27 Chief Clerk Robin Jones,
28
29 Please accept my resignation, effective immediately, from the Colorado
30 House of Representatives. It has truly been a privilege and a distinct 31 honor to represent the people of House District 19 these last four years
32 during the 72nd and 73rd General Assemblies! I am beyond grateful for 33 the trust and confidence the people placed in me.
34
35 You and your staff, and all of the staff in the Colorado Capitol, are truly
36 dedicated public servants. Please know you have my respect and sincerest 37 gratitude for all the work done for the office of House District 19.
38

1 My resignation from the Colorado House in no way means a departure
2 from service to the people. Indeed, I look forward to dedicating my focus 3 toward my family of course, but my passion for service to the greatest 4 nation the world has ever known, and the great state of Colorado will 5 most certainly continue.

20
21 Representative Tim Geitner, a Republican, resigned as a member of the 22 Colorado General Assembly for House District Nineteen effective

27 of the General Assembly and who is affiliated with the same political 28 party as the former member whose seat is vacant. C.R.S. § 1-12203(3).

29
30 Pursuant to the authority vested in the Office of the Governor of the State
31 of Colorado, in particular Article V, Section 2(3) of the Colorado
32 Constitution and C.R.S. § 1-12-203, I, Jared Polis, Governor of the State
33 of Colorado, hereby issue this Executive Order appointing Don Wilson
34 to the General Assembly for House District Nineteen effective
35 Wednesday, November 9, 2022.

10 RESIGNATIONS

12 December 27, 2022
13 Robin Jones, Chief Clerk
14 Colorado House of Representatives
15 Denver, Colorado 80203

16
17 Dear Chief Clerk Jones,

18
19 This letter supersedes my resignation letter dated December 20, 2022. It
20 has been my honor to serve as the Colorado House District 32 State
21 Representative for the last six years, and as Speaker Pro Tempore for the 22 last two, as such it is with gratitude that I am rendering my letter of 23 resignation effective January 5, 2023 as the current State Representative
24 for House District 32 and the State Representative Elect for House
25 District 35.

27 I am proud of the work we have accomplished during my tenure in the 28 State House. It has been an honor representing my constituents in making 29 policy that works for all. I have been humbled by the experiences of being 30 a Legislator and proud of having been able to lay the ground work for 31 foundational changes in the areas of criminal justice reform; mental 32 healthcare access; social justice matters; and accountability for the release 33 of air toxins and water quality regulations.

35 During my tenure, I have worked to eliminate the death penalty, the 36 Columbus Day holiday, and the use of derogatory Indian mascots. I am
37 also proud of what I have done to protect immigrants in our communities
38 and legislation I have passed to reform our tax system, and to provide 39 remote access for legislators and the public as a result of the pandemic.
40 While in the legislature, with my fellow Latino legislators, we have 41 grown our caucus to 14 members, the largest in Colorado history. I am 42 proud of our work to engage Latinos across our State and ensure the 43 needs and concerns of our Latino communities are addressed. This 44 outreach and advocacy will continue under their watchful eyes, and I look 45 forward to seeing their continued impact.

47 I have worked diligently to sponsor and vote for bills that benefitted the 48 people of Colorado, utilizing my legal and tax background and a belief in 49 social justice and equality as my guide. I am proud of what I have 50 accomplished and it is with humility that I hope I have made a difference.

1 Thank you to the dedicated work of the staff, the support of the citizens
2 and the backing of my family. I am ready for my next chapter outside of 3 this golden dome as I plan to continue to work for the people of Colorado.

4
5 Sincerely,

13 Robin Jones, Chief Clerk
14 Colorado House of Representatives
15 Denver, CO 80203

16 Dear Chief Clerk Jones:

17

18 With profound gratitude, I submit my letter of resignation to you at this 19 time, effective January 1, 2023. Serving as the State Representative for 20 House District 2 since 2014 has been the honor of a lifetime. Serving as 21 Speaker of the House of Representatives the last two years has been both 22 humbling and incredibly meaningful.

24 The most important lesson I learned during my tenure is that government
25 works and Colorado is well served by the amazing women and men who 26 step up to serve in the Colorado Legislature. For little pay and long, hard 27 hours, our State Legislators devote themselves to making Colorado the 28 best state in the Union. Coloradans should feel a sense of pride in the 29 work conducted under the Gold Dome.

31 As Speaker of the House, I saw firsthand how our institution incorporates 32 the diverse views of the elected officials representing the different
33 legislative districts across the state. I will always hold close to my heart
34 the memories and relationships I built while serving in the Colorado 35 House of Representatives. I wish all current and future Legislators the 36 best of luck as they tackle the challenges of the day.

38 I want to thank the nonpartisan staff who work equally hard to carry out 39 the essential functions of government. Colorado owes you a debt of 40 gratitude.

42 To my family, thank you for letting me carry out my duties and for 43 always supporting me and standing by my side. I hope I made you proud.

45 Sincerely,
46 /signed/

11 Effective midnight, Monday, January 2nd, 2023, I will resign from my 12 position as Colorado State Representative for House District 31.

14 I have been honored to serve families across House District 31 for the last 15 four years as their Colorado State Representative. I'm grateful for your 16 leadership, for my colleagues, and for the hard-working staff who make 17 our work possible.

19 Thank you to the people of House District 31 for giving me the 20 opportunity to serve. I look forward to continuing to represent them in

1 Speaker McCluskie addressed the members of the House of 2 Representatives.

3
4 Good morning and welcome to Opening Day of the 74th General Assembly!
5

6 As I take the gavel, I first begin by sharing my deep thanks to Speaker
7 Alec Garnett who has been an exceptional leader to this body through a global 8 pandemic. He has left his mark in policies that have saved lives and led 9 Colorado through an upheaval and back to a thriving economy. We are forever 10 better due to his leadership.

12 Thank you to the Colorado Childrens' Chorale for that heartwarming 13 performance. I remember the days when my daughter Cait was a member of 14 your ranks - what a positive impact your organization had on her success as a 15 young woman. Music is a powerful universal language. Your commitment to 16 including children from all backgrounds and all socioeconomic backgrounds
17 is critical to helping young people grow into successful adults.

19 Thank you Representative Jodeh for delivering such a meaningful and moving
20 prayer to open this session. The perspective you have brought to this chamber
21 as the first Muslim lawmaker in the House has touched all of us and made a 22 tremendous impact on our state.

24 As we begin our journey this year, I want to recognize the incredible people
25 who work tirelessly to make the legislative session possible. Our aides and 26 staff, our nonpartisan staff at the Office of Legislative Legal Services, 27 Legislative Council Staff, Robin Jones, Kathy Hahn, and the clerks who 28 manage our bill folders and check and then double check everything we do.

29
30 Our custodial staff, Chris, Kim, Bruce, Travis, Francisco, and all the people 31 who work late into the night after we're here to get this building ready for each 32 and every work day.

33
34 Please join me in a round of applause for our exceptional staff!

35
36 I want to welcome all the guests and dignitaries who have joined us today,
37 Lt. Gov. Joe Garcia, Speaker Crisanta Duran, and Representative 38 Millie Hammer.

39
40 And to my family, I would not be here today without you. I am wearing a 41 jacket made of the black watch tartan symbolic of my husband's deep
42 connections to his roots in Scotland and in appreciation for his loving support 43 of my success. "143"

45 To my children who inspire me every day to be the best person I can be, you 46 make me the proudest mother on earth with your compassionate hearts and 47 eagerness to embrace all that life has to offer.

49 In my pocket, I carry my Grandmother Irene's handkerchief in great admiration
50 of her independent spirit - a woman who's life and legacy inspire me daily.
51 This small token reminds me of the incredible gifts of love, education, and 52 support I have received from my parents and siblings. Mom, Dad, Susan, 53 David and Vicki - how grateful ...

55

1 Jaclynn. Thank you for reciting the pledge of allegiance, crafting the gifts we 2 gave all of the members today, and for being such a bright, lovely young lady!
3
4 And to my dear friends joining me here today, thank you, thank you, thank 5 you-my heart is full of gratitude for your gifts of wisdom and encouragement.
6
7 Finally, there isn't a single person in this building who doesn't miss 8 Hugh McKean right now. Representative Parks, our hearts are with you. How 9 meaningful that you could finish out Hugh's term and be here with us today to 10 celebrate and remember him. Representative Parks has been leading the charge
11 to raise awareness about heart health and early screenings, and we look forward 12 to supporting that good work.
14 Hugh embodied everything that it means to be a statesman. He went about his 15 work in this building the right way, and everyone respected him for it. His wit
16 and his joy filled this room, as did his booming voice and his laughter.
17
18 Please join me and Minority Leader Lynch in a moment of silence and 19 remembrance for our beloved Minority Leader Hugh McKean.
21 Thank you, members.
22
23 I also want to acknowledge Representative Stephanie Vigil. No one expects to 24 enter office amidst a tragedy like the one that happened at Club Q in her district 25 just weeks after she was elected.
26
27 Our hearts go out to all of the victims of this horrific attack on Colorado's 28 LGBTQ community.
29
30 Please join me in a moment of silence to remember those who lost their lives
31 that night: Raymond Green Vance; Kelly Loving; Daniel Aston; Derrick Rump; 32 and Ashley Paugh.
33
34 To the Colorado Springs community and LGBTQ Coloradans, I want you to 35 know that we stand with you. To Richard Fierro, an American Hero, we are so 36 grateful for your quick action to take down the shooter and prevent more lives 37 from being taken. I also want to recognize the first responders who arrived at 38 the scene, stabilized dozens of victims and saved countless lives.
39
40 Hateful rhetoric targeting LGBTQ Coloradans, especially trans people, is on the 41 rise in our state, and it cannot be tolerated. Colorado respects freedom and love 42 and the right to be who you are. We have made tremendous progress, and we 43 won't stop now.
44 Members, It is a historic time to serve in the People's House. At nearly 40
45 percent, we have an exceptionally large class of new lawmakers. I can't wait 46 to see the difference you'll make for the people of our state. Please stand and 47 be recognized!
48
49 We also have seasoned lawmakers returning who are today entering their final 50 term in office. Please stand if you are beginning your last term in the state 51 legislature.
52
53 I would be remiss to not ask all of those who have served to be recognized.
54 Can all of the veterans in the room raise your hand and be recognized.

1 In 1895, Coloradans Clara Cressingham, Carrie Clyde Holly, and Frances
2 Klock became the first women ever elected to a state legislature. How proud
3 they would be to see us here today - This is the first time in Colorado History
4 that the majority of the General Assembly is made up of women, and proudly, 5 we are the second state in the nation where women make up a majority of the 6 legislature.

8 Let us recognize other historic firsts. Representative Brianna Titone, the 9 Democratic Caucus Co-chair, is the first transgender lawmaker in the country 10 to serve in a position of caucus leadership.

12 Representative Junie Joseph is the first Haitian-American to serve in the 13 legislature. Representative Elizabeth Velasco is the first Latina from the 14 Western Slope. Representative Regina English is the first Black woman to 15 represent El Paso County, and Jennifer Bacon is the first Black woman to serve 16 as Assistant Majority Leader.

18 For the first time, every Western Slope Democrat in the House, and there are 19 now four of us, is a woman. And, for the first time, a woman from the 20 Western Slope will serve as your speaker.

22 The House has a new and diverse leadership team which for the first time will 23 see women in the top three leadership positions. My appreciation to 24 Majority Leader Duran and Assistant Majority Leader Bacon for their 25 exceptional partnership and leadership to this body. We will each bring our 26 own lived experiences to the table that will help us craft policies and solutions 27 that advance women's rights, civil liberties, health care and education, and 28 economic opportunity for all.

29
30 As teachers, community organizers, veterans, union members, business owners, 31 urbanites and mountain dwellers, the lawmakers in the Democratic caucus have 32 lived the experiences of Coloradans from all walks of life.

33
34 Over 30 percent of our lawmakers are people of color. We are a body that is 35 now closer to fully representing the rich diversity of voices we serve. We are 36 a body that better understands the infinite iterations of the Colorado dream.

38 Our expanded Democratic majority is a recognition that Coloradans agree with 39 the path we've charted and support a policy agenda and approach to governance 40 that reflects their priorities.

42 While we were elected by voters from individual districts, we must now come 43 together to serve every person in our state--those that voted for us and those that 44 did not. With the 2022 campaign in the rear view mirror, it's time to take what 45 we've heard from our constituents and transition from public figures to public 46 servants. It's time to govern on behalf of everyone in our state.

48 With fresh ideas, heartfelt convictions and a fierce determination to do what's 49 right for this state, we will lead our Colorado forward together.

50
51 This morning, I will ask you to consider - How is the Colorado dream different 52 for each person. What do our constituents need from us to live their Colorado 53 dream? How can we help?

1 My Colorado Dream started a long time ago on my parents' family farms in 2 North Dakota. I'll never forget those summer visits walking the pastures,
3 picking peas from the garden and playing dress up in the dairy house. My 4 grandparents were teachers and farmers. Fairly common occupations for those 5 raising families in rural parts of any state.
6

7 My Grandmother Irene was an independent woman with big dreams of her
8 own. She wrote countless stories of life on the farm and pursued a writing 9 career. She was spirited, smart and encouraged me to use my voice, and be my 10 own person. I believe any career is possible for a woman, because of the 11 example she set for me. My Colorado Dream is realized here today as I stand 12 before you, the first woman Speaker of the House from the Western Slope.
13

14 The Colorado dream isn't the same for everyone. Everyone has their own 15 aspirations and hopes for their future.

17 Some people strive to start or grow their own business. Many in our agriculture 18 community want the security and reassurance of knowing they can pass on their 19 family farm or ranch to their children. Lots of workers in our mountain towns, 20 the people who drive our resort economies, just want to live in those same 21 towns and enjoy the quality of life that makes them such wonderful places to 22 live.

24 Coloradans are trying to live their dream on our ranches, in our cities, on our 25 rivers and mountains.
26

27 It's our job to support and celebrate those individual dreams. We must 28 understand and deeply respect that lawmakers in this chamber will have 29 different visions and ideas for what this looks like. To do this, we must 30 contemplate what binds us all together - the basic needs that every individual 31 has.
32

33 Far too many people are struggling amidst the rising cost of living in our state.
34 This year, we will redouble our efforts to make Colorado more affordable by 35 reducing the costs of a family's largest expenses, often housing, health care, 36 and child care.
37

38 They say, home is where your heart is,...it's where we go for the 39 Holidays,...and where we hang our hats.
40

41 Housing is central to every person's ability to live, work and play. That's why 42 we have taken landmark steps to build more affordable homes and expand our 43 housing stock.
44

- 45 • We invested $40 million to build innovative, factory built homes that 46 help families afford high-quality new builds while creating good paying 47 jobs.
- 48 • We made the single largest investment in the state's history in 49 affordable housing by creating a $150 million revolving loan program, 50 which will leverage private dollars to develop housing in rural and 51 urban communities across the state
- 52 • And we established a $178 million grant program to provide funding 53 directly to local governments and nonprofits to build homes for every 54 budget.

1 In addition, we passed the largest property tax reduction in the state's history,
2 strengthened the state affordable housing tax credit, created a housing tax credit
3 for seniors, and directed hundreds of millions to help local communities
4 address homelessness and preserve mobile home parks.

5
6 Thank you Minority Leader Lynch and Representatives Ortiz, Bradfield, Bird,
7 Woodrow, Boesenecker, Jodeh, and Snyder for your work to pass these bills 8 and others into law.

9
10 Housing is a state-wide concern, which is why this year we will pass policies 11 to remove the unnecessary barriers that have made it more challenging to 12 address our critical housing shortage.

14 We will also work to ensure that these policies promote sustainable 15 communities and help local governments preserve their affordable housing 16 stock- especially for the elderly, those with disabilities and low and 17 middle-income families for whom displacement is both traumatizing and 18 destabilizing.

20 Combined with our historic investments, these policies will unleash the 21 development and preservation of tens of thousands of quality homes all across 22 the state for hardworking Coloradans.

24 We must also talk about health care when we talk about expenses hitting the 25 family budget. I strongly believe that high-quality, accessible health care is 26 essential for every Coloradan. Whether it's a fall on the ski slope, an injury at 27 the workplace, or an illness, life is filled with the unexpected and everyone 28 deserves access to quality affordable health care in the communities where they 29 live.

30
31 We capped insulin costs, required prescription drug rebate savings to be passed 32 along to consumers, put in place a plan to bring down the cost of the highest 33 priced drugs, and created the Colorado Option, which is giving consumers new 34 choices with better coverage at lower prices. Our state's reinsurance program 35 has lowered premiums on the individual market 24 percent from last year and 36 savings were even higher- as much as 36 percent- in regions with persistently 37 high health care costs, like Summit County and Grand Junction.

38
39 Thank you to Senator Roberts, Representative Jodeh, Speaker Pro Tempore
40 deGruy Kennedy and now Congresswoman Caraveo for your persistence to 41 lower the cost of health care and prescription drugs.

42
43 Thanks to the work of this body, more Coloradans and businesses can afford 44 to buy health care.

45
46 Yet, for Coloradans all across the state, access to behavioral health care - like 47 therapy or substance use counseling - is elusive. Too many people in our state 48 can't afford or don't have access to the behavioral health care they need to 49 thrive. With the determined efforts of Representative Amabile, we are 50 increasing bed capacity for Coloradans with serious mental illness who have 51 nowhere else to turn. Last year, legislation sponsored by Representatives 52 Gonzales-Gutierrez and Ricks directed $90 million to communities across the 53 state to ensure there is no wrong door to behavioral health care.

1 Thanks to Representative Michaelson Jenet, our youth - who are facing an 2 unprecedented mental health crisis of their own - can now get free counseling
3 through the popular and successful iMatter program.
4
5 I've spent a significant part of my career working in Summit School District,
6 and to this day, I am passionate about ensuring every child receives a 7 world-class education that prepares them for the future of their dreams.
8
9 Everywhere we look, education is the fertile ground-- the incubator from which 10 the Colorado dream grows.
11
12 Thanks to the work of Representatives McLachlan, Young, Kipp and so many 13 others, I'm proud that we have reduced the budget stabilization factor to the 14 lowest point since it was created nearly 15 years ago and continue our march 15 for more funding in public schools. Because of this work, school districts in 16 Colorado are seeing nearly $550 dollars more per student on average this year.
18 With the incredible work of Majority Leader Esgar, our partners in higher 19 education, organized labor, and business, we expanded skills training programs 20 that prepare traditional and non-traditional students for the jobs of the future.
21 We're launching the Opportunity Now Regional Talent Development Initiative 22 with $85 million to ensure we're training and educating our workforce for 23 critical regional economic needs.
24
25 This session, we are committed to making yet another meaningful investment 26 in public schools, higher education, and workforce development.
27
28 And let's take a moment to also acknowledge needs for affordable child care.
29
30 For many parents across our state, the Colorado dream is being able to raise 31 your child while also pursuing a career. Data shows that nearly one-third of the 32 median family's budget goes to child care, a figure that's even higher in our 33 rural counties. Not only is this simply unsustainable for families, it strains our 34 workforce by making it harder for new parents to return to work and reduces 35 what they can spend in our local economies.
36
37 I'm excited to say that this year, affordable child care and early childhood
38 education will be a reality for more parents in Colorado. Starting this fall, 39 every four-year-old in Colorado will have access to free universal preschool.
40 Thanks to Representative Sirota and former Speaker Garnett for leading this 41 effort. So far, over 850 providers across the state have signed up with the 42 Department of Early Childhood Education to provide a total of nearly 29,000
43 slots for early childhood education. These efforts will give more Colorado kids 44 a head start while saving parents money and helping them get back to work.
45
46 In nearly everyone's version of the Colorado dream, the beauty of this state is 47 almost always front and center, but we all know you cannot live your dream if 48 you cannot breathe the air outside your home.
49
50 You cannot live your dream if the forests and land your dream relies on burns
51 to the ground or your crops wither under your feet. And your dream will not 52 last if we do not protect the environment and this incredible place we call 53 home.
54
55

1 Millions of Coloradans are living each summer amidst rising pollution and poor
2 air quality as climate change continues to take its toll. We have invested record
3 funding to meet our climate challenges, improve our air and prevent 4 devastating wildfires. This session, we will continue this work by investing in 5 transit options, building smarter and closer to where people work, and cracking
6 down on violators that pollute our air and threaten our health.

7
8 Water. Out my front door I see flowing rivers, mountain lakes and crystal
9 white snow - these visions capture the spirit of the West - what it means to be 10 a Coloradan. Agriculture communities, wildlife, the future of our public lands, 11 our environment, ski areas, growing cities, suburbs, and every person and 12 family in our state depends on water. Water should unite us, not divide us.

14 The Colorado River has declined 20 percent over the last 20 years, leaving our 15 state and the entire West facing the worst drought conditions in twelve hundred 16 years. Climate change, increased demands, and population growth will 17 continue to put more pressure on our water supply.

19 With Representatives McCormick and Catlin leading the way, this is the year
20 that we make water the centerpiece of our conservation efforts. We will work 21 collaboratively to develop policy solutions that protect this precious resource.
22 The General Assembly has recently invested millions in the Colorado Water
23 Plan, drought mitigation, watershed protection, and water conservation, and yet 24 our water faces unprecedented threats that no one has seen or experienced 25 before.

27 The rule of law will remain a foundation of how we manage water rights. We 28 will aim to modernize Colorado's water management system to supply our 29 growing state with the water we need to drink, grow food, and protect our rivers 30 and streams for the benefit of our wildlife, the environment, and our outdoor 31 economy.

32
33 We will seek new federal funding to restore our rivers, advance conservation
34 programs, address drought in the Colorado River Basin - and boldly secure 35 our water future.

37 Just as we are committed to protecting our environment, we are committed to 38 protecting the people of our great state.

40 The Colorado dream is built on safety and security. Everyone deserves to feel 41 safe in their communities, in their schools, on the playground, at the grocery 42 store, without the fear of gun violence striking at any time.

43
44 We directed funding to improve public safety by increasing resources for 45 programs that reduce recidivism and prevent crime before it happens. We 46 passed six bills to prevent gun violence by tightening background checks,
47 creating the Office of Gun Violence Prevention, and by encouraging 48 responsible gun ownership like safely storing firearms and reporting them when 49 they are lost or stolen.

51 We must focus on data-informed strategies about why crime occurs to begin 52 with--lack of opportunity, lack of access to mental health care, inadequate 53 reentry services that instead lead to cycles of incarceration.

1 The data is clear: the measures we've passed in recent years such as the Red
2 Flag Law have saved lives and prevented crime. There were over 380 total red 3 flag cases and 241 successful petitions granted in 2022, likely saving many, 4 many lives.
5

6 Our efforts to reduce gun violence this session will focus on expanding how 7 and when a red flag petition can be filed so that more key moments can be 8 acted upon to interrupt potential acts of violence. Furthermore, we will 9 increase waiting periods and the age limits to purchase a firearm.
10

11 Feeling safe means different things to different people. Some Coloradans
12 worry about their property or the loss of vibrancy in commercial districts
13 impacting their businesses. Some people have concerns about their physical 14 safety or the safety of their children or friends. Many people of color in 15 Colorado still have legitimate fears about their safety when they interact with 16 law enforcement.

