On motion of Majority Leader Rodriguez, and with the unanimous consent of those elected to the Senate, the Senate stood in recess to hear the opening day remarks of Senate President Steve Fenberg and Senate Minority Leader Paul Lundeen.

Senate in recess..

The text of President Fenberg's remarks follow.

Mr. Majority Leader, Mr. President Pro Tempore, Mr. Minority Leader - friends, colleagues, loved ones - good morning, and welcome to the second session of the 74th General Assembly of the Colorado State Senate!

It's an honor to be with you all here today. I want to start off by recognizing a few folks.

My wife Lindsay is here today. Lindsay, your support has been immense, but I also know there isn't a bigger fan of term limits than you.

And of course the real reason why I come to work every day...my best friends in the whole wide world: my daughters Isa and Marlow.

My Board of County Commissioners is here as well: Claire Levy, Marta Loachamin, and Ashley Stolzman.

And the Mayors from my district: Boulder Mayor Aaron Brocket, Louisville Mayor Chris Leh, and Superior Mayor Mark Lacis.

It's been a year of change for many of us - and we have some new faces and roles in the Chamber I'd like to acknowledge.

Most importantly, I want to extend an extremely warm welcome to our newest Senator, Dafna Michaelson Jenet!

She's been with us for a few months now - and of course most of us have worked with her in the House - but we are still very excited to work alongside you, Senator, and we look forward to the great work you'll do here in the Senate.

Senator Michaelson Jenet's arrival here was necessitated by the departure of former Majority Leader and current traitor, Dominick Moreno, who broke our hearts this summer when he decamped for the greener pastures - across the street at the City of Denver.

I used to refer to Dom as my work husband. He would quickly correct me and say he felt a little more comfortable in the work wife role. And while I am excited to work alongside the new Majority Leader, I gotta admit, I am not quite sure I'm ready to call you my wife just yet, Robert.

But I'm sure we'll get there. Congratulations on your new role.

Another new addition to our leadership team is Senator Faith Winter, who is now serving as our Assistant Majority Leader. Congratulations to you as well, Senator.

You'll also see a few new faces up here at the desk and on the floor. I'm excited to introduce our new members of the non-partisan staff to the team. Tammy, Eric, Mary, Shannon, Wayne, Mary Ann - welcome aboard!

As for those who came back - Ryan, Jonathan, John, Frank, Ted, Matthew, Sadia, Rick, Tom, Randy, and Ben - thanks for sticking around, and for your continued service to the Senate.

I want to recognize two people who have been with me on this journey from almost the very beginning. Mindy Miller and Nellie Moran. We've been through a lot together and

I'd also like to take a moment to recognize someone who we all thought would have ridden off into the sunset by now, maybe seeing a show at the Sphere or sitting out at the pool with a cocktail...but you just can't seem to quit us, can you?

The true public servant of the Senate. The most committed and caring Secretary this chamber has ever had, Cindi Markwell. You're like a second encore from your favorite band-where you know in your heart that if you just clap harder and longer, they'll come back. And you did and we're forever grateful for it. Please join me in thanking Cindi for all that she has given to the Colorado Senate.

However, Cindi, I think you have now retired 17 times. So, I'm going to say this into the record: Cindi, when we have late nights or when a certain Senator starts "Bobbing" for hours upon hours, you should deputize your very competent front desk staff, go home, be with family, or just simply get some rest. Eventually we're going to need to figure out how to exist without you, so we might as well start practicing now.

It takes a lot to keep this place running. Our system of self-governance depends on people like Cindi, and everyone else in this room, in this building, and in our state to help ensure civil society and our institutions persist. This is what I want to speak about today on this inaugural day of the second session of the 74th General Assembly-my last session serving with you in this chamber.

The 35 of us have been given an incredible honor by the people of Colorado. Each of us plays an integral role in the democratic process. Our job is to take the values, beliefs, and experiences of our constituents and translate that into casting votes on their behalf, on issues related to just about every topic you could think of.

From critically important topics like license plate designs, to uncontroversial, mundane bills like land use, we have the amazing opportunity to weigh in on a myriad of issues.

After all, the legislative process is how we, as a group of millions of people who come from different walks of life, who have different priorities, and who maybe even believe in different facts, come together and make collective decisions for our state.

We are called politicians. Public figures. Legislators. Lawmakers. Often we're called much worse.

Yes we are all of those things. But we are also something far more important, if less prestigious: we are caretakers. Caretakers of this great chamber. Of our great state. Of this democracy.

The democracy we're charged with defending is the foundation that underpins our republic. The ideals of our democracy can and should remain stable - but our values, our ideas, and the people that animate and utilize those concepts to effect change and govern our great state can, and should, evolve.

I used to think, back when I first got elected, that my job was to be a radical change maker, to push the boundaries every day for what I believed in. To be more of an activist than a politician.

I now have a much simpler, perhaps less exciting, vision of what the job is.

Yes, we are political actors who have agendas and ideologies. On the campaign trail, we're candidates. At the town hall, we're public officials. On the nightly news, we're spokespeople.

But when you walk into this building, when you sit at the dais in committee in front of a nameplate, when you sit at one of the 35 oak desks in this chamber that have been here more than a century, you're simply a moment in time. You are one of 35 who have the honor-the responsibility-to ensure there will be moments in time after you leave.

It may seem like a low bar, but our first job is to not mess it up.

Maybe I'm full of it. I drank the Kool-Aid and sold out. And this whole place is actually designed to keep the status quo. I walk up the steps of the rotunda every morning and get intoxicated by the marble and beautiful gold dome and stained glass windows. Maybe it was built that way to get us to fall in line and defend the institution instead of attacking it with change.

Maybe.

But it worked - and my time here has made me okay with it. Because if this institution-this thing we call democracy-was simply just a shell to be filled with political agendas every two or four years, it would be a recipe for a volatile government that probably would've collapsed generations ago.

If this place was simply a vessel for the populism of the day that swings with the blowing winds of trends and slogans, the pendulum would eventually swing off its hinge. It would result in the erosion of the institution. Of democracy. Perhaps even civil order itself.

Our founders and the architects of this great civic temple didn't-and couldn't have-accounted for some of the things threatening it today. One of those threats is that an enormous amount of political debate no longer occurs primarily in the physical boundaries of these marble walls - or even in face-to-face conversations of any type. More often than not, it's happening on our phones.

It's happening through anonymous tweets where civil debate has been replaced by algorithms that are designed for outrage, not understanding.

Or it's a nightly news anchor who has made the calculus that viewership rises not with stories of bipartisanship, problem-solving, and collegiality, but with deadlock, drama, and corruption.

Or it's increasingly us-the legislators-who sit there thinking about the quippy social media post that scores points with our followers instead of taking the time to walk across the room and talk to our colleague. Too often our words and actions breed cynicism, feed hate for those we disagree with, and encourage more yelling, and less listening.

We must resist the urge to be performers. We must remind ourselves that to be a caretaker of this institution, we need to legislate for constituents, not for twitter. We must live up to the same standards that every man or woman who sat in our desks before us over the last 150 years has lived up to.

That's not to say our democracy and our institutions should be frozen in time. And, of course, our goal should not be to preserve the status quo simply for status quo's sake. Just because that's how it's always been done isn't good enough. That's not what I mean by calling on us to be caretakers.

But the way we approach debating ideas and how we treat each other - in other words, how we show up in our democracy - impacts the stability of the institution itself.

If you think about it, with all that is working against it, the fact that we still have a democracy is actually quite remarkable. It takes hard work to stay above the fray, especially when the alternative seems to be rewarded these days. But if we've learned anything the last several years, it's that democracy is incredibly fragile.

In the blink of an eye, our entire world can change. Just ask the Israelis to compare their lives from October 6th to October 8th. Or the Palestinian civilians who suddenly not only don't have a home, they don't have a neighborhood, a family, or even a functioning society.

It's mind-boggling how fast our politics-and our world-can change these days. And it's only speeding up.

In the coming years, our democracy and our institutions will be tested like they've never been tested before:

- The promise and peril of AI.
- The threat of a court-declared insurrectionist, a man who fomented a violent attack on our nation's Capital and our democracy once again rising to power.
- Multiple wars raging across the globe backed by superpowers, perhaps as preview proxies for larger, more existential battles yet to come.

