101 CONCERNING THE DESIGNATION OF MARCH 15, 2016, AS "COLORADO
102 ARC DAY".

1 WHEREAS, The days of forcing people with intellectual and 2 developmental disabilities into institutions are largely over; and

3 WHEREAS, More than 80,000 Coloradans with intellectual and 4 developmental disabilities now live, go to school, and work in our 5 communities; and

6 WHEREAS, For more than 60 years The Arc has advocated for 7 community supports and services for people with intellectual and 8 developmental disabilities; and

9 WHEREAS, With 13 local chapters across the state, The Arc of

SENATE
Final Reading
March 15, 2016

1 Colorado works every day to help children and adults with intellectual 2 and developmental disabilities, their families, and other advocates to 3 improve the service delivery system; and

4 WHEREAS, The Arc believes people with intellectual and 5 developmental disabilities are defined by their strengths, abilities, and 6 inherent value and not by their disabilities; and

7 WHEREAS, The Arc believes people with intellectual and 8 developmental disabilities belong in the community and have 9 fundamental moral, civil, and constitutional rights to be fully included 10 and to actively participate in all aspects of society; and

11 WHEREAS, The Arc knows that people with intellectual and 12 developmental disabilities, with appropriate resources and supports, can 13 make decisions about their own lives and must be heard on issues 14 affecting their lives; and

15 WHEREAS, The Arc is committed to working with the Colorado
16 General Assembly, the administration, and state agencies as well as all 17 partners providing advocacy, services, and support for people with 18 intellectual and developmental disabilities to increase resources and 19 improve systems so that people can live productive, healthy lives in the 20 community; now, therefore,

21 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventieth General Assembly of the 22 State of Colorado, the House of Representatives concurring herein:

23 (1) That we express our most sincere and deepest appreciation for 24 the men and women at Colorado chapters of The Arc for their