18 Freedom and safety are intertwined conditions that forge the foundation of 19 nearly every Coloradan's individual dream. To become a victim of crime 20 shatters the sense of safety and the sense of freedom that we all want to live our 21 lives. We have made critical investments in crime victim services and will 22 continue that work this session under the leadership of Majority Leader Duran.
23

24 As we work to improve public safety, we will increase our focus on protecting 25 communities that too often have been the targets of violence because of their 26 gender, their religion, who they love, or where they come from. We will 27 advance policies that affirm the rights of Coloradans to live free from violence 28 and threats.
29

30 Finally, the Colorado Dream is built on freedom. Freedom to love who you 31 love, to marry who you want to marry. Colorado celebrates love of all kinds.
32 It is also knowing you always have the freedom to make your own decisions 33 about reproductive health and abortion care—free from government interference.
34

35 I'm proud to say that the Reproductive Health Equity Act is now law in 36 Colorado. Thanks to the work of Rep. Froelich, Majority Leader Esgar, and the 37 lawmakers who supported this law, we protected the right to an abortion in 38 Colorado.
39

40 Now that we have cemented the right to an abortion in state law, we will take 41 steps to protect access to abortion care by protecting providers, expanding our 42 health care workforce, and ensuring patients have the accurate medical 43 information they need to make their own personal decisions without the 44 interference of politicians or misleading pregnancy centers.
45 Earlier, I asked you to consider what we can do to help Coloradans live their 46 individual dreams. The roadmap is before us.
47

48 Much of our important progress has been accomplished because Democrats and 49 Republicans came together, rolled up their sleeves and delivered commonsense
50 results for their constituents. There have been powerful examples of the 51 lawmakers in this room putting people above partisanship.
53

1 As this session begins, I want us all to pursue that same goal. Let's put people
2 above politics, and progress above partisanship to continue delivering results
3 for all Coloradans.

5 We were sent here not only to act, but to listen. Just as each of us listened as 6 candidates, we are now called upon to listen as elected officials. But I hope we 7 will always consider the respectful voices that come to the Capitol to advocate
8 for their beliefs and the people in our state.

9
10 Lawmaking is hard, and the process can be painful. No matter the challenge
11 or frustration, My expectation is that we legislate inclusively and hear out all 12 the voices that have an interest in our policy work.

14 The outcome may not always reflect everyone's wishes. I understand that isn't 15 always possible, but authentic engagement matters to the process and outcome.
16 It's clear that the policies we pass are stronger and longer-lasting when we 17 consider the voices of Coloradans from every corner and community in the 18 state.

20 As we craft our legislation, offer amendments, and vote on bills, I want us all 21 to recognize not only the historic diversity of this body, but also the importance 22 of centering policies that are anti-racist and which combat antisemitism and 23 hatred targeted at Colorado's LGBTQ community. It is not enough just to 24 listen and hear people from diverse backgrounds, we must advance policies that 25 reflect the experiences and priorities they bring to this chamber.

26 We will have difficult conversations about what it means to pass anti-racist 27 legislation as historic inequities continue to hold back people of color and 28 marginalized communities while denying too many Coloradans their fair shot.

29
30 So as I urge lawmakers of both parties to push for pragmatic and inclusive
31 solutions, I want to challenge members to see, truly see, the diversity of this 32 body, and more importantly how that diversity must be put into action to build 33 a state that supports the dreams of all Coloradans.

34
35 Today, we recognize that we can and must forge a path forward where 36 everyone can reach their dreams.

38 For our ranchers who need sustainable water and good roads to get their 39 products to market, your Colorado dream will be our focus.

40
41 For Black, Indigenous, and all People of Color living here, your Colorado 42 dream will be our focus.

43
44 For our small business owners, resort employees, ski instructors, rafters, hikers, 45 campers and everyone who relies on our water, outdoors, and beautiful public 46 spaces, your Colorado dream will be our focus.

48 For LGBTQ Coloradans seeking safety, acceptance, hope, love, and the 49 freedom to live life as you want, your Colorado dream will be our focus.

50
51 For our students, teachers and parents who want higher pay for educators and 52 more resources in their classrooms, your Colorado dream will be our focus.

1 For all the women and girls in this room and in our state looking ahead to a
2 brighter future, fair wages, more rights and freedoms and equal opportunity,
3 your Colorado dream will be our focus.
4
5 For anyone struggling to find an affordable place to live, a health care plan that 6 doesn't break the bank, or accessible high-quality child care options, your 7 Colorado dream will be our focus.
8
9 Coloradans have been through tough times, but we have a bright future ahead.
10
11 Today, we reaffirm the foundational promise of good government—the contract 12 we make when we stand up to serve that says we will always do what's best for 13 Colorado.
14
15 Today, our work starts again. To make Colorado more affordable, to invest in 16 our schools, to protect our air and water, to improve public safety, and protect 17 our freedoms.
19 Today, with love, integrity, boundless energy, and eternal optimism, we take 20 the next steps to help every Coloradan live their dream.
21
22 It is my honor and privilege to open the First Session of the 74th General
23 Assembly.
24
25 Let's get to work.
26
27
28
29 Minority Leader Lynch addressed the members of the House of 30 Representatives.
31
32 What a great Colorado day! What is it about our Colorado that makes it such 33 a special place? There is a reason the early settlers lost their curiosity about 34 what was over the horizon and said this is where I want to stay. Colorado's 35 natural beauty of the outdoors has drawn many to vacation here and fall in love 36 with our beauty, enough that they pack up their lives and relocate to live in this 37 incredible environment. That common bond of the love of natural beauty has 38 caused immense diversity in this state. We truly represent a melting pot of race, 39 religion, education levels, and interests.
40
41 How awesome is it to see this room filled to roof with those people here today.
42 We are assembled here today in the people's house. This is not the 43 representatives house, this is the peoples house. Take a second and look around 44 at what our society has created to take up the concerns and needs of its citizens.
45 This building and this institution is truly special in America. Not many state 46 Capitols are this spectacular.
47
48 When I started thinking of what I would say today, I thought I should reflect on 49 how we have got to 2023 as a country and the establishment of the greatest 50 society known to history. That reflection took me to the Declaration of 51 Independence that I think it only appropriate to take a look at as we take on the 52 task today of moving this government forward. This document is historical not 53 controversial and I promise I will not read the entire thing but the beginning 54 says it all for me.

1 It says:

2

3 When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to 4 dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to 5 assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which 6 the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the 7 opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel 8 them to the separation.

10 This first part talks that our rights are not of the laws of men, which can be 11 corrupted, but that of Nature and Natures God.

13 It goes on to say:

14

15 We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they 16 are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these 17 are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, 18 Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the 19 consent of the governed, I could go on, but the bottom line of our initial 20 establishment for this great land is that we come from a heritage of ensuring 21 that the PEOPLE are in charge, NOT US in this chamber but for us to be the 22 servants of the people and carry the voices of the many thousands that each of 23 us represent, and at the end of the day, our job is to constrain the government 24 from being overbearing in our lives and taking away our freedoms.

26 That all sounds well and good, but the contentious process of getting here
27 clouds our vision of how we conduct ourselves once we get inside the gold
28 dome. We are easily tempted to put party over the people and service takes a 29 second seat to our personal ambitions. I implore you to remember it is not 30 YOU that sits in those seats, it is the thousands of people who put you there.

31

32 Most of them you agree with, but some of them you do not. Those voices are 33 important as well! Those voices are the ones, the minority represents here 34 today. The voices you may not agree with, but are still there to be heard from 35 in each one of your districts. I ask only one thing of you, the Super Majority, 36 let those voices be heard. The voices that continue to believe in limited and 37 smaller government, property rights, and school choice. Those Coloradans who 38 understand there is no such thing as government money, but understand it is 39 their money as government has no way of producing income outside of our 40 individual successes. Entrepreneurs and business owners who feel they are 41 over-taxed and over-regulated and who support multiple energy choices in our 42 state.

44 The people in the rural parts of this state that ensure we have food on our table
45 everyday. Parents who go to bed frightened that their child will buy an illegal 46 drug on the internet – and die of a fentanyl overdose. Those who believe being 47 forced to buy one kind of egg verses another is not fair. And, those who feel 48 they are underserved by our law enforcement and just want safety on our 49 streets. The Minority will work everyday to ensure that those concerns are 50 addressed through vigorous debate.

52 Today, the Republican minority comes to the floor of the House of 53 Representatives in a historically small number. However, I can tell you we are 54 bringing those who know how to serve, as almost half of our members have 55 said that they are willing lay down their life for this country through their

1 military service, literally representing every branch of service. If my veteran
2 members could please stand and be recognized. These are people who 3 understand a mission and have the experience to accomplish it. We are also 4 bringing a wealth of knowledge through career public servants and business
5 leaders all of whom have very impressive resumes and many years of expertise
6 to bring to our conversations of how to make the lives of Coloradans better. I 7 could not be more honored to work with this very distinguished group of 8 leaders and I am humbled to have the role of leading them in the 74th General
9 Assembly.

11 So today, as we all become members of a distinguished group of the 74th
12 General Assembly, may we first never forget we are servants of the people that 13 will create history and records that will be handed down long after we are gone.

15 We are not going to agree, we are going to vigorously defend our differing 16 opinions, we are going to be delighted and disappointed from day to day. May 17 we also never forget that we are colleagues and individuals with way more in 18 common as humans and Americans than we have in differences as members of 19 a political party. I am looking forward to the work we have ahead of us, and 20 getting to know each of you as we work for a better Colorado. May God bless 21 Colorado.

21
22 Chairman Manuel Heart addressed the Joint Session:

23
24 Miykh. Hello in my Ute language. Good morning to all of you today. It is an 25 Honor for me and the UMUT to be here today. Hello Members of the Colorado
26 House and representatives, Colorado Senate, all Staff and Honored Guests.

27
28 Last year there was legislation passed that the Two Ute Tribes in Colorado can 29 address the Colorado State Legislators in a Joint General Session. Senate Bill 30 22-105. I would like to thank former Senator Kerry Donovan for bringing 31 SB22-105.

32
33 There are 2 Federally Recognized Tribes within the State of Colorado - they are 34 the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe. I would like to 35 take this opportunity on behalf of the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe to address our 36 relationship on a Government to Government with the State of Colorado. By 37 working together and partnering through our government-to-Government
38 relationship, becomes incorporated into our current and future Tribal projects.
39 So, it is important that we share values with the State of Colorado. Today we 40 coordinate and work with the Colorado Commission of Indian Affairs and Lt.
41 Governor Primavera and staff. Where we discuss our shared values, and we 42 promote projects that are beneficial to both the two Ute Tribes and the State of 43 Colorado.

45 These are some of our current and successful projects that we have completed 46 and have set some legislative milestones, that we have worked on and the 47 importance of cooperation and working together. We have identified some 48 projects that may be stalled or have presented challenges that we would like 49 your partnership and support as the Colorado General Assembly. Between the 50 three of us, the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe and 51 the State of Colorado.

52
53 There are a number of topic areas I would like to talk with you all about today.
54 I would like to begin by recognizing some major milestones between our two 55 governments:

56

1 Brunot Hunting Rights by our Ute Treaty of 1874. Both the two Ute Tribes of 2 Colorado have a unique hunting Treaty right through the Brunot hunting
3 agreement ratified by Act in 1874. The hunting area is on the Western slope of 4 Colorado and consist of around 3.7 million acres. Our concern is we are very 5 limited in the area designated by Brunot Treaty to Public Lands and Forestry
6 lands. Our concern of these hunting areas is the acreage that is taken away from 7 the original Hunting Treaty of 3.7 million acres. There is Private Lands, Towns, 8 and cities and Municipalities within the identified area of the hunting treaty.

9
10 We propose that the Hunting area be expanded up into the Uncompahgre Forest
11 from the lands taken away from the original acres of our Ute Brunot Hunting
12 Treaty Right. We together have had this federal hunting treaty in place for over 13 40 years with updates in 2008 and 2011. Together, we have worked to ensure 14 these off-reservation hunting treaty rights are maintained now and into the 15 future.

17 Repatriation of Ancestral Human remains: In 2007, we worked with the State
18 of Colorado and 46 other Tribes on Repatriating Native American Ancestral 19 Human Remains and Funerary objects that were disturbed or uncovered by 20 development. The State helped identify lands for the reburial and protection of 21 our ancestors. Our ancestors were originally put in these places in their honor 22 and respect each of them. Each of us deserve a final resting place without being 23 disturbed, let us protect them.

24
25 As Tribal Nations the original inhabitants of these lands we were not recognized
26 as U.S. citizens until 1924, through the Snider Act. Tribes did operate Self 27 Governance long before the U.S. was founded in 1776. Today, we work with 28 the Colorado Secretary of State's Office to provide a service. Election poll on 29 the two reservations for our Tribal members, for State and Federal and county
30 Elections. Tribal IDs have not been fully accepted as an approved identification 31 for cashing check or form of ID, but we are currently working on this issue with 32 The State of Colorado. We would like to thank Secretary Jena Griswold for her 33 continued support on this issue.

35 In a working relationship we have established the first State Charter School on 36 an Indian Reservation in the State of Colorado. The Boarding School Era was 37 atrocity on what happen to native children and the Indian people by the U.S.
38 Government and that includes Churches. The assimilation process put into place 39 by the U.S. Government to take away our language and our Traditional and 40 cultural teachings. It had a devastating impact to 3 to 4 generations of Tribal 41 families in a very negative way, right up to modern day today. Some tribes have 42 totally lost their language and their traditional teachings. Today, American 43 Indian history is not required in our public-school curriculum. It is important 44 that future generations are provided this history and knowledge and now is the 45 time to ensure that the oldest continuous residents of this country's history is a 46 requirement.

48 No disrespect to anyone, but looking back at the true history and at whose cost
49 of life and liberty and our inherent Tribal rights to live as a free Sovereign
50 Nation and the right to govern our true manifest destination as Tribal 51 Governments within this country. Today we look toward a new future we 52 cannot change history, but we can work on this together for all of our children.
53 Today through this Charter School we have that opportunity to change a small 54 part of our Ute history and create our own Ute Tribal Curriculum for our 55 children w1th teaching our Ute language and implement culture and Traditional 56 Ute teaching. Working with our Charter School staff and our Ute Tribal Elders.

1 education. The future plans is to eventually implement a K-12 grade Charter
2 School on the Ute Mountain Ute reservation and possible a Vocational and 3 Technical school, maybe even a possible Junior College. That takes future 4 capital funds, which we currently do not have, but thanks to opportunities like 5 RISE, we will have a good master Education Plan and design for a new 6 education quadrant.

7
8 Challenges include: These Mountains are the head gates of the Colorado River
9 Basin and these mountains were the aboriginal lands of the Ute people. There 10 is an upper basin and a lower basin. In 1922 the First Colorado River basin was 11 being negotiated and passed amongst the 7 States and the U.S. Government.
12 Indian Tribes were not recognized as U.S. citizens until 1924 two years later
13 after the Colorado River Basin Compact was passed by Congress and seven 14 States. The Winters Doctrine was a decision by the Supreme Court in a ruling
15 in 1908, fourteen years earlier on behalf of Tribes and their individual Tribal 16 Water Rights question has been brought up by some of the Tribal Nations to the 17 U.S. department of Interior about the Tribal Water rights in the Colorado River 18 Basin. "Today some Tribes still do not have their water rights quantified, and 19 most tribes still do not sit at the table of the decision makers on their tribal 20 water rights. Yes, they are consulted with through the consultation policy. But 21 really, they don't have a vote on a management plan for the future based on the 22 interim guidelines coming up in 2026 or on quantifying their water rights within 23 each of the seven States before that deadline of a management plan.

24
25 Due to the domino effect of climate change, we have faced the most severe 26 impacts of drought in the last three years. Because of this severe drought we 27 were facing a water allocation of 10% which is 11/2 inch of water per acre.
28 ONM cost has been a challenge when we don't receive our full allocation of Ag
29 water for our Farm & Ranch Enterprise out of the McPhee reservoir. Plus, the 30 startup cost of our fallowed fields that have not been in production and to get 31 them back up to production, takes resources and funding.

32
33 We have also had successes in water as well: The two Ute Tribes are working 34 with the Colorado Water Conservation Board, the Colorado Water
35 Representative, and our local Water Conservation Division through 36 consultation. Water is a very precious resource for all of us, and to ensure its 37 future protection Tribes and State of Colorado need to work together to protect 38 our water rights. The State of Colorado is also participating in our litigation for 39 the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe with the State of New Mexico for our water rights 40 in the San Juan River. The States participation has been essential to 41 understanding the potential uses of the water in both Colorado and New 42 Mexico. Our water experts and Attorneys all bring valuable information and 43 expertise into the negotiation.

45 The two Ute Tribes have a significant amount of Municipal and Industrial 46 Water in Lake Nighthorse near Durango Colorado, about 32 thousand acre/ feet 47 together. currently we both have no delivery system to get our water to put it to 48 use on each of our Tribal Reservations. The U.S. has not secured funding for a
49 delivery system for our Tribal Water and therefore, it sits, and we risk that water
50 evaporating. We propose to put on the table and work in a partnership to secure 51 funds to get a delivery system from Lake Nighthorse to the Montezuma County.
52 If we are successful in getting this water westward, it could also provide 53 municipal water to the local municipalities in the county – who are also 54 suffering from this drought.

56

1 We always try to mention our Government-to-Government relation that we each
2 have respectfully to each other the two Ute Tribes and the State of Colorado.
3 One issue we still need to work on is Sports Betting. The two Ute Tribes were 4 not involved in drafting the legislation that established Sports Betting within the 5 State of Colorado. Because of the concerns that have emerged, the Ute
6 Mountain Ute Tribe is still not able to participate in online sports betting like 7 every other casino in the State. The regulatory structure imposed by the 8 legislatures does not fit well with the Ute Tribes as a Sovereign. We appreciate
9 the effort by the State of Colorado and the Department of Gaming have made
10 to find a solution, but we have not been able to agree on a way to move forward
11 that protects our Sovereignty. We should not be a regulated business entity
12 within the State of Colorado. We are the largest employer in the Montezuma
13 County, and currently the Casino is our largest enterprise. All the profits from 14 our casino are used to ensure that we have tribal programs for our 2 Tribal 15 communities (Towaoc & White Mesa) also for our tribal Members services 16 program. Our casino is a part of our Economic Development plan and brings in 17 Revenue for our Tribal Government. When the Ute Mountain Tribes succeeds, 18 so do the surrounding communities and towns. We would like to implement 19 off-reservation betting through Sports betting. When this legislation was passed 20 in 2019 through a referendum the two tribes were not consulted with the 21 language in the legislation. We, as two the Ute tribal sovereigns are very 22 different than your State Casinos. We are also regulated by the Federal Gamin
23 Commission and IGRA Indian Gaming Regulatory Act Guidelines. We have 24 always followed the law and have no concerns on audits and negative gaming
25 operations. Time is money and it is urgent that the State of Colorado understand
26 and respect our position as Tribal Sovereign, not as a regulated business entity 27 within the State of Colorado.

29 The reintroduction of the wolf in the State of Colorado by legislation. These 30 wolfs may be considered sacred to native tribes and to our ecosystem and at the 31 same time they are a threat to our livestock owners' property of cattle at our 32 Tribal Ranch Pinecrest near Gunnison. The Colorado Natural Resource 33 Department and Keystone Policy Center have been a partner in consideration 34 and mitigating the impacts to the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe. When the Wolves are 35 introduced into our area, respecting our sovereignty and our values should be 36 taken into consideration.

38 We would like to recognize the mascot bill SB21-116 concerning the 39 prohibition of American Indian mascots in Colorado. Would like to thank the 40 sponsors of this bill Senator Danielson, Representatives Benavidez and 41 McLachlan.

42
43 Additionally, we would like to recognize SB22-150 Missing And Murdered
44 Indigenous Relatives. Concerning the response to the missing and murdered
45 indigenous persons crisis, and, in connection therewith, establishing the office 46 of liaison for missing and murdered indigenous relatives and making an 47 appropriation. We would like to thank sponsors Senator Danielson, 48 Representatives Duran & Herod. We've already seen this bill in action and look 49 forward to future coordination and collaboration.

50
51 On this historical day, I would respectfully add that the Ute people have been 52 here since time immemorial and we cherish these lands because they gave us 53 life, they sustained us and protected us for more than ten thousand years. These 54 lands are our Aboriginal Ute Lands and that was all of these Rocky Mountains.
55 That is 2/3 of Colorado and 1/2 of Utah and Northern New Mexico. We are the 56 Mountain People based on our creation story from our creator. We have and

1 continue to be the Stewarts of our aboriginal lands and we are still connected
2 to these mountains and all the aboriginal Ute lands. Today we live in the very 3 Southwestern corner of Colorado put on a reservation by the Federal 4 Government. We were put there forcibly not by our choice, but by past U.S.
5 Presidents and the United States Congress. Tribes were forced by legislation
6 through the Federal Government and through some of our Tribal Treaties
7 negotiated at that time. majority of these Treaties were not in our best interest
8 for our Ute people. At times we gave up some things to get something of lesser 9 use or value, from our original agreement or from our full inherent Tribal right.

11 If you would bear with me, I would like to paint a picture of the oldest and 12 continuous residents of Colorado:

14 Our first treaties with the Spanish officials, was in 1670. Utes were confined to 15 western third part of Colorado territory by treaty of out of our existing and 16 aboriginal lands that we had the right to hunt on. 1868. The Gold and Silver
17 rush occurs in the San Juan Mountains in 1873. Utes cede the San Juan
18 Mountains area to the U.S. in 1873, this took away 1/4th of the Utes remaining 19 lands. U.S. takes more Ute Lands in 1888 paying a total of $50,000 to be 20 divided equally among the Utes. That is for the Weminuche, Capote and 21 Mouache Utes. At that time, it was an estimated population of 3,500 Ute
22 members. Each Ute member was supposed to be paid $14 dollars. I see no 23 record of disbursement of funds to individual Ute members. In 1896 was the 24 allotment Era for the Ute reservation. SUIT Tribal Chiefs chose to stay with the 25 allotment Act for the Capote and the Mouache Bands within their reservation 26 and that is their land base today. The UMUT Tribal Chief Ignacio chose to 27 separate his Band and went west and took their Weeminuche band to a Trust
28 land reservation and that is our Tribal land Base today. In 1924 American 29 Indians became recognized as U.S. citizens. In 1940 the UMUT adopts their 30 Tribal Constitution. In 1971 Chief Jack House dies the last traditional chief of 31 the Utes.

32

33 As I have gone over the history of the Utes and explaining to each of you the 34 Legislators of the State of Colorado. We, as the Ute people, have lost a lot over 35 time right up to present day 2023. Today the areas that I speak of are about our 36 future Government to Government relationship. We all claim these lands as our 37 homeland. But let us look at the past history and what has been taken away and 38 all the lost opportunities and we shall address them today and look toward 39 future opportunities. We respectfully request the governing body of the State of 40 Colorado for your continued partnership. Protection of our Lands, fulfillment
41 of our Tribal water rights, Hunting and Gathering rights, opportunities today
42 and into the future for Economic Development to have equal access to revenue, 43 better health care for all, Education opportunities for our children, Housing for 44 all families, equity in all areas and the right to be a Ute Mountain Ute Tribal 45 Sovereign Government within the State of Colorado and other States.

