSLY GENERATED BY THE FACILITY.

40-41-204. Reporting to general assembly. NOTWITHSTANDING SECTION 24-1-136 (11), FOR ANY FISCAL YEAR IN WHICH THE AUTHORITY HAS PROVIDED TRANSITION ASSISTANCE, THE AUTHORITY, NO LATER THAN FEBRUARY 15 OF THE FOLLOWING FISCAL YEAR, SHALL SUBMIT TO THE JOINT BUDGET COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, THE FINANCE COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE SENATE, THE ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, AND THE TRANSPORTATION AND ENERGY COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE, OR ANY SUCCESSOR COMMITTEES, A REPORT THAT SETS FORTH A COMPLETE AND DETAILED FINANCIAL AND OPERATING STATEMENT OF THE AUTHORITY DURING THE FISCAL YEAR.

40-41-205. Authority subject to open meetings and open records laws. THE AUTHORITY IS SUBJECT TO THE OPEN MEETINGS PROVISIONS OF PART 4 OF ARTICLE 6 OF TITLE 24 AND THE "COLORADO

Amend printed bill, page 12, after line 7 insert:

"SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 32-1-806.7 as follows:

32-1-806.7. Verification of signatures of nonresident eligible electors - signature verification devices - procedures - training - definition. (1) (a) In every special district election conducted on or after the effective date of this section, an election judge shall, except as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section, compare the signature on the self-affirmation on each return envelope with the signature of the nonresident eligible elector on the notarized registration form required by section 32-1-806 (2.5) in accordance with this section.

(b) The designated election official may allow an election judge to use a signature verification device to compare the signature on the self-affirmation on a return envelope of
A NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR’S BALLOT WITH THE SIGNATURE OF THE ELECTOR IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SECTION.

(2) (a) The election judge must compare the signature on the self-affirmation on each return envelope with the signature provided by the nonresident eligible elector’s notarized registration form. The election judge must research the signature further if there is:

(I) An obvious change in the signature’s slant;
(II) A printed signature on one document and a cursive signature on the other document;
(III) A difference in the signature’s size or scale;
(IV) A difference in the signature’s individual characteristics, such as how the "t's" are crossed, "i's" are dotted, or loops are made on "y's" or "j's";
(V) A difference in the elector’s signature style, such as how the letters are connected at the top and bottom;
(VI) Evidence that ballots or envelopes from the same household have been switched; or (VII) Any other noticeable discrepancy such as misspelled names.

(b) (I) If an election judge must conduct further research on an elector’s signature, he or she must check the additional signatures provided by the nonresident eligible elector, if available.
(II) An election judge may compare additional information written by the elector on the return envelope, such as the elector’s address and date of signing. Any similarities noted when comparing other information may be used as part of the signature verification decision process.
(III) If an election judge determines that an elector inadvertently returned his or her ballot in another household member’s ballot return envelope, the election judge must process and prepare the ballot of the elector who signed the self-affirmation for counting if it is otherwise valid. The election judge need not send a signature verification discrepancy letter to the elector.

(c) If the election judge disputes the signature, they must document the discrepancy and the research steps taken in a log that identifies the elector only by name and elector identification number, does not contain the elector’s signature, notes the final resolution and ballot disposition, and identifies the election judge responsible for the final resolution and ballot disposition.

(3) (a) If the election judge determines that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation matches the elector’s signature on the notarized registration form, the election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(b) If a signature verification device used pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section determines that the signature on the self-affirmation on a return envelope of a nonresident eligible elector’s ballot matches the signature of the elector, the signature on the self-affirmation is deemed verified and the election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(4) If, upon comparing the signature of a nonresident
ELIGIBLE ELECTOR ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON THE RETURN ENVELOPE WITH THE SIGNATURE OF THE NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR, THE ELECTION JUDGE DETERMINES THAT THE SIGNATURES DO NOT MATCH, OR IF A SIGNATURE VERIFICATION DEVICE USED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION
(1)(b) OF THIS SECTION IS UNABLE TO DETERMINE THAT THE SIGNATURES MATCH, TWO OTHER ELECTION JUDGES SHALL SIMULTANEOUSLY
COMPARE THE SIGNATURES AND PROCEED ACCORDING TO SUBSECTION (5)
OF THIS SECTION.

(5) (a) If the two other election judges specified in subsection (4) of this section agree that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation matches the elector's signature, the initial election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(b) In the case of a disagreement between the two other election judges as to whether the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation on the return envelope matches the signature of the nonresident eligible elector pursuant to the procedures specified in subsection (4) of this section, the signatures are deemed to match and the initial election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(c) (I) If both other election judges agree that the signatures do not match, the designated election official shall, within three days after the signature deficiency has been confirmed, but in no event later than two days after election day, send to the nonresident eligible elector at the address indicated in the registration records a letter explaining the discrepancy in signatures and a form for the nonresident eligible elector to confirm that the elector returned a ballot to the designated election official.

(II) (A) If the designated election official receives the form within eight days after election day confirming that the elector returned a ballot to the official, and if the ballot is otherwise valid, the ballot must be counted.

(B) If the nonresident eligible elector returns the form indicating that the elector did not return a ballot to the designated election official, or if the nonresident eligible elector does not return the form within eight days after election day, the self-affirmation on the return envelope must be categorized as incorrect and the ballot shall not be counted. An original return envelope with an enclosed secrecy envelope containing a voted ballot that is not counted in accordance with this subsection (5)(c)(II)(B) must be stored in the office of the designated election official in a secure location separate from valid return envelopes and may be removed only by order of a court having jurisdiction.

(6) An election judge shall not determine that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation does not match the signature of that elector solely on the basis of substitution of initials or use of a common nickname.

(7) The designated election official shall provide training in the techniques and standards of signature comparison to election judges who compare signatures pursuant to this section.
(8) AS USED IN THIS SECTION, "NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR" MEANS AN ELECTOR WHO SATISFIES THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 32-1-103 (5)(f)."

"SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 32-1-806.7 as follows:

32-1-806.7. Verification of signatures of nonresident eligible electors - signature verification devices - procedures - training - definition. (1) (a) IN EVERY SPECIAL DISTRICT ELECTION CONDUCTED ON OR AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS SECTION, AN ELECTION JUDGE SHALL, EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (1)(b) OF THIS SECTION, COMPARISON THE SIGNATURE ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON EACH RETURN ENVELOPE WITH THE SIGNATURE OF THE NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR ON THE NOTARIZED REGISTRATION FORM REQUIRED BY SECTION 32-1-806 (2.5) IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SECTION.