So, being a caretaker of an institution might not be why we ran for office. but, if you think about all that is happening in this crazy world right now, and all the forces that are actively working against our democracy's survival, it suddenly seems like the most courageous and important thing we could possibly do with the positions of power that we hold, is to simply do our part to ensure it continues.

It is more important now than ever that we remind ourselves that we are here as representatives of others to engage in deliberative debate aimed at solving problems. We were not sent here to shout at those we disagree with. We were not sent here to be a protest vote. We were sent here to fight for our values, not each other. We were sent here to govern.

We know that humans are social creatures and the norms in a society are contagious. But that also means that when norms break down, that breakdown too is contagious. And you can't predict where it ends. We saw a small glimpse of that in the special session-in both chambers.

I've certainly been guilty of it myself.

We are all responsible for our actions and for their consequences. So I ask you: what will our actions be this session, and what will the consequences of those actions be for this institution?

My hope is for rigorous debate that results in better policy outcomes. My hope is for critical eyes on each piece of legislation that moves through this body, no matter if it's sponsored by Democrat or Republican. My hope is that we use the tools available to us to shape the world around us for the better. And that we do it together more often than apart, and that will result in strengthening this institution.

Yes, we should fight like hell for what we believe in. We should work day and night on crafting the policies we are passionate about. We should stand up for those who can't stand up for themselves. But, most importantly, we should double down on a commitment to do all of it with deliberation, civility, and integrity.

That's the gift that democratic legislative systems give us. They allow us, each year, to begin anew, to come to work and engage with each other's ideas, so we may confront the challenges facing us today. And each year, to recommit to how we will work with one another.

Today I'm making that commitment, and hope all of you will as well.

And let's face it—we're going to need to make that commitment together if we're going to make progress on the immense challenges facing us:

- We are still facing the impacts of climate change on our landscapes and rivers. I don't know about you, but I hope my daughters will experience the same sense of wonder that the beauty of Colorado's natural spaces instilled in me.
- But what good is clean air and healthy forests if only the rich can enjoy them? Everything has gotten more expensive. I hope for my daughters to be able to afford to raise their daughters here. To have a home where they feel safe, secure, and happy.
- And speaking of children, I hope for an education system that no longer strives for the national average, but instead sets a new standard for how to truly prepare the next generation.

Luckily, the solutions for turning those hopes into reality are right in front of us. Build more homes. Fully fund our schools. Expand transportation options. Preserve our public lands.

We have major opportunities this session to make our mark for generations to come.

Take the opportunity with school funding. Thanks to the responsible budgeting of Senators Zenzinger, Bridges, and Kirkmeyer and the Joint Budget Committee, we're finally going to eliminate the budget stabilization factor. Once and for all.

This will help us get on a path to pay teachers what their profession deserves, and provide the much-needed classroom resources our students require.

For years now, we've been shortchanging our schools, and robbing our most critical assets of the care, training, and education they need to reach their potential. School is where our kids find themselves, shape their futures, and become all that they can be.

But students, and the teachers who guide and shape their growing minds, can't reach their potential without the proper resources.

The last time we fully funded our schools at the level required by our Constitution, President Obama had yet to shock the world by wearing a tan suit. The Office was a huge hit on TV, instead of a huge hit on streaming. My hair was brown.

The hole we've dug ourselves out of is immense: over time, we've shortchanged schools to the tune of nearly $10 billion dollars.

Now, we're on a path to pay off that IOU. That's a big deal. Is it going to be enough? Of course not. But we will stop acting from a place of scarcity and move to a mindset of building for the future. We must remind ourselves that this is the floor, not the ceiling. It's the bare minimum, not the end goal.

Our kids deserve it. Our educators deserve it. Our state deserves it and our communities need it, and we're going to deliver, so that every Colorado student can get the education they need to thrive.

Another opportunity is to tackle head-on the housing affordability crisis. We need to do more to ensure more of us can afford to live, work, and play in the communities that we call home.

Population growth and a huge demand for housing has outpaced new construction, making it incredibly difficult for Coloradans to become first time homeowners, and making our state unaffordable for renters. The long tail of the pandemic is partially to blame. But policy-makers like ourselves must accept some of the responsibility as well - and we have a job to do.

If we don't do something, the opportunity to shape our state's future will slip through our hands. 1

Everyone deserves a safe, affordable place to call home. To achieve that, this year, we will 4 work to help communities across the state increase the housing supply of for-sale and 5 for-rent properties. 6
7

We'll also do more to make sure folks can stay in their homes once they've achieved their 8
American Dream. 9
10

Spiking housing prices have brought the property tax question in Colorado to a crescendo 11
- and it turns out the answer was definitely not a certain double-lettered ballot initiative. 12 13

We've provided significant relief to ease the pain for vulnerable folks over the past few 14 years and during the special session - but that won't ensure we aren't in this position again 15 in the future. 16
17

We need a long-term solution that ensures our local communities and the services we all 18 rely on-libraries, fire departments, and schools-have the resources they need while 19 keeping property taxes reasonable. Over the next couple of months, a bipartisan task force 20 will work to identify those solutions, and make recommendations on delivering relief 21 without shortchanging essential local services. 22
23

But, of course, we can't talk about just building more homes. We also need to talk about 24
how we get to and from those homes. 25
26

The passage of SB260 a few years ago finally put us on a more sustainable path to fund 27
our state's transportation backlog, but we can, and we must dream bigger. 28 29

For one, we have an opportunity before us to take the Federal Government up on their 30 commitment and bring in hundreds of millions of dollars to turn a statewide transit system 31 into a reality. 32
33

We can see a future where a statewide rail system makes it easy, affordable, and safe to 34 travel the entire length of our great state-Fort Collins to Pueblo- without ever touching an 35 interstate. 36
37

I can imagine regular and reliable train service to all that our mountain communities have 38 to offer without having to first survive a harrowing drive up I-70. 39 40

And we can all imagine the impacts it will have on our traffic and emissions if that rail 41 system serves as a backbone to expanded and reliable bus and transit service that helps 42 take thousands of cars off our roads. 43
44

Thanks to critical funding from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, Colorado has the 45 opportunity to turn the dream of a truly statewide rail system that connects to bus and 46 transit services into reality. This session, we must ensure Colorado gets its fair share of the 47 federal infrastructure funds, and deliver the legacy of a modern, clean, and safe 48 transportation system for generations to come. 49
50

The list of goals we hope to accomplish is long. But we're already well on our way, and 51 luckily we have a great team that is pushing to make these dreams reality. Later today, 52
we'll start introducing bills that will be the first steps in the long journey of the session. 53
54

We'll introduce Senator Michaelson Jenet's bill to permanently extend the critical I Matter 55 program, which provides up to six free mental health visits for students, and Senator 56
Sullivan's bill to help the Colorado Bureau of Investigations to investigate and prevent 57 gun violence. We'll introduce Senator Fields' and Senator Pelton's bipartisan bill to better 58 support veterans, and Senator Roberts' and Senator Simpson's bipartisan bill to conserve 59 more water. 60
61

This session we'll also be introducing bills to further our work of acknowledging the 62 wrongs of the past while setting ourselves up to ensure inclusive opportunity for all in the 63 future. 64
65

We'll expand access to quality, affordable healthcare and invest in programs to foster a 66 workforce that meets our state's needs. 67