46

47 We look toward partnerships and joint legislation from a
48 government-to-government standpoint. We as the UMUT, are a proud people 49 and we should be recognized by all Federal, State, Tribal, and local 50 Governments as a Sovereign, Ute Mountain Ute Tribal Nation.

51

52 I want to thank all of you for the opportunity to present today our successes and 53 our challenges and concerns today. We look forward to working with the State
54 of Colorado to pursue projects that are in our mutual interest. The Colorado

1 Commission of Indian Affairs is an exceptional partner, and it is a great model
2 for other states to adopt through their legislation. It reflects a true government
3 to government relationship. We are able to demonstrate to the rest of the nation
4 that Tribes have a lot to offer, and they should be included in future legislation.
5

6 In closing, As the mountain people, we take care of our family all year 7 long-especially during the winter season when the heavy snows come across the 8 mountains. We give our Tribal Relatives blankets so that they may stay warm
9 during the winter season. Just as a blanket is made, our history of the Ute
10 People should be woven into the history of Colorado.

13
14 Chairman Melvin J. Baker addressed the Joint Session:
15

16 Members of the Colorado House of Representatives, Members of the Colorado
17 Senate, staff and guests. Thank you for the opportunity to address you today.
18 My name is Melvin J. Baker, Chairman of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe.
19

20 Today I would like to talk to you about four things:
21

22 First, to provide you background on the Southern Ute Indian Tribe – its history,
23 its economic development, and the services it provides the citizens of Colorado.
24 Second, to discuss the status of relations between the State and the Tribes,
25 including the three pillars that serve as the foundation of that important
26 relationship. And finally, to talk about policies that are important to the Tribe 27 and areas in which we can work together.
28

29 First, let me provide you information on the Tribe. The Utes were the original 30 inhabitants of what is today the State of Colorado. According to our history we 31 have lived here since time immemorial. As a result of a series of treaties with 32 the federal government, today the Southern Ute Indian Tribe occupies the 33 Southern Ute Indian Reservation, which comprises approximately 770,000
34 acres in southwestern Colorado. Our Reservation is part of the northern San 35 Juan Basin, an area that has seen widespread oil and gas development over a 36 period of almost 70 years. The topography of the Reservation is varied. Lands 37 range from mountainous on the east side of the Reservation to agricultural and 38 semi-arid desert lands in the west half. Eight rivers traverse the Reservation in 39 five main drainage basins.
40

41 Currently, the Tribe has just under 1500 tribal members. Including tribal 42 members, there are approximately 5,000 Native Americans and 5,000
43 non-Natives who reside on the Reservation. Through the business acumen of 44 our Tribal leaders, the Tribe has become a leading developer of energy
45 resources in Indian country and a vital part of the local and regional economy.
46 The Tribe employs nearly 1500 people, directly or through wholly or partially 47 owned business entities, and is the single largest employer in La Plata County.
48

49 The Tribe generates millions of dollars in tax revenue for the state and local 50 governments through tax compacts, employment, and leasing activities. At the 51 same time the Tribe provides essential services to Colorado residents living 52 within the Reservation boundaries at no expense to the state.
53

54 These include: Free health care for tribal members, operation of a health clinic
55 for all Natives, free education for all tribal members, including college and 56 post-graduate education a Montessori school that operates through the fifth

1 grade for tribal members and first descendants, social services, law
2 enforcement, detention, and judicial services for Natives living within the 3 Reservation boundaries a community recreation center; and administration of 4 Clean Air Act permitting programs and maintenance of water quality standards
5 within the Reservation for the benefit of all citizens of Colorado.

6
7 In addition, with a $10 million dollar contribution from the state last year, we 8 are in the process of completing a $60 million plan to provide broadband to the 9 local community. These are services that benefit both tribal and non-tribal 10 members living on the Reservation.

11
12 In looking at the relationship that exists between Colorado and the two Ute
13 Tribes, Colorado can be proud of the relationship it has developed over the 14 years with its two land based Tribes. When we look at other states, we often see 15 friction between the states and the Tribes within its borders. But not in 16 Colorado. Colorado is the leader among all states when it comes to honoring 17 the Tribal-state relationship. As Governor Polis has stated, "In Colorado we 18 respect our government-to-government relationship with Tribes." We also have 19 an excellent working relationship with La Plata County.

21 There are three principles that are the foundation of that relationship that I ask 22 you today to always remember:

24 First, we must always remember that we are each sovereign entities, a 25 relationship that we must honor and respect. As a result of that sovereignty we 26 are each self-governing. We each have our own laws, codes and ordinances that 27 govern activities over which we have jurisdiction. There are times when you 28 legislate that you may not remember there are two sovereign tribes within your 29 borders. And you may not realize that your legislation may unintentionally
30 appear to affect those living on tribal lands and impinge upon the Tribe's 31 jurisdiction. When legislation is enacted without considering the Tribe, it can 32 create unnecessary conflict and requires expenditure of tribal and state resources
33 to resolve. I ask that as you consider legislation this session and in future 34 sessions you ask yourself, what effect will this have on the Ute Tribes and those 35 they govern. And if you have questions, reach out to us to discuss it.

36
37 Second, we must always remember to consult. We depend on adequate 38 consultation on matters that affect each of us. Consultation not only honors our 39 government-to-government relationship, it also results in better legislation and 40 saves time in the long run. In areas where we have disagreements, it is usually 41 where there was no consultation. In 2019, this Legislature passed HB 19-1327,
42 an act authorizing sports betting. Even though the Tribes each operate a casino, 43 there was no consultation with the Tribes during the passage of that legislation.
44 And after its passage, the Colorado Division of Gaming cancelled efforts by the 45 Tribes to initiate that consultation. Instead, the Division of Gaming chose to 46 treat Tribal gaming entities far less favorably than non-Tribal gaming entities
47 in the way it applied your legislation and to ignore the Gaming Compacts that 48 have been in existence between the State and the two Tribes for decades. As a
49 consequence, this issue remains unresolved three years later. We are asking you 50 to resolve it this session through legislation rectifying this inequity. Unlike the 51 large non-tribal gaming entities operating in this state, Tribal gaming revenue
52 is not used for profit. By federal law its use is limited to providing services that 53 benefit tribal members. There is no reason, three years after the passage of HB 54 19-1327, that the Colorado Division of Gaming has chosen not to honor this

1 States' gaming compacts with the two Colorado Tribes. The actions of the 2 Division of Gaming continue to serve as a strain on the relationships that exist
3 between the Tribes and the State of Colorado.

4
5 Third, and finally, we must always remember the importance of cooperation.
6 Our interests -- social and economic -- are interrelated. This includes a wide 7 range of issues such as social services, road maintenance, voting, economic 8 development, protection of natural and cultural resources, and taxation. There 9 is an understanding that we can't always agree on every issue but sometimes it
10 is better to disagree and work together. It is this cooperation and willingness to 11 work together that makes us stronger.

13 As you consider legislation, there are certain activities that are of particular 14 importance to our Tribe on which we ask that you consult with us. Today, I will 15 mention three of those:

17 First, economic development is of key importance to our Tribe. And at the 18 forefront of that is energy and resource management and development. The 19 Tribe operates the Southern Ute Growth Fund whose operations cover 14 states
20 and the Gulf of Mexico. This includes Red Willow Production Company, now 21 one of the top 25 largest privately owned oil and gas companies in the United 22 States, and Red Cedar Gathering Company, a natural gas gathering and treating 23 company located in La Plata County. However, the Tribe's energy interests go 24 well beyond traditional oil and gas resources. With 8 Rivers Capital, it is 25 developing the Coyote Clean Power Project, locating one of the world's first 26 zero-emissions NET Power plants within the Reservation. In addition, it is 27 creating the methane capture project, using a novel approach to capture 28 naturally seeping methane to prevent its migration into the atmosphere and 29 contribute to increased greenhouse gas emissions. Therefore, when you consider 30 legislation dealing with the energy sector, whether traditional oil and gas
31 development and transmission, or non-traditional methods to address climate
32 change, these are areas in which the Tribe has a strong interest and particular 33 expertise and we can work together for the benefit of the Tribe and the citizens
34 of Colorado.

35
36 Second, the Tribe takes great pride in the prudent management of its natural and 37 cultural resources. While we develop our energy resources we also ensure that 38 our lands and waters remain clean for future generations. Within the jurisdiction
39 of the Tribe, under delegation from the EPA, is management of air pollution 40 emissions and water quality. We hold ourselves to environmental standards that 41 exceed those of the state and federal government. And it is important to us that 42 we preserve and protect our cultural resources, including our ancestral sites 43 from generations ago.

44
45 Therefore, again, when you consider legislation and are regulating oil and gas
46 operators or air and water quality, within the Reservation boundaries the Tribe
47 has that jurisdiction. And we need to be consistent and work together so our 48 legislation does not conflict. And always remember that the Ute people lived 49 throughout this state generations ago. And when you consider areas for 50 development, to respect the cultural ties that the Tribes might have to those 51 areas.

52
53 Finally, please remember that our most important resource is water. The Tribe 54 has significant quantified, federally-reserved water rights. It is essential that we 55 work together for the protection of those water rights so they are present for 56 future generations.

1 Thank you for this opportunity to speak to you today. And we look forward to 2 working with you on legislation that benefits all of us this session.

43 ADDRESS BY THE HONORABLE
44 Chief Justice Brian D. Boatright
45

46 Each year in September, judicial officers from around the state – magistrates, 47 county court judges, district court judges, appellate judges, and even some tribal 48 judges – come together for three days to receive training and to exchange ideas.
49 During this year’s conference, I had the opportunity to address all of the judicial 50 officers in the state. I asked them to think back to when they first decided they 51 wanted to become judicial officers. I asked them why. Why did you want to 52 become a judicial officer? We had the ability to immediately look at their 53 responses. The top answer was to help people, followed by the desire to make 54 a difference, and third, to serve the community. While there were a lot of ways
55 to express their why, the overarching themes reflect a genuine desire to serve 56 our communities because they care about people who come into their court.

1 Every day around the state, in every court, our judicial officers take the bench
2 committed to uphold the rule of law. We handle over a half million cases every 3 year in 70 courthouses. Throughout the state, we have approximately 400 trial
4 court judges and magistrates presiding over small claims to first degree murder
5 cases. The criminal cases make up about 50% of the cases and garner most of 6 the headlines. But from my experience as a trial court judge, every day our 7 judges make decisions about families, children, our elderly, small businesses, 8 and the important topic of water. Every case we handle affects people, and 9 that's why having judges who care and want to serve is critical.

11 In my two years as chief justice, I have received calls and letters asking me to 12 intervene in cases. Parties to cases and even members of the public want me to 13 tell a judge how to handle a specific case, to remove a judge from a case, or to 14 undo a judge's ruling. They forget or don't understand that our judges are 15 independent constitutional officers, just like you all are. In other words, I do not 16 have any authority over a specific case until it comes to our court on appeal, and 17 I do not have any control over a judge's docket or case management decisions.

18

19 But let me tell you about how we are organized. The supreme court, as the head 20 of the judicial branch, has authority over the practice of law. We also have 21 administrative authority over the branch, which includes approximately 4,000
22 employees. Our judges are appointed by a merit selection system. Briefly, each 23 judicial district, of which there are 22 and soon to be 23, has a nominating 24 commission of seven people, four of which are non-lawyers. When we have a 25 judicial opening, the nominating commission reviews applications, conducts 26 interviews, and then selects two or three applicants to send to the Governor for 27 his selection. Political affiliation is not disclosed in the application process, and,
28 in my experience, it is not a consideration for the nominating commissions. The 29 Governor then has 15 days to appoint one of the candidates nominated by the 30 commission. A judge appointed by the Governor then stands for an initial 31 retention election after serving two years and retention elections for each 32 subsequent term, which varies in length from four years to ten years depending 33 on the court. Our system of selecting, evaluating, and retaining judges is the 34 best in the country. I will give you two examples why. First, when we have a 35 vacancy in our trial courts or appellate courts, our constitution requires that it
36 be filled within 45 days. In the federal system, vacancies are sometimes not 37 filled for months or even years due to the politics inherent in that system.
38 Second, of the current seven justices on the supreme court, three of us were 39 appointed by a republican governor to the trial court, and then the three of us
40 were later appointed by a democrat governor to the supreme court. As you can 41 see, one goal of merit selection is to de-politicize the judiciary and I think that 42 demonstrates its success.

44 I now want to turn to a topic that I dedicated much time to in my last State of 45 the Judiciary Address. Two years ago, I stood before you at a time when our 46 branch was the subject of public allegations of misconduct. At that time I, on 47 behalf of the supreme court and the entire Branch, committed to thorough and 48 transparent investigations. We have lived up to those commitments. In so doing, 49 we asked for the help of several of you here today and members of the 50 Executive Branch in selecting not only the investigators for the allegations but 51 also defining the scope of the investigations. The investigations were completed 52 last summer, and the results are posted in their entirety on the court's website.
53 If you have not read them, I urge you to do so. But today, I do not want to dwell 54 on the past. Instead of treading back through history, I want to tell you what we 55 learned and what we are doing in the future.

56

1 As I stand before you today, I am excited and energized by the meeting of the 2 minds and hearts of the Judicial Branch. We are reflecting, learning, acting, and 3 committing to a future that supports our conviction to assure the Branch is a 4 great place for our employees to work, provides the best service to the state of 5 Colorado, and maintains systems to enhance public trust.

6
7 As a result of the engaged participation with the Branch's leadership and staff,
8 we have three strategic priorities for our emerging future. First, we are 9 improving our operations to better serve Colorado. We are building operational 10 excellence and strong oversight into our business operations. As such, the 11 public and you will have confidence in our business-related decisions. Second,
12 we are empowering our employees. We commit to making the Branch a place 13 where employees and staff feel engaged and empowered. We recognize the 14 importance of having a sense of deep connection to our organization's purpose, 15 and having employees know their contributions are making a difference to those 16 we serve; and third, we are listening to all stakeholders. We continue to have 17 our ears wide open and are building a continuous, welcoming, and safe
18 feedback loop with our staff and stakeholders. To our staff, to you, we hear you, 19 and we are taking your feedback and communication seriously.

21 In the spirit of looking forward and improving our workplace and operations, 22 we asked the investigators to make concrete recommendations for improving 23 our operations and our culture.

24
25 Former U.S. Attorney Bob Troyer was the lead on the first investigation.
26 Following the investigation, his group had recommendations for improving our 27 operations. The Troyer report contained recommendations for strengthening the 28 Branch's fiscal rules, ensuring that the leadership receives adequate support and 29 training, and improving transparency in decision-making and communication.
30 Consistent with the recommendations, the Branch is revising its rules, better 31 defining leadership roles, improving training, and emphasizing more detailed 32 ethical expectations. To that end, in our budget request you will see a request 33 for additional resources for training. These training resources will be used to 34 help staff and judges.

35
36 Investigations Law Group, led by Liz Rita, conducted the second investigation.
37 A large part of that investigation scrutinized the Branch's workplace culture.
38 ILG found that the Judicial Department has a positive workplace culture and,
39 by and large, our employees are proud to work for us. ILG, however, also found
40 areas for improvement. Women make up about 77% of our non-judge work
41 force and about 44% of our judge population. But overall, women were less 42 positive about our culture. Most upsetting to me was learning that some of our 43 employees did not feel comfortable reporting unacceptable behavior or 44 workplace concerns for fear of retaliation or because they didn't believe it
45 would be taken seriously. That is not acceptable, and we will do better. One 46 step we are taking to address that concern is contained in our budget request.
47 We are asking for an Organizational Ombudsperson. Our Organizational 48 Ombudsperson would provide a safe place for our employees to get assistance, 49 support, and resources for workplace issues involving non-judge staff, while 50 maintaining an independent complaint and investigation process for the Office
51 of Judicial Discipline when a complaint concerns a judicial officer. That 52 Organizational Ombudsperson would act as a guide for our employees when 53 they have concerns.

55

1 A second step is to bring our HR Department up to modern standards. If you
2 read the ILG report, you will see references to an Office of People and Culture.
3 In my view, what that is recommending is the modernization of our HR
4 practices and increased support resources for our employees and judges. In a
5 nutshell, we want our new Office of People and Culture to be proactive, not 6 reactive. We want an office that can help recruit, onboard efficiently and 7 effectively, train our new employees, and provide continuous training for all 8 employees. And importantly, proactive work around diversity, equity, and 9 inclusion will be a significant priority of this office. We are moving forward 10 with this office not simply to implement a recommendation, but because we 11 believe that it is the right thing to do. How we treat our employees is of critical 12 importance to how we best serve the public.

14 At an even higher level, we are re-examining our mission, vision, and values as 15 an organization, both internally and to the public we serve. This will help us
16 move forward together and ensure that our work is tethered to what we value
17 as an organization. In sum, we want to empower our employees and truly make 18 the Branch an excellent place to work and one where employees will see our 19 work as a career and not just a job. This will allow us to best serve the public.

20
21 Implementation of these recommendations is not just an exercise in checking 22 boxes. What we have learned from the investigators, from other courts, and 23 from experts in organizational change management, is that true organizational 24 change cannot be mandated. When change comes in the form of a top-down 25 policy or mandate, it will fail. We need every judge and employee to understand 26 our strengths and our deficiencies, our goals, and to have a voice in how we 27 move forward. We want engagement from all employees around the state.

28
29 With that goal in mind, the seven justices decided that we needed to go to each 30 of our courthouses and talk with our 4,000 employees and 300 plus judges, and 31 we needed to do that in person. So, we did. From September through the end of 32 December we divided up the state amongst the seven of us and, many times
33 accompanied by a Court of Appeals judge, hit the road with the goal of meeting
34 and hearing from every judicial branch employee. And while we didn't count 35 heads for attendance, we were largely successful. Our goals were to listen to the 36 concerns and issues that are important to our employees and judges and 37 hopefully convey that we sincerely care about each and every one of them.

38
39 In these discussions, we heard certain themes: Compensation is a real issue for 40 our employees. Many of our employees are really struggling financially. We 41 have a large number of employees working two jobs to make ends meet. As one 42 probation officer put it, I supervise sex offenders by day and wait tables by 43 night. This is also true for many of our judicial assistants. The branch has 44 employees in every county of the state, and these compensation issues are 45 compounded by the extremely high cost of living in many of our communities.
46 Because we are required to have courthouses and court operations in every 47 county, we cannot just say it is too expensive to do business in certain parts of 48 the state. For instance, our courthouse in Pitkin County has been understaffed 49 by 40% for the last two years.

51 Suffice it to say that in many parts of the state we are simply not paying a 52 livable wage. We are losing good employees everyday to higher paying jobs.
53 Staff turnover and training were discussed extensively. We need to do a better 54 job of onboarding and training our staff. Failing to properly support our 55 employees right from the start and provide continuous training can lead to 56 frustration, performance issues, and more turnover. In the simplest of terms:

1 frequent turnover leads to training issues and inadequate training leads to 2 turnover. Frankly, we heard that it is difficult to have a shared mission and a 3 culture of excellence when staff are constantly turning over.

4
5 Interestingly, the investigations were not an important topic to most Branch
6 employees. While the supreme court has been significantly involved with the 7 investigations for the last two years, our employees have just been doing their 8 jobs while confronting COVID, inflation, remote hearings, turnover, increased 9 demands, understaffed human resources support, and trying to make ends meet.
10 We heard from many of our employees that what happened over 3 years ago
11 involving people who are no longer with the branch was not important to them, 12 and they have confidence that the right steps are being taken for our future.

14 On the positive side, in our listening sessions, we also found that employees all 15 around the state are deeply committed to doing the work of the Judicial Branch.
16 I could not be prouder of our employees. The branch survived some trying times
17 during COVID. The courts managed to stay open and avoided large outbreaks 18 of COVID, and we are continuing to emerge from the backlog of jury trials. Our 19 judicial officers, court executives, clerks of court, court staff, and probation 20 officers are front line heroes. They innovated, they collaborated, and they 21 should be commended.

22
23 I want to touch on two legislative matters that have been important to the 24 Judicial Branch and our operations. I earlier referenced that we will soon have 25 a 23rd judicial district. In 2020, a new law was enacted that split the current 26 18th Judicial District in two. Beginning in 2025, Arapahoe County will be the 27 18th Judicial District, and Douglas, Elbert, and Lincoln Counties will comprise 28 the new 23rd Judicial District. The law created some uncertainties in how 29 judges from the 18th would be assigned to the new 23rd. Thankfully, with the 30 help of Representative Weissman, Senator Gardner, Senator Fields, Senator
31 Van Winkle, and Representative Kennedy, the legislature passed a concurrent
32 resolution to clarify the mechanics of the judge assignments. The voters 33 overwhelmingly approved Amendment D this past November, and this will 34 ensure a smooth transition and no disruption in services for the courts in the 35 new 23rd Judicial District. Thank you all.

37 This past summer, the legislature convened an interim committee to look at 38 possible legislative and constitutional changes to the disciplinary process for 39 judges in Colorado. At the end of a thorough and lengthy process, the 40 Committee proposed one legislative bill and one concurrent resolution to amend
41 the constitution to change the judicial discipline process. The proposed changes 42 improve transparency of the process, ensure due process for judges, and bring 43 Colorado in line with modern judicial discipline systems. The legislation 44 reflects a true bipartisan effort and are good, common-sense changes. I want to 45 thank Representative Mike Weissman and former Representative Terri Carver 46 for chairing the interim committee and, through their leadership, ensuring that 47 the process was not politicized. I also want to thank the other Committee 48 members for their hard work and dedication during this process.

50 I will now move to something that is frequently misunderstood and overlooked 51 —the work of our probation departments. I served as the liaison justice to our 52 probation departments for many years, and I was always bothered by the false
53 assumptions about the work of probation. I want our probation staff to know 54 that they are not overlooked by me or by our court, and I want to clear up any 55 misimpressions that the public may have about the mission, work, and values
56 of our probation officers. Our probation officers are the unsung heroes of not

1 only the Judicial Branch, but of the entire criminal justice system. Probation
2 remains the most cost-effective method for supervising offenders. This fiscal 3 year an offender incarcerated in the Department of Corrections will cost the 4 state approximately $57,000, an offender in the Community Corrections
5 program approximately $14,000, and an offender on parole approximately 6 $7,700. An offender on probation, by contrast, will cost the state about $1,900
7 – a fraction of the cost of any of the alternatives. And when you consider that 8 at any given time throughout the year that the probation department is 9 supervising approximately 70,000 people, you can clearly understand the 10 monetary value of our probation officers. But what they do to help their clients 11 is much more important than the monetary cost of supervision. I want to 12 emphasize that probation is not punitive. Probation is intended to rehabilitate 13 an offender, reintegrate them into the community, and to provide tools to help
14 the offender successfully complete a probation sentence. From my 30-plus
15 years of working in the criminal justice system, I know that our probation 16 officers want their probation clients to succeed.