(b) THE DESIGNATED ELECTION OFFICIAL MAY ALLOW AN ELECTION JUDGE TO USE A SIGNATURE VERIFICATION DEVICE TO COMPARE THE SIGNATURE ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON A RETURN ENVELOPE OF A NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR'S BALLOT WITH THE SIGNATURE OF THE ELECTOR IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS SECTION.

(2) (a) THE ELECTION JUDGE MUST COMPARE THE SIGNATURE ON THE SELF-AFFIRMATION ON EACH RETURN ENVELOPE WITH THE SIGNATURE PROVIDED BY THE NONRESIDENT ELIGIBLE ELECTOR'S NOTARIZED REGISTRATION FORM. THE ELECTION JUDGE MUST RESEARCH THE SIGNATURE FURTHER IF THERE IS:

(I) AN OBVIOUS CHANGE IN THE SIGNATURE'S SLANT;
(II) A PRINTED SIGNATURE ON ONE DOCUMENT AND A CURSIVE SIGNATURE ON THE OTHER DOCUMENT;
(III) A DIFFERENCE IN THE SIGNATURE'S SIZE OR SCALE;
(IV) A DIFFERENCE IN THE SIGNATURE'S INDIVIDUAL CHARACTERISTICS, SUCH AS HOW THE "T"S ARE CROSSED, "I"S ARE DOTTED, OR LOOPS ARE MADE ON "Y"S OR "J"S;"
(V) A difference in the elector’s signature style, such as how the letters are connected at the top and bottom;
(VI) Evidence that ballots or envelopes from the same household have been switched; or
(VII) Any other noticeable discrepancy such as misspelled names.

(b)(I) If an election judge must conduct further research on an elector’s signature, he or she must check the additional signatures provided by the nonresident eligible elector, if available.

(II) An election judge may compare additional information written by the elector on the return envelope, such as the elector’s address and date of signing. Any similarities noted when comparing other information may be used as part of the signature verification decision process.

(III) If an election judge determines that an elector inadvertently returned his or her ballot in another household member’s ballot return envelope, the election judge must process and prepare the ballot of the elector who signed the self-affirmation for counting if it is otherwise valid. The election judge need not send a signature verification discrepancy letter to the elector.

(c) If the election judge disputes the signature, they must document the discrepancy and the research steps taken in a log that identifies the elector only by name and elector identification number, does not contain the elector’s signature, notes the final resolution and ballot disposition, and identifies the election judge responsible for the final resolution and ballot disposition.

(3) (a) If the election judge determines that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation matches the elector’s signature on the notarized registration form, the election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(b) If a signature verification device used pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section determines that the signature on the self-affirmation on a return envelope of a nonresident eligible elector’s ballot matches the signature of the elector, the signature on the self-affirmation is deemed verified and the election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(4) If, upon comparing the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation on the return envelope with the signature of the nonresident eligible elector, the election judge determines that the signatures do not match, or if a signature verification device used pursuant to subsection (1)(b) of this section is unable to determine that the signatures match, two other election judges shall simultaneously compare the signatures and proceed according to subsection (5) of this section.

(5) (a) If the two other election judges specified in subsection (4) of this section agree that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation matches the elector’s signature, the initial election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and
COUNTING OF MAIL BALLOTS.

(b) In the case of a disagreement between the two other election judges as to whether the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation on the return envelope matches the signature of the nonresident eligible elector pursuant to the procedures specified in subsection (4) of this section, the signatures are deemed to match and the initial election judge shall follow applicable procedures concerning the qualification and counting of mail ballots.

(c) (I) If both other election judges agree that the signatures do not match, the designated election official shall, within three days after the signature deficiency has been confirmed, but in no event later than two days after election day, send to the nonresident eligible elector at the address indicated in the registration records a letter explaining the discrepancy in signatures and a form for the nonresident eligible elector to confirm that the elector returned a ballot to the designated election official.

(II) (A) If the designated election official receives the form within eight days after election day confirming that the elector returned a ballot to the official, and if the ballot is otherwise valid, the ballot must be counted.

(B) If the nonresident eligible elector returns the form indicating that the elector did not return a ballot to the designated election official, or if the nonresident eligible elector does not return the form within eight days after election day, the self-affirmation on the return envelope must be categorized as incorrect and the ballot shall not be counted. An original return envelope with an enclosed secrecy envelope containing a voted ballot that is not counted in accordance with this subsection (5)(c)(II)(B) must be stored in the office of the designated election official in a secure location separate from valid return envelopes and may be removed only by order of a court having jurisdiction.

(6) An election judge shall not determine that the signature of a nonresident eligible elector on the self-affirmation does not match the signature of that elector solely on the basis of substitution of initials or use of a common nickname.

(7) The designated election official shall provide training in the techniques and standards of signature comparison to election judges who compare signatures pursuant to this section.

(8) As used in this section, "nonresident eligible elector" means an elector who satisfies the requirements of section 32-1-103 (5)(f)."

(a) "DISMEMBERMENT ABORTION" MEANS A DILATION AND EVACUATION PROCEDURE USED TO DISMEMBER THE BABY, LIMB BY LIMB; CRUSH THE SKULL; AND REMOVE ALL PIECES OF THE ABORTED BABY FROM THE WOMB. DURING A DISMEMBERMENT ABORTION, A THIRTEEN-INCH TOOL WITH SHARP TEETH CALLED A "SOPHER CLAMP" IS USED TO:
(I) Sever and remove the arms and legs, limb by limb, from the baby's body;
(II) Pull the severed limbs from the womb;
(III) Individually sever the intestines, spine, heart, lungs, and other internal organs and remove them from the womb;
(IV) Crush the skull. Due to the size of the skull, it cannot be removed intact so it must first be crushed into pieces. The abortionist knows when the skull has been crushed into pieces when the gray matter from the brain is observed.
(V) Remove the individual pieces of the skull from the mother's womb; and
(VI) After all of the baby's limbs, organs, and skull have been removed from the mother's womb, reassemble the baby to ensure that all pieces have been removed."

REPORT(S) OF COMMITTEE(S) OF REFERENCE

EDUCATION

After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the following:

HB19-1017 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee on Appropriations with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add article 99 to title 22 as follows:

ARTICLE 99

Colorado K-5 Social and Emotional Health Act

22-99-101. Short title. The short title of this article 99 is the "COLORADO K-5 SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL HEALTH ACT".

