102 2016, AS "HOLOCAUST AWARENESS WEEK".

1 WHEREAS, Prejudice, bigotry, and racism have been the cause of 2 conflict, war, and mass atrocities throughout human history; and

3 WHEREAS, The Holocaust was the systematic, bureaucratic,
4 state-sponsored persecution and murder of 6 million Jews by the Nazi
5 regime and its collaborators; the Nazis, who came to power in Germany
6 in January 1933, believed that Germans were "racially superior" and that 7 the Jews, deemed "inferior", were an alien threat to the so-called German 8 racial community; and

9 WHEREAS, Between 1933 and 1945, Nazi Germany and its

1 throughout Europe, 1.5 million of whom were children, as well as 5
2 million other civilians it deemed to be "inferior", including Sinti and 3 Roma people, Poles, people with physical and mental disabilities, gay 4 men, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war, and political 5 dissidents; and

6 WHEREAS, Hitler used anti-Semitism as a political weapon to 7 gain popular support, blaming Jews for all of Germany's problems, 8 including their defeat in World War I, the economic depression, and the 9 Bolshevik threat of communism; that Hitler's accusations were blatantly 10 contradictory and his facts were often fabricated made little difference; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, We must never forget the horrors of the Holocaust
13 and how, by 1945, the Germans and their collaborators had killed nearly 14 2 out of every 3 European Jews as part of the "Final Solution", the Nazi 15 policy to murder the Jews of Europe; and

16 WHEREAS, Today, while we remember the heartbreaking part of 17 human history that is the Holocaust, we specifically acknowledge the 18 experience of the Polish Jewish community, the largest in Europe prior 19 to the Holocaust; once the central European home to 3.3 million Jews, by 20 1945, 3 million had been executed; and

21 WHEREAS, The history of the Jews in Poland dates back over 800
22 years; they prospered from and contributed to cultural, artistic, academic,
23 literary, musical, philosophical, and business centers in Warsaw, Lodz, 24 Krakow, and Vilno, as well as thousands of small villages throughout the 25 country; and

26 WHEREAS, We note that a consequence of the systematic 27 execution of Polish Jews is the near annihilation of the Yiddish language, 28 as Yiddish was infused with the cultural heritage of Jews in Poland and 29 throughout Europe and the United States; and

30 WHEREAS, We mourn the synagogues that were desecrated and 31 destroyed by the Nazi Regime and its collaborators; and

32 WHEREAS, We are heartened that approximately a dozen
33 synagogues have been renovated and are still standing in Poland; they are 34 monuments of the Jewish faith and testaments to efforts made by others 35 in the preservation of the Jewish culture; and

1 WHEREAS, We recognize that among the 3 million Polish Jews
2 and 2 million Polish gentiles murdered during the Holocaust there are 3 many stories from which we can learn, including those from individuals
4 like Pawel Frenkiel, a leader during the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising; Ala
5 Gertner, who died a martyr for aiding the underground resistance; Janusz
6 Korczak, who after many years of working with orphans in the Warsaw 7 Ghetto refused freedom so that he could remain with his orphans when 8 they were relocated to the Treblinka extermination camp; and many 9 others who perished in Polish concentration camps, including 10 Auschwitz-Birkenau, Belzec, Chelmno, Gross-Rosen, Majdanek, 11 Plaszow, Sobibor, Stutthoff, and Treblinka; and

12 WHEREAS, We gratefully acknowledge the 6,620 Righteous
13 Among the Nations, those who risked their lives during the Holocaust to 14 save Jews from extermination by the Nazis, people such as Stanislaw
15 Grocholski; Jan Karski; Tadeusz Kosibowicz; Tadeusz Pankiewicz;
16 Helena, Mirosława, and Ursula Przebindowska; Oskar Schindler; Irena
17 Sendler; Rudolf Weigl; Antonina and Jan Zabinski; and many other Poles 18 or those working or living in Nazi-occupied Poland, whose accounts of 19 struggle serve as lessons from which we can all learn; and

20 WHEREAS, We recognize there are the few remaining survivors
21 of the Holocaust who exhibited a tremendous will to live and persevere 22 despite the horrors they endured, yet can never forget the atrocities that 23 were inflicted on them, their families, and their friends; and

24 WHEREAS, We should never forget the terrible experiences of 25 those that suffered and lived through the Holocaust in Poland and 26 throughout Europe, and we are reminded of the importance of those 27 lessons by the resurgence of anti-Semitism around the world; pernicious
28 Holocaust denial; and recent episodes of ethnic cleansing, genocide, 29 terrorism, crimes against humanity, wars on civilian populations, and 30 mass killings in so many parts of the world, including Syria, Iraq, Nigeria, 31 Bosnia, Cambodia, Rwanda, and the Sudan; and

32 WHEREAS, We must also recall that in the aftermath of war,
33 Palestine, then controlled by the British, became the primary destination
34 for many of the survivors in Europe, although Britain restricted
35 immigration; that a massive effort was organized to smuggle Jewish 36 refugees; that on May 14, 1948, the State of Israel became a place of 37 refuge for those who endured the ravages of the Holocaust; and that 38 today, Israel is a thriving democracy and close ally and friend of the

1 United States; now, therefore,