17
18 I have three stories to share that speak to the human side of probation. This fall
19 in the Westminster Office of the 17th Judicial District in Adams County,
20 probation officer Bill Benson was entering the men's restroom and found a man
21 on the floor unconscious and not breathing. Bill saw drug paraphernalia on the 22 floor. He asked the front office to call 911. He returned to the bathroom and 23 administered one dose of Narcan to the man. The man did not respond, and Bill 24 began chest compressions. Shawn Doyle next responded. The man remained 25 unconscious. Bill then administered a second dose of Narcan. Bill continued
26 compressions and Shawn (utilizing a shield from an emergency bag) began 27 rescue breaths. Shane Stockley arrived and immediately retrieved the 28 Automated External Defibrillator (AED). Shane and Dmitri Medoff applied the 29 AED. The AED located a pulse, instructed responders to continue CPR and 30 advised against emergency shock. Bill, Shawn, Shane, and Dmitri positioned 31 the man on his side as instructed by the AED. The man began taking periodic 32 breaths but was still unresponsive. Paramedics arrived and soon thereafter, and 33 the man regained consciousness. It was determined that he was a probationer 34 who had overdosed on fentanyl in the restroom. The client was transported by 35 ambulance and survived. This group adhered to the Narcan and First Aid/CPR 36 training protocol and their textbook response was exemplary. Simply stated, the 37 heroic actions of these individuals saved that man's life.

38
39 In Douglas County, the 18th Judicial District, Probation Officer Miranda
40 Shepherd went to the waiting room of the probation department and discovered 41 one of her clients seemingly asleep. She was not able to wake him by calling his 42 name. After touching his arm, she got him to wake up and gave him some 43 water. She then realized that the client was in distress. She notified her 44 supervisor, Kathy Krick, of the situation. They called for help, and the client
45 was transported to the hospital. On the way to the hospital, paramedics
46 administered two doses of Narcan to save his life. It is not difficult to think 47 what would have happened if Miranda and Kathy had waited even a few 48 minutes to act. By Miranda and Kathy's keen observation and quick actions, 49 they too saved that client's life. Everyone involved in these two situations are 50 heroes.

51
52 The final probation story is about a woman I will call Sara and her probation
53 officer, Cassie Korse. Sara grew up in a tumultuous family and began using 54 drugs with her mother at a young age. In 2018, she was sentenced for felony
55 drug possession. When she was placed on probation, she was using illegal drugs
56 and alcohol. She had a young son and was in an abusive relationship with her

1 husband. Initially, she tried outpatient treatment, but she continued to use illegal
2 drugs. She was then referred to a short-term intensive residential treatment
3 program. She was discharged, however, because she was suicidal. The situation
4 with her husband continued to escalate and Human Services became involved.
5 Her son was eventually placed in foster care. Her probation officer and human 6 services then worked together to get Sara back on track. Despite the team effort,
7 Sara's probation was revoked and regranted, meaning that she was given 8 another chance to succeed on probation instead of going to prison. This was the 9 third time she was granted probation. Her Probation Officer and caseworker
10 were then able to get her into Sobriety House where she was prescribed and 11 regularly took her mental health medication, received medically assisted 12 treatment called suboxone, and became involved in Narcotic Anonymous
13 meetings. Sara finally had a positive support system around her. Despite that,
14 she continued to have positive drug tests, and she was discharged from Sobriety
15 House. Nevertheless, Cassie, her probation officer, did not give up on her.
16 Cassie was able to get her into a sober living house called David's House,
17 which was paid for by probation. Sara continued her treatment, and something
18 clicked for her. She eventually became the house manager. She got her son 19 back. She stayed sober and her probation was successfully terminated. She is 20 now a Peer Support Specialist at a treatment provider. Recently, she wrote her 21 probation officer: "Hi Cassie! Not sure if you remember me but this is Sara. I 22 am working as a Peer Support Specialist and working with a problem-solving
23 court. I am still sober, 3 1/2 years!!! I have my son back and I am doing
24 fantastic. I really just wanted to say thank you. I really think that you went 25 above and beyond for me and it seriously changed my life. Between you and 26 Child Protective Services, you saved my life. I will be four years clean on May 27 20th. I could not be more thrilled with how my life has turned around. I now get 28 to help others in their addictions and really get to spread the word that recovery 29 is possible. "

30
31 I share this story with the hope that it dispels any idea that probation is anxious 32 to revoke probation and jail their clients. Sara repeatedly violated her probation, 33 but her probation officer did not give up on her. Hopefully this story 34 demonstrates how our probation officers are deeply committed to their clients' 35 success.

36
37 I asked Bill Benson, Shawn Doyle, Shane Stockley, Dmitri Medoff, Miranda
38 Shepherd, Kathy Krick, and Cassie Korse to join us here today so that I could 39 publicly thank them for their heroism. I ask you to join me in thanking them all 40 for their service to their public, their dedication, and their commitment.

41
42 These stories are examples of the extraordinary work of our probation officers.
43 And I can assure you that if we had the time, I could recount story after story of 44 our probation officers in each and every judicial district in the state going above 45 and beyond. I am extremely proud to have the probation department as part of 46 the Judicial Branch, and we should all be thankful for the work that they do.

47
48 We have been working extremely hard as a branch to diversify our bench. Our 49 efforts have caused other judicial departments around the nation to look to us
50 for guidance. As a result, Justice Márquez was invited to speak to congress. As 51 Justice Márquez testified at a Congressional hearing in 2021, "Property, 52 livelihoods, reputations, family relationships, or even life and liberty can be on 53 the line [for the litigants]. A litigant who has confidence that the judge deciding 54 her case has some sense of her life experience eases some of that stress and 55 enhances her trust that the decision rendered will be fair—even if the judge 56 ultimately rules against her."

1 As we head into the third year of our judicial diversity outreach program, we are 2 seeing its positive impact. As I mentioned at the beginning, we gathered in 3 person for Judicial Conference last fall. It was the first time since 2019. The 4 room looked and felt different; we saw more women and more diverse
5 colleagues among us. As I look out today and see a legislature that has more
6 women than men and is so diverse, I imagine you all know that feeling that I am
7 describing. Diverse law students entering the legal profession have shared with 8 us how inspiring it is to see judges who look like them. Today, 17% of judges
9 on the Colorado state court bench are judges of color, whereas we only had 10%
10 judges of color four years ago. More strikingly, in 2018, we had just one Black
11 District Court judge serving our state. Today, we have 15 Black judges—19
12 including Denver County Court—taking the bench each day.

13
14 This progress has been possible through the collective efforts of many. Thanks
15 to the efforts of our broader legal community, the diligence of our citizen
16 judicial nominating commissions, and the thoughtful appointments by Governor 17 Polis (who has now appointed more than 40% of all state court judges in 18 Colorado), our bench today better reflects the many diverse communities across 19 the state that we serve. Initiatives such as the Dream Team 2.0 Coaching
20 Program and the Colorado Hispanic Bar Association’s Judicial Task Force help 21 develop viable candidates for judicial vacancies and provide invaluable
22 resources to diverse and first-time judicial applicants. Our pipeline efforts 23 extend to college and law students, who will be tomorrow’s lawyers and judges.
24 Many of our judges serve as mentors in the Law School Yes We Can program
25 (led by Executive Director Dr. Kimberle Jackson-Butler), which helps diverse 26 college students prepare for law school through networking opportunities,
27 leadership training, and LSAT preparation. We provide experiential learning
28 opportunities for diverse law students through our Judge Lorenzo Márquez 29 internship program and offer networking opportunities with our judges through 30 our popular “virtual coffeehouse” called Java with Judges. We are also 31 encouraging diverse law students to consider legal opportunities in parts of 32 greater Colorado through a new summer externship program. We are able to 33 invest in these important programs because you (the legislature) recognized the 34 need and empowered us to do more. Thank you again for creating a judicial 35 diversity program that is the first of its kind in the nation. It is making a 36 difference. And so do you. I want to recognize that this legislature is the second 37 in the nation to have a majority of women in the legislature.

38
39 This work is so important, and our work continues. Now we must accelerate the 40 work of fostering inclusion and well-being in the workplace to ensure that all 41 of our employees – judges and staff – have the training and support they need
42 to flourish. To solidify the foundational work we have done, we are now asking 43 the legislature to help us create a lasting legacy with true transformational 44 change.

45
46 I started out talking about our judges’ why. To me that is the most fundamental 47 question of who we are as judges. I want to share with you all the justices’
48 whys. I think it is important for you all to know who we are and why we are 49 going to see the changes that we have started through to completion. I will start 50 with our most senior justice and our next chief justice.

51
52 Justice Monica Márquez’s family roots lie in the San Luis Valley. She grew up 53 on the western slope and graduated from Grand Junction High School. All her 54 life, she has felt called to serve. After college, she joined the Jesuit Volunteer
55 Corps, where she worked as teacher and community organizer in Camden, NJ
56 and West Philadelphia. Her multi-year immersion experience as a Jesuit

1 Volunteer exposed her to the complexities of urban poverty and inspired her to 2 go to law school. Early in her legal career, that same call to service drew her
3 to the Colorado Attorney General’s Office, where she worked under Ken 4 Salazar and John Suthers, both of whom cultivated in her a deep respect for the 5 workings of state government and the Colorado state court system. Over time, 6 she discovered that what she loved most about her work was figuring out the 7 “right” answer to a legal issue – the answer that reflected commitment to the 8 rule of law, not a particular outcome in a given case. Her call to serve has 9 continued in her role as a justice. She loves the work of solving complex legal 10 issues, she is devoted to state government, and each day for her is both a gift
11 and an opportunity to serve all of the people of Colorado and its many diverse 12 communities.

14 After spending many years pounding his fist on both sides of the aisle as a trial
15 lawyer in civil and criminal cases, Justice Hood was drawn to the idea of 16 becoming the neutral in the courtroom. He describes himself as a devoted “law 17 nerd,” who has always enjoyed legal research and writing more than just 18 arguing facts. Becoming a trial judge in Denver gave him an opportunity to be 19 a neutral law nerd focused on getting to what seemed to be the correct answers
20 to legal problems, rather than simply arguing one side or the other. He likes the 21 view of the capitol from our courthouse across the street because it reminds him 22 of how those of us in state government work together to give life to the rule of 23 law, which he sees as the glue that binds our society together. He values and 24 respects the role you play as our elected representatives in creating laws that the 25 governor’s executive agencies then work hard to implement and enforce. He 26 enjoys being part of a non-partisan judiciary that strives to resolve disputes by 27 honoring legislative intent and constitutional requirements.

28
29 Justice Gabriel is of the first generation in his family to go to college, and 30 growing up, money was always a struggle for his family. He did not think that 31 he would be able to afford to attend any top-flight schools, but he was blessed 32 with great teachers who encouraged him. They told him that good schools 33 would offer support to students who needed it, and they pushed him to dream
34 big. Fortunately, he listened, and he attended very good schools, with the help 35 of massive financial aid.

37 After graduating from law school and clerking for a federal judge, he began his 38 career working for large, prestigious law firms, first in New York and then in 39 Denver. He never forgot, however, where he came from, and because he 40 received so much from his practice of law, he always felt a strong moral 41 obligation to give back. So, throughout his time in practice, he served on many 42 nonprofit boards and as a municipal prosecutor, and he provided hundreds of 43 hours of pro bono service, representing abused and neglected children for 44 almost 20 years, an Oklahoma death row inmate for 9 years, prison inmates
45 referred to him by the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals, and civil rights litigants
46 referred to him by the ACLU, among others. It was this sense of obligation to 47 give back that ultimately led him to the bench, his thought being that there can 48 be no higher calling for a trial lawyer, and no greater way to give back, than to 49 be a judge. And so, he applied and was fortunate enough to be appointed first 50 to the Colorado Court of Appeals and then to his current court. It has been, and 51 continues to be, the honor and privilege of his life to get to serve the people of 52 Colorado as a judicial officer.

53
54 Justice Hart has been passionate about civil access to justice – making the legal 55 system accessible, understandable, and fair for civil litigants regardless of their 56 economic status – for as long as she has been a lawyer. She realized (in part

1 through teaching legal ethics for two decades) that state supreme courts have a 2 central role in protecting and promoting access to justice through regulation of 3 the legal system and the practice of law. She decided that she wanted to be a 4 member of the Colorado Supreme Court, if given the opportunity, so that she 5 could advocate for a focus on the needs of poor people in the civil justice 6 system and the importance of making the system work for those who have to 7 navigate the law without lawyers.

8
9 She loves the parts of the job that involve studying hard legal questions and 10 providing clear answers through written opinions – the black robe parts of the 11 job. But what inspired her to seek out this role was the behind-the-scenes 12 administration of the courts with the aim of best serving the public.

14 Justice Samour was born and raised in El Salvador. He and his family fled El 15 Salvador when he was 13 years old during a time of political upheaval. Years 16 earlier, Justice Samour’s father had been ousted from his judicial position and 17 their family home had been riddled with bullets because he stood by his 18 conviction to faithfully apply the law in a murder case, despite pressure from 19 a high-ranking military official to do otherwise. When the family received an 20 anonymous death threat, they immediately packed what they could fit in their 21 van and left for the capital to apply for visas to come to the U.S. A week later, 22 with all the necessary paperwork in hand, they made the five-day journey to 23 Colorado. When they arrived here, they slept on a relative’s basement floor
24 until they could find housing. They could not speak English, were in culture 25 shock, and did not have access to most of their possessions or savings. Because 26 the situation in El Salvador deteriorated, they decided to apply for, and later 27 obtained, their permanent residency and eventually their citizenship.

28
29 This ordeal taught Justice Samour firsthand about the perils that ensue when the 30 judiciary is improperly used as a vehicle for personal or political gain and left 31 him with a profound respect for the rule of law and the sacred role that a fair,
32 impartial, and independent judiciary plays in a democratic society. His family’s 33 unplanned departure from El Salvador, along with his father’s heroism, inspired 34 Justice Samour to become a judicial officer and to fight for a system of equal 35 and impartial justice.

36
37 Justice Berkenkotter knew she wanted to be a judge from the time she was in 38 third grade, which is a little unusual because her family didn’t know any 39 lawyers or judges. They also didn’t have a TV, so it is hard to know where she 40 got the idea or what she even thought it meant to be a judge.

41
42 As time passed and she grew to understand that trial court judges help people
43 resolve their disputes—she was hooked. After being appointed to the Boulder
44 District Court in 2006, she was delighted and more than a little relieved to learn
45 that her third-grade self had set her on a path to the best and hardest job she’d 46 ever had.

47
48 During her time as a trial court judge and chief judge in Boulder, Justice
49 Berkenkotter had the opportunity to work with her colleagues and stakeholders
50 in the 20th JD to modernize and streamline many of the court’s practices. There 51 are many reasons why Maria wanted to join our court: to preserve the rule of 52 law, to serve the entire state in the midst of the turmoil caused by the pandemic, 53 and to work with our court and staff and judges from across the state to 54 modernize the branch. She knew from her time as a chief judge that effecting 55 certain statewide changes could help not only the people who work in our 56 courts, but also the many people we serve. For the past six months, that has

1 meant working with her colleagues to examine the needs of the districts in order
2 to intentionally shape our priorities and directing the implementation of the 3 various recommendations in the ILG and Troyer reports.

4
5 As for myself, I have shared this before, but it is my why. I have always known
6 that I wanted to be a lawyer. My dad was a lawyer, and I wanted to follow in his 7 footsteps. Being a judge was never the plan. That changed when I was a young 8 lawyer. I was trying a serious case, and I had a judge treat me very 9 intemperately. I remember thinking that even if the judge was right on the law,
10 there was a better way to handle that situation. That was the first day I thought
11 of becoming a judge. A few years later, I had another experience that cemented
12 that desire. I prosecuted a murder case that dragged on for about two years due
13 to the defendant's significant mental health issues. Ultimately, the jury
14 convicted the defendant of first-degree murder. As a result, the only sentencing
15 option available to the judge was life in prison. I should note that this took place 16 before the Victim's Rights Act was enacted. When I asked the judge if the 17 victim's family could speak prior to sentencing, the judge – who happened to 18 be an excellent judge – unfortunately denied the request, announcing that the 19 court did not have any discretion regarding the sentencing. I will never forget 20 the faces of the victim's family. They had waited two years to talk about the 21 victim, and they never got the chance. That day, I decided that I wanted to 22 become a judge, and I promised myself that if that ever happened, I would do
23 everything in my power to let people know that I cared and that I truly listened.
24 A few years later, I was appointed to the district court in Jefferson County. That 25 was twenty-three years ago. And treating everyone with dignity and respect to 26 the very best of my ability has been the cornerstone of my judicial philosophy, 27 and becoming Chief Justice didn't change that.

28
29 I thought it was important for you all to hear about the seven of us. I am proud 30 to serve with each of them. While we frequently disagree on the difficult legal 31 issues that come before us, we are of one mind in our dedication to the branch.
32 We are the leaders of the branch, and we are all committing to our emerging 33 future. And we are lucky to have a partner in our State Court Administrator –
34 Steven Vasconcellos. Steven is the right person at the right time. He is a 35 transformational leader, and he is committed to our vision. It is a shared vision.

36
37 I am not here today to declare mission accomplished, but I am here to say that 38 we have a vision and a plan. Let me remind you of our strategic priorities:

39
40 We are improving our operations to better serve Colorado;
41 We are empowering our employees;
42 And we are listening to all stakeholders.

44 There remains work to be done. But we have a path forward to which we are 45 committed. Two years ago, I committed to the idea that we would “think anew 46 and act anew.” We have lived up to that commitment. With your help we will 47 continue our work.

49 The last two years have not been easy. But it has also been a time where 50 leadership has been presented with an opportunity. Honestly, the difficulties
51 have allowed us to really examine how we work and who we are. We are in a 52 much better place than we were two years ago at this time, and because of the 53 lessons learned our future is bright.

54
55 Thank you for the opportunity to talk with you today.

56

16 ADDRESS BY THE HONORABLE
17 Jared Polis
18

19 To Speaker McCluskie, President Fenberg, Majority Leader Duran, Majority
20 Leader Moreno. All the members of the General Assembly, which for the first 21 time in our history is a majority women. Lieutenant Governor Primavera, 22 Treasurer Young, Attorney General Weiser, Secretary of State Griswold, our 23 dedicated First Gentleman Reis, members of the State Board of Education, 24 Justices of the Colorado Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, and members
25 of the Colorado Delegation to the 118th Congress of the United States, 26 welcome.

27
28 Today our administration is standing on the threshold between four years past
29 and four years to come. We are middle-aged! But God willing our mid-life
30 crisis is in the past! I have a bit less hair than four years ago, but more wisdom 31 and experience.

32
33 We've gone through a lot these last four years, Colorado. COVID-19.
34 Shootings. Devastating wildfires. Record inflation. Spiraling hate speech. But 35 Coloradans should know that no matter what comes our way, I'll continue to 36 fight everyday to protect our state.

37
38 Colorado is unique, we always have been. We are a state that just this year 39 voted to cut the income tax again while legalizing mushrooms. Our state might 40 be shaped like a square but the political pundits can't put us in a box, so they 41 label us whatever one color they see - red, blue, purple. I see a harmonious
42 rainbow of colorful opinions that make up our state of pragmatic westerners. So 43 as we start this new session let's not forget who we are, let's not get lost in zero-44 sum politics, and let's focus on working together for good results.

45
46 We've seen the consequences of divisiveness and what happens when we retreat 47 into silos and stop having productive conversations, and that's just not who we 48 are. With extreme partisanship grinding progress to a halt in Washington, it is 49 more important than ever to lead the Colorado way. That means showing up and 50 coming together when duty calls. We dig in, setting aside our differences, and 51 we get to work on the thorny issues. We move forward together, making 52 important decisions and compromises in pursuit of real results that improve our 53 lives.

54
55

1 None of us in this chamber are here because it's easy. We're here because we 2 believe in this work. We believe in a better tomorrow for our children. A
3 Colorado for all.

4
5 As I stand before you today, I'm recommitting myself and my administration
6 to bold ideas that move Colorado forward. To take on our greatest challenges
7 with determination, optimism, and the voices of all Coloradans. Together we 8 will build on our successes from these last four years, but we aren't for one 9 second resting on them.

10
11 Like the Nugget's Nikola Jokic, who won back to back MVP awards, but 12 continues fighting for that championship alongside his teammates. Or Gandalf
13 the Grey from the Lord of the Rings, who fought the Balrog through Moria's 14 underworld, helping Frodo escape, and then returned as Gandalf the White to 15 help defeat Sauron's army and give Frodo the chance to destroy the ring. And 16 like Trey Parker and Matt Stone, who created the hit show South Park and then 17 one of the most successful Broadway musicals of all time. Now they're tackling 18 their greatest challenge of all - Casa Bonita - which we're thrilled will be 19 opening this May. I got a sneak peak last week. Y'all are gonna love it.

20
21 What do these folks have in common? Jokic, Gandalf, Trey and Matt, and 22 Colorado believe the next chapter is the best one - and I do too. Our best days 23 are yet to come.

24
25 Three years from now, in 2026, we will celebrate our Centennial State's 150th
26 birthday and the United States of America will celebrate 250. The words we 27 need to learn are sesqui-centennial for Colorado and semi-quin-centennial for 28 America.

29
30 Thank you to Senator Zenzinger and Representative Catlin who shepherded the 31 legislation to create the America 250 - Colorado 150 Commission, ensuring we 32 make the celebration one for the ages. But really it is all of us who will decide 33 what we are celebrating, because we are the living heritage of this State and 34 together we are the architects of its future.

35
36 As we prepare to mark this historic milestone, we must ask ourselves: How can 37 we learn to pronounce sesqui-centennial and semi-quin-centennial correctly?
38 Just kidding. We should ask ourselves: Who do we as Coloradans want to be 39 in our 150th year? How can our work now and over the next few years make 40 that Colorado possible? And finally, how can Colorado's example shine a 41 bright light for the nation?

42
43 In Colorado, we've already taken action to protect a woman's right to choose.
44 We've built a world-class voting system to ensure that every Coloradan can 45 make their voice heard. Joining us today is Secretary of State Jena Griswold, a 46 champion for voting rights and access. We also fight for every person's right to 47 be who they are and love who they love. We believe in freedom of the press and 48 freedom of speech. And we defend everyone's right to live with dignity.

49
50 In Colorado, we lead by example, enshrining these values in all that we say and 51 do. By the time America is 250, we hope for a country that also respects
52 freedom and the personal health decisions of women, transgender Americans, 53 and all Americans. We want secure, accessible elections for every voter. And,
54 of course, we must secure our borders and fix our inhumane, broken 55 immigration system.

56

1 People have always come to America in search of freedom, safety and economic 2 opportunity, often escaping brutal oppression from authoritarian, communist
3 dictators like Maduro in Venezuela. But we as a country haven't always lived
4 up to those values. We are doing our part in Colorado to support migrants, and 5 a special thanks to the City of Denver, Larimer County and so many nonprofits
6 including Organizacion Papagayo, Vive Wellness and The American Friends
7 Service Committee, for being great partners in ensuring every migrant coming
8 to our state is treated in the most humane way possible. They are here with us 9 today, please join me in thanking them. But we need our federal government to 10 act. The time is now.

11

12 We are joined today by Representatives Neguse and Crow, as well as our two 13 newest Representatives Pettersen and Caraveo. Thank you all for taking these 14 Colorado values to Washington D.C.