22-99-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The General Assembly finds that:

(a) School mental health professionals, including school social workers, positively impact the school environment by working with young students and their families to identify safety net insecurities, social and emotional skills deficits, instances of abuse and neglect, and mental health challenges;

(b) Identifying these student issues as early as possible increases the likelihood that problems can be resolved successfully and in a manner that decreases long-term problems with learning and other barriers to student success in the future;

(c) A pilot program that places a team of school mental health professionals in every pilot program school will allow the team, in partnership with classroom teachers, to provide needed support for young students and their families at a critical time in their education;

(d) A significant goal of the pilot program is to ensure that students of elementary age receive the right level of necessary services, in the right place, and at the right time; and

(e) Receiving the right level of services, in the right place, and at the right time helps remove the burden placed on teachers to be everything to a student, from therapist to family counselor, and instead allows teachers to return to their primary task: Teaching.

(2) Therefore, the General Assembly declares that the CREATION AND SUCCESSFUL IMPLEMENTATION OF A COLORADO K-5 SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL HEALTH PILOT PROGRAM COULD HAVE A PROFOUNDER IMPACT ON THE EARLY EDUCATIONAL AND SOCIAL EXPERIENCES OF KINDERGARTEN THROUGH FIFTH-GRADE STUDENTS, RESULTING IN THOSE STUDENTS GRADUATING TO MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS WITH FEWER SOCIAL, EMOTIONAL, AND BEHAVIORAL ISSUES; ADVERSE CHILDHOOD EXPERIENCES; DISCIPLINARY REFERRALS AND DELINQUENT CONDUCT; SCHOOL ABSENCES AND TRUANCY; AND INCIDENCES OF SELF-HARM.

REPEAL OF THE PILOT PROGRAM IS EXTENDED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.
Pursuant to Section 22-99-106, the department shall employ or contract with a pilot program coordinator and contract for preliminary and final program evaluations of the pilot program. The department shall promulgate any rules necessary for the administration of the pilot program.

(2) (a) No later than January 15, 2020, the department shall select up to ten pilot schools to participate in the pilot program. The department shall select pilot schools that exhibit the characteristics set forth in subsection (2)(b) of this section and that are appropriate test schools to evaluate the impact and effectiveness of the pilot program. The pilot schools must demonstrate a willingness to participate in the pilot program and to collect the data and information necessary for the evaluation of the pilot program.

(b) The department shall select pilot schools, including rural, small, and geographically diverse schools, which schools shall have a high-poverty student population and a high percentage of students who experience or may experience food insecurity, as evidenced by the number or percentage of students in the school who are eligible for free and reduced-priced meals; and may include schools:

(I) in large, metropolitan school districts;
(II) that have significant ethnic, cultural, and language diversity within their student populations, which may include students from refugee populations;
(III) that have a high number or density of youth who are students in out-of-home placement, as defined in Section 22-32-138;
(VI) that are in a school district that has a high percentage of students who are adjudicated delinquent; and
(VII) that are in a school district that has a high rate of youth suicide, attempted suicide, or suicidal ideation.

22-99-105. Implementation of pilot program. (1) In the first and subsequent years of operation of the pilot program, each pilot school shall employ or contract with additional school mental health professionals so that each of grades one through five and the kindergarten program in each pilot school has a school mental health professional dedicated to each grade and the kindergarten program. If a single grade or the kindergarten program has more than one hundred students, additional school mental health professionals must be added to the grade or kindergarten program to maintain a ratio of approximately one school mental health professional per one hundred students, as determined by the pilot school. A small pilot school shall maintain a ratio of approximately one school mental health professional per one hundred students, as determined by the pilot school. At least one of the school mental health professionals at each pilot school must be a school social worker.

(2) The goal of the pilot program is for a school mental health professional to develop an ongoing relationship with pilot school students and to follow those students, to the extent possible, as the students advance through the grades at the pilot school. This will allow the school mental health
PROFESSIONAL TO UNDERSTAND THE NEEDS OF THE STUDENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES OVER TIME AND TO HELP ADDRESS THOSE NEEDS OVER TIME, IF NECESSARY. TO ACHIEVE THIS GOAL, SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS MAY BE ASSIGNED TO A COHORT OF STUDENTS BY GRADE OR, IN A SMALLER SCHOOL, BY MULTIPLE GRADES. SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS IN EACH PILOT SCHOOL SHALL WORK AS A TEAM TO ADDRESS THE ACADEMIC AND SOCIAL EMOTIONAL NEEDS OF THE PILOT SCHOOL’S STUDENTS.

(3) FOR PURPOSES OF IMPLEMENTING THIS PILOT PROGRAM, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SHALL APPROPRIATE TO THE DEPARTMENT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO THE PILOT SCHOOLS, OR TO THE GOVERNING BODY FOR THE PILOT SCHOOL, THE AMOUNT OF MONEY NECESSARY FOR THE PILOT SCHOOLS TO EMPLOY OR CONTRACT WITH THE NUMBER OF ADDITIONAL SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS NECESSARY TO IMPLEMENT THE PILOT PROGRAM, AS DESCRIBED SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION.
THROUGHOUT THE DURATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM, THE PILOT SCHOOL MUST EMPLOY OR CONTRACT WITH, AT THE PILOT SCHOOL’S EXPENSE, THE SAME NUMBER OF SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS EMPLOYED BY OR CONTRACTED WITH THE PILOT SCHOOL DURING THE 2019-20 SCHOOL YEAR, SO THAT THE APPROPRIATION TO THE PILOT SCHOOL FOR THE PILOT PROGRAM SUPPLEMENTS, BUT DOES NOT SUPPLANT, THE PILOT SCHOOL’S EXISTING EXPENDITURES FOR SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS PRIOR TO THE OPERATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM.