We'll help communities prepare for, prevent, and respond to catastrophic wildfires. 1
2
And that's just to start. The promise of a new session means we still have all of the time 3 we need to exchange ideas and work together in this laboratory of democracy to solve 4 problems. 5
6
I'm excited to see what we come up with. 7
8
But I'm also feeling a little bittersweet. This is my final Opening Day. 9 10
And that's ultimately a good thing. We're a citizen legislature and we must always 11 remember that. In the spirit of my friend, Hugh McKean, we must remember to take the 12 work seriously, but not ourselves. 13
14
This time next year, I'll go from being Mr. President to former Mr. President to some of 15
you. But to most, just Steve. 16
17
But before you get too excited, for these next 120 days...I'm still in charge. And I will do 18 everything in my power to ensure the Senate continues to be the Senate. The Upper 19
Chamber, where logic, reason, and thoughtful debate rule the day, not group-think and 20 raw partisanship. Where we embrace what the Senate was designed to do: slow down 21 when needed and deliberate. 22
23
I will spend these next 120 days ensuring that we leave this institution better than we 24 found it. To take care of this institution, and I hope you will ask yourselves how you'll do 25 your part to be that caretaker as well. 26 27
I have one idea I'd like to impart on how you can do that. It's the same challenge I gave on 28 last year's opening day. And that is that we need to build stronger relationships with each 29 other. Get that beer after a long committee hearing. Sit in each other's offices and get lost 30 in conversation. Visit each other in our districts, get to know each other's families. If we 31 can commit to doing the most human thing we can do-build relationships-then we're more 32 likely to solve problems not as Democrats or Republicans, but as Coloradans. Coloradans 33 who care deeply about this chamber, about our democracy, and about our state. 34 35
Let's do everything we can to remember that we can sometimes be opponents, but we're 36 never enemies. We can do that by connecting with each other not just on a policy or 37 political level, but on a human level. 38
39
I am excited for these next 120 days. But the countdown begins today. So, let's use them 40 to their fullest. To make a difference for all the hard working individuals and families 41 across this great state. They're counting on us. So let's get to work. 42 43
Thank you. 44

I use those words with consideration, welcome back, it's good to see you. 54
55

Please join me, if you would, in extending a special welcome to Yemi Mobablade, the 56
mayor of Colorado Springs, Olympic City USA and the permanent home of US Space 57 Command. Thank you colleagues. I notice that Aurora Mayor Mike Coffman, former 58
Congressman, is here as well. Mayor Coffman. 59
60

We now return to the very specific and very special business of legislating-creating the 61 laws that govern our society, control our state government, and hopefully make the people 62 of Colorado more free, to live the lives they choose, and pursue the dreams to which they 63 aspire. 64
65
66

As we gather here with our aspirations for the policies we are eager to champion, it is critically important we be actively attentive to the perspectives of the people who sent us here with the expectation that we would serve them- and this is an echo in many ways of what the President just said- as the temporary custodians of the sovereignty they inherently possess. A sovereignty that gives them authority to master and control their government in the grand experiment of representative democracy we call America.

In this chamber, it is not our business to raise armies, secure the nation's borders or launch a navy. But that makes the work we do in the next 119 days no less important in the lives of the people we represent. In fact-because the work we do is physically closer to the homes and businesses of Coloradans and it is meted out with local specificity it may in fact be more important.

A word before I move on to policy about how we do that business. Decorum is fundamental to the success of our work, and fundamental to achieving the goals created in representation the sovereignty of the people whom we represent. We must be able to bring disparate conflicting ideas together in a way that is rich with the values presented, and equally rich in respect for the process in the people in whom we engage with that process. The question is, will the noise and obstreperous behavior outside this chamber influence us? Or will we influence, for the better, the noise and challenging behavior outside this chamber?

I would say today, we have already heard echoes of that, and the positive potential influence of this chamber. We heard noise in the house gallery and noise in the rotunda, appropriate in some ways, at the edge of decorum in others. And we heard a homily and prayer presented side by side from a Rabbi and an Imam in this chamber.

I would echo many of the comments that the President has just said about how we conduct ourselves, and I would pull from this speech two words: civility, in our engagement with each other, and integrity in our engagement with each other. Mr. President, again, I thank you for your comments.

Recent reports have given us a stark reality check, painting a picture of Colorado that we cannot afford to ignore.

Just a short time ago, we were ranked by a popular business network (CNBC) as the 4th best place to do business in the nation, but now we find ourselves slipping to the 11th spot. Our state's cost of living has received a dismal D+ rating, and the inflation rate for food has reached levels not seen since 1979, and I graduated from high school in 1977- that was a long time ago.

The statistics are daunting: the price of flour is up 22%, rice and cheese up 20%, and essential items like milk, ground beef, bread, eggs, and coffee beans collectively up 35% in just five years. These numbers represent not just statistics, but the daily struggles of our fellow Coloradans.

Among other challenges, the cost of living is driving our residents away. Denver, once known for its growth and prosperity, witnessed the 9th highest outflow of residents in the country between October and December last year. People who have called this state home for generations, are tapping out and leaving because daily life is becoming increasingly unaffordable, frequently at the hands of the policies we produce in this chamber.

The plight of our small businesses cannot be overlooked either. They are straining under the weight of regulations and burdens imposed upon them by this legislature. A recent survey by the Colorado Chamber of Commerce reveals that the cost of living and the lack of affordable housing are the two biggest barriers to recruiting and retaining workforce talent.

An alarming 86% of our state's business leaders find it more expensive to conduct business in the front range of Colorado compared to other states, primarily due to excessive regulations and mandates.

Affordable housing is fundamental. It's an issue intertwined with our need to reform Colorado's construction defects laws. These laws promote litigation, stifling the construction of much-needed for-sale multi-family housing. The solution to affordable housing necessitates hundreds of billions of dollars of investment, which are currently flowing into homes in other states. Initiatives, like Proposition 123 and public policy responses address only a fraction of the problem. We must entice investment back to Colorado, for that is the only way to tackle the remaining 99% of this housing crisis.

Relief, relief, relief! These are the words that should echo in this chamber and resound throughout our state. 65% of businesses in a recent statewide survey are calling for relief from the regulations that create mandates and increase costs, which cascade onto the backs of the people of Colorado with inevitability. We have heard their voices, and we must heed their call.

Colleagues, friends, fellow senators, we are at a crossroads. The future of our state, the prosperity of our people, and the survival of our small businesses are all hanging in the balance. It is our solemn duty to provide relief to the people and businesses of Colorado. We must work together to alleviate the burdens that have been imposed upon them. Let us advance Colorado to a better glory as a thriving state where businesses flourish, families thrive, and dreams are within reach.

I implore you to join us in this call for relief, to act decisively and swiftly to address these pressing issues, and to ensure that the people of Colorado have the opportunity to lead prosperous lives in the state we all love and hold so dear.

Thank you.

Senate reconvened.

On motion of Majority Leader Rodriguez, and with the unanimous consent of those elected to the Senate, the above remarks of President Fenberg and Minority Leader Lundeen were ordered spread upon the pages of the journal.

COMMITTEE OF REFERENCE REPORTS

Trans- portation & Energy	After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends that SB24-036 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to the Committee on Finance with favorable recommendation.	19

Amend printed bill, page 4, line 9, strike "THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF ECONOMIC". 21

Page 4, strike lines 10 through 13 and substitute "IN ADDITION, THE INSURANCE INSTITUTE FOR HIGHWAY SAFETY AND THE HIGHWAY LOSS DATA INSTITUTE HAVE FOUND THAT MOTOR VEHICLES WITH HOOD HEIGHTS OF MORE THAN FORTY INCHES ARE ABOUT FORTY-FIVE PERCENT MORE LIKELY TO CAUSE FATALITIES IN COLLISIONS WITH PEDESTRIANS THAN MOTOR VEHICLES WITH HOOD HEIGHTS OF THIRTY INCHES OR LESS, IN PART BECAUSE THEY CAUSE MORE HEAD AND TORSO INJURIES, AND AN ANALYSIS BY CONSUMER REPORTS FOUND THAT THE AVERAGE HOOD HEIGHT OF PASSENGER TRUCKS HAS INCREASED BY ELEVEN PERCENT SINCE 2000 AND THE WEIGHT OF NEW TRUCKS INCREASED BY TWENTY-FOUR PERCENT BETWEEN 2000 AND 2018. 22

(e) THE FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION SUPPORTS THE VISION OF HAVING ZERO TRAFFIC FATALITIES AND PROVIDES A LIST OF PROVEN SAFETY COUNTERMEASURES THAT WERE SELECTED BASED ON PROVEN RESEARCH THAT DEMONSTRATES THEIR EFFECTIVENESS. THESE STRATEGIES ARE DESIGNED TO IMPROVE SAFETY FOR ALL ROAD USERS, NOT ONLY VULNERABLE ROAD USERS, AND THE FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION STRONGLY ENCOURAGES TRANSPORTATION AGENCIES TO CONSIDER WIDESPREAD IMPLEMENTATION OF THESE MEASURES TO ACCELERATE THE ACHIEVEMENT OF LOCAL, STATE, AND NATIONAL SAFETY GOALS." 23

Reletter succeeding paragraph accordingly. 24

Page 4, line 20, strike "THE" and substitute "BOTH THE BENEFITS OF A SAFER TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM THAT THE ENTERPRISE PROVIDES TO ALL FEE PAYERS, INCLUDING THE LARGE NUMBER OF FEE PAYERS WHO BOTH REGISTER MOTOR VEHICLES AND USE OR HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO USE ROADS AS VULNERABLE ROAD USERS, AND THE VARYING".