15

16 Colorado can help shape our country's quest to become a more perfect union 17 by setting the pace of progress, fighting for liberty, and delivering on our 18 promises. So, when Colorado is 150 years old, who do we want to be?

20 I'm sure many of us have been asked that dreaded question, "where do you see 21 yourself in five years?" I often ask it when I'm interviewing people for jobs. It 22 can be a tough question, but when it comes to the future of our state, it's also 23 a powerful question. Let's start with housing.

24

25 Many Coloradans are struggling to find a place where they can afford to live.
26 Many more are being forced out of their neighborhoods with no hope of ever
27 living close to where they work. This means more traffic, lost time and money 28 spent on long commutes, more air pollution, and greater economic and 29 workforce challenges. This is not just a local problem. Since issues like 30 transportation, water, energy, and more inherently cross jurisdictional 31 boundaries, it becomes a statewide problem that impacts all of us.

32

33 We need an approach that creates more housing now, protects Colorado's 34 resources and reduces sprawl. It's clear that the actions of one jurisdiction 35 impact others, especially when it comes to housing, our environment, 36 transportation systems, roads and transit, water and sewer infrastructure, and 37 indeed our economic prosperity and growth.

38

39 Frankly, Coloradans see it that way too and it's why we're all here today. The 40 people of Colorado expect us to deliver to make housing more affordable. And 41 if we don't act now, we will soon face the point of no return. Just look West.
42 In California, decades of poor planning has led to interruptions of drinking 43 water and electricity for entire towns and cities, average home prices over a 44 million dollars in major cities, and 16-lane freeways with bumper to bumper 45 traffic. We are not California, we are Colorado. And I refuse to let us make 46 those same mistakes.

48 When Colorado is 150 years old, we need our state to have more housing for 49 every Colorado budget, close to where jobs are. You know the last time 50 Colorado made major land use changes was in 1974 — before I, and most of 51 you, were born! We were a different state then. Over the last half century, 52 housing prices have increased roughly four times the rate of income. That 53 means a house today costs over four times as much compared to today's income

1 levels than 60 years ago, putting the dream of homeownership out of range for 2 too many Coloradans. This has got to stop. We need to bring our land use policy
3 into the 21st century and prepare ourselves for success these next 150 years. We 4 need more housing now. It's simple supply and demand.

5
6 These aren't new ideas. In fact the Good Book offers similar urban planning
7 advice in Isaiah 54:2-3. "Make your tent bigger, stretch them out and make 8 them wider, do not hold back. Make the ropes longer and stakes stronger, 9 because you will spread out to the right and to the left, and your children will 10 live again in cities that were once abandoned." Let us heed the words of Isaiah 11 in our times. It's time to legalize more housing choices for every Coloradan and 12 give homeowners more freedom, revitalize our cities and towns, while 13 protecting the character of our state.

14
15 Colorado can be a place where people live where they want to live – close to 16 their jobs, their kids' schools and efficient, low-cost transit. We can save
17 Coloradans money on housing and we can do it while meeting our climate 18 goals!

20 Building smart, efficient housing statewide, especially in urban communities
21 and job centers, won't just reduce costs, it will save energy, conserve our water, 22 and protect the lands and wildlife that are so important to our Colorado way of 23 life. It will also support our vision for public transit, which is to create lower-
24 cost ways to travel that gives Coloradans more choices and leads to more 25 breathable air and less traffic.

26
27 Together we have laid the foundation for a statewide road and transit system
28 that meets the needs of Coloradans. First, with investments from the historic 29 Senate Bill 260, and then with the creation of the Front Range Rail District, 30 which is scheduled to deliver a draft service plan by 2024. Thank you to 31 President Fenberg, Senator Winter and Senator Zenzinger, for your leadership
32 on those bills. Over the next few years we will continue working toward that 33 vision, and I am asking CDOT to work with local transit partners to identify and 34 take the next steps towards better lower cost transit options.

35
36 More housing now is for people, for planet, and for prosperity. It's for people
37 who need a roof over their head and who want to recognize the dream of home 38 ownership and wealth building. It's for the planet to reduce our emissions and 39 conserve water. And it's for our prosperity as a state to ensure that businesses 40 can hire people to power our economy.

41
42 Let me be clear - Housing policy is climate policy. Housing policy is economic 43 policy.

44 Housing policy is transportation policy. Housing Policy is water policy.
45 Housing policy is public health and equity policy. It impacts every part of our 46 lives, which is why it's so critical that we get this right. We need everyone to 47 come to the table and work toward a real solution.

48
49 Now I know this won't be easy. Nothing worth fighting for ever is. But in 50 Colorado, we don't shy away from tough challenges; we roll up our sleeves and 51 get to work.

52
53 Since 2019 we have invested billions of dollars into housing. We created the 54 first ever dedicated funding source for affordable housing and put American 55 Rescue Plan Act dollars toward projects around the state. Now, voters have 56 passed Prop 123 to dedicate hundreds of millions of dollars in the coming years.

1 But we can't just buy our way out of this, we have to break down government
2 barriers, expand private property rights, and reduce regulations to actually 3 construct more housing options at a lower cost so all Coloradans can thrive.
4

5 We took a first step to break down those barriers and support local innovation
6 with House Bill 1271. I want to thank Speaker McCluskie, Representative
7 Jodeh, and Senator Gonzales for their efforts on this bill. One of the grants from 8 that bill went to support the City of Greeley, which utilized funding to 9 encourage different types of housing, including homes with a smaller footprint, 10 options for accessory dwelling units, manufactured homes, micro homes and 11 more. They are also creating more home ownership opportunities in partnership
12 with Habitat for Humanity. Today we're joined by City Manager Raymond Lee 13 and his team, thank you for your work.
14

15 We're seeing this kind of local innovation and leadership in other parts of the 16 state, as well. Summit County and the Town of Breckenridge are building a new 17 52 unit workforce apartment complex near Downtown Breckenridge to make 18 it easier for workers to find a place to live in their own community.
19

20 Projects like this typically take 18-24 months just to get approved, but thanks
21 to Summit County donating the land and the leadership of local officials, this 22 one got the greenlight after just six months, leading to 52 new homes years
23 ahead of schedule and millions of dollars in savings.
24

25 From Breckenridge we are joined by Mayor Eric Mamula, members of the 26 Town Council, and Senior Planner Laurie Best. From Summit County we are 27 joined by Commissioners Tamara Pogue, Elizabeth Lawrence, and Joshua 28 Blanchard, and Housing Director Jason Dietz. Please join me in welcoming 29 them all today. But the innovation and savings don't end there.
30

31 Because Summit County is partnering with modular home company Fading
32 West out of Buena Vista, they are saving roughly 20% on construction costs and 33 months of construction time. If you can believe it, Fading West can build a 34 home in roughly 18 working days, compared to about a year for traditionally 35 built homes. I had the chance to visit their factory in November, and it's so 36 exciting to see this innovation at work.
37

38 Today we're joined by Fading West CEO Charlie Chupp and Vice President of 39 Sales and Strategic Partnerships Eric Schaefer. They and other modular and 40 prefabricated home companies are committed to building more housing 41 opportunities quicker and at a lower cost. Please join me in thanking them for 42 their cost-saving innovations.
43

44 But listen, the reality is that projects like these are the exception, not the rule.
45 The more common scenario is that housing projects are rejected or mired in 46 years of red tape – adding costs and time. I'm here asking you to help me 47 protect the Colorado we love, so Coloradans can stay in their communities and 48 live near where they work, protect our open space, and reduce traffic. Let's 49 make sure Colorado stays Colorado.
50

51 This means that we need more flexible zoning to allow more housing, 52 streamlined regulations that cut through red tape, expedited approval processes
53 for projects like modular housing, sustainable development, and more building 54 in transit oriented communities.
55
56

1 Of course, we also recognize that the state must be a contributing partner in this 2 work, so we are aggressively making parcels of state-owned land available for 3 housing. One example is the Dowd Junction project in Vail Valley, where we 4 are planning to build 80 units of workforce housing on state land. My budget
5 includes funding for other governments and public land owners like counties, 6 school districts, cities, and transportation districts to proactively partner with 7 the private sector to build more housing, and I call on all of them to join our 8 efforts.

9
10 We also want to continue our work to reduce property taxes for Coloradans.
11 Last year we saved Coloradans more than $700 million through historic 12 property tax relief for homeowners and businesses, while protecting funding for 13 schools thanks to the work of Senator Hansen and Representative Weissman.
14 But residential values grew more than 26% over the last two years, much more 15 than most people's incomes went up during the same period. If we don't act, 16 property taxes will go up by hundreds, even thousands, of dollars. We need to 17 prevent these steep increases by taking decisive action.

19 We must also work together to pass a long-term property tax relief package that 20 reduces residential and commercial property taxes and creates a long-term 21 mechanism to protect homeowners from being priced out of their homes, while 22 protecting school funding. This will make Colorado more competitive and more 23 affordable.

24
25 I'm proud that this year, Colorado is the first state in the country where every 26 homeowner can defer paying some of these increases in their property taxes
27 until their property is sold. No one should lose their home simply because its 28 value, and therefore property taxes, went up. I want to thank our state treasurer,
29 Dave Young, for his tireless work to help property owners and I look forward
30 to finding opportunities to expand deferrals to save people money on property 31 taxes.

32
33 We should also make the senior homestead tax exemption portable. Our seniors 34 should be able to downsize without having to pay higher property taxes, freeing
35 up their larger old homes for younger, growing families. A more just tax system
36 that promotes prosperity for all is a passion I share with many of you in this 37 chamber. While we don't always agree on the path, I know all of us want to 38 save Coloradans money!

39
40 It's no secret that I, and most economists, despise the income tax. I was proud 41 to have supported two successful income tax cuts at the ballot and since I took 42 office our income tax rate has gone from 4.63% to 4.44%, helping produce 43 strong economic growth and low unemployment. We have worked together to 44 close special interest tax loopholes to pay for the income tax cut and provided
45 even greater tax relief to Colorado families, seniors and small businesses. Last 46 year we also worked together to send every tax filer $750 nearly a year ahead 47 of schedule, providing real inflation relief just when people needed it most!
48 Together, we can and should do more.

49
50 I don't expect that we can fully eliminate the income tax by our 150th
51 anniversary, but let's continue to make progress. With healthy budget surpluses 52 from our strong economy, we should further reduce the income tax rate for 53 everybody while doubling down on relief for working families with policies like 54 expanding the earned income tax credit. We have the tools to save people 55 money. It's what the voters sent us here to do.

56

1 Making our state more affordable and creating more housing now is truly one
2 of the most effective ways to reduce homelessness. We continue seeking 3 proposals from local governments to utilize the $200 Million that this 4 legislature invested last year to reduce homelessness. Thank you to 5 Representatives Woodrow and Valdez, and Senators Gonzales, Hansen, Fields, 6 and Coleman for your work securing that transformational funding. There are 7 many approaches that have worked in other states, and we hope to see those 8 proven models replicated here.

9
10 This is going to be a lot of work, and it's going to take all of us in this chamber
11 to get it done. We are here to solve the big problems, and the cost of housing 12 tops that list. This is what Coloradans are calling for, and it's up to us to take 13 action to protect our shared future. Just as the future of our state is tied to 14 housing, it's also tied to water.

15
16 Water is life in Colorado and the west, it's as simple as that. But we're at a 17 crossroads. Increased demand, chronic and extreme drought, conflicts with 18 other states, and devastating climate events are threatening this critical 19 lifesource – and we've all seen the impacts. Wildfires have destroyed hundreds 20 of thousands of acres, and devastated entire communities. Farmers and ranchers 21 across the state fear that Colorado won't have the water resources to sustain the 22 next generation of agricultural jobs.

23
24 When Colorado is 150, I want our state to have the water resources necessary 25 for our farms, communities, and industries to thrive, and the tools in place to 26 protect our state's waterways and defend our rights. Your work around housing 27 will truly go a long way to protect water - our most precious resource. But we 28 must also continue investing in water projects around the state. We don't want 29 to see a single dollar left on the table.

30
31 For every dollar the state invested in Water Plan grants last year, we got four 32 dollars back. In the last fiscal year, we awarded more than $23 million in grants
33 that supported nearly $100 million in projects, and we're hoping to once again
34 position Colorado to punch above our weight and pull down major investments 35 from the federal government. This includes funding for water infrastructure and 36 water quality projects like the Arkansas Valley Conduit. This project has been 37 years in the making, and the combination of state and federal funding will help 38 get it off the ground, delivering clean drinking water to dozens of communities 39 throughout Southern Colorado. These dollars also translate to restoration of 40 critical streams and waterways, greater access to water for our producers and 41 ranchers, and water security for our communities.

42
43 But the most important thing we can do for water security is protect our 44 waterways and rights. Hotter, drier conditions have strained our resources in a 45 time when demand continues to grow. Our rivers and streams aren't just life 46 sources for Colorado, but for the entire American West. We must continue to 47 fight for our rights and lead the way to a sustainable future. The road ahead will 48 be paved with challenges, but we aren't leaving anything to chance. We are 49 gearing up, and bringing in the expertise we need to defend what is ours. This 50 is about water, but it's also about our future, our livelihoods, and the very 51 foundation of who we are as Coloradans. The same goes for our approach to 52 climate.

54

1 We have already secured more than 80% renewable energy by 2030. By the
2 time Colorado is 150 years old, we look forward to having a clear path to 100%
3 renewable energy by 2040. And from there, we will work to make progress
4 towards our statewide climate goals.

5
6 Our work around housing and more sustainable development is a critically
7 important part of this progress. But we also remain focused on investing in 8 clean transportation, accelerating the use of renewables, reducing oil and gas
9 emissions, and holding polluters accountable. And I'm proud to propose $120
10 million annually in new, clean energy tax credits. With this tax relief and 11 incentives, we can improve our air quality, accelerate innovation, and make 12 more rapid progress towards our goals, while saving people money at the pump 13 and on their utility bills, and increasing access to clean, low-cost transportation 14 options.

15
16 We've made a lot of progress on electric vehicles, with 10% of vehicles sold
17 now electric - making us 5th in the nation, and these tax credits will help us 18 continue pushing toward more zero emission cars and trucks sooner rather than 19 later. This builds on the work of the legislature to expand the Earned Income 20 Tax Credit and Colorado's Child Tax Credit, putting more money back into the 21 pockets of Coloradans. Thank you to Representatives Emily Sirota and Mike 22 Weissman, Senator Chris Hansen and Majority Leader Dominick Moreno for 23 bringing those bills across the finish line. We are also focused on continued 24 development of clean energy technologies of the future like geothermal and 25 hydrogen.

26
27 As Chair of the bipartisan Western Governors Association I am championing
28 geothermal energy through our "Heat Beneath our Feet" initiative. And I'm 29 excited that my budget request provides funding for Colorado Mesa University 30 to expand campus-wide geothermal systems, with a goal to become the first 31 university in America to be fully powered by geothermal. And under the 32 leadership of the unbreakable Will Toor at the Energy Office, our 33 administration is also leading a multi-state consortium with Utah, Wyoming, 34 and New Mexico to gain additional federal investment as a hydrogen hub.

35
36 These efforts will help us capitalize on these untapped resources, close the 20% 37 gap to achieve 100% renewable energy by 2040, reduce emissions, clean our 38 air, and do our part on climate. They would also help us prevent the kind of 39 spikes in utility bills that Coloradans are experiencing due to high costs of 40 natural gas.

41
42 The Texas storm in 2021 showed us just how vulnerable we are to commodity
43 price swings, and the Suncor shutdown has done the same. I'm committed to 44 doing everything in my power to alleviate the impacts of the temporary Suncor
45 disaster on Coloradans and their families who are already struggling with 46 inflation and high costs. I've already lifted regulatory burdens around trucking 47 hours, truck weight limits, and directed agencies to ease-up on pipeline 48 transporting requirements during the Suncor shutdown. My administration has 49 also been working to secure outside supply to minimize disruption. But the only 50 long-term solution is to continue pursuing low-cost, reliable, renewable energy.
51 We simply must end our reliance on costly fossil fuels, improve energy security, 52 and save people money.

53
54 This is why the Electric vehicle and ebike tax credits I'm proposing are so 55 important, and why we've focussed on increasing access to electric vehicles and 56 transit options since day one. This tax relief amplifies the work of the Front

1 Range Rail District, free bus fare months, and the need for greater transit
2 options. I look forward to working with the General Assembly to make 3 Colorado a place where geothermal, hydrogen, and carbon capture technologies
4 can and will succeed.

5
6 While we do our part to improve air quality and reduce pollution, we are also 7 preparing our state for the hotter, drier climate that we are experiencing. Since 8 2019, Colorado has supported response efforts for more than 2,000 wildfires,
9 including the three largest in history and the most devastating. It was only a few 10 weeks ago that we marked the one-year anniversary of the Marshall Fire in 11 Boulder County, a reminder that the threat of wildfire is no longer seasonal. It's 12 year round, and we need to be ready.

13
14 Colorado has invested in some of the most effective fire prevention and 15 response measures out there - from our state's first Firehawk helicopter to forest
16 restoration and other proven mitigation efforts. I want to thank President 17 Fenberg and the Joint Budget Committee for leading the way on these 18 resources. But we know there is more work ahead.

19
20 We must continue strengthening our aerial capabilities, supporting our 21 professional and volunteer firefighters, and preparing for a hotter, drier climate.
22 We must also expand our fire prevention efforts, including building fire defense
23 in communities that are at risk, and elevating the work of the Colorado Strategic 24 Wildfire Action Program. Getting this right is critical for the health of our 25 communities and the future of our state. But it's not about just the health of our 26 environment, it's also the health of our people. Unfortunately, after housing 27 expenses, healthcare costs are some of the highest that families face. Too many 28 Coloradans are forced to choose between the care they desperately need, paying 29 their rent or mortgage, or putting food on the table.

30
31 Our own Lt. Governor Dianne Primavera knows this story all too well. Dianne 32 was diagnosed with breast cancer, and told she had five years to live. With two 33 young daughters to raise, her life was turned upside down and she was forced 34 to wrestle with the questions that many other Coloradans have faced. Can I 35 support my family and pay for my treatments? Will this devastate us
36 financially? Will I be there for my children? We are proud to say that Dianne 37 didn't just survive, she has thrived. She dedicated her career to public service -
38 serving as a legislator and in state government - and today she's the best Lt.
39 Governor in the country and the head of our Office of Saving People Money on 40 Health Care. Please join me in recognizing our Lt. Governor Dianne Primavera!

41
42 Together we've reduced costs for health care coverage through Reinsurance, the 43 Colorado Option, Omni Salud, and expanded Medicaid and CHIP. Just last 44 week we learned that more than 34,000 people have enrolled in Colorado
45 Option plans, saving Coloradans Millions of dollars and surpassing original 46 estimates for enrollment. We've saved people money by capping insulin costs, 47 by passing pharma rebates on to consumers, and increasing hospital
48 transparency. We've also taken the first steps to fix our behavioral health care 49 system with the creation of the Behavioral Health Administration and 50 investment of American Rescue Plan Act funding. But we have a lot more work
51 to do. The United States spends far more on healthcare than our peers around 52 the world, and our results are no better.

53
54 Meanwhile, Coloradans still pay some of the highest costs for healthcare, 55 particularly hospital care. Sadly, we are among the top 10 states for hospital 56 cost, price and profit. Let's change that. Our work to save people money on

1 healthcare is more urgent than ever before, and we must leave no stone
2 unturned. When we turn 150, I want Colorado to be a state where everyone can 3 get the care they need easily and affordably.

4
5 First, we have to continue saving people money on their prescriptions.
6 Prescription drug costs still take up too much of a person's monthly expenses,
7 with costs rising faster than inflation. In 2021, nearly 10% of Coloradans were 8 unable to fill a prescription because of cost. With us today is Karisa, a type 1
9 Diabetic. Thanks to our work to cap insulin costs - the first legislation of its 10 kind in the country - she no longer has to choose between buying groceries and 11 the insulin she needs. She described that bill as "saving her life" and we are so 12 grateful to have her here today. Please join me in welcoming Karisa!

13
14 Karisa's not alone. Because of that legislation, every diabetic in Colorado can 15 get their insulin at an affordable price. I know this is personal to many of you,
16 and I want to thank Senator Roberts and Senator Priola for your incredible
17 work. There is more we can and must do.

18
19 By saving people money on their prescriptions, we can prevent the rationing of 20 medication that leads to worse health outcomes and ultimately higher healthcare
21 costs. That's why, in addition to our efforts to import lower-cost drugs from 22 Canada, we'll be working to build on the work of Senator Gonzales, Senator
23 Jaquez Lewis, and Representative Kennedy to strengthen the Prescription Drug
24 Affordability Board so we can continue making progress to save people money
25 on life saving medications. Like our prescription drug rebate legislation last 26 year, we will also continue to hold middlemen accountable for cutting the cost 27 of prescription drugs so employers can pass savings to consumers and reduce 28 premiums. But this is just one piece of the puzzle.

29
30 We have worked with the healthcare industry in good faith to lower costs, but 31 not all of them have held up their end of the bargain. Some health insurers 32 continue to profit from Coloradans while administrative costs, unrelated to 33 patient care, continue soaring. Insurers need to step it up for lower costs and 34 better outcomes.

35
36 Similarly, some large hospital systems are making record profits, paying zero
37 taxes, and sitting on enormous reserves while overcharging customers.
38 Meanwhile, they are consolidating providers, which drives up costs and leaves
39 fewer options for Coloradans. It's time that we hold them accountable.

40
41 First and foremost, that means stop overcharging patients. It also means that 42 nonprofit hospitals must work with their communities to live up to that promise, 43 providing benefits like mental health, maternity care, healthcare workforce
44 growth, and support for social determinants of health like housing and food.

45
46 We should build on and strengthen Representative Kennedy and Senator
47 Winter's great work to track these resources and ensure that nonprofit hospitals 48 actually use community benefit dollars for community benefit. We can and 49 should support the great work of Reinsurance, created by Speaker McCluskie
50 and Senator Rich, to deliver even more savings to consumers through lower 51 insurance premiums.

52
53 After healthcare and housing, education is another big cost for many 54 Coloradans. Access to a quality education is a fundamental right and critical for

1 our economic prosperity. At 150, I want to see an education system that 2 prepares every child, and learners of all ages, for success. It starts in early 3 childhood.

4
5 Thanks to Representative McLachlan, Senator Bridges and Senator Fields, free,
6 full-day kindergarten saves families thousands of dollars every year. And thanks
7 to Representative Sirota, Senator Buckner, President Fenberg, so many others,
8 and of course, the people of Colorado, free preschool - launching this fall - will 9 save families at least $6,000 per year and give our children the best possible
10 start in life. This is a monumental achievement and today is the first day 11 families can apply to enroll their children. I'm so excited to share that more than 12 4,300 Colorado families have already started applying.

13
14 Today we're joined by Shar Portillo, a teacher at Strasburg Elementary, and her 15 three children Elias, a kindergartener, Ethren, a preschooler, and Tyler, who will 16 start preschool this fall! Earlier today, the family filled out Tyler's preschool 17 application making them one of the very first to sign up! Thank you Shar, Elias,
18 Ethren, and Tyler for being here with us today. And to the rest of you out there, 19 tell your friends with three-year-olds to go to upk.Colorado.gov today. I'll take 20 a moment so you can text your friends with three-year-olds right now.

