Capital letters or bold & italic numbers indicate new material added to existing law; dashes through words or numbers indicate deletions from existing law and such material is not part of the act.

(b) Section 24-33-111 (3), Colorado Revised Statutes:

(I) The executive director of the department of natural resources, after consulting with the Colorado water conservation board and its director, the parks and wildlife commission, and the director of the division of parks and wildlife, has prepared and delivered to the general assembly a species conservation eligibility list describing programs and associated costs that are eligible to receive funding from the species conservation trust fund; and

(II) Before obligating funds from the species conservation trust fund, the species conservation eligibility list is subject to modification and adoption through the passage of a bill.

SECTION 2. Eligibility list - approval. (1) The general assembly deems the recommended expenditures described in the species conservation eligibility list to be in the interest of the people of the state. The money specified in this subsection (1) is available in fiscal year 2020-21 and remains available for the designated purposes until it is fully expended. The executive director of the department of natural resources is authorized to obligate and expend one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) from the species conservation trust fund for the following activities, programs, and species in the following amounts:

PROGRAM/SPECIES	AMOUNT
(a) Native terrestrial wildlife conservation;	$454,505
(b) Native aquatic wildlife conservation;	$295,495
(c) Platte river recovery implementation program; and	$670,000
(d) Selenium management, research, monitoring, evaluation, and control.	$80,000
Total authorization	$1,500,000

SECTION 3. Safety clause. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.