(4) (a) IN IMPLEMENTING THE PILOT PROGRAM, THE SCHOOL
MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS SHALL WORK AS A TEAM, WITH EACH PROFESSIONAL PROVIDING SERVICES TO STUDENTS AND OFFERING TRAINING AND RESOURCES TO SCHOOL FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATORS THAT ARE AUTHORIZED UNDER THE SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL’S SPECIAL SERVICES LICENSE AND ENDORSEMENT. IN ADDITION, SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS MAY, CONSISTENT WITH THE SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL’S JOB DUTIES AND LICENSURE:

(I) ASSIST STUDENTS WITH APPLYING FOR AND OBTAINING

PROFESSIONALS ON BEHALF OF STUDENTS AND SUPPORT FAMILIES ACCESSING COMMUNITY-BASED RESOURCES AS NEEDED AND APPROPRIATE;

(IV) PROVIDE THE SCHOOL WITH RESOURCES TO DEVELOP AND IMPROVE THE SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL HEALTH OF STUDENTS;

(V) PROVIDE SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL SKILL BUILDING IN THE SCHOOL AND WITH STUDENTS IN THE CLASSROOM; AND

(VI) IDENTIFY FOOD INSECURITY, HOMELESSNESS, AND OTHER ISSUES AFFECTING STUDENTS AND MAKE REFERRALS TO SERVICES WITHIN THE COMMUNITY, BRINGING THOSE SERVICES INTO THE SCHOOL SETTING WHERE POSSIBLE.

(b) AS APPROPRIATE, AND TO THE EXTENT POSSIBLE, THE SCHOOL
MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL MUST PROVIDE SERVICES OR ARRANGE FOR SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED FOR STUDENTS AT THE SCHOOL AND DURING SCHOOL HOURS OR WHEN STUDENT BUSING IS AVAILABLE.

(c) SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL TO THE STUDENT MUST INCLUDE THE STUDENT’S FAMILY AND HOUSEHOLD, WHERE APPROPRIATE. THE SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL IS SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZED TO MAKE HOME VISITS WHEN APPROPRIATE UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES AND CONSISTENT WITH LICENSURE.

(5) EACH PILOT SCHOOL’S TEAM OF SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS SHALL PARTICIPATE IN THE SCHOOL’S OR SCHOOL DISTRICT’S MULTI-TIERED SYSTEMS OF SUPPORT PROCESS TO ASSIST IN DEVELOPING APPROPRIATE PLANS FOR THE MENTAL HEALTH AND BEHAVIORAL NEEDS OF INDIVIDUAL STUDENTS.

(6) EACH PILOT SCHOOL, OR EACH PILOT SCHOOL’S GOVERNING BODY, WHERE APPROPRIATE, SHALL COLLECT, TRANSMIT, AND RETAIN ANY DATA AND INFORMATION NECESSARY FOR THE EVALUATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM PURSUANT TO SECTION 22-99-106. EACH PILOT SCHOOL SHALL RECORD THE UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER, AS DEFINED IN SECTION
22-16-103, FOR ALL STUDENTS ENROLLED IN THE PILOT SCHOOL.

22-99-106. Pilot program coordinator - evaluation of pilot program - student impacts and outcomes. (1) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL

(c) SHARING BEST PRACTICES RELATING TO THE PILOT PROGRAM AND ITS IMPLEMENTATION AT THE PILOT SCHOOLS; AND

ACROSS THE PILOT SCHOOLS.

(2) (a) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL SELECT A PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM EVALUATOR TO COMPLETE A PRELIMINARY EVALUATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 1, 2022, AND A FINAL EVALUATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM TO BE COMPLETED ON OR BEFORE SEPTEMBER 1, 2023. THE DEPARTMENT SHALL CONTRACT WITH THE EVALUATOR PRIOR TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM IN THE PILOT SCHOOLS DURING THE 2020-21 SCHOOL YEAR TO CREATE A PROCESS FOR THE COLLECTION AND TRANSMISSION OF DATA AND INFORMATION TO THE EVALUATOR TO ENSURE THAT THE EVALUATOR HAS
THE DATA AND INFORMATION NECESSARY TO COMPLETE THE PRELIMINARY AND FINAL REPORTS CONCERNING THE IMPACT AND OUTCOMES OF THE PILOT PROGRAM. THE PILOT PROGRAM EVALUATOR, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL SELECT A GROUP OF CONTROL SCHOOLS THAT HAVE SCHOOL CHARACTERISTICS AND STUDENT DEMOGRAPHICS SIMILAR TO THOSE OF THE PILOT SCHOOLS, TO SERVE AS A CONTROL GROUP FOR PURPOSES OF EVALUATING THE IMPACTS AND OUTCOMES OF THE PILOT PROGRAM ON PARTICIPATING STUDENTS AND PILOT SCHOOLS. DATA COLLECTED FOR PILOT SCHOOLS AND CONTROL GROUP SCHOOLS MUST INCLUDE DATA FROM SCHOOL CLIMATE AND HEALTHY SCHOOLS SURVEYS
FOR ANY GRADE IN WHICH SUCH SURVEYS HAVE BEEN CREATED.

(b) THE DEPARTMENT SHALL SELECT A PROFESSIONAL PROGRAM EVALUATOR THAT HAS THE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS NECESSARY TO EVALUATE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE PILOT PROGRAM AND THE RESULTING IMPACTS AND OUTCOMES OF THE PILOT PROGRAM ON THE STUDENT COHORTS PARTICIPATING IN THE PILOT PROGRAM. THE DEPARTMENT IS ENCOURAGED, BUT IS NOT REQUIRED, TO CONTRACT WITH A STATE INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION TO COMPLETE THE EVALUATION OF THE PILOT PROGRAM.

(c) THE DEPARTMENT AND THE PILOT SCHOOLS SHALL COOPERATE FULLY WITH THE PILOT PROGRAM EVALUATOR’S COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS OF DATA AND INFORMATION RELATING TO THE PILOT PROGRAM’S IMPACT AND OUTCOMES. THE DEPARTMENT, PILOT SCHOOLS, THE PILOT PROGRAM COORDINATOR, AND THE CONTRACTED EVALUATOR SHALL COMPLY WITH ALL STATE AND FEDERAL LAWS RELATING TO THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF ACADEMIC AND MEDICAL RECORDS OF STUDENTS AND SHALL PROVIDE AGGREGATED DATA WHERE APPROPRIATE.

(d) THE PILOT PROGRAM EVALUATOR SHALL DETERMINE THE IMPACT OF THE PILOT PROGRAM ON STUDENTS’ ACADEMIC, MENTAL, SOCIAL EMOTIONAL, AND PHYSICAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING. THE EVALUATOR SHALL COLLECT AND ANALYZE DATA RELATING TO STUDENT AND SCHOOL OUTCOMES, WHICH OUTCOMES MAY INCLUDE:

(I) THE INCREASE OR DECREASE IN STUDENTS' DISCIPLINARY REFERRALS, EITHER WITHIN THE PILOT SCHOOL, OR PILOT SCHOOL'S DISTRICT, IF RELEVANT, OR WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT, AND THE INCREASE OR DECREASE IN STUDENTS ADJUDICATED DELINQUENT WITHIN THE PILOT SCHOOL'S DISTRICT;

REPORT(S) OF COMMITTEE(S) OF REFERENCE

PUBLIC HEALTH CARE & HUMAN SERVICES

After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the following:

HB19-1102  be postponed indefinitely.