22 We want to support more families like the Portillos with even more hours of 23 free preschool. I'm calling for the legislature to refer a ballot measure that 24 would allow Colorado to utilize excess Prop EE funds for preschool, just as the 25 legislature did on a bipartisan basis for excess marijuana funds in 2015. This 26 would give voters the choice to support more services for MORE children, and 27 help lower-income families enroll their child in full-day preschool. And for K12
28 learners, I'm proposing in my supplemental and budget amendment package 29 today that we raise per pupil funding by an additional $925 - or an additional 30 20,000 dollars for Colorado classrooms every year - building on last year's 31 historic raise made possible by Senator Zenzinger, Senator Lundeen, Speaker
32 McCluskie and Representative McLachlan.

33
34 Districts can use these funds to increase pay, like the Lake County School
35 District that raised teacher pay by 16% in just one year with a major bump for 36 staff like bus drivers, para professionals and others. Or how Colorado's two 37 largest school districts are starting their teachers at just over $50,000 per year.
38 These new funds can also support smaller class sizes, revive extracurriculars,
39 or fund mental health support for our students. And today, I am proud to submit 40 a proposal to buy down the Budget Stabilization Factor to its lowest level ever 41 and set our state on a path to finally eliminate it altogether during my second 42 term, fulfilling our state's commitment to our schools.

43
44 The last few years have been tough for our K12 learners and educators, and 45 those challenges are reflected in test scores, particularly math. To help improve 46 achievement, we are proposing new investments in high-quality math curricula 47 and training to ensure that our educators have the support they need to help all 48 of our students thrive. And we are increasing our commitment to high-quality 49 before and after school programming - saving parents thousands of dollars.
50 This is a key part of helping students graduate with the skills they need to 51 succeed. Another key component is increasing the number of students who 52 graduate with more than a diploma.

53
54 In Colorado, roughly 53% of high school graduates earn college credit in high 55 school, saving them an estimated $53 million on tuition costs each year. But 56 that number can and should be much higher. Let's ensure that every student has

1 access to career-connected learning while they are in high school and let's 2 reward those schools that are doing more to help their students succeed in the 3 workforce and in life! Whether it's dual and concurrent enrollment, career and 4 technical education, work-based learning and apprenticeship, or even receiving
5 an industry certification or associate's degree. But we don't want the innovation
6 to end at graduation, we want to create more training pathways to help
7 Coloradans shape their own success.
8

9 Luke Skywalker wasn't born knowing the ways of the force, he was trained 10 under the guidance of Jedi Master Yoda. "Two available jobs for every 11 unemployed person, Colorado has."
12

13 That's right, we have two available jobs for every unemployed person today in 14 Colorado. Colorado might not need more than a small council of Jedis, but 15 there are many other industries where we need lots of talent! At 150, I want
16 every Coloradan to have access to the skills needed to get a good-paying job 17 that supports them and their families, and a workforce that meets the needs of 18 our businesses to power our mighty economic engine of growth.
19

20 This is another reason why our work on housing is so important. Coloradans
21 have to be able to afford to live in our communities where they can earn a good 22 living and companies must be able to find the workers they need to thrive.
23 We've already made historic investments in Colorado's workforce. We're 24 creating regional training opportunities, supporting our local workforce centers,
25 increasing disability employment opportunities, and adopting skills-based hiring
26 practices and apprenticeship opportunities. I want to thank some of the 27 legislators who worked on these critical bills, including Speaker McCluskie, 28 Senator Rich, Senator Lundeen and Senator Bridges.
29

30 Last year we created Care Forward Colorado, which makes it completely free 31 for Colorado students to pursue careers in health care at any community or 32 technical colleges, and guess what, demand and enrollment increased. But we 33 want to go beyond just healthcare and into other areas where we are 34 experiencing shortages. I'm proposing we expand Care Forward Colorado to 35 include free training for other in-demand fields in the public and private sector 36 like construction, firefighting, law enforcement, nursing, and early childhood 37 education.
38

39 In addition, we know that the number of Coloradans pursuing postsecondary 40 education or training right out of high school has been declining. To address
41 this challenge, I am proposing a new scholarship for graduating high school 42 seniors in the class of 2024 who pursue postsecondary education, training, or 43 certifications.

45 The reality is that today's economy demands access to quick skill acquisition, 46 whether that is a one, two or four year degree, professional training, an 47 apprenticeship, or on-the job training. We are going to jumpstart access to 48 training to help more Coloradans be career ready, earn more, and power our 49 economy. This work must be done in collaboration with all of those involved 50 – from education, to labor and unions, to training providers, and of course the 51 business community.
52

53 We also want to continue investing in the hardworking state employees that 54 drive Colorado forward, who plow our interstates, staff our state hospital in 55 Pueblo, manage our prisons and more. Our state workers deserve our respect,

1 fair, competitive wages, and good benefits. I want to thank Colorado WINS for 2 their partnership.

3
4 Together, we negotiated a compensation package that – if funded by this 5 legislature – will ensure we can attract and retain the very best talent for 6 Colorado’s state government.

7
8 I look forward to working with all of you to support the future of our workforce
9 and economy, and together, maybe we can help more Coloradans not just 10 aspirationally answer the question “where do you see yourself five years from 11 now,” but actually achieve their career goals.

13 As we think about our future, we also have to think about how we can make 14 Colorado a safer place to live. Every person deserves a safe home and a safe 15 community, and in three years I want Colorado to be closing in on our goal of 16 becoming one of the top ten safest states.

18 Right now, Colorado falls in the middle of the pack on crime rates, but that’s 19 not good enough. We can and we must do better. I want to commend our 20 legislators who helped pass last year’s public safety package especially- Senator
21 Janet Buckner, Representative Valdez, Representative Ricks, Representative
22 Bacon, and so many others. From investments in recruitment and retention for 23 local law enforcement to physical improvements in our communities and 24 support for proven crime prevention strategies - this bipartisan collaboration is 25 already beginning to have an impact.

26
27 Thanks to this work, the Arapahoe County Sheriff’s Office, like many others, 28 received a grant that will support new and existing officers, making their 29 communities safer for everyone. Today we’re joined by Sheriff Tyler Brown, 30 who actually came straight to the Capitol from a swearing in ceremony for new 31 officers who were recruited with support from the funding that you passed last 32 year. Join me in welcoming Sheriff Tyler Brown and thanking him for all his 33 incredible work!

34
35 We’re also joined by Summit County Sheriff Jaime Fitzsimons, Estes Park 36 Chief of Police David Hayes, Pueblo Police Chief Chris Noeller, Chief of 37 Auraria Campus Police Mike Phibbs, and Chief Matt Packard of the Colorado
38 of the State Patrol. Thank you for the commitment of all of our men and women 39 in blue for keeping our communities safe!

40
41 Equally important is the work of our community organizations who are helping 42 kids achieve future success. Thanks to legislation passed last year with the 43 leadership of Representative Daugherty, Representative Gonzales Gutierrez,
44 Senator Coleman and Senator Hinrichsen, Boys and Girls Clubs in Colorado 45 received funding to launch a pilot across 21 club sites in 15 counties to provide 46 meaningful enrichment opportunities outside of school to help youth reach their 47 full potential and avoid entering the justice system.

48
49 These services will reach thousands of kids across our state. Today we are 50 joined by the 2022 Youth of the Year Winner, Ameya Garcia, her parents, and 51 Boys & Girls Club leaders from around the state, including Executive Director
52 Kaycee Headrick. Please join me in thanking them for all their work! To build 53 on this work, I’m proposing an additional package that will provide even more 54 resources for local law enforcement officers and community organizations 55 doing work on the ground.

56

1 This funding will also help us crack down on auto theft with stronger tools like
2 technology to help us locate and return stolen vehicles, an auto-theft task force,
3 and greater support for District Attorneys in communities with high rates of 4 auto theft to help them successfully prosecute the criminals responsible. Last 5 fall I called on the Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice to get tough
6 on auto theft sentencing, and just last week the Commission's Sentencing Task
7 Force moved that recommendation forward overwhelmingly. I look forward to 8 seeing the General Assembly take up this important recommendation.

9
10 This is an issue that has affected some of you in this room and so many of our 11 fellow Coloradans, and I look forward to working with all of you to find an 12 effective solution. We're also investing in proven crime prevention strategies;
13 expanding the capacity of the Colorado Bureau of Investigation; and improving 14 school safety by helping our schools make necessary security improvements, 15 expanding threat assessment training, and creating a one-stop shop to help
16 schools and parents get the resources they need. I want to recognize a dedicated 17 partner in our efforts to make Colorado safer, Attorney General Phil Weiser.

18
19 Partnership with our local leaders is also critical to making Colorado safer, and 20 I want to thank Colorado Springs Mayor John Suthers, Aurora Mayor Mike 21 Coffman, and Denver Mayor Michael Hancock, who is represented today by 22 Acting Mayor Laura Aldrete, for their leadership.

23
24 These mayors of the three largest cities in our state - Republican and 25 Democratic - have helped identify tools to successfully fight crime in their 26 communities and together we want the state to step up and be a more 27 constructive partner in this work. I join their recent bipartisan call to action
28 including: greater penalties for car theft, deterring unlawful weapon possession 29 by felons, and cracking down on ghost guns, which are completely untraceable
30 and increasingly being used to carry out violent crimes. In the session ahead, 31 let's take action on these and other priorities, continuing our bipartisan work to 32 make our state safer.

33
34 The horrific shooting at Club Q is one of too many examples of how a crime
35 can inflict pain and fear on an entire community. I want to take a moment to 36 remember those who were lost that night: Daniel Aston, Kelly Loving, Ashley 37 Paugh, Derrick Rump, Raymond Green Vance. I also want to recognize an act 38 of heroism and two heroes here with us today.

40 These individuals were in the club that night. After the shooter entered and 41 began firing, they brought them to the ground, stopped them, and, in so doing,
42 saved many, many lives. Please join me in thanking Colorado hero Richard 43 Fierro, his wife Jessica and daughter Kassy - who was injured in the shooting -
44 and Colorado hero Thomas James, for their incredible actions that day.

45
46 We should always strive to learn from our experiences and as we move forward, 47 we should strengthen Colorado's Extreme Risk Protection Order law to prevent 48 those who are a risk to themselves or others from getting their hands on a gun.
49 This legislation has been used hundreds of times successfully, but we can do 50 more to spread awareness and make sure it is used when the situation calls for 51 it.

53 Right now, loved ones and local law enforcement have the ability to pursue an 54 extreme risk protection order. But why not expand this to include additional 55 petitioners, like District Attorneys? I look forward to exploring common sense 56 solutions with all of you.

1 Together, we will continue working to make our communities safer for 2 everyone, and four years from now, we will all have something to celebrate in 3 being one of the safest states in the nation.

4
5 James Baldwin said “There is never time in the future in which we will work
6 out our salvation. The challenge is in the moment; the time is always now.” So
7 I ask again, who do we want to be when our great state reaches our 150th 8 birthday?

9
10 I want us to be a state where every person can find a home in their budget for 11 rent or for purchase, where our water resources are protected and support the 12 needs of our communities and economy. A state where we’ve secured 100%
13 renewable energy by 2040, and every Coloradan can get the education and skills
14 to succeed. I want us to be one of the 10 safest states in the nation. And I want
15 healthcare, and everything in our state, to be more affordable for everyone. I 16 want our state, and our nation, to be a beacon of hope and freedom for all - no 17 matter your gender, ethnicity, age, race, ability, who you love or who you are.
18 A Colorado for All.

20 This is what Coloradans want too, and it’s up to us to deliver. If we can do that, 21 we will have secured our future for the next 150 years and be an example for 22 the rest of the country to follow at 250. To put things in perspective that’s 23 barely a quarter Methuselah’s time on earth of 969 years, and less than one 24 tenth the lifetime of Colorado’s oldest 2510 year-old Bristlecone Pine. This is 25 the future we deserve, so let’s make it happen.

26
27 Just a few weeks ago, we celebrated the beginning of a new year. Instead of 28 resolutions, some people choose a single word to guide them in the year ahead.
29 If I had to choose a word for Colorado, I’d pick “limitless”, because I truly 30 believe that if we work together, what we can do is limitless, and the example
31 we can set for the rest of the country and the world is beyond measure. Today
32 in 2023, the State of our state is undeniably strong, but we know it can be even 33 stronger, for our potential is truly limitless. God bless you all, God bless 34 Colorado, and God bless the United States of America.

16 (1) (a) SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION, A FACILITY OR 17 QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A CLINICAL RESTRAINT ON AN 18 INDIVIDUAL, UNLESS:

19 (I) (A) THE USE IS TO PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM 20 COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR 21 ANOTHER PERSON, BASED ON IMMEDIATELY PRESENT EVIDENCE AND 22 CIRCUMSTANCES; OR

23 (B) THE FACILITY OR QUALIFIED FACILITY HAS EXHAUSTED ALL
24 LESS-RESTRICTIVE ALTERNATIVE INTERVENTIONS AND THERE ARE NO
25 IMMEDIATELY PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES AND EVIDENCE THAT THE USE IS 26 TO PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS
27 HARM TO THE INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER PERSON; AND

28 (II) THE RESTRAINT IS ORDERED BY A LICENSED OR 29 LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER.

30 (b) A FACILITY OR QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A CLINICAL 31 RESTRAINT ON AN INDIVIDUAL FOR LONGER THAN IS NECESSARY TO 32 PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS
33 HARM TO THE INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER PERSON.

34 (c) A LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, 35 MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT RULE OR 36 DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, OR QUALIFIED HEALTH-CARE PROVIDER
37 SHALL TERMINATE THE ORDER WHEN THE BEHAVIORS REQUIRING THE 38 CLINICAL RESTRAINT ARE NO LONGER EVIDENT AND THE CRITERIA THE 39 INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE REMOVED AS 40 OUTLINED BY THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER ARE SATISFIED OR, IF THE 41 TIME LIMITATIONS PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(c) OR (3)(f) OF THIS 42 SECTION ARE REACHED, WHICHEVER OCCURS FIRST.

43 (d) ANY PERSON EMPLOYED BY THE FACILITY OR QUALIFIED
44 FACILITY MAY RECOMMEND THE ORDER BE TERMINATED BY NOTIFYING A 45 LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, MENTAL 46 HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY 47 THE DEPARTMENT, OR QUALIFIED HEALTH-CARE PROVIDER THAT THE 48 BEHAVIORS REQUIRING THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT ARE NO LONGER
49 EVIDENT.

50 (2) (a) A FACILITY MAY USE A CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT
51 ON AN INDIVIDUAL; EXCEPT THAT THE RESTRAINT MUST NOT BE 52 CONSTRUCTED OF METAL OR HARD PLASTIC OR HAVE A BELLY CHAIN OR 53 PADLOCK.

54 (b) (I) A FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A CLINICAL AMBULATORY 55 RESTRAINT ON AN INDIVIDUAL FOR MORE THAN:

1 (A) TWELVE HOURS PER EPISODE, UNLESS THE BEHAVIORS
2 REQUIRING THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ARE STILL EVIDENT, 3 THE CRITERIA THE INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE 4 REMOVED AS OUTLINED BY THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER ARE NOT
5 SATISFIED, AND THE NEW ORDER IS APPROVED BY A MENTAL HEALTH
6 ADMINISTRATOR; AND

7 (B) TWO HUNDRED FORTY HOURS TOTAL ACROSS ALL EPISODES IN 8 ONE YEAR, EXCEPT A CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT MAY BE 9 ORDERED TO EXCEED TWO HUNDRED FORTY HOURS ACROSS ALL EPISODES
10 IN ONE YEAR IF THE USE OF THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IN 11 EXCESS OF TWO HUNDRED FORTY HOURS IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT THE 12 INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE
13 INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER PERSON BASED ON IMMEDIATELY PRESENT
14 EVIDENCE AND CIRCUMSTANCES, WHETHER THE BEHAVIORS REQUIRING 15 THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ARE STILL EVIDENT, WHETHER THE 16 CRITERIA THE INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE
17 REMOVED AS OUTLINED BY THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER ARE NOT 18 SATISFIED, AND WHETHER THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IS 19 ORDERED BY THE MENTAL HEALTH ADMINISTRATOR AND APPROVED BY 20 THE CHIEF OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH.

21 (II) THE FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTART THE TIME CALCULATION TO 22 START A NEW EPISODE IF THE INDIVIDUAL IS TEMPORARILY RELEASED
23 FROM A CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT WITHOUT THE INTENT TO 24 TERMINATE THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ORDER. THE TIME AN 25 INDIVIDUAL IS TEMPORARILY RELEASED FROM A CLINICAL AMBULATORY
26 RESTRAINT WITHOUT THE INTENT TO TERMINATE THE CLINICAL 27 AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ORDER SUSPENDS THE CALCULATION OF TIME
28 PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(c)(I) OF THIS SECTION.

29 (c) (I) AN INITIAL CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ORDER MUST 30 NOT EXCEED TWO HOURS. A LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL 31 HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY 32 DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL ASSESS
33 THE INDIVIDUAL SUBJECTED TO THE RESTRAINT TO DETERMINE WHETHER 34 TO TERMINATE OR CONTINUE THE ORDER AT THE EXPIRATION OF THE 35 INITIAL TWO-HOUR PERIOD, EXCEPT DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE 36 FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTART THE TIME CALCULATION TO START A NEW
37 EPISODE DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE TIME AN INDIVIDUAL IS 38 SUBJECTED TO THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IMMEDIATELY
39 PRECEDING OVERNIGHT HOURS IS INCLUDED IN THE TOTAL CALCULATION
40 OF TIME FOR AN EPISODE SUSPENDED BY OVERNIGHT HOURS.

41 (II) IF THE LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH
42 PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT
43 RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, CONTINUES THE INITIAL 44 CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT ORDER, THE LICENSED OR 45 LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH
46 CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE 47 DEPARTMENT, SHALL ASSESS THE INDIVIDUAL SUBJECT TO THE RESTRAINT 48 AT INTERVALS OF TIME DETERMINED BY THE INDIVIDUAL'S BEHAVIOR, BUT 49 NOT TO EXCEED FOUR HOURS, EXCEPT DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE 50 FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTART THE TIME CALCULATION TO START A NEW
51 EPISODE DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE TIME AN INDIVIDUAL IS 52 SUBJECTED TO THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IMMEDIATELY
53 PRECEDING OVERNIGHT HOURS IS INCLUDED IN THE TOTAL CALCULATION
54 OF TIME FOR AN EPISODE SUSPENDED BY OVERNIGHT HOURS.

55

1 (III) AT EACH ASSESSMENT PURSUANT TO SUBSECTIONS (2)(c)(I)
2 AND (2)(c)(II) OF THIS SECTION, THE LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE
3 MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY 4 DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL:

5 (A) MAKE A NEW DETERMINATION WHETHER THE ORDER TO 6 CONTINUE RESTRAINT IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM 7 COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR 8 ANOTHER PERSON, BASED ON THE IMMEDIATELY PRESENT EVIDENCE AND 9 CIRCUMSTANCES;

10 (B) DETERMINE WHETHER A LESS-RESTRICTIVE ALTERNATIVE
11 INTERVENTION IS MORE APPROPRIATE THAN THE USE OF A CLINICAL 12 AMBULATORY RESTRAINT; AND

13 (C) MODIFY THE ORDER TO REFLECT SPECIFIC BEHAVIORAL
14 CRITERIA THE INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE 15 REMOVED, AS APPROPRIATE.

16 (IV) AN ASSESSMENT PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (2)(c)(I) OR 17 (2)(c)(II) OF THIS SECTION MAY BE PERFORMED USING AUDIO-VIDEO
18 COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY.

19 (3) (a) ONLY A QUALIFIED FACILITY MAY USE A CLINICAL 20 FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT ON AN INDIVIDUAL.

21 (b) A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A CLINICAL FOUR-POINT
22 RESTRAINT CONSTRUCTED OF METAL OR HARD PLASTIC OR THAT HAS A
23 BELLY CHAIN OR PADLOCK. A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL USE A CLINICAL 24 FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT ON A BED WITH A MATTRESS.

25 (c) A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A HELMET OR DIAPER ON 26 AN INDIVIDUAL SUBJECTED TO A CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT, UNLESS 27 THE INDIVIDUAL IS USING FECES IN AN ASSAULTIVE MANNER OR 28 GENERALLY WEARS A DIAPER.

29 (d) A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTRAIN AN INDIVIDUAL
30 SUBJECT TO A CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT IN A PRONE POSITION. A 31 QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL CONSIDER THE INDIVIDUAL'S PREEXISTING
32 MEDICAL CONDITIONS OR PHYSICAL DISABILITIES OR LIMITATIONS THAT 33 MAY INCREASE THE RISK OF INJURY TO THE INDIVIDUAL DURING A
34 CLINICAL RESTRAINT EPISODE AND RESTRAIN THE INDIVIDUAL IN A 35 MANNER THAT MINIMIZES THE INDIVIDUAL'S DISCOMFORT AND RISK OF 36 INJURY OR COMPLICATION.

37 (e) AT LEAST EVERY TWO HOURS, A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL 38 RELEASE AN INDIVIDUAL SUBJECTED TO A CLINICAL FOUR-POINT 39 RESTRAINT TO PROVIDE NOT LESS THAN TEN MINUTES FOR THE PERSON TO 40 MOVE FREELY. THE QUALIFIED FACILITY MAY USE A CLINICAL 41 AMBULATORY RESTRAINT DURING THIS TIME PERIOD IF THE USE OF THE 42 CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT THE 43 INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE 44 INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER PERSON BASED ON IMMEDIATELY PRESENT
45 EVIDENCE AND CIRCUMSTANCES.

46 (f) (I) A QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT USE A CLINICAL 47 FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT ON AN INDIVIDUAL FOR MORE THAN:

48 (A) FOUR HOURS PER EPISODE, UNLESS THE BEHAVIORS REQUIRING 49 THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT ARE STILL EVIDENT, THE CRITERIA
50 THE INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE REMOVED AS 51 OUTLINED BY THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER ARE NOT SATISFIED, AND 52 THE NEW ORDER IS APPROVED BY A MENTAL HEALTH ADMINISTRATOR; 53 AND

1 (B) TWO HUNDRED FORTY HOURS IN ONE YEAR, EXCEPT ANY 2 CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT MAY BE ORDERED TO EXCEED TWO 3 HUNDRED FORTY HOURS ACROSS ALL EPISODES IN ONE YEAR IF THE USE OF 4 THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT IN EXCESS OF TWO HUNDRED FORTY 5 HOURS IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT THE INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING
6 IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER
7 PERSON BASED ON IMMEDIATELY PRESENT EVIDENCE AND 8 CIRCUMSTANCES, THE BEHAVIORS REQUIRING THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT
9 RESTRAINT ARE STILL EVIDENT, THE CRITERIA THE INDIVIDUAL MUST 10 EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE REMOVED AS OUTLINED BY THE 11 CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER ARE NOT SATISFIED, AND THE CLINICAL 12 FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT IS ORDERED BY THE MENTAL HEALTH
13 ADMINISTRATOR AND APPROVED BY THE CHIEF OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH.