Page 5, strike lines 1 through 6 and substitute:

Page 5, strike line 10 and substitute "INJURY, IT:

(I) MAKES IT LESS LIKELY THAT ANY GIVEN FEE PAYER'S MOTOR VEHICLE WILL BE INVOLVED IN SUCH A COLLISION, WHICH:

(A) REDUCES THE RISKS THAT THE FEE PAYER OR OTHER OPERATOR OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE OR A PASSENGER IN THE MOTOR VEHICLE WILL BE KILLED OR INJURED IN OR THAT THE MOTOR VEHICLE OR PROPERTY IN OR ATTACHED TO THE MOTOR VEHICLE WILL BE DAMAGED IN SUCH A COLLISION;

(B) REDUCES THE RISKS THAT THE OWNER OR OPERATOR OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE WILL BE LEGALLY LIABLE FOR THE DEATH OF OR INJURY TO SUCH AN OPERATOR OR PASSENGER OR THE DEATH OF OR INJURY TO A VULNERABLE ROAD USER OR FOR DAMAGE TO THEIR PROPERTY, SOME OF WHICH RISKS ARE GREATER FOR THE HEAVIER MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLES WITH CONFIGURATIONS THAT ARE MORE DANGEROUS TO VULNERABLE ROAD USERS ON WHICH THE ENTERPRISE WILL IMPOSE HIGHER MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION FEES; AND

(C) LOWERS THE COSTS OF MOTOR VEHICLE INSURANCE, ESPECIALLY FOR THE HEAVIER MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLES WITH CONFIGURATIONS THAT ARE MORE DANGEROUS TO VULNERABLE ROAD USERS AND ON WHICH THE ENTERPRISE WILL IMPOSE HIGHER MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION FEES; AND

(II) MAKES IT LESS LIKELY THAT A VULNERABLE ROAD USER, WHO IN MANY CASES IS ALSO A FEE PAYER, WILL BE KILLED OR SERIOUSLY INJURED IN SUCH AN ACCIDENT.

(b) IN ADDITION TO THE DIRECT BENEFITS THAT IT PROVIDES TO FEE PAYERS, THE ENTERPRISE ALSO PROVIDES IMPACT REMEDIATION SERVICES WHEN, IN EXCHANGE FOR THE PAYMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION FEES THAT IT IMPOSES ON MOTOR VEHICLES IN WEIGHT- AND CONFIGURATION-BASED AMOUNTS THAT INCREASE AS THE POTENTIAL HARM TO VULNERABLE ROAD USERS FROM SUCH MOTOR VEHICLES INCREASES, IT MAKES THE TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM SAFER SPECIFICALLY FOR VULNERABLE ROAD USERS AND MORE GENERALLY FOR ALL ROAD USERS."

Reletter succeeding paragraphs accordingly.

Page 5, line 11, after "PROVIDING" insert "DIRECT AND INDIRECT BENEFITS AND".

Page 5, line 12, strike "ARTICLE 4," and substitute "PART 16,".

The general assembly further finds that the state needs to implement incentives to encourage health-care professionals, geriatric advanced practice providers, and behavioral health-care providers to practice in these underserved areas and to encourage nursing faculty and other health-care professional faculty to teach health-care professionals.

(2) It is therefore the intent of the general assembly in enacting this part 5 to create a state health service corps program that uses state money; federal money, when permissible; and contributions from communities and private sources to help repay the outstanding education loans that many health-care professionals, geriatric advanced practice providers, behavioral health-care providers, candidates for licensure, nursing faculty, and health-care professional faculty hold. (4) IN ADDITION, FOR THE PURPOSES OF INCREASING THE AVAILABILITY OF LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS WHO HOLD A SPECIAL SERVICE PROVIDER LICENSE WITH THE APPROPRIATE ENDORSEMENT, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SHALL CREATE A STIPEND PROGRAM TO REDUCE THE BARRIERS FOR SCHOOL COUNSELORS WHO ARE SEEKING DUAL LICENSURE AS LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS. PROVIDING FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO SUPPORT SCHOOL COUNSELORS WHO SEEK DUAL LICENSURE AS LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS WILL HELP ALLEVIATE THE MENTAL AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH-CARE WORKFORCE SHORTAGE AND WILL PROVIDE MENTAL AND BEHAVIORAL HEALTH-CARE SUPPORTS TO STUDENTS.

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Over the last sixty years, Colorado families have conserved over three million three hundred thousand acres of working farms, ranches, and private lands across the state;

(b) Since 2000, Colorado has proactively invested in conservation through the conservation easement tax credit program;

(c) The conservation easement tax credit program incentivizes private landowners to voluntarily protect their properties, which creates public benefits to Colorado's lands, waters, wildlife, and people.

(d) The benefits of conservation are unique and wide-ranging. Conservation has contributed significantly to the protection of wildlife habitat, critical wetlands, urban open space, and working farms and ranches.

(e) The conservation easement tax credit program has aided Colorado in reducing its carbon emissions and accomplishing its biodiversity goals, while supporting rural economic resiliency, benefiting all Coloradans;

(f) In pursuit of greater equity in conservation, it is crucial to enhance programs that promote public benefits for all Coloradans; and

(g) Equity in conservation requires ongoing collaboration with private landowners, state and federal public land managers, and counties and municipalities. Underscoring and investing in the inclusion of underserved communities, tribes, and historically marginalized land interests will further amplify these efforts.

(2) Therefore, it is in the best interests of Coloradans to enhance the conservation easement tax credit program."

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) Child abuse and neglect is a crisis that affects the safety and welfare of vulnerable children on a global, national, state, and county level;

(b) Finding the appropriate temporary or permanent placement for vulnerable children is key to helping families successfully navigate the child welfare system;

(c) Although local placements are sought to mitigate disruption for these vulnerable children, there are times when a placement in another state is the best and most stable option;

(d) The interstate compact for the placement of children was created to allow assessment of placements in other states and to ensure services would be provided after placement;

(e) However, the existing interstate compact for the placement of children, established in 1960 and adopted by Colorado in 1975, is now applied inconsistently among the member states, creating delays and inconsistencies in placements;

(f) The revised interstate compact for the placement of children will remove barriers and allow for the timely placement of children in safe and appropriate homes. Additionally, member states will have the opportunity to participate in a rule-making process that will provide consistency in the implementation and application of the regulations.

(g) The revised interstate compact for the placement of children also provides additional clarifying language acknowledging that if a portion of the statutory language is found unconstitutional by a member state's highest court, that portion is severable from the compact for that state; and

(h) The first thirty-five states to pass the revised interstate compact will be included in the drafting process for the regulations.

(2) Therefore, the general assembly determines that:

(a) By adopting the revised language for the interstate compact for the placement of children, Colorado is ensured a voice at the table and can be a leader in bringing other states on board and drafting the new regulations that consider and reflect all Colorado stakeholder viewpoints; and

(b) Colorado representation at the interstate commission will ensure child, family, and parent voices are represented."

(b) 31% of women on dating apps surveyed had been sexually assaulted or raped by someone they met through a dating app;

(c) Three in four users experienced dating app-facilitated sexual violence, with the highest rates among LGBTQIA users;

(d) It is relatively easy for minors to create profiles and use dating apps, because most apps do not verify the identity or age of the account holder;

(e) Predators have repeatedly used dating app platforms for serial criminal enterprises for financial fraud, as well as stalking, homicide, and rape;

(f) Colorado is in the top five most dangerous states for online dating;

(g) The small size and inexpensive nature of available tracking devices enable tracking devices to increasingly be used to track people and their property without consent;

(h) From 2019 to 2023, there was a 550% increase in sexual deepfakes published online;

(i) Intimate image abuse, including images that are digitally created or altered, affects survivors' mental health, including a high risk of suicide, and may negatively impact survivors' employment prospects, academic success, and physical well-being; and

(j) The risks and reality of technology-facilitated crimes impacts the public and is a matter of statewide public safety and concern.

