Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. Federal law requires that reasonable accommodations be provided under some circumstances to individuals with a disability. An "assistance animal", sometimes referred to as an "emotional support animal", can assist individuals with a disability with their condition but is not necessarily trained to provide a specific task as "service animals" are. Certain providers of housing must allow an individual with a disability to reside with his or her assistance animal without charging any fees or imposing conditions that would otherwise apply if the animal were merely a pet.

The bill requires the following medical professionals, when approached by a patient seeking an assistance animal, to make a written finding regarding whether the patient has a disability and whether the need for the animal is related to that disability, or that there is insufficient evidence to make a disability determination:

- ! Physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants (section 1 of the bill);
- ! Nurses (section 2); and
- ! Psychologists, social workers, clinical social workers, marriage and family therapists, licensed professional counselors, and addiction counselors (section 3).

Section 4 creates a class 1 petty offense for intentional misrepresentation of entitlement to an assistance animal.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 finds and declares that:

4 (a) Service animals that are properly trained to assist persons with 5 disabilities play a vital role in establishing independence for such persons;

6 (b) The term "service animal" has a distinct meaning in the law.
7 A service animal means a dog or miniature horse trained to do work or 8 perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability and whose 9 work or task is directly related to the individual's disability. Under the 10 law, the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or 11 companionship does not constitute the work or tasks of a service animal.

12 (c) No vest, other marking, or documentation is required for an 13 animal to qualify as a service animal, nor are such vests, markings, or 14 documentation a reliable indication of whether an animal is, by law, a 15 service animal. People sometimes erroneously think that a therapy animal, 16 an emotional support animal, or any animal wearing a vest or having any

1 other type of marking is a service animal as defined by law.

2 (d) There are an increasing number of occurrences where people 3 exploit the confusion related to service animals and attempt to bring an 4 animal into a place that it would otherwise not be allowed to enter by 5 passing off a pet, therapy animal, or emotional support animal as a service 6 animal or a service-animal-in-training, either by oral misrepresentation, 7 placing a vest or other marking on the animal, or presenting a 8 "certificate", despite knowing that it is not a service animal;

9 (e) Some companies mislead individuals into believing that they 10 will be entitled to the rights or privileges for individuals with disabilities 11 with service animals if only they buy the company's vests or obtain some 12 type of certificate. These misrepresentations, in some cases, are unlawful 13 deceptive trade practices and compound the confusion around service 14 animals.

15 (f) Commendably, federal and state laws require places of public 16 accommodation, including restaurants, theaters, stores, hospitals, and 17 more, to allow any animal that is presented as a service animal or a 18 service-animal-in-training into the place of public accommodation. These 19 same places of public accommodation face a dilemma when someone 20 enters the premises and intentionally misrepresents his or her animal as 21 a service animal or service-animal-in-training.

22 (g) To respect the privacy of individuals with disabilities,
23 regulations sensibly allow businesses and other places of public 24 accommodation to ask only two questions of a person who is being 25 assisted by an animal in such a place:

26 (I) Is the dog [or miniature horse] a service animal required
27 because of a disability?

1 (II) What work or task has the dog [or miniature horse] been 2 trained to perform?

3 (h) False answers to these two questions harm not only the place 4 of public accommodation and its patrons, but also individuals with 5 disabilities who legitimately rely on service animals. If an animal is not 6 properly trained, the place of public accommodation and its clientele may 7 suffer damages, health issues, injury, or other problems. When people try 8 to falsely represent a non-service animal as a service animal or a 9 service-animal-in-training, business owners and other places of public 10 accommodation become increasingly distrustful that an animal being 11 represented to them as a service animal or service-animal-in-training is, 12 in fact, a service animal or service-animal-in-training. Misrepresentation 13 of service animals delegitimizes the program and makes it harder for 14 persons with disabilities to gain unquestioned acceptance of their 15 legitimate, properly trained, and essential service animals.

16 (2) Therefore, the general assembly finds that the state of 17 Colorado needs to enact a crime of intentional misrepresentation of a 18 service animal for a person with a disability.