HB19-1120  be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee on Appropriations with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1.  Legislative declaration.  (1) The general assembly finds that:

(a) The federal centers for disease control and prevention found suicide to be the tenth leading cause of death for all ages in 2017 and is currently the leading cause of death for Colorado youth who are ten through fourteen years of age;

(b) According to the Colorado Health Institute, Colorado has the tenth highest suicide rate in the nation, and rates of suicide in the eastern plains of Colorado doubled from 2016 to 2017;

(c) According to the national institute of mental health, approximately twenty-one-point-four percent of youth who are eight through fifteen years of age experience a severe mental health disorder;

(d) According to the American Association of Suicidology, the suicide rate for youth who are ten through fourteen years of age has increased by more than fifty percent over the past three decades; and

(e) Youth who are ten through fourteen years of age often avoid obtaining, or are legally unable to obtain without parental consent, outpatient psychotherapy services that would help them prior to reaching crisis levels because they are embarrassed or concerned about speaking with their parent or legal guardian about their mental health concerns and situations.

(2) The general assembly therefore declares that it is a matter of statewide concern to allow youth who are twelve years of age or older to have legal access to outpatient psychotherapy services that might otherwise be unavailable without the consent of or notification to the youth's parent or legal guardian. Providing these youth with access to outpatient psychotherapy services is intended to reduce youth suicides and allow registered psychotherapists and licensed social workers to work with youth to teach them functional coping skills. Mental health professionals would have further opportunity to help these youth build healthy connections with parents or legal guardians by increasing communication and strengthening the bond between parent and child, thus building an ongoing nonclinical support system for youth to use to manage their mental health concerns.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 12-43-201, amend (9)(a) as follows:

12-43-201. Definitions. As used in this article 43, unless the context otherwise requires:

(9) (a) "Psychotherapy", OR "PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES", means the treatment, diagnosis, testing, assessment, or counseling in a professional relationship to assist individuals or groups to alleviate behavioral and mental health disorders; understand unconscious or conscious motivation; resolve emotional, relationship, or attitudinal conflicts; or modify behaviors that interfere with effective emotional, social, or intellectual functioning. Psychotherapy follows a planned procedure of intervention that takes place on a regular basis, over a period of time, or in the cases of testing, assessment, and brief psychotherapy, psychotherapy can be a single intervention.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 12-43-202.5 as follows:

12-43-202.5. Minors - consent for outpatient psychotherapy services - immunity - definition. (1) AS USED IN THIS SECTION, UNLESS THE CONTEXT OTHERWISE REQUIRES, "MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL" INCLUDES A PROFESSIONAL PERSON AS DEFINED IN SECTION 27-65-102 (17); A MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL LICENSED PURSUANT TO PART 3, 4, 5, 6, OR 8 OF THIS ARTICLE 43; OR A SCHOOL SOCIAL WORKER LICENSED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.

(2) NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF LAW, A MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION MAY PROVIDE PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES, AS DEFINED IN SECTION 12-43-201 (9)(a), TO A MINOR WHO IS TWELVE YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER, WITH OR WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE MINOR'S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN, IF THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL DETERMINES THAT:

(a) THE MINOR IS KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY SEEKING SUCH SERVICES; AND

(b) THE PROVISION OF PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES IS CLINICALLY INDICATED AND NECESSARY TO THE MINOR'S WELL-BEING.

(3) (a) THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL MAY NOTIFY THE MINOR'S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN OF THE PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES GIVEN OR NEEDED, WITH THE MINOR'S CONSENT, OR, WITH THE CONSENT OF THE INDIVIDUAL WHO A COURT HAS ORDERED HOLDS THE MINOR'S THERAPEUTIC PRIVILEGE, UNLESS NOTIFYING THE PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN WOULD BE INAPPROPRIATE OR DETRIMENTAL TO THE MINOR'S CARE AND TREATMENT.

(b) THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL SHALL ENGAGE THE MINOR IN A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE IMPORTANCE OF INVOLVING AND NOTIFYING THE MINOR'S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN AND SHALL ENCOURAGE SUCH NOTIFICATION TO HELP SUPPORT THE MINOR'S CARE AND TREATMENT.

(c) NOTWITHSTANDING THE PROVISIONS OF SUBSECTION (3)(a) OF THIS SECTION, A MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL MAY NOTIFY THE MINOR’S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN OF THE PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES GIVEN OR NEEDED, WITHOUT THE MINOR’S CONSENT, IF IN THE PROFESSIONAL OPINION OF THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL, THE MINOR IS UNABLE TO MANAGE THE MINOR’S CARE OR TREATMENT.

(4) A MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION SHALL FULLY DOCUMENT WHEN THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL ATTEMPTS TO CONTACT OR NOTIFY THE MINOR’S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN, AND WHETHER THE ATTEMPT WAS SUCCESSFUL OR UNSUCCESSFUL, OR THE REASON WHY, IN THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL’S OPINION, IT WOULD BE INAPPROPRIATE TO CONTACT OR NOTIFY THE MINOR’S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN. DOCUMENTATION MUST BE INCLUDED IN THE MINOR’S CLINICAL RECORD, ALONG WITH A WRITTEN STATEMENT SIGNED BY THE MINOR INDICATING THAT THE MINOR IS VOLUNTARILY SEEKING PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES.

(5) PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES MUST BE PROVIDED IN A CULTURALLY APPROPRIATE MANNER. WRITTEN AND ORAL INSTRUCTION, TRAINING OF PROVIDERS AND STAFF, AND THE OVERALL PROVISION OF SERVICES MUST BE CULTURALLY APPROPRIATE AND PROVIDED IN A MANNER AND FORMAT TO SUPPORT INDIVIDUALS WITH LIMITED ENGLISH PROFICIENCY OR CHALLENGES WITH ACCESSIBILITY RELATED TO A DISABILITY AND WITH RESPECT FOR DIVERSE BACKGROUNDS, INCLUDING INDIVIDUALS WITH DIFFERENT CULTURAL ORIGINS AND INDIVIDUALS WHO ARE LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL, OR TRANSGENDER.