(2) Therefore, in order to improve the public health, safety, and welfare of Coloradans, it is necessary to ensure that:

(a) Each online dating service develops thoughtful and transparent safety policies that are posted in a conspicuous place on the service's website or app for users;

(b) Online dating services take prompt remedial action for misconduct carried out through dating sites or apps;

(c) Data regarding the frequency of reported misconduct and the responses of dating sites or apps is tracked and available to consumers;

March 12, 2024

The Honorable Colorado General Assembly
 74th General Assembly
 Second Regular Session
 Colorado State Capitol
 200 East Colfax Avenue Denver, CO 80203

Dear Honorable Members of the Colorado General Assembly,

Today, I signed into law Senate Bill 24-157, "Concerning Clarifying the Application of the Colorado Open Meetings Law to the Colorado General Assembly."

I am signing this bill today to provide clarity to the Legislature as it seeks to resolve ambiguities around their own conduct under the Colorado Open Meetings Law.

The notion of the separation of powers dates back to the 18th Century and is a core tenet of our democracy. As laid out in Federalist No. 48, branches of government must be "separate and distinct" yet also have "constitutional control" over one another. As a coequal branch of government, the Executive should rarely intrude on the inner workings of the Legislature, and the Executive Branch warrants the same deference from the Legislature on its internal operations.

The final version of Senate Bill 24-157 represents the approved path forward under Colorado Open Meetings Law for the Legislature itself, not the Executive nor Judicial Branches. As the Governor of Colorado, I respect this path passed by both chambers of the Legislature, and recognize the separate and distinct authority of the Legislature to determine, within reason, their own procedures to maintain transparency while modernizing and adapting the Legislative Branch to an ever-evolving society.

Sincerely,
(signed)
Jared Polis Governor
State of Colorado

Amendment No. 1(L.001), by Senator Roberts.

Amend printed bill, page 2, after line 1, insert:

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly holds in high regard the role of the Peace Officer Standards and Training Board in ensuring that law enforcement serves Coloradans in a manner that promotes the safety of every Coloradan through the establishment of clear standards for peace officers.

(2) The general assembly relies on the P.O.S.T. board to review applications for peace officer status and to make recommendations for statutory recognition of peace officer status for individuals and groups in Colorado. The P.O.S.T. board's expertise in this process is invaluable. The general assembly takes this extraordinary step of expanding the peace officer status for the administrator of judicial security in advance of the sunrise process established in statute due to the extraordinary circumstances facing the judiciary today.

(3) The general assembly finds that alarming events have occurred in recent months that have threatened the security of courthouses in Colorado and placed at risk the safety of litigants, lawyers, staff, judges, and the public as a whole. These events have hindered access to justice for Coloradans.

(4) The general assembly finds that the Colorado judicial department has demonstrated an immediate need for more peace officers who are qualified to help coordinate with federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies to ensure the safety of the public, staff, and judges at courthouses throughout Colorado. The general assembly encourages the P.O.S.T. board to review as quickly as possible an application from the judicial department and to work cooperatively with the judicial department on its efforts to expand the number of personnel who serve as peace officers under the position of administrator of judicial security.

(5) The general assembly finds that in 2017 the P.O.S.T. board approved the position of administrator of judicial security, and in 2018 the general assembly codified the position in statute. The general assembly finds that the office of the state court administrator needs multiple peace officers to address the growing and immediate security threats facing the state in order to ensure that courthouses throughout Colorado are safe places for Coloradans to find resolution to their legal disputes. The general assembly further finds that ensuring the safety and security of courthouses provides a clear and obvious public benefit, ensuring access to justice for all Coloradans."

Re-number succeeding sections accordingly.

BOARD. FOLLOWING REVIEW BY THE P.O.S.T. BOARD PURSUANT TO SECTION 16-2.5-201 AND UPON A FAVORABLE RECOMMENDATION FOR PEACE OFFICER STATUS FROM THE P.O.S.T. BOARD TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, TEMPORARY PEACE OFFICER STATUS FOR ADDITIONAL ADMINISTRATORS IS PERMANENT. IF THE POST BOARD DOES NOT RECOMMEND PEACE OFFICER STATUS FOR ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL UNDER THE TITLE OF JUDICIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATOR, THE TEMPORARY PEACE OFFICER STATUS EXPIRES ON JUNE 30, 2025, UNLESS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY PROVIDES OTHERWISE."

"SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds that:

(a) Access to affordable, quality housing is foundational to personal and financial stability and provides safety and life sustaining shelter, but it is also a vehicle for reducing childhood poverty and increasing economic mobility and intergenerational wealth;

(b) Colorado has a challenge insofar as, according to the state demographer, it has the sixth most expensive housing market in the nation;

(c) Our state's housing supply has not kept pace with our population growth. Between 2010 and 2020, the state added 126,000 fewer housing units than in the prior decade, and as of 2022, Colorado has an unmet housing need of between 65,000 and 100,000 units.

(d) To address this challenge, Colorado must not only increase the number of homes that are available for purchase or rent, but it must also ensure that the increased supply is a diverse combination of rental and home ownership opportunities that will meet the needs, preferences, and varied income levels of the people in our state;

(e) Multifamily for-sale housing is a critical component of this solution because it helps close the affordability gap and adds a needed element to the diverse mix of housing options the state can offer Coloradans, and historically condominiums have been the most affordable housing choice for

owner-occupied housing;

(f) Notwithstanding the fact that Colorado's population today is 20% greater than what it was in 2008, condominium construction in the front range has slowed dramatically and is now 76% lower than it was in the years between 2002 and 2008, and between 2007 and 2022, the number of entities developing condominiums decreased by 84%;

(g) Despite the downturn in construction, consumer demand for condominiums remains strong in Colorado;

(h) There were 2.4 resold condominiums for every new condominium sale in 2005, but in 2022, there were 30 condominium resales for every new sale, and this is especially true for affordably priced condominiums;

(i) At the same time that fewer mid-priced condominiums are being built, they are also becoming increasingly more expensive to construct, and that cost is passed on to the consumer in the form of higher sales prices;

(j) In 2005, the majority of new and existing condominium units were priced under $300,000 because of an adequate supply, but by 2023, only 2% of new condominiums built were priced under $300,000, and due to the severe lack of supply, currently only one-third of resale condominiums are available for a price under $300,000;

(k) While costs of labor and materials are increasing for all types of home construction, the cost increases associated with condominium construction have outpaced those associated with single-family home construction, and this is particularly evident as it relates to the cost for contractors' liability insurance;

(l) In Colorado, the high costs and frequency of construction liability litigation related to condominium development have driven insurance companies to raise insurance rates for developers;

(m) In recent years, insurance costs for condominiums surged to 5.5% of a project's hard costs, which was more than 233% higher than the insurance costs of multifamily rental home projects; and

(n) Colorado needs balanced public policy that decreases insurance costs by reducing the magnitude and frequency of defect claims, ensures that every homeowner has the right to pursue timely and effective remedies for defective construction, and ensures that such remedies are fair to the home buyer but do not prevent the construction of affordable multifamily for-sale housing options.