14 (II) THE QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTART THE TIME
15 CALCULATION TO START A NEW EPISODE IF THE INDIVIDUAL IS 16 TEMPORARILY RELEASED FROM A CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT
17 WITHOUT THE INTENT TO TERMINATE THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT
18 RESTRAINT ORDER. THE TIME AN INDIVIDUAL IS TEMPORARILY RELEASED 19 FROM A CLINICAL RESTRAINT WITHOUT THE INTENT TO TERMINATE THE 20 CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT ORDER SUSPENDS THE CALCULATION OF 21 TIME PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (3)(f)(I) OF THIS SECTION.

22 (g) (I) AN INITIAL ORDER FOR CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT
23 MUST NOT EXCEED TWO HOURS. A LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL 24 HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY
25 DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL ASSESS
26 THE INDIVIDUAL SUBJECT TO THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT TO 27 DETERMINE WHETHER TO TERMINATE OR CONTINUE THE ORDER AT THE 28 EXPIRATION OF THE INITIAL TWO-HOUR PERIOD, EXCEPT DURING 29 OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL NOT RESTART THE 30 TIME CALCULATION TO START A NEW EPISODE DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS.
31 THE TIME AN INDIVIDUAL IS SUBJECTED TO THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY
32 RESTRAINT IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING OVERNIGHT HOURS IS INCLUDED IN 33 THE TOTAL CALCULATION OF TIME FOR AN EPISODE SUSPENDED BY 34 OVERNIGHT HOURS.

35 (II) IF THE LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH
36 PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT
37 RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, CONTINUES THE INITIAL 38 ORDER, A LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, OR 39 MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT RULE OR 40 DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL ASSESS THE INDIVIDUAL
41 SUBJECT TO THE CLINICAL FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT TO DETERMINE
42 WHETHER TO TERMINATE OR CONTINUE THE ORDER AT INTERVALS OF TIME
43 DETERMINED BY THE INDIVIDUAL'S BEHAVIOR, BUT NOT TO EXCEED TWO 44 HOURS, EXCEPT DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE QUALIFIED FACILITY
45 SHALL NOT RESTART THE TIME CALCULATION TO START A NEW EPISODE
46 DURING OVERNIGHT HOURS. THE TIME AN INDIVIDUAL IS SUBJECTED TO 47 THE CLINICAL AMBULATORY RESTRAINT IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING 48 OVERNIGHT HOURS IS INCLUDED IN THE TOTAL CALCULATION OF TIME FOR 49 AN EPISODE SUSPENDED BY OVERNIGHT HOURS.

50 (III) AT EACH ASSESSMENT PURSUANT TO SUBSECTIONS (3)(g)(I)
51 AND (3)(g)(II) OF THIS SECTION, THE LICENSED OR LICENSE-ELIGIBLE
52 MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY 53 DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE DEPARTMENT, SHALL:

54

1 (A) MAKE A NEW DETERMINATION REGARDING WHETHER THE 2 ORDER TO CONTINUE RESTRAINT IS NECESSARY TO PREVENT THE
3 INDIVIDUAL FROM COMMITTING IMMINENT AND SERIOUS HARM TO THE
4 INDIVIDUAL'S SELF OR ANOTHER PERSON, BASED ON THE IMMEDIATELY
5 PRESENT EVIDENCE AND CIRCUMSTANCES;

6 (B) DETERMINE WHETHER A LESS-RESTRICTIVE ALTERNATIVE
7 INTERVENTION IS MORE APPROPRIATE THAN THE USE OF A CLINICAL 8 FOUR-POINT RESTRAINT; AND

9 (C) MODIFY THE ORDER TO REFLECT SPECIFIC BEHAVIORAL
10 CRITERIA THE INDIVIDUAL MUST EXHIBIT FOR THE RESTRAINT TO BE 11 REMOVED, AS APPROPRIATE.

12 (IV) AN ASSESSMENT PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (3)(g)(I) OR 13 (3)(g)(II) OF THIS SECTION MAY BE PERFORMED USING AUDIO-VIDEO
14 COMMUNICATION TECHNOLOGY.

15 (4) AT LEAST EVERY FIFTEEN MINUTES, A TRAINED OR QUALIFIED 16 HEALTH-CARE PROVIDER SHALL EXAMINE THE INDIVIDUAL SUBJECTED TO 17 A CLINICAL RESTRAINT, AT A MINIMUM:

18 (a) TO ENSURE THE INDIVIDUAL'S CIRCULATION IS UNRESTRICTED, 19 BREATHING IS NOT COMPROMISED, AND OTHER PHYSICAL NEEDS ARE 20 SATISFIED, AND TO NOTIFY A SECOND QUALIFIED HEALTH-CARE PROVIDER
21 TO ASSIST WITH ANY CONCERNS;

22 (b) TO ENSURE THE INDIVIDUAL IS PROPERLY POSITIONED IN THE 23 RESTRAINT;

24 (c) TO OFFER THE INDIVIDUAL FLUIDS AND TOILET ACCESS, AND TO 25 PROVIDE FLUIDS AND TOILET ACCESS IF REQUESTED BY THE INDIVIDUAL;

26 (d) TO MONITOR THE EFFECT OF MEDICATION ON THE INDIVIDUAL, 27 IF APPLICABLE, AND TO NOTIFY A SECOND QUALIFIED HEALTH-CARE
28 PROVIDER TO ASSIST WITH ANY CONCERNS; AND

29 (e) TO MONITOR WHETHER THE INDIVIDUAL IS EXHIBITING 30 BEHAVIORS REQUIRING THE CONTINUATION OR TERMINATION OF THE 31 CLINICAL RESTRAINT ORDER.

32 (5) AT ALL TIMES AN INDIVIDUAL IS SUBJECTED TO A CLINICAL 33 RESTRAINT, THE INDIVIDUAL MUST BE ABLE TO COMMUNICATE TO ANY 34 EMPLOYEE, QUALIFIED HEALTH-CARE PROVIDER, LICENSED OR 35 LICENSE-ELIGIBLE MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDER, OR MENTAL HEALTH
36 CLINICIAN AS DEFINED BY DEPARTMENT RULE OR DESIGNATED BY THE 37 DEPARTMENT, WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR MONITORING THE INDIVIDUAL 38 DURING THE CLINICAL RESTRAINT EPISODE.

39 (6) (a) A FACILITY OR QUALIFIED FACILITY SHALL ENSURE THAT

1 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
2 assembly finds and declares that transit systems, including those 3 maintained by regional transportation authorities, are essential to the 4 health and welfare of the citizens of the state because:

5 (a) Ridership of transit systems decreases the number of 6 automobiles on state highways and other roadways within the state,
7 resulting in reductions in both harmful emissions and traffic-related 8 problems caused by such automobiles; and

9 (b) The complexity of modern transit systems necessitates
10 long-term planning for such systems, which in turn requires that transit 11 agencies, including regional transportation authorities, possess tools to 12 provide the funding necessary to maintain and expand such systems.

13 (2) The general assembly further finds and declares that current 14 funding options available to regional transportation authorities are 15 inadequate and can be enhanced to provide for current and future funding 16 need because:

17 (a) Current law authorizes a regional transportation authority to 18 seek voter approval for a uniform mill levy of up to 5 mills on all taxable 19 property within its territory, but the authorization to seek such voter 20 approval is scheduled to sunset as of January 1, 2029, leaving regional 21 transportation authorities without the ability after that date to present 22 voters with the choice to empower the authority to impose or increase this 23 vital funding source; and

24 (b) Current law also authorizes regional transportation authorities 25 to seek voter approval for a sales or use tax, or both, upon every 26 transaction or other incident with respect to which a sales or use tax is 27 levied by the state, but limits the maximum rate of the tax for which such 28 voter approval may be sought to one percent, thereby potentially 29 preventing regional transportation authorities from imposing a higher rate 30 that may nevertheless be supported by voters.

31 (3) It is the general assembly's intent, through the enactment of 32 section 5 of this act, to preserve and enhance funding options for regional 33 transportation authorities by enabling regional transportation authorities 34 to:

35 (a) Retain the authority to seek voter approval of a mill levy after 36 January 1, 2029; and

37 (b) Seek voter approval for a sales tax, use tax, or both, up to a 38 rate of two percent.

39 4) Nothing in this section is intended to abridge or otherwise
40 adversely impact the right or power of any regional transportation
41 authority to continue to annually levy any mill levy, or to continue to levy 42 any sales tax, use tax, or both, that was authorized by voter approval prior 43 to the effective date of this act".

22 granted to an authority pursuant to this part 6, an authority has the 23 following powers:

24 (j) (I) Subject to the provisions of section 43-4-612, to levy, in all 25 or any designated portion of the members of the combination or of the 26 members of the transportation planning organization exercising the 27 powers of an authority as authorized by section 43-4-622, a sales or use 28 tax, or both, at a rate not to exceed ~~one~~ TWO percent upon every 29 transaction or other incident with respect to which a sales or use tax is 30 levied by the state; except that, if the authority includes territory that is 31 within the regional transportation district created and existing pursuant 32 to article 9 of title 32, a designated portion of the members of the 33 combination or of the members of the transportation planning
34 organization in which a new tax is levied must be composed of entire 35 territories of members of the combination or of the members of the 36 transportation planning organization so that the rate of tax imposed 37 pursuant to this part 6 within the territory of any single member of the 38 combination or of the members of the transportation planning
39 organization is uniform and except that the authority shall not levy a sales 40 or use tax on any transaction or other incident occurring in any territory 41 located outside the boundaries of the authority and within the boundaries
42 of a municipality as the boundaries of the municipality exist on the date 43 the authority is created without the consent of the governing body of the 44 municipality or outside the boundaries of the authority and within the 45 unincorporated boundaries of a county as the unincorporated boundaries 46 exist on the date the authority is created without the consent of the 47 governing body of the county. Subject to the provisions of section 48 43-4-612, the authority may elect to levy any such sales or use tax at 49 different rates in different designated portions of the members of the 50 combination or of the members of the transportation planning
51 organization; except that, if the authority includes territory that is within 52 the regional transportation district, a designated portion of the members
53 of the combination or of the members of the transportation planning
54 organization in which a new tax is levied must be composed of entire 55 territories of members of the combination or of the members of the 56 transportation planning organization so that the rate of tax imposed

1 pursuant to this part 6 within the territory of any single member of the 2 combination or of the transportation planning organization is uniform. If 3 the authority so elects, it shall submit a single ballot question that lists all 4 of the different rates to the registered electors of all designated portions
 5 of the members of the combination or of the transportation planning
 6 organization in which the proposed sales or use tax is to be levied. The 7 tax imposed pursuant to this subsection (1)(j) is in addition to any other
 8 sales or use tax imposed pursuant to law. If a member of the combination 9 or of the transportation planning organization is located within more than 10 one authority, the sales or use tax, or both, authorized by this subsection
 11 (1)(j) shall not exceed ~~one~~ TWO percent upon every transaction or other 12 incident with respect to which a sales or use tax is levied by the state. The 13 executive director of the department of revenue shall collect, administer,
 14 and enforce the sales or use tax, to the extent feasible, in the manner
 15 provided in section 29-2-106. The director shall make monthly 16 distributions of the tax collections to the authority, which shall apply the 17 proceeds solely to the financing, construction, operation, or maintenance
 18 of regional transportation systems. The department shall retain an amount 19 not to exceed the total cost of the collection, administration, and 20 enforcement and shall transmit the amount to the state treasurer, who 21 shall credit the same to the regional transportation authority sales tax 22 fund, which fund is hereby created. The amounts so retained are hereby 23 appropriated annually from the fund to the department to the extent 24 necessary for the department's collection, administration, and 25 enforcement of this part 6. Any money remaining in the fund attributable 26 to taxes collected in the prior fiscal year shall be transmitted to the 27 authority; except that, prior to the transmission to the authority of such 28 money, any money appropriated from the general fund to the department 29 for the collection, administration, and enforcement of the tax for the prior 30 fiscal year shall be repaid.

"SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add article 5.7 to title 9 as follows:

ARTICLE 5.7Amenities For All Genders In Public Buildings*9-5.7-101. Legislative declaration. (1) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

FINDS AND DECLARES THAT:

(a) IT IS A MATTER OF STATEWIDE CONCERN TO PROMOTE THE PUBLIC WELFARE BY PROVIDING ACCESS TO NON-GENDERED RESTROOM FACILITIES THAT ARE CONVENIENT FOR PEOPLE OF ALL GENDERS, INCLUDING THOSE OUTSIDE THE GENDER BINARY;

(b) THE LACK OF ADEQUATE RESTROOM FACILITIES LEADS TO UNSAFE AND INEQUITABLE CONDITIONS FOR COLORADO CHILDREN, FAMILIES, AND COMMUNITIES. EXPERTS FROM HEALTH PROVIDERS TO FAITH LEADERS, INCLUDING THE OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ADMINISTRATION, STRESS THE NEED FOR SINGLE OCCUPANCY NON-GENDERED RESTROOMS AND MULTIPLE-OCCUPANT OR MULTIPLE-STALLED NON-GENDERED RESTROOMS TO BE ACCESSIBLE FOR ALL EMPLOYEES AND INDIVIDUALS. THE LACK OF ACCESSIBILITY TO RESTROOM FACILITIES THAT ARE CONSISTENT WITH AN INDIVIDUAL'S GENDER IDENTITY SINGLES OUT THOSE INDIVIDUALS AND CAN RESULT IN EXPERIENCES OF HARASSMENT AND CAUSE THOSE INDIVIDUALS TO AVOID RESTROOMS ENTIRELY, WHICH CAN LEAD TO POTENTIALLY SERIOUS PHYSICAL INJURY OR ILLNESS. ACCESS TO NON-GENDERED RESTROOMS HAS FAR-REACHING BENEFITS FOR PARENTS CARING FOR A CHILD, INCLUDING PARENTS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN WHO NEED TO ACCESS A BABY DIAPER CHANGING STATION AND INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES WHO HAVE A CARETAKER OF A DIFFERENT GENDER TO ASSIST THEM. thank

(c) MEN'S RESTROOMS AND SINGLE-STALL RESTROOMS TYPICALLY DO NOT PROVIDE BABY DIAPER CHANGING STATIONS. THIS CREATES ACCESSIBILITY INEQUITY FOR PARENTS AND CARE PROVIDERS WHO DO NOT IDENTIFY AS WOMEN OR WHO MAY NOT BE COMFORTABLE USING WOMEN'S RESTROOMS, AND CREATES POTENTIAL HEALTH AND SAFETY PROBLEMS FOR BABIES. WITHOUT CLEAN AND SAFE BABY DIAPER CHANGING STATIONS, THESE CARE PROVIDERS MAY BE FORCED TO RESORT TO UNSAFE AND UNSANITARY LOCATIONS, SUCH AS RESTROOM FLOORS, TO CHANGE BABIES' DIAPERS. REQUIRING EQUITABLE ACCESS TO AMENITIES IN PUBLIC RESTROOMS WOULD MAKE IT EASIER FOR PARENTS AND CARE PROVIDERS OF ALL GENDERS TO FIND A SAFE AND SUITABLE PLACE TO CHANGE BABIES' DIAPERS. PROVIDING SAFE, RELIABLE, AND CLEAN BABY DIAPER CHANGING STATIONS IN ALL RESTROOM FACILITIES ENABLES BETTER CARETAKING FOR INFANTS BY ALL PARENTS AND CARE PROVIDERS, AND SAFER CONDITIONS FOR INFANTS.

(d) REQUIRING ALL SINGLE-STALL RESTROOMS TO BE DESIGNATED FOR USE BY ANY GENDER REDUCES WAIT TIMES AND INCREASES COMFORT AND ACCESSIBILITY FOR CARE PROVIDERS AND PEOPLE RECEIVING CARE, INDIVIDUALS WITH DIVERSE GENDER EXPRESSIONS, AND LGBT INDIVIDUALS. FOR LGBT INDIVIDUALS OR INDIVIDUALS WITH DIVERSE GENDER EXPRESSIONS, USING GENDERED FACILITIES CAN POSE HEALTH AND SAFETY ISSUES STEMMING FROM EXPERIENCES OF HARASSMENT AND PHYSICAL THREATS IN GENDERED FACILITIES REGARDLESS OF WHICH GENDERED FACILITY THEY USE OR THEIR PHYSICAL PRESENTATION. DUE TO THESE EXPERIENCES AND ASSOCIATED STIGMA, SOME PEOPLE TODAY AVOID USING PUBLIC RESTROOMS WHENEVER POSSIBLE AND MAY REFRAIN FROM EATING, DRINKING, OR RELIEVING THEMSELVES FOR EXTENDED PERIODS OF TIME IN ORDER TO AVOID GENDERED FACILITIES. DELAYING OR AVOIDING USING THE RESTROOM CAN HAVE PHYSICAL HEALTH IMPLICATIONS.

1 (e) THE "INTERNATIONAL PLUMBING CODE", 2021 EDITION,
2 REFERRED TO IN THIS ARTICLE 5.7 AS THE "I.P.C.", INCLUDES TWO 3 AMENDMENTS REGARDING NON-GENDERED RESTROOMS. ONE AMENDMENT
4 REQUIRES SIGNAGE ON SINGLE-STALL RESTROOMS TO INDICATE THAT THEY
5 ARE OPEN TO ANY USER REGARDLESS OF GENDER. THE OTHER AMENDMENT
6 ALLOWS THE CREATION OF NON-GENDERED MULTI-STALL DESIGNS WITH 7 SHARED SINKS AND EACH TOILET IN A PRIVATE COMPARTMENT.

8 (f) THE I.P.C. ALSO REQUIRES THAT SINGLE-STALL RESTROOMS BE 9 IDENTIFIED FOR USE BY ALL INDIVIDUALS REGARDLESS OF SEX AND 10 ALLOWS FOR MULTI-USER FACILITIES TO SERVE ALL GENDERS. THE 11 COLORADO STATE ARCHITECT ADOPTS CODES FOR CONSTRUCTION AT ALL
12 STATE-OWNED BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES, AND HAS ADOPTED THE 2021
13 EDITION OF THE INTERNATIONAL BUILDING CODE.

14 9-5.7-102. Definitions. AS USED IN THIS ARTICLE 5.7, UNLESS THE

46 RESTROOM FOR WHICH A PERMIT IS REQUIRED, OTHER THAN A REPAIR, 47 THAT INCLUDES CHANGING THE STRUCTURE BY INCREASING THE SQUARE

29 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
30 assembly finds and declares that:

31 (a) It is the public policy of the state of Colorado to ensure 32 consistent statewide access to basic due process in criminal proceedings, 33 including bond setting;

34 (b) The general assembly passed House Bill 21-1280 to require
35 that Coloradans receive an individualized bond hearing in front of a judge 36 within forty-eight hours of arrest, and to end wide variations in prompt 37 bond hearings across the state;

38 (c) Some judicial districts consistently follow the requirements of 39 House Bill 21-1280, while others apply the provisions of House Bill
40 21-1280 in only limited cases;

41 (d) This jurisdictional split causes continued inconsistencies in 42 access to basic due process across the state and thwarts the legislative 43 intent of House Bill 21-1280; and

44 (e) Inconsistency by Colorado courts in provision of basic due
45 process is unfair and erodes public confidence in the court system.

46 (2)(a) Therefore, the general assembly enacts House Bill 23-1151
47 to clarify and confirm the mandates of House Bill 21-1280; and

48 (b) Further urges the Colorado supreme court to adopt policies to

8 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
 9 assembly finds and declares that:

10 (a) State highways are the backbone of our state's economy with 11 millions of miles driven and hundreds of billions of dollars of 12 commodities transported annually. Our state's farmers and other oversize 13 load operators use those highways to traverse the state in support of our 14 food supply, our economy, and our way of life. The equipment they 15 operate, however, while necessary, can be significantly wider than a 16 standard lane of traffic.

17 (b) Delineator posts are typically steel rods with reflectors evenly 18 spaced across the edges of highways to give drivers visual clues as to the 19 contours of a road. Though subject to a number of factors, the posts are 20 regularly installed at intervals of one-tenth of a mile.

21 (c) While delineator posts serve an important safety function, they 22 can also pose a danger. When posts are installed directly across from one 23 another, farming equipment and oversize loads often have a difficult time 24 navigating beyond them, especially if oncoming or other traffic,
 25 particularly other oversize traffic, is present. In some cases, in an effort 26 to avoid a larger traffic accident, operators are left with no other choice 27 but to collide with the steel post, damaging both the post and their 28 equipment.

29 (d) Removing issues like this one that have been historically 30 obscured by the rural-urban divide represents an important step in the 31 effort to better serve all Coloradans and, moreover, protecting the safety 32 of every individual using our state highways, including their personal 33 safety and the safety of their property, is one of the chief roles of good 34 government.

35 (2) Therefore, in order to promote the safety of all drivers, to 36 better ensure the preservation of personal property, and to close some of 37 the gap in the rural-urban divide, the general assembly directs the 38 Department of Transportation to always consider the needs of those 39 operating farming equipment and oversize loads on our state highways, 40 along with other safety considerations for all drivers, when installing 41 delineator posts.

42 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 43-2-107, add (3) as 43 follows:

44 43-2-107. Standards of construction - definition.

45 (3) (a) EXCEPT WHEN OTHERWISE NECESSARY OR REQUIRED TO MEET
 46 REASONABLE SAFETY STANDARDS, THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
 47 SHALL EXECUTE THE FOLLOWING WHENEVER CONSTRUCTING, REPAVING, 48 OR REPAIRING ANY SECTION OF A TWO-LANE STATE HIGHWAY IF FARMING
 49 OR OTHER OVERSIZE LOADS ACTIVELY UTILIZE THAT SECTION OF THE 50 HIGHWAY:

51 (I) STAGGER THE POSTS NOT LESS THAN EVERY ONE-TENTH OF A 52 MILE WHERE IT IS PRACTICAL TO DO SO; AND

53 (II) CONSIDER IMPLEMENTING FLEXIBLE DELINEATOR POSTS AND 54 OTHER ENGINEERING SOLUTIONS TO ACCOMMODATE THE NEEDS OF ALL
 55 VEHICLES.
 56

1 (b) NOTHING IN THIS SUBSECTION (3) SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO 2 REQUIRE DELINEATOR POSTS TO BE PLACED WHERE THEY ARE NOT DEEMED 3 NECESSARY BY THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION.

4 (c) AS USED IN THIS SUBSECTION (3), "TWO-LANE STATE HIGHWAY"
5 MEANS A STATE HIGHWAY WITH TWO LANES EACH GOING IN THE OPPOSITE
6 DIRECTION OF ONE ANOTHER.

7 SECTION 3. Act subject to petition - effective date. This act
8 takes effect at 12:01 a.m. on the day following the expiration of the 9 ninety-day period after final adjournment of the general assembly; except 10 that, if a referendum petition is filed pursuant to section 1 (3) of article V
11 of the state constitution against this act or an item, section, or part of this 12 act within such period, then the act, item, section, or part will not take 13 effect unless approved by the people at the general election to be held in 14 November 2024 and, in such case, will take effect on the date of the

1 Amendment No. 1, by Representative Luck:

2
3 "WHEREAS, In the great history of our republic, as we have sought to 4 march from subjugation to liberty and justice for all, acknowledging and 5 enshrining women's rights into the laws of the United States began even 6 before our founding, as captured well in the words of Abigail Adams, a
7 leading woman of the American Revolution, when she wrote to her
8 husband:

9
10 I have sometimes been ready to think that the passion for Liberty 11 cannot be equally strong in the breasts of those who have been 12 accustomed to deprive their fellow Creatures of theirs. Of this I am 13 certain that it is not founded upon that generous and Christian 14 principle of doing to others as we would that others should do unto 15 us. [...]

