103 AT A BIENNIAL COUNTY OR NOVEMBER ODD-YEAR ELECTION.

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at <http://leg.colorado.gov>.)

Current law authorizes a county to propose a county public safety improvements tax by submitting a ballot question to the voters of the county at a general election only. The bill authorizes a county to also submit such a ballot question at a biennial county election or an election held in November of an odd-numbered year.

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment.
*Capital letters indicate new material to be added to existing statute.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 30-11-107.9, amend
3 (3) as follows:

4 30-11-107.9. County tax for public safety improvements -
5 definitions. (3) The board of county commissioners of a county may by
6 resolution approve a proposal for a county public safety improvements
7 tax; thereupon the public safety improvements tax proposal shall be
8 submitted to the registered electors of the county at the EARLIEST OF THE 9 next general election, THE NEXT BIENNIAL COUNTY ELECTION, OR THE
10 NEXT ELECTION HELD ON THE FIRST TUESDAY OF NOVEMBER IN AN
11 ODD-NUMBERED YEAR. The proposal shall contain a description of the tax
12 including its purposes and shall state the amount to be imposed. The 13 proposal may include a provision to also seek voter approval to retain and
14 expend all or a portion of the revenues of the tax from district fiscal year
15 spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.
16 The conduct of the election shall conform so far as practicable to the
17 general election laws of the state and with the provisions of said section
18 20.

19 SECTION 2. Safety clause. The general assembly hereby finds,
20 determines, and declares that this act is necessary for the immediate 21 preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.