(6) AS USED IN THIS SECTION, PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES DO NOT INCLUDE INPATIENT PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES. PSYCHOTROPIC MEDICATION MAY NOT BE PRESCRIBED TO A MINOR WHO IS FOURTEEN YEARS OF AGE OR YOUNGER WITHOUT PARENTAL CONSENT.

(7) IF A MINOR WHO IS RECEIVING PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION COMMUNICATES A CLEAR AND IMMINENT INTENT OR THREAT TO INFlict SERIOUS BODILY HARM ON THEMSELVES OR OTHERS, THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION IS SUBJECT TO THE NOTIFICATION PROVISIONS OF SECTION 13-21-117 (2).

(8) IF A MINOR WHO IS RECEIVING PSYCHOTHERAPY SERVICES PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION COMMUNICATES AN INTENT TO COMMIT SUICIDE, THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION SHALL NOTIFY THE MINOR’S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN OF SUCH SUICIDIOLOGY.

SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 22-2-127.9 as follows:

22-2-127.9. Mental health education literacy - resource bank - technical assistance. (1) The department, with assistance from the office of suicide prevention created pursuant to section 25-1.5-101 (1)(w)(I), the Colorado youth advisory council created pursuant to section 2-2-1302, and the suicide prevention commission created pursuant to section 25-1.5-111, shall create and maintain a resource bank of evidence-based, research-based, and promising program materials and curricula pertaining to mental health, which materials and curricula may be used in elementary and secondary schools in the state. The resource bank and curricula must be youth-friendly, culturally sensitive, and available in both English and Spanish. In creating the resource bank and curricula, the department may provide internet links to resources and materials pertaining to mental

ADDITIONALLY, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL SOLICIT INPUT FROM PERSONS, INCLUDING YOUTH, WITHIN AND OUTSIDE OF THE MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSION, INCLUDING BOTH COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS. SUBJECT TO AVAILABLE APPROPRIATIONS, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL SOLICIT REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND MAY CONTRACT FOR:

(a) THE ORGANIZATION AND ENHANCEMENT OF THE RESOURCE BANK, INCLUDING MATERIALS ON THE PREVENTION OF SUICIDE AND EDUCATION ON MENTAL HEALTH;

(b) THE DEVELOPMENT OF MENTAL HEALTH CURRICULA FOR SCHOOLS AND PROVIDING SUCH CURRICULA TO SCHOOLS; AND

(c) TRAINING FOR EDUCATORS AND SCHOOL STAFF CONCERNING MENTAL HEALTH.

(2) ON AND AFTER JULY 1, 2020, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL MAKE MATERIAL IN THE RESOURCE BANK AVAILABLE WITHOUT CHARGE TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS, CHARTER SCHOOLS, INSTITUTE CHARTER SCHOOLS, BOARDS OF COOPERATIVE SERVICES, PROFESSIONAL EDUCATORS, PARENTS OR GUARDIANS OF YOUTH, STUDENTS, AND COMMUNITY PROVIDERS. AT THE REQUEST OF A SCHOOL DISTRICT, CHARTER SCHOOL, INSTITUTE CHARTER SCHOOL, OR BOARD OF COOPERATIVE SERVICES, THE DEPARTMENT SHALL PROVIDE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO THE SCHOOL DISTRICT, CHARTER SCHOOL, INSTITUTE CHARTER SCHOOL, OR BOARD OF COOPERATIVE SERVICES IN DESIGNING AGE-APPROPRIATE CURRICULA PERTAINING TO MENTAL HEALTH.

If the violation is a felony offense in violation of subsection (1.5) of this section, a felony offense in violation of subsection (2)(b)(II) of this section, or any other violation of this section demonstrating knowing torture or torment of an animal that needlessly injured, mutilated, or killed the animal, the court shall require a comprehensive evaluation to help determine the causative factors. The person ordered to undergo an evaluation shall be required to pay the cost of the evaluation, unless the person qualifies for a public defender, then the cost will be paid by the judicial district. If the evaluation results in a recommendation of treatment and if the court so finds, the person shall must be ordered to complete, as a condition of any sentence to probation or a deferred judgment or sentence, an anger management treatment program, a mental health treatment program, or any other appropriate treatment program that the court may deem appropriate.

(IV) Upon successful completion of an anger management treatment program, a mental health treatment program, or any other appropriate treatment program, deemed appropriate by the court, the court may suspend any fine imposed; except for a five-hundred-dollar mandatory minimum fine which shall be imposed at the time of sentencing.

If the evaluation results in a recommendation of treatment and if the court so finds, the juvenile shall must be ordered to complete an anger management treatment program, a mental health treatment program, or any other appropriate treatment program deemed appropriate by the court DESIGNED TO ADDRESS THE UNDERLYING CAUSATIVE FACTORS FOR THE VIOLATION.

(3) The disposition for any juvenile who has been adjudicated a juvenile delinquent a second or subsequent time, the underlying factual basis of which has been found by the court to include an act of cruelty to animals, as described in section 18-9-202, (1)(a), C.R.S., shall MUST include the completion of an anger management treatment program, a MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT PROGRAM, or any other APPROPRIATE treatment program deemed appropriate by the court DESIGNED TO ADDRESS THE UNDERLYING CAUSATIVE FACTORS FOR THE VIOLATION.

an order to cease and desist the activity. The order must set

APPEAR AT THE HEARING, THE DIRECTOR MAY PRESENT EVIDENCE THAT NOTICE WAS PROPERLY SENT OR SERVED UPON THE PERSON PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(b) OF THIS SECTION AND ANY OTHER EVIDENCE RELATED

DETERMINATION RELATED TO REASONABLE ATTEMPTS TO NOTIFY THE RESPONDENT, AND THE ORDER BECOMES FINAL AS TO THE RESPONDENT BY OPERATION OF LAW. THE HEARING SHALL BE CONDUCTED PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 24-4-104 AND 24-4-105.

(III)  IF THE DIRECTOR REASONABLY FINDS THAT THE PERSON AGAINST WHOM THE ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WAS ISSUED IS ACTING OR

HEARING CONDUCTED PURSUANT TO THIS SUBSECTION (2)(c) TO EACH PERSON AGAINST WHOM THE FINAL ORDER HAS BEEN ISSUED. THE FINAL ORDER ISSUED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(c)(III) OF THIS SECTION IS

THE DIRECTOR MAY ENTER INTO A STIPULATION WITH THE PERSON.
If a person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested the attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

"SECTION 9. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 34-60-104.3 as follows:

34-60-104.3. Oil and gas conservation commission - report - publication. (1) There is hereby created, in the Department of Natural Resources, the Oil and Gas Conservation Commission.