17 I long to hear that you have declared an independency-and by the 18 way in the new Code of Laws which I suppose it will be necessary
19 for you to make, I desire you would Remember the Ladies, and be 20 more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Do not 21 put such unlimited power into the hands of the Husbands.
22 Remember all Men would be tyrants if they could. If particular 23 care and attention is not paid to the Ladies we are determined to 24 foment a Rebellion, and will not hold ourselves bound by any 25 Laws in which we have no voice, or Representation. [...]; and 26

27 WHEREAS, Susan B. Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Sojourner Truth, 28 and Colorado's own Alida Avery, along with many others, carried the 29 women's rights and suffrage movement forward; and

30
31 WHEREAS, In 1920, the efforts of multiple generations culminated in the 32 passage of the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which 33 enfranchised all American women; and 34

35 WHEREAS, In furtherance of enshrining equality for women under the 36 law, Alice Paul proposed the initial version of the Equal Rights 37 Amendment ("ERA") in 1923, which stated, "Men and women shall have 38 equal rights throughout the United States and every place subject to its 39 jurisdiction"; and"

40
41 Representative Luck moved for the adoption of the amendment. The 10 Amend engrossed joint resolution, page 2, strike lines 18 through 21 and 11 substitute "for women. The 1972 ERA, however, died more than four 12 decades ago without having acquired the requisite ratification by 38

 14 no longer rightly pending before Congress for amendment. In 2020, the 15 late Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg commented on the status
 16 of the ERA by saying: "I would like to start over. There's too much 17 controversy about latecomers [like] Virginia after the deadline passed.
 18 Plus, a number of states have withdrawn their ratification. So if you count 19 a latecomer on the plus side, how can you disregard states that said 'We 20 have changed our minds?'" ; and".

23 "WHEREAS, To become a proper amendment to the U.S. Constitution,
 24 adoption of the ERA would now require a new two-thirds majority vote
 25 in both the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate and would 26 require a new ratification, subsequent thereto, by three-fourths of the 27 States; and".

40 exemption from taxation pursuant to section 39-3-106 or 39-3-106.5 ~~shall~~ 41 MUST contain the following information: The legal description and 42 address of the real property or the address of the personal property being 43 claimed as exempt; the name and address of the owner of such property; 44 the name and telephone number of the agent of such property; the date the 45 owner acquired such property; the date the owner commenced using the 46 property for religious purposes; a complete list of all uses of the property 47 other than by the owner thereof during the previous twelve months; the 48 total amount of gross income specified in section 39-3-106.5 (1)(b)(I) and 49 the total amount of gross rental income resulting to the owner of such 50 property during the previous twelve months from uses for purposes other

52 39-3-127.7; and the total number of hours during the previous twelve

55 purposes of this ~~subparagraph (II)~~ SUBSECTION (1)(b)(II), if the owner did

1 not own the property being claimed as exempt during the entire
2 twelve-month period prior to filing such application, the application shall 3 MUST contain the required information for that portion of the 4 twelve-month period for which such property was owned by the owner
5 making application. Such application shall MUST also include a 6 declaration that sets forth the religious mission and religious purposes of 7 the owner of the property being claimed as exempt and the uses of such 8 property that are in the furtherance of such mission and purposes. Such 9 declaration shall MUST be presumptive as to the religious purposes for 10 which such property is used. If the administrator is unable to determine 11 whether the property qualifies for exemption based solely on the 12 information specified in this ~~subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (1)(b)(II), the 13 administrator may require additional information, but only to the extent
14 that the additional information is necessary to determine the exemption
15 status of the property. The administrator may challenge any declaration 16 included in the application only upon the grounds that the religious 17 mission and purposes are not religious beliefs sincerely held by the owner
18 of such property, that the property being claimed as exempt is not actually 19 used for the purposes set forth in such application, or that the property 20 being claimed as exempt is used for private gain or corporate profit.

21 (2) No assessor shall classify any real or personal property as 22 being exempt from taxation pursuant to the provisions of sections
23 39-3-106 to 39-3-113.5, ~~or~~ 39-3-116, OR 39-3-127.7 in any year unless

25 has been granted as provided for by law, nor shall any assessor classify 26 any real or personal property as being taxable after having been notified 27 in writing that such property has been determined to be exempt from 28 taxation by the property tax administrator.

29 (3) (a) (I) On and after January 1, 1990, and no later than April 15 30 of each year, every owner of real or personal property for which 31 exemption from general taxation has previously been granted shall file a 32 report with the administrator upon forms furnished by the division,
33 containing such information relative to the exempt property as specified
34 in ~~paragraph (b) of this subsection (3)~~ SUBSECTION (3)(b) OF THIS 35 SECTION, and signed under the penalty of perjury in the second degree.
36 Each such annual report shall MUST be accompanied by a payment of 37 seventy-five dollars, which shall MUST be credited to the property tax 38 exemption fund created in subsection (8) of this section. Each such 39 annual report filed later than April 15, but prior to July 1, shall MUST be 40 accompanied by a late filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars; except that 41 the administrator ~~shall have~~ HAS the authority to waive all or a portion of 42 the late filing fee for good cause shown as determined by the 43 administrator by rules adopted pursuant to subsection (7) of this section.
44 On and after January 1, 1990, every owner of real or personal property for 45 which exemption from general taxation has previously been granted 46 pursuant to the provisions of section 39-3-111 and that is used for any 47 purpose other than the purposes specified in sections 39-3-106 to 48 39-3-113.5 AND 39-3-127.7 for less than two hundred eight hours during 49 the calendar year or if the use of the property for such purposes results in 50 annual gross rental income to such owner of less than twenty-five 51 thousand dollars shall MUST not be required to file any annual report 52 pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (3). In order to claim such 53 exemption, in lieu of such annual report, the owner shall annually file 54 with the administrator a declaration stating that the property is used for

1 such purposes for less than two hundred eight hours during the calendar
2 year or THAT such use results in annual gross rental income to the owner
3 of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

4 (II) In the event an annual report is not received by June 1 from 5 an owner of real or personal property for which an exemption was granted 6 for the previous year pursuant to the provisions of sections 39-3-107 to 7 39-3-113.5, ~~or~~ 39-3-116, OR 39-3-127.7, the administrator shall give 8 notice in writing to such property owner by June 15 that failure to comply 9 by July 1 shall operate as a forfeiture of any right to claim exemption of 10 previously exempt property from general taxation for the current year.
11 Failure to timely file such annual report on or before July 1 ~~shall operate~~
12 OPERATES as a forfeiture of any right to claim exemption of such property 13 from general taxation for the year in which such failure occurs, unless an 14 application is timely filed and an exemption granted pursuant to the 15 provisions of ~~paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section~~ SUBSECTION
16 (1)(a) OF THIS SECTION. The administrator shall review each report filed 17 to determine if such property continues to qualify for exemption, and, if 18 it is determined that the property does not so qualify, the owner of such 19 property ~~shall~~ MUST be notified in writing of the disqualification, and the 20 assessor, treasurer, and board of county commissioners of the county in 21 which the property is located ~~shall~~ MUST also be so notified.

22 (b) (I) Any user of property which has been exempted pursuant to 23 the provisions of sections 39-3-107 to 39-3-113.5 AND 39-3-127.7 may 24 be required to provide such information as the property tax administrator 25 determines to be necessary in order to ascertain whether the users and 26 usages of the property are in compliance with the provisions of said 27 sections.

28 (II) (A) Except as otherwise provided in ~~sub-subparagraph (B) of~~ 29 ~~this subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (3)(b)(II)(B) OF THIS SECTION, any 30 annual report filed pursuant to ~~paragraph (a) of this subsection (3)~~
31 SUBSECTION (3)(a) OF THIS SECTION claiming exemption from taxation
32 pursuant to section 39-3-106 or 39-3-106.5 ~~shall~~ MUST contain the 33 following information: The legal description or address of the property 34 being claimed as exempt; the name and address of the owner of such 35 property; a complete list of all uses of such property other than by the 36 owner thereof during the previous calendar year; the amount of total gross 37 income specified in section 39-3-106.5 (1)(b)(I) and the total amount of 38 gross rental income resulting from uses of such property that are not for 39 the purposes set forth in sections 39-3-106 to 39-3-113.5 AND 39-3-127.7; 40 and the total number of hours that such property was used for purposes
41 other than the purposes specified in sections 39-3-106 to 39-3-113.5 AND 42 39-3-127.7. Such annual report ~~shall~~ MUST also include a declaration of 43 the religious mission and purposes of the owner of such property claimed 44 as being exempt and the uses of such property that are in the furtherance 45 of such mission and purposes. Such declaration ~~shall be~~ IS presumptive 46 as to the religious mission and religious purposes of the owner of such 47 property. If the administrator is unable to determine whether the property 48 continues to qualify for exemption based solely on the information
49 specified in this ~~subparagraph (H)~~ SUBSECTION (3)(b)(II), the 50 administrator may require additional information, but only to the extent
51 that the additional information is necessary to determine the exemption
52 status of the property. The administrator may challenge any declaration

1 included in such annual report only upon the grounds that the religious
 2 mission and purposes are not religious beliefs sincerely held by the owner
 3 of such property, that such property is not actually used for the purposes
 4 set forth in the annual report, or that the property being claimed as exempt

32 14-10-124.4. Family time for grandparents or 33 great-grandparents - short title - legislative declaration - definitions.

34 (1) THE SHORT TITLE OF THIS SECTION IS THE "GRANDPARENTS' RIGHTS 35 FOR AALIYAH AND MYAH ACT".

36 (2) (a) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FINDS AND DECLARES THAT:

37 (I) A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GRANDPARENTS OR 38 GREAT-GRANDPARENTS AND GRANDCHILDREN OR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN
39 CAN BE BENEFICIAL FOR THE HEALTH AND WELL-BEING OF 40 GRANDCHILDREN OR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN; AND

41 (II) GRANDPARENTS OR GREAT-GRANDPARENTS MAY PROVIDE 42 ACCEPTANCE, PATIENCE, LOVE, STABILITY, WISDOM, AND SUPPORT TO 43 GRANDCHILDREN OR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN.

44 (b) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FURTHER FINDS THAT IT MAY BE IN 45 THE BEST INTERESTS OF GRANDCHILDREN OR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN FOR 46 GRANDPARENTS OR GREAT-GRANDPARENTS TO BE GRANTED
47 GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME BECAUSE OF THE 48 POSITIVE EFFECTS THE RELATIONSHIP MAY HAVE ON A GRANDCHILD'S OR 49 GREAT-GRANDCHILD'S HEALTH AND WELL-BEING.

50 (3) AS USED IN THIS SECTION, UNLESS THE CONTEXT OTHERWISE
51 REQUIRES:

52 (a) "GRANDPARENT" MEANS A PERSON WHO IS THE PARENT OF A 53 CHILD'S FATHER OR MOTHER, WHO IS RELATED TO THE CHILD BY BLOOD, IN

1 WHOLE OR BY HALF, ADOPTION, OR MARRIAGE; EXCEPT THAT 2 "GRANDPARENT" DOES NOT INCLUDE THE PARENT OF A CHILD'S LEGAL 3 FATHER OR MOTHER WHOSE PARENTAL RIGHTS HAVE BEEN TERMINATED
 4 IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTIONS 19-5-101 AND 19-1-104 (1)(d).

5 (b) "GREAT-GRANDPARENT" MEANS A PERSON WHO IS THE 6 GRANDPARENT OF A CHILD'S FATHER OR MOTHER, WHO IS RELATED TO THE 7 CHILD BY BLOOD, IN WHOLE OR BY HALF, ADOPTION, OR MARRIAGE; 8 EXCEPT THAT "GREAT-GRANDPARENT" DOES NOT INCLUDE THE 9 GRANDPARENT OF A CHILD'S LEGAL FATHER OR MOTHER WHOSE PARENTAL
 10 RIGHTS HAVE BEEN TERMINATED IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTIONS
 11 19-5-101 AND 19-1-104 (1)(d).

12 (c) "GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME" OR 13 "GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME" MEANS ANY FORM OF CONTACT OR 14 ENGAGEMENT BETWEEN GRANDPARENTS OR GREAT-GRANDPARENTS AND 15 THEIR GRANDCHILDREN OR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN FOR THE PURPOSES OF 16 PRESERVING AND STRENGTHENING FAMILY TIES.

17 (4) [Formerly 19-1-117 (1)] Any grandparent or 18 great-grandparent of a child may, in the manner set forth in this section,
 19 seek a court order granting ~~the grandparent or great-grandparent~~
 20 reasonable ~~visitation rights~~ GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME WITH A
 21 GRANDCHILD OR GREAT-GRANDCHILD when there is or has been a child
 22 custody case or a case concerning the allocation of parental
 23 responsibilities ~~relating to that child~~ WITH RESPECT TO THAT CHILD.
 24 Because cases arise that do not directly deal with child custody or the 25 allocation of parental responsibilities but nonetheless have an impact on 26 the custody of, or parental responsibilities with respect to a child, for the 27 purposes of this section, a "case concerning the allocation of parental 28 responsibilities with respect to a child" includes any of the following, 29 whether or not child custody was or parental responsibilities were 30 specifically an issue:

31 (a) ~~That~~ The marriage of the child's parents has been declared
 32 invalid or has been dissolved by a court or ~~that~~ a court has entered a 33 decree of legal separation with regard to such marriage;

34 (b) ~~That~~ Legal custody of or parental responsibilities with respect 35 to the child have been given or allocated to a party other than the child's 36 parent or ~~that~~ the child has been placed outside of and does not reside in 37 the home of the child's parent, excluding any child who has been placed 38 for adoption or whose adoption has been legally finalized; or

39 (c) ~~That~~ The child's parent, who is the child of the grandparent or 40 grandchild of the great-grandparent, has died.

41 (5) [Formerly 19-1-117 (2)] A party seeking a ~~grandchild or~~ 42 ~~great-grandchild visitation~~ GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME order shall 43 submit, together with ~~his or her motion for visitation~~ THE PARTY'S 44 PETITION FOR GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME, to the district court for the 45 district in which the child resides, an affidavit setting forth facts
 46 supporting the requested order and shall give notice, together with a copy
 47 of ~~his or her~~ THE PARTY'S affidavit, to ~~the party who has legal custody of~~ 48 ~~the child or to the party with parental responsibilities~~ EACH PARTY
 49 INVOLVED IN THE ALLOCATION OF PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITIES
 50 PROCEEDINGS as determined by a court pursuant to THIS article 10. ~~of title~~
 51 ~~14, C.R.S.~~ The party with legal custody or parental responsibilities as 52 determined by a court pursuant to THIS article 10, ~~of title 14, C.R.S.~~ may 53 file opposing affidavits. If neither party requests a hearing, the court shall 54 enter an order granting ~~grandchild or great-grandchild visitation rights~~
 55 GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME to the petitioning grandparent or

1 great-grandparent only upon a finding that the GRANDPARENT FAMILY
 2 TIME is in the best interests of the child. A hearing ~~shall~~ MUST be held if 3 either party so requests or if it appears to the court that it is in the best
 4 interests of the child that a hearing be held. At the hearing, parties
 5 submitting affidavits ~~shall be~~ ARE allowed an opportunity to be heard. If,
 6 at the conclusion of the hearing, the court finds it is in the best interests
 7 of the child to grant ~~grandchild or great-grandchild visitation rights~~
 8 GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME to the petitioning grandparent or
 9 great-grandparent, the court shall enter an order granting ~~such rights~~
 10 GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME. IN DETERMINING THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE 11 CHILD FOR THE PURPOSE OF GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT
 12 FAMILY TIME, THE COURT SHALL PRESUME THE PARENTAL DETERMINATION
 13 REGARDING GRANDPARENT TIME IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD.
 14 A GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT MAY OVERCOME THE 15 PRESUMPTION UPON A SHOWING BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE
 16 THAT THE GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME IS IN THE CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS.
 17 IN MAKING THIS DETERMINATION, THE COURT SHALL CONSIDER THE 18 FACTORS DESCRIBED IN SECTION 14-10-124 (1.5)(a).

19 (6) THE COURT MAY APPOINT A LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE OF A 20 CHILD PURSUANT TO SECTION 14-10-116 TO REPRESENT THE BEST
 21 INTERESTS OF THE CHILD IN A PROCEEDING PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (5)
 22 OF THIS SECTION.

23 (7) [Formerly 19-1-117 (3)] A grandparent or great-grandparent
 24 shall not file ~~an affidavit~~ A PETITION seeking an order granting ~~grandchild~~
 25 ~~or great-grandchild visitation rights~~ GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME more
 26 than once every two years absent a showing of good cause. If the court
 27 finds there is good cause to file more than one such ~~affidavit~~ PETITION, it
 28 shall allow ~~such additional affidavit~~ SUCH ADDITIONAL PETITION to be 29 filed and shall consider it. The court may order reasonable attorney fees 30 to the prevailing party. The court may not make any order restricting the 31 movement of the child if such restriction is solely for the purpose of 32 allowing the grandparent or great-grandparent the opportunity to exercise
 33 ~~his grandchild or great-grandchild visitation rights~~ THE GRANDPARENT'S 34 OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT'S FAMILY TIME WITH THE GRANDCHILD OR 35 GREAT-GRANDCHILD.

36 (8) [Formerly 19-1-117 (4)] ~~The court may make an order~~
 37 ~~modifying or terminating grandchild or great-grandchild visitation rights~~
 38 ~~whenever such order would serve the best interests of the child~~ THE 39 COURT MAY ESTABLISH, MODIFY, OR TERMINATE GRANDPARENT FAMILY
 40 TIME IF THE ORDER WOULD SERVE THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD.

41 (9) [Formerly 19-1-117 (5)] ~~Any order granting or denying~~ 42 ~~parenting time rights to the parent of a child shall not affect visitation~~
 43 ~~rights granted to a grandparent or great-grandparent pursuant to this~~
 44 ~~section~~ AN ORDER ESTABLISHING, GRANTING, OR DENYING PARENTING
 45 TIME RIGHTS TO THE PARENT OF A CHILD DOES NOT AFFECT GRANDPARENT 46 FAMILY TIME GRANTED TO A GRANDPARENT OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT AS 47 LONG AS THE GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF 48 THE CHILD PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION.

49 (10) THIS SECTION DOES NOT AUTHORIZE VISITATION FOR A
 50 PERSON WHO IS NOT NAMED IN THE ORDER ESTABLISHING A GRANDPARENT 51 OR GREAT-GRANDPARENT FAMILY TIME WITH THE GRANDCHILD OR 52 GREAT-GRANDCHILD.

53 14-10-124.5. [Formerly 19-1-117.5] Disputes concerning
 54 grandparent or great-grandparent family time. (1) Upon a verified
 55 motion by a grandparent or great-grandparent who has been granted

 2 the court's own motion alleging that the person with legal custody or 3 parental responsibilities of the child as determined by a court pursuant to 14 responsibilities of the child as determined by the court of the time and 15 place of the hearing; or

16 (c) Require said parties to seek mediation and report back to the 17 court on the results of the mediation within sixty days. Mediation services

 19 the end of the mediation period, the court may approve an agreement
 20 reached by the parties or shall set the matter for hearing.

21 (2) After the hearing, if a court finds that the person with legal 22 custody or parental responsibilities of the child as determined by the court

21 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
 22 assembly finds and declares that:

23 (a) Multi-hazard early warning systems are a cost-effective
 24 emergency and disaster risk reduction measure that have resulted in 25 saving peoples' lives, reducing disruptions, reducing property losses, and 26 minimizing economic losses;

27 (b) In recent years, Colorado has experienced extremely 28 destructive wildfires, and it is in the interest of the state of Colorado to be 29 proactive in building resilient communities;

30 (c) Multi-hazard early warning systems provide a good return on 31 investment. The 2019 Global Commission on Adaptation report, "Adapt 32 Now", found early warning systems provide a more than tenfold return on 33 investment;

34 (d) Multi-hazard early warning systems are only as strong as their 35 weakest link, and one break or delay in information transfer, such as the 36 failure to communicate warnings in inclusive languages, may derail the 37 entire effort;

38 (e) Colorado is a diverse state where over 40 languages are 39 spoken, per the most recent census data, and diversity is one of its 40 strengths; and

41 (f) Early warning systems and dissemination alerts need to reach 42 and better support at-risk communities in a time- and language-sensitive 43 manner and focus on the last-mile outreach using a mix of communication
 44 channels. Collecting information about the state's emergency response 45 systems can inform future legislation to improve public safety.

46 (2) Therefore, the general assembly determines that it is in the best
 47 interests of the people of the state of Colorado to update the state's 48 emergency alert systems to ensure the systems are able to reach people in 49 multiple languages and to work together to proactively address
 50 emergency response for future disasters.

51 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 23-20-145 as 52 follows:

53 23-20-145. Language access emergency alert study -
 54 definitions - repeal. (1) (a) THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO'S NATURAL

6 DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY, MUNICIPALITIES, SHERIFF'S OFFICES,

9 (b) THE STUDY MUST:

10 (I) IDENTIFY THE ESSENTIAL COMPONENTS OF MULTI-HAZARD
11 EARLY WARNING SYSTEMS NECESSARY IN ORDER TO EASILY AND 12 SUCCESSFULLY REACH RESIDENTS AND VISITORS WITHOUT HAVING TO OPT
13 IN, AS WELL AS OPT-IN OPTIONS, OUTPUTS FOR EMERGENCY ALERT
14 SYSTEMS AND MESSAGES, AND THE ABILITY TO PROVIDE EMERGENCY
15 ALERTS BY USING TRANSLATIONS IN MINORITY LANGUAGES;

16 (II) SURVEY STATE AGENCIES, COUNTIES, MUNICIPALITIES,
17 SHERIFF'S OFFICES, FIRE DISTRICTS, FIRE AUTHORITIES, AND LOCAL 911

19 EMERGENCY ALERT SYSTEMS USED IN COLORADO AND COMPARE THEM TO

25 MUNICIPALITIES, SHERIFF'S OFFICES, COUNTIES, FIRE DISTRICTS, AND LOCAL 26 911 AGENCIES IN OBTAINING EMERGENCY RESPONSE TECHNOLOGY
27 SYSTEMS THAT CAN PROVIDE EMERGENCY ALERTS IN MINORITY
28 LANGUAGES;

29 (V) DETERMINE BEST PRACTICES, WHICH MAY BE IDENTIFIED BY 30 REVIEWING PROGRAMS IN OTHER STATES, FOR HIRING MULTILINGUAL AND 31 MULTICULTURAL STAFF;

33 COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS WITH CONNECTIONS TO POPULATIONS THAT 42 SAFETY AND TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY BY NOVEMBER 1, 2023.