(2) The general assembly declares that this act will help bring down the building costs of affordably priced homes and create more opportunities to build wealth for Coloradans through home ownership.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 38-33.3-303.5, amend (1)(d)(I)(A) and (1)(d)(III) introductory portion as follows:

38-33.3-303.5. Construction defect actions - disclosure - approval by unit owners - definitions - exemptions. (1) (d) Approval by unit owners - procedures. (I) (A) Notwithstanding any provision of law or any requirement in the governing documents, the executive board ~~may~~ HAS THE RIGHT TO initiate the construction defect action only if authorized within the voting period by owners of units to which ~~a majority of~~ AT LEAST SIXTY PERCENT OF THE votes in the association are allocated. ~~Such~~ A UNIT OWNER VOTING IN FAVOR OF PROCEEDING WITH A CONSTRUCTION DEFECT ACTION MUST ALSO ACKNOWLEDGE IN WRITING THAT THE UNIT OWNER HAS RECEIVED THE DISCLOSURES REQUIRED UNDER SECTION 38-33.3-303.5 (1)(c) AND THAT THE UNIT OWNER HAS BEEN INFORMED OF THE UNIT OWNER'S OBLIGATION UNDER COLORADO LAW TO DISCLOSE KNOWN DEFECTS UPON SALE OF THE PROPERTY. The approval is not required for an association to proceed with a construction defect action if the alleged construction defect pertains ONLY to a facility that is intended and used for nonresidential purposes and if the cost to repair the alleged defect does not exceed fifty thousand dollars. ~~Such~~ THE approval is not required for an association to proceed with a construction defect action when the association is the DIRECT contracting party for the performance of labor or purchase of services or materials.

(III) Vote count - exclusions. For purposes of calculating the required ~~majority~~ vote under this subsection (1)(d) only, the following votes are excluded:

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 13-20-804, amend (1); repeal (2); and add (1)(e) and (3) as follows:

13-20-804. Restriction on construction defect negligence claims. (1) ~~No negligence claim seeking damages for a construction defect may be asserted in~~ A CLAIMANT IS BARRED FROM BRINGING OR MAINTAINING A CLAIM SEEKING DAMAGES FOR A CONSTRUCTION DEFECT AS an action if ~~such~~ THE claim

(III) PROVIDE TO THE CONSUMER INFORMATION, IF APPLICABLE, REGARDING THE CONSUMER'S RIGHT TO OPT OUT OF THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA CONCERNING THE CONSUMER FOR PURPOSES OF PROFILING IN FURTHERANCE OF DECISIONS THAT PRODUCE LEGAL OR SIMILARLY SIGNIFICANT EFFECTS CONCERNING THE CONSUMER UNDER SECTION 6-1-1306 (1)(a)(I)(C).

(b) ON AND AFTER FEBRUARY 1, 2026, A DEPLOYER THAT HAS DEPLOYED A HIGH-RISK ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM TO MAKE, OR BE A SUBSTANTIAL FACTOR IN MAKING, A CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION CONCERNING A CONSUMER SHALL, IF THE CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION IS ADVERSE TO THE CONSUMER, PROVIDE TO THE CONSUMER:

(I) A STATEMENT DISCLOSING THE PRINCIPAL REASON OR REASONS FOR THE CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION, INCLUDING:

(A) THE DEGREE TO WHICH, AND MANNER IN WHICH, THE HIGH-RISK ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM CONTRIBUTED TO THE CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION;

(III) AN OPPORTUNITY TO APPEAL AN ADVERSE CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION CONCERNING THE CONSUMER ARISING FROM THE DEPLOYMENT OF A HIGH-RISK ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM, WHICH APPEAL MUST, IF TECHNICALLY FEASIBLE, ALLOW FOR HUMAN REVIEW UNLESS PROVIDING THE OPPORTUNITY FOR APPEAL IS NOT IN THE BEST INTEREST OF THE CONSUMER, INCLUDING IN INSTANCES IN WHICH ANY DELAY MIGHT POSE A RISK TO THE LIFE OR SAFETY OF SUCH CONSUMER.

(c) (I) THE CONSUMER, BASED ON THE INFORMATION IN THE STATEMENT PROVIDED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (4)(b)(I) OF THIS SECTION, BEARS THE BURDEN OF DEMONSTRATING THAT THERE WAS A MATERIAL ERROR OR OMISSION WARRANTING HUMAN REVIEW PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION (4)(b)(III) OF THIS SECTION.

(II) A DEPLOYER THAT HAS DEPLOYED A HIGH-RISK ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE SYSTEM TO MAKE, OR BE A SUBSTANTIAL FACTOR IN MAKING, A CONSEQUENTIAL DECISION CONCERNING A CONSUMER MAY CONTRACTUALLY AGREE TO HAVE A DEVELOPER PROVIDE THE NOTICES AND DISCLOSURES TO AND CONDUCT THE APPEAL PROCESS REQUIRED BY THIS SUBSECTION (4) FOR CONSUMERS.

(d) (I) EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (4)(d)(II) OF THIS SECTION, A DEPLOYER SHALL PROVIDE THE NOTICE, STATEMENT, CONTACT INFORMATION, AND DESCRIPTION REQUIRED BY SUBSECTIONS (4)(a) AND (4)(b) OF THIS SECTION:

(A) DIRECTLY TO THE CONSUMER;

(B) IN PLAIN LANGUAGE;

(C) IN ALL LANGUAGES IN WHICH THE DEPLOYER, IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF THE DEPLOYER'S BUSINESS, PROVIDES CONTRACTS, DISCLAIMERS, SALE ANNOUNCEMENTS, AND OTHER INFORMATION TO CONSUMERS; AND

(D) IN A FORMAT THAT IS ACCESSIBLE TO CONSUMERS WITH DISABILITIES.

(II) IF THE DEPLOYER IS UNABLE TO PROVIDE THE NOTICE, STATEMENT, CONTACT INFORMATION, AND DESCRIPTION REQUIRED BY SUBSECTIONS (4)(a) AND (4)(b) OF THIS SECTION DIRECTLY TO THE CONSUMER, THE DEPLOYER SHALL MAKE THE NOTICE, STATEMENT, CONTACT INFORMATION, AND DESCRIPTION AVAILABLE IN A MANNER THAT IS REASONABLY CALCULATED TO ENSURE THAT THE CONSUMER RECEIVES THE NOTICE, STATEMENT, CONTACT INFORMATION, AND DESCRIPTION.

(5) (a) ON AND AFTER FEBRUARY 1, 2026, AND EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN SUBSECTION (6) OF THIS SECTION, A DEPLOYER SHALL MAKE AVAILABLE, IN A MANNER THAT IS CLEAR AND READILY AVAILABLE ON THE DEPLOYER'S WEBSITE, A STATEMENT SUMMARIZING:

(a) THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION APPLIES TO FEES INCREASED ONLY BY:

(I) LEGISLATION ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON OR AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT;

(II) RULES OF THE APPLICABLE RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY ON OR AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT; AND

(III) FORMAL APPROVAL OR ENACTMENT BY A GOVERNING BOARD WITH LEGAL AUTHORITY TO ASSESS AND RAISE FEES ON OR AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

(b) IF A FEE EXISTS IN STATE LAW OR RULES BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT AND IS SUBJECT TO A TIMEFRAME, SCHEDULE, ADJUSTMENT, OR MATHEMATICAL FORMULA WITH PREDETERMINED OBJECTIVE COMPONENTS FOR INCREASING THE FEE, ANY INCREASE TO THE FEE AMOUNT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN INCREASE FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION.

(c) THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT DESCRIBED IN SUBSECTION (1) OF THIS SECTION DOES NOT APPLY TO FEES ESTABLISHED BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. A FEE IS ESTABLISHED BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT IF, REGARDLESS OF WHEN THE FEE BEGINS TO BE CHARGED OR OTHERWISE ASSESSED, THE FEE IS CREATED BY LEGISLATION OR RULES ENACTED OR ADOPTED BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT OR THE FEE IS CREATED BY A CITIZEN-INITIATED MEASURE THAT TAKES EFFECT BEFORE THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

(B) "FAIR SHARE" DOES NOT MEAN A MATHEMATICAL CERTAINTY OR APPROXIMATION OF THE PAYER'S TOTAL BENEFIT IN COMPARISON TO THE TOTAL PAYERS THAT REMIT THE FEE.