(2) (a) The Commission consists of seven members, five of whom shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the Senate. The Executive Director of the Department of Natural Resources and the Executive Director of the Department of Public Health and Environment, or the Executive Directors' designees, are ex officio nonvoting members. A majority of the voting commissioners constitute a quorum for the transaction of its business.

(b) Each appointed commissioner must be a qualified elector of this state. Each appointed commissioner, before entering upon the duties of office, shall take the constitutional oath of office. Excluding the executive directors from consideration, no more than three members of the commission may be members of the same political party. To the extent possible, consistent with this subsection (2), the members shall be appointed taking into account the need for geographical representation of areas of the state with high levels of current or anticipated oil and gas activity or employment. The appointed members of the commission shall devote their entire time to the DUTIES OF THEIR OFFICES TO THE EXCLUSION OF ANY OTHER EMPLOYMENT AND ARE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE COMPENSATION AS DESIGNATED BY LAW.

(c) One appointed member must be an individual with substantial experience in the oil and gas industry; one appointed member must have substantial expertise in planning or land use; one appointed member must have formal training or substantial experience in environmental protection, wildlife protection, or reclamation; one appointed member must have professional experience demonstrating an ability to contribute to the commission's body of expertise that will aid the commission in making sound, balanced decisions; and one appointed member must have formal training or substantial experience in public health.

(d) No person may be appointed to serve on the commission or hold the office of commissioner if the person has a conflict of interest with oil and gas development in Colorado. Examples of conflicts of interest include being registered as a lobbyist at the local or state levels, serving in the general assembly within the prior three years, or serving in an official capacity with an entity that educates or advocates for or against oil and gas activity. This subsection (2)(d) shall be construed reasonably with the objective of disqualifying from the commission any person who might have an immediate conflict of interest or who may not be able to make balanced decisions about oil and gas regulation in Colorado. A person who has worked with or for an energy or environmental entity need not be disqualified if the person's experience shows subject matter knowledge coupled with an ability to render informed, thorough, and balanced decision-making.

(e) Members of the commission shall be appointed for terms of four years each. The governor shall designate one member of the commission as chair of the commission. The chair shall delegate roles and responsibilities to commissioners and the director. The governor may at any time remove any appointed member of the commission, and by appointment the governor shall fill any vacancy on the commission. In case one or more vacancies occur on the same day, the governor shall designate the order of filling vacancies.

(3) The commission shall report to the executive director of the department of natural resources at such times and on such matters as the executive director may require.

(4) Publications of the commission circulated in quantity outside the executive branch are subject to the approval and control of the executive director of the department of natural resources.

(5) This section takes effect on the earlier of July 1, 2020, or the date on which all rules required to be adopted by section 34-60-106 (2.5)(a), (11)(c), and (19) have become effective. The director shall notify the revisor of statutes in writing of the

(2) The analyst shall analyze, at a minimum, the following health care systems:

(a) The current Colorado health care financing system in which residents receive health care coverage from private insurers and public programs or are uninsured;
(b) A multi-payer universal health care system in which all residents of Colorado are covered under a plan with a mandated set of benefits that is publicly and privately funded and also paid for by employer and employee contributions; and

(c) A publicly financed and privately delivered universal health care system that directly compensates providers.

(3) The analyst shall prepare a detailed analysis of each health care financing system. Each analysis may:

(a) Include the first, second, fifth, and tenth year costs;

(b) Set compensation for licensed health care providers at levels that result in net income that will attract and retain necessary health care providers;

(c) Include health care benefits reimbursed at one hundred twenty percent of Medicare rates for residents of Colorado who are temporarily living out of state;

(d) Describe and quantify the number of uninsured, underinsured, and at-risk insured individuals in each system;

(e) Include in each system the provision of benefits that are the same as the benefits required by the Federal Act;

(f) Identify health expenditures by payer;

(g) Identify out-of-pocket charges including coinsurance, deductibles, and copayments;

(h) Describe how the system provides the following:

(III) Medicaid services and benefits equal to or greater than current services and benefits and with equivalent provider compensation rates;

(IV) Medicaid services and benefits for individuals with disabilities who do not meet asset or income qualifications, who have the right to manage their own care, and who have the right to durable medical equipment;

(V) Coverage for women's health care and reproductive services;

(VI) Vision, hearing, and dental services;

(VII) Access to primary specialty health care services in rural Colorado and other underserved areas or populations;

and

(VIII) Behavioral, mental health, and substance use disorders services;

(i) Provide a review of existing literature regarding the collateral costs to society of high health care costs, which may include:

(I) The cost of emergency room, urgent care, and intensive care treatment for individuals who are unable to afford preventive or primary care in lower-cost settings;

(II) The cost in lost time from work, decreased productivity, or unemployment for individuals who, as a result of being unable to afford preventive or primary care, develop a more severe, urgent, or disabling condition;

(III) The cost of bankruptcies caused by unaffordable medical expenses, including the cost to the individuals who are forced to file for bankruptcy and the cost to health care providers that do not get paid as a result;
The costs to and effects on individuals who do not file bankruptcies because of medical expenses and who are financially depleted by these costs;

Medical costs caused by the diversion of funds from other health determinants, such as education, safe food supply, or safe water supply; and

Other collateral costs as determined by the task force.

The analyst shall model sufficient and fair funding systems that may be viable for each system studied pursuant to this section that raise revenue from:

(a) The general fund;

(b) Federal waivers available under Medicaid and the federal act, as appropriate for each system studied;

(c) A combination of two or more of:

(I) Progressive income taxes;

(II) Payroll taxes that may be split between employer and employee; and

(III) Other taxes, including income, cigarette, alcohol, marijuana, and sugary drink taxes, and premiums based on income.

 STATE, VETERANS, & MILITARY AFFAIRS

After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the following:

HB19-1124 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee on Appropriations with favorable recommendation:

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The federal government does not have the authority to command state or local officials to enforce or administer a federal regulatory program, as doing so would violate the tenth amendment of the United States constitution; and

(b) Colorado has the right to be free from mandates or financial obligations to perform the duties of the federal government, or to be threatened or coerced to do so by withholding federal funding; and

(c) Any requirement that public safety agencies play a role in enforcing federal civil immigration laws can undermine public trust; and

(d) Coloradans have constitutional rights to due process and protection against unlawful detainment and seizures; and

(e) The Colorado judicial system serves as a vital forum for ensuring access to justice that is secured by section 6 of article II of the state constitution; and

(f) In times of crisis, Colorado courts are the main points of contact for the most vulnerable, including crime victims, victims of sexual abuse and domestic violence, witnesses to crimes who are aiding law enforcement, limited English speakers, unrepresented litigants, and children and families, who seek justice and due process of law.

