SENATE
Final Reading
April 15, 2016

1 United States Air Force, serving from April 1, 1951, to December 31,
2 1952, where he flew both the famed P-51 Mustang and America's first jet 3 fighter, the F-80 Shooting Star, thus beginning his lifelong love and 4 passion for aviation; and

5 WHEREAS, In 1957, Senator Williams fell in love with Ginny
6 Williams, a fiery Virginia school teacher who came West to make her 7 mark in the world, and moved to Denver and had two children, Elle and 8 Mike; and

9 WHEREAS, Also in that year, after practicing law for fewer than 10 four months, Senator Williams partnered with cable legend Bill Daniels
11 and became one of the founding fathers of America's budding cable 12 television industry; and

13 WHEREAS, After branching out on his own in the early 1960s,
14 Senator Williams went on to build Televents, Inc., with systems 15 throughout Wyoming, Colorado, California, Montana, Pennsylvania, and 16 Florida, and he eventually sold Televents, Inc., in 1986 to friend and 17 fellow Coloradan Bob Magness, making it part of Tele-Communication, 18 Inc., better known as TCI, which went on to become the largest cable TV 19 provider in the United States; and

20 WHEREAS, While building Televents, Inc., Senator Williams was 21 elected to the Colorado State Senate in 1968 where he served as the 22 Chairman of the State Senate Affairs Committee and later went on to 23 serve as Chairman of the Colorado Republican Party from 1975 to 1977, 24 providing leadership and resolve in uncertain times, and remaining active 25 in state and national politics for the rest of his life; and

26 WHEREAS, A tireless philanthropist, Senator Williams actively 27 pursued and fought for the advancement of ethics and values in 28 education, which lead him to establish and fund programs including the 29 Carl M. Williams Chair for Ethics at the University of Wyoming and the 30 Carl M. Williams Institute of Ethics and Values at the University of 31 Denver; and

32 WHEREAS, Always an advocate for higher education, Senator
33 Williams generously provided college tuition for a myriad of young 34 people, and assisted in providing funds for a skywalk between the 35 Douglas Senior Citizens Center and Riverside Plaza apartments, a wood
36 floor at the Douglas High School Gymnasium, donating to capital

1 construction at Memorial Hospital of Converse County, and many other 2 endeavors in his beloved home of Douglas, Wyoming; and

3 WHEREAS, In 1989, Senator Williams founded the Foundation
4 for Drug Education and served on numerous educational, artistic, 5 medical, and legal boards of directors during the years; and

6 WHEREAS, Among the many charities that were dear to him were 7 the Wings Over the Rockies Air and Space Museum, from which he 8 received a lifetime achievement award in 2004, the Arthritis Foundation,
9 the Greenway Foundation, the Episcopal Church, and the Colorado 10 Symphony; and

11 WHEREAS, In 1997, Senator Williams was inducted into the 12 Colorado Aviation Hall of Fame; and

13 WHEREAS, Senator Williams' deep-rooted passion for biplanes
14 could be traced back to his father, who owned an Alexander Eaglerock,
15 a plane manufactured in Colorado Springs. So beloved was the Eaglerock 16 to Senator Williams that he restored not one but two examples, the first 17 of which is on permanent display in Concourse B at Denver International 18 Airport, and the second at Wings Over the Rockies' new Centennial 19 Airport facility; and

20 WHEREAS, Even during retirement, Senator Williams, well into 21 his seventies, continued to pursue his love of aviation, competing at the 22 intermediate level in national and aerobatic competitions flying the 23 legendary Pitts Special Biplane; and

24 WHEREAS, The most important things in life to Senator
25 Williams, and the three things that always rose to the surface with him, 26 were civic responsibility, family, and faith; and

27 WHEREAS, It is fitting that we, the members of the Colorado
28 State Senate, pay tribute to the dedicated service of Senator Williams and 29 express our deep regret and sorrow occasioned by his death; now, 30 therefore,

31 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventieth General Assembly
32 of the State of Colorado:

33 That, in the death of Carl Michael Williams, the people of the state

1 of Colorado have lost a dedicated public servant and outstanding citizen,
2 and that we, the members of the Colorado State Senate of the Seventieth 3 General Assembly, do hereby extend our deep and heartfelt sympathy to 4 the members of his family and pay tribute to a man who served the state 5 well and faithfully.

6 Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Memorial be sent to 7 Senator Williams' wife Ginny Williams, his daughter Elle P. Williams, 8 and son Mike Williams.