(III) "SPECIFIC BENEFIT" MEANS A SERVICE, ITEM, OR OTHER TYPE OF DIRECT OR INDIRECT BENEFIT CONFERRED ON THE PAYER OF THE FEE, WHICH MAY INCLUDE BENEFITS REALIZED THROUGH INVESTMENTS IN PUBLIC PRIORITIES, NEEDS, INTERESTS, PROGRAMS, INFRASTRUCTURE, AND SERVICES, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE SPECIFIC BENEFIT IS DIRECTLY USED BY THE PAYER, WHETHER THE PAYER CHOOSES TO AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THE SPECIFIC BENEFIT, AND WHETHER THE SPECIFIC BENEFITS ARE MADE AVAILABLE TO PERSONS THAT DO NOT PAY THE FEE.

(IV) "VOLUNTARILY INCURRED" MEANS A PAYER IS NOT FORMALLY COMPELLED, REQUIRED, OR MANDATED TO PAY A FEE AND HAS THE ABILITY TO REFUSE, TAKE ACTION, OR OPT TO TAKE NO ACTION TO AVOID INCURRING THE FEE. A PAYER'S ACTUAL ABILITY TO REFUSE SERVICES OR OPT NOT TO PURCHASE PROPERTY THAT IS CONNECTED WITH A FEE IS EVIDENCE THAT A FEE IS VOLUNTARILY INCURRED.

CURRENTLY, THERE ARE SIGNIFICANT BARRIERS TO ACCESS TO MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES IN COLORADO.

(f) EVEN BEFORE THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC, COLORADO RANKED IN THE BOTTOM HALF OF ALL STATES WITH REGARD TO THE PREVALENCE OF MENTAL ILLNESS IN THE STATE RELATIVE TO ACCESS TO CARE. SINCE THE PANDEMIC BEGAN, THE COLORADO CRISIS SERVICES HOTLINE HAS RECEIVED THIRTY PERCENT MORE CALLS AND TEXTS THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS, AND THE PSYCHIATRIC EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT AT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL IN COLORADO HAS TREATED TEN PERCENT MORE CHILDREN EXPERIENCING THOUGHTS OF SUICIDE. IN 2021, ONE-THIRD OF COLORADO YOUTH REPORTED EXPERIENCING FEELINGS OF SADNESS AND HOPELESSNESS FOR A PERIOD OF AT LEAST TWO WEEKS OR MORE.

(g) IN COLORADO, A GUN SUICIDE DEATH OCCURS EVERY THIRTEEN HOURS. DURING AN AVERAGE YEAR, SIX HUNDRED SEVENTY-SEVEN PEOPLE DIE BY GUN SUICIDE AND SEVENTY-THREE PERCENT OF ALL GUN DEATHS IN COLORADO ARE SUICIDES. COLORADO HAS THE TENTH HIGHEST RATE OF GUN SUICIDE IN THE UNITED STATES. ACCORDING TO THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS, THE VETERAN SUICIDE RATE IN COLORADO IS SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER THAN BOTH THE NATIONAL AVERAGE AND THE NATIONAL GENERAL POPULATION SUICIDE RATE. THE COLORADO BOARD OF VETERANS AFFAIRS HAS REPORTED THAT CURRENT RESOURCES ARE INADEQUATE TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND VETERANS IN COLORADO, AND COLORADO IS EXPECTED TO EXPERIENCE A THIRTY-NINE PERCENT INCREASE IN SERVICE NEEDS IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

Dear Honorable Members of the Colorado Senate:

Today, I'm proud to sign into law SB24-184, "Support Surface Transportation Infrastructure Development." This bill will provide the necessary resources to reduce congestion. A proven strategy to reduce congestion is to expand transit and rail service throughout the state, which is not only critical to reducing congestion on our roadways, but also meeting our greenhouse gas reduction goals.

Colorado is projected to grow in population and travelers to our state by the millions in the coming decades. To support this growth, and to reduce congestion on our public highways and the cost of wear and tear, we need more integrated multimodal travel options. More options will reduce traveler dependence on single occupancy vehicles, increase transportation system capacity, serve regional travel demand, and advance environmental, economic, and equity goals. Rail will be a vital part of these options and I'm excited by the opportunity this bill presents to deliver on Front Range Passenger Rail, as well as Mountain Rail. While the Front Range Passenger Rail District is working with communities to determine station locations, it's important to point out that while not all station locations have been selected, service to Colorado Springs and a station located in Colorado Springs will be an important feature to this service.

I thank the sponsors and proponents for passing SB24-184, which will provide a new revenue source to reduce congestion on our highways and help Colorado meet its greenhouse gas reduction goals.

Sincerely,

Today, with reservations, I signed Senate Bill 24-205, "Concerning Consumer Protections in Interactions with Artificial Intelligence Systems." This is an important conversation to have, and in signing this bill I hope that it furthers the conversation, especially at the national level.

Senate Bill 24-205 ("SB 24-205") imposes new regulations on developers and deployers of high risk artificial intelligence systems ("AI"), which the bill defines as any machine-based system that infers from data inputs how to generate outputs and does not go into effect until 2026. The bill specifically targets "high risk" AI systems that are involved in making consequential decisions, and imposes a duty on developers and deployers to avoid "algorithmic discrimination" in the use of such systems. Laws that seek to prevent discrimination generally focus on prohibiting intentional discriminatory conduct. Notably, this bill deviates from that practice by regulating the results of AI system use, regardless of intent, and I encourage the legislature to reexamine this concept as the law is finalized before it takes effect in 2026.

This law creates a complex compliance regime for all developers and deployers of AI doing business in Colorado, with narrow exceptions for small deployers. There are also significant, affirmative reporting requirements between developer and deployer, to the attorney general, and to consumers. These include direct notifications from deployers to all consumers using high-risk AI about how the AI was used in a consequential decision, the type of data that was processed by AI in making the consequential decision, and the source of such data. Deployers will also be required to provide consumers an opportunity to correct data input into AI and appeal an adverse consequential decision, which may necessitate human review.

This bill is among the first in the country to attempt to regulate the burgeoning artificial intelligence industry on such a scale. I appreciate the sponsors' interest in preventing discrimination and prioritizing consumer protection as Colorado leads in this space, and I encourage them to significantly improve on this before it takes effect. And while the guardrails, long timeline for implementation and limitations contained in the final version are adequate for me to sign this legislation today, I am concerned about the impact this law may have on an industry that is fueling critical technological advancements across our state for consumers and enterprises alike. Government regulation that is applied at the state level in a patchwork across the country can have the effect to tamper innovation and deter competition in an open market. To that end, the important work of protecting consumers from discrimination and other unintended consequences of nascent AI technologies is better considered and applied by the federal government to limit and preempt varied compliance burdens on innovators and ensure a level playing field across states along with ensuring access to life-saving and money-saving AI technologies for consumers.

Stakeholders, including industry leaders, must take the intervening two years before this measure takes effect to fine tune the provisions and ensure that the final product does not hamper development and expansion of new technologies in Colorado that can improve the lives of individuals across our state. It is critical that such discussions among stakeholders be based on a robust understanding of how the AI industry is developing, the impact of creating a separate anti-discrimination framework for AI systems only, and what our country is doing as a whole to adapt to this change in our society.

I appreciate the goals of the sponsors to begin an important and overdue conversation to protect consumers from misunderstood and even nefarious practices in a burgeoning industry and the bipartisan efforts to bring this bill to me. However, I want to be clear in my goal of ensuring Colorado remains home to innovative technologies and our consumers are able to fully access important AI-based products. Should the federal government not preempt this with a needed cohesive federal approach, I encourage the General Assembly to work closely with stakeholders to craft future legislation for my signature that will amend this bill to conform with evidence based findings and recommendations for the regulation of this industry.

Sincerely,
 (signed)
 Jared Polis
 Governor

Colorado Senate
The 74th General Assembly
Second Regular Session
State Capitol
Denver, Colorado 80203

Dear Honorable Members of the Colorado Senate:

Today, I vetoed SB24-150, "Processing of Municipal Solid Waste" at 4:30 p.m.

SB24-150 is intended to address concerns about the potential environmental and public health impacts of pyrolysis and gasification projects of solid waste. As originally introduced, the limits imposed by the bill would have halted several promising production pathways for sustainable aviation fuel, a critical tool for meeting global climate goals by reducing net emissions from the aviation sector. As amended, the bill prohibits the state from providing state incentives to pyrolysis or gasification projects beyond the production of sustainable aviation fuel or biochar and bio oil, which could include syngas, hydrogen, methanol, diesel or gasoline, or ammonia- all of which can be utilized in various chemical processes or provide an alternative to fossil fuel energy.