(2) Therefore, it is necessary to adopt this act to promote public safety, the protection of civil liberties, and to further the preservation of the peace, health, and safety of Colorado.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add article 76.6 to title 24 as follows:

ARTICLE 76.6
Prioritizing State Enforcement of Civil Immigration Law

24-76.6-101. Definitions. As used in this Article 76.6, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Civil immigration detainer" means a written request issued by federal immigration enforcement authorities pursuant to 8 CFR 287.7 to law enforcement officers to maintain custody of an individual beyond the time when the individual is eligible for release from custody, including any request for law enforcement agency action, warrant for arrest of alien, order to detain or release alien, or warrant of removal/deportation on any form promulgated by federal immigration enforcement authorities.

(2) "Eligible for release from custody" means that an individual may be released from custody because one of the following conditions has occurred:

(a) All criminal charges against the individual have been dropped or dismissed;
(b) The individual has been acquitted of all criminal charges filed against him or her;
(c) The individual has served all the time required for his or her sentence;
(d) The individual has posted a bond or has been released on his or her own recognizance;
(e) The individual has been referred to pretrial diversion services; or
(f) The individual is otherwise eligible for release under state or municipal law.

(3) "Law enforcement officer" means a peace officer employed by the Colorado State Patrol, a municipal police department, a town marshal's office, or a county sheriff's department.

(4) "Nonpublic area" means any area of the facility that is not generally open and accessible to the general public but instead requires special permission for admittance by a law enforcement officer or facility employee on an individual basis.

(5) "Personal information" means any confidential identifying information about an individual, including but not limited to home or work contact information; family or emergency contact information; probation meeting date and time; community corrections locations; community corrections meeting date and time; or the meeting date and time for criminal court-ordered classes, treatment, and appointments.

24-76.6-102. Civil immigration detainers - legislative declaration. (1) Legislative declaration. The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) Federal immigration authorities at times submit requests to state and local law enforcement agencies to detain an inmate after the inmate is eligible for release from custody. Continued detention of an inmate under a federal civil immigration detainer constitutes a new arrest under state law and a seizure under the fourth amendment of the United States constitution.

(b) Requests for civil immigration detainers are not warrants under Colorado law. A warrant is a written order by a judge directed to a law enforcement officer commanding the arrest of the person named, as defined in section 16-1-104 (18). None of the civil immigration detainer requests received from the federal immigration authorities are reviewed, approved, or signed by a judge as required by Colorado law. The continued detention of an inmate at the request of federal immigration authorities beyond when he or she would otherwise be released constitutes a warrantless arrest, which is unconstitutional, People v. Burns, 615 P.2d 686, 688 (Colo. 1980).

(2) A law enforcement officer shall not arrest or detain an individual on the basis of a civil immigration detainer request.

(3) Nothing in this section precludes any law enforcement officer or employee from cooperating or assisting federal immigration enforcement authorities in the execution of a warrant issued by a federal judge or magistrate or honoring any writ issued by any state or federal judge concerning the transfer of a prisoner to or from federal custody.
(4) Nothing in this section precludes any law enforcement officer from investigating or enforcing any criminal law or from participating in coordinated law enforcement actions with federal law enforcement agencies in the enforcement of local, state, or federal criminal laws.

24-76.6-103. Limitations on access to nonpublic areas of jails and related facilities. (1) (a) A law enforcement officer, or other state, county, or local employee, shall not grant federal immigration authorities access to or use of the nonpublic areas of any county or local jail, custodial facility, or other law enforcement facility for the purpose of conducting investigative interviews or for any other purpose related to the enforcement of civil immigration laws unless federal immigration authorities present a warrant, writ, or other court order issued by a federal judge or magistrate.

(b) A probation officer or probation department employee shall not provide personal information about an individual to federal immigration authorities or grant access to or the use of the nonpublic areas of a probation office for the purpose of conducting investigative interviews or for any other purpose related to the enforcement of civil immigration laws unless federal immigration authorities present a warrant, writ, or other court order issued by a federal judge or magistrate.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section or in section 24-76.6-102 prevents law enforcement officers from coordinating telephone or video interviews between federal immigration authorities and individuals incarcerated in any county or local jail or other custodial facility, to the same extent as telephone or video contact with such individuals is allowed by the general public, if the individual has been advised, in the individual’s language of choice, of certain information in writing, including but not limited to:

(a) The interview is being sought by federal immigration authorities;

(b) The individual has the right to decline the interview and remain silent;

(c) The individual has the right to speak to an attorney before submitting to the interview; and

(d) Anything the individual says may be used against him or her in subsequent proceedings, including in a federal immigration court.

(3) The written advisement described in subsection (2) of this section must be provided to the inmate again when the inmate is released.

24-76.6-104. Contracts related to enforcement of federal civil immigration laws prohibited. The state or a political subdivision of the state shall not enter into a contractual agreement, including any subcontracts, that would require an employee to directly or indirectly assist in the enforcement of civil immigration laws, specifically any agreement authorized by 8 U.S.C. sec. 1357 (g), referred to as a "287g agreement". The general assembly finds this prohibition is necessary because such agreements deputize law enforcement officers to enforce federal immigration law to the extent consistent with state and local law. Colorado law expressly limits the power of sheriffs
TO ENFORCING CRIMINAL LAW, MAKING ARRESTS FOR VIOLATIONS OF CRIMINAL LAW, AND HOUSING PRISONERS FOR VIOLATIONS OF CRIMINAL LAW. THE AUTHORITY OF SHERIFFS IS LIMITED TO THE EXPRESS AUTHORITY GRANTED THEM BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, CONSISTENT WITH THE COLORADO SUPREME COURT OPINIONS IN PEOPLE V. BUCKALLEW, 848 P.2d 904 (COLO. 1993) AND DOUGLASS V. KELTON, 610 P.2d 1067 (COLO. 1980). THEREFORE, 287g AGREEMENTS ARE NOT CONSISTENT WITH STATE AND LOCAL LAW.

SECTION 3. Safety clause. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety."