I agree that Coloradans should breathe clean air. While I share the proponents' concerns about the air quality impacts of any project or technology, it is not appropriate to speculatively disincentivize critical pathways that could be important to Colorado's efforts on climate action. I appreciate that throughout the process, the bill moved away from a blanket prohibition. However, the bill as delivered to my desk is still unworkable.

This is primarily because it is inappropriate to prohibit a specific technology in statute across all state incentive programs. Regardless of the merits of the technology itself, this is inconsistent with how our state incentive programs work. It is the role of the General Assembly to create incentives that target specific industries, geographies, or job types, with the goal of generating economic growth; professional staff at the Office of Economic Development and International Trade subsequently administer the programs and provide unbiased recommendations to the Economic Development Commission regarding eligibility for those incentives. Prohibiting a specific technology along these lines sets a damaging precedent and discourages potential innovation.

Fundamentally, it is the responsibility of regulators at the state and federal levels to ensure any proposed project meets or exceeds air quality standards; these technologies are no different. Restricting the ability of the state to incentivize potential projects as a back door way to regulate potential polluters is not a good precedent. Additionally, the impact of this bill would be broader than just on the projects I understand the proponents and sponsors to be most concerned about; if SB24-150 were to become law it could potentially negatively impact incentives for many Colorado advanced industries, such as advanced manufacturing, aerospace, aviation, microelectronics, and clean technology. Colorado businesses from a wide range of these advanced industries expressed deep concern about how the term "combustion unit" may inadvertently apply to a broader set of manufacturing processes, given that the definition included materials such as metal, rock, and glass.

There is much work Colorado can do to ensure our economic incentives for the state align with our goals to reduce air pollution, drive investment and job creation, and advance new solutions to local and global challenges, and I welcome conversations to ensure we are incentivizing environmental performance. I invite the proponents and legislative sponsors of this bill to engage with us on ways to ensure state incentives are prioritized towards lower emissions and cleaner technologies and that those expectations are part of a standard evaluation across state programs and activities, in a technology agnostic manner.

I am proud of the progress we made this legislative session to enhance our ability to model and enforce air permits, drive further protections from pollution in disproportionately impacted communities, and create new tools to avoid air quality violations across Colorado. I look forward to continuing to work together to improve Colorado's air quality, protect those disproportionately impacted by pollution, and move Colorado toward a clean energy future. However, the approach set forth in SB24-150 risks undermining our efforts across the clean energy transition and will stifle one avenue of innovation that could potentially help meet our bold climate and emission reduction goals.

For the reasons stated above, SB24-150 is disapproved and vetoed.

Sincerely,
(signed)
Jared Polis
Governor

Dear Honorable Members of the Colorado State Senate:

Today, I signed Senate Bill 24-186 (SB 24-186), "Concerning the Classification of a Coroner as a State Trooper for the Purpose of Determining Public Employees' Retirement Association Service Retirement Eligibility and Benefits."

This bill will allow county coroners and deputy coroners currently enrolled in PERA to make increased contributions in order to take earlier retirement. The bill applies to counties that are local government division members of PERA, which at the moment, only includes Boulder County. In order to do this, the bill classifies coroners and deputy coroners as "state troopers" in Title 24. I feel strongly that reclassifying occupations as "state troopers" is not something to be taken lightly. While I have reservations about this reclassification to achieve this outcome, I also understand the trauma and workplace stress associated with being a coroner. The critical incidents that coroners and deputy coroners respond to are among the most difficult situations in our communities.

In addition to SB 24-186, there have been numerous bills over the last few years that similarly classified Colorado Parks and Wildlife Officers and certain employees within the Division of Fire Control and Prevention as "state troopers" for retirement benefit purposes. Given this trend, I urge the legislature to avoid the expansion of the list of occupations that are classified as "state troopers, and instead work through the Pension Review Committee to determine the appropriate policy mechanism to adjust contributions and benefits to allow for early retirement.

Sincerely,

Jared Polis

The Honorable Colorado State Senate
The 74th General Assembly
Second Regular Session
State Capitol
200 E. Colfax Ave.
Denver, CO 80203

Dear Honorable Members of the Colorado State Senate:

Today, I signed Senate Bill 24-210 (SB 24-210), "Concerning modifications to laws regarding elections"

The bipartisan bill contains important and non-controversial provisions to strengthen Colorado's already gold-standard election system and to safeguard future elections from those who seek to undermine our democracy. It is heartening that during this time of hyper-polarization, people from both sides of the aisle, including both Democratic and Republican Clerks and Recorders, voting rights advocates, the Secretary of State, and members of the General Assembly are committed to ensuring safe, accurate, fraud-free, and convenient elections for Colorado's voters. Specifically, the bill contains necessary provisions ahead of the November 2024 election that:

- Clarify the role of County Clerks and County Commissioners so that Clerks cannot be removed as designated election officials simply for political reasons;
- Allow the Governor to move the convening location for presidential electors from his or her office if conditions warrant doing so;
- Defend against open records requests specifically intended to overload election officials and make conducting an election more challenging while still preserving open records access for legitimate requests; and
- Improve voter access by making it easier to pre-register to vote for young Coloradans, expanding emergency voting options for first responders when a natural disaster complicates voting, and expands safe, secure drop boxes on college campuses.

While I am signing the bill today because of these critical provisions for the 2024 election, I do not support language added in the second chamber in the final days of the session designed to frustrate the will of the voters should Colorado voters approve ranked choice voting (RCV) and all candidate primaries on the upcoming November ballot.

I also find these provisions to be unconstitutional for a number of reasons. For one, they violate Article V, sections 17 and 21 of the Colorado Constitution. The bill's title, "Concerning modifications to laws regarding elections", means that the bill modifies current election laws; not included under the title are prospective or potential election laws that may or may not come into effect at some time in the future. Thus, in violation of the Colorado Constitution, the bill modifies two distinct subjects in a confusing and confounding manner: current election law and possible future election law. Further, the late additions to the bill regarding RCV alter the bill from its original purpose in violation of Colorado constitution.

The language that was added would require a series of twelve local RCV elections to be held before RCV and all candidate primaries could be implemented statewide, as well as other criteria that must be met prior to full implementation. There is no timeline for when those elections would need to occur, nor is there guidance in the language on how to satisfy the other criteria that were added. This is an unacceptable outcome. If voters approve a ballot measure pertaining to those issues this November, the language in this bill will not be the starting point for implementation and it will be essential to reconcile the bill with the measure and to take prompt and good faith actions to successfully implement the will of the voters, and I am committed to doing so.

While I appreciate the legitimate concerns Clerks and others have raised about the complexity of implementing RCV and all candidate primaries on a statewide basis and constructive input is an important part of successful implementation, it is imperative that if voters do adopt these forms of elections on a statewide basis this November, that their expectations are met regarding a clear and expeditious timeline.

To facilitate ongoing dialogue, in the event a ballot measure on RCV and all candidate primaries is passed by Colorado voters and to ensure its prompt and successful implementation notwithstanding language in this bill, I will issue an executive order, in consultation with the Secretary of State, to convene local election officials, voting rights organizations, legislators from both parties, and initiative proponents to map out a process for implementing this initiative as soon as practicable with my commitment to full implementation by the 2028 election cycle. The scope of the process will include issues identified by elections officials to ensure the effective administration of these types of elections, including using previous and upcoming RCV elections as test cases, ensuring SCORE readiness, ensuring election night reporting capabilities, working with elections systems administrators to guarantee they have software developed to ensure the safe and accurate administration of elections, a dialogue about the rulemakings necessary to conduct these types of elections on a statewide basis, and the development of a robust voter education program to ensure voters understand the new system and are not disenfranchised.

I am confident that if an initiative passes, stakeholders will come together this November in good faith to begin work on a process for implementing RCV and all candidate primaries, that establishes a timeline for when these elections would occur with full implementation by 2028, a process for voter education to ensure familiarity with this new voting format, and other critical changes designed to ensure our elections officials have the tools and resources they need to administer elections in a way that meets Colorado's high standard.

Sincerely,
