4      state-sponsored persecution and murder of 6 million Jews by the Nazi
5      regime and its collaborators; the Nazis, who came to power in Germany
6      in January 1933, believed that Germans were "racially superior" and that 7      the Jews, deemed "inferior", were an alien threat to the so-called German

HOUSE
Final Reading
April 24, 2017

1 throughout Europe, 1.5 million of whom were children, as well as 5
2 million other civilians it deemed to be "inferior", including Sinti and 3 Roma people, Poles, people with intellectual or developmental 4 disabilities, gay men, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war, and 5 political dissidents; and

6 WHEREAS, Hitler used anti-Semitism as a political weapon to 7 gain popular support, blaming Jews for all of Germany's problems, 8 including their defeat in World War I, the economic depression, and the 9 Bolshevik threat of communism; that Hitler's accusations were blatantly 10 contradictory and his facts were often fabricated made little difference; 11 and

12 WHEREAS, We must never forget the horrors of the Holocaust
13 and how, by 1945, the Germans and their collaborators had killed nearly 14 2 out of every 3 European Jews as part of the "Final Solution", the Nazi 15 policy to murder the Jews of Europe; and

16 WHEREAS, Today, while we remember the heartbreaking part of 17 human history that is the Holocaust, we specifically acknowledge the 18 experience of the Polish Jewish community, the largest in Europe prior 19 to the Holocaust; once the central European home to 3.3 million Jews, by 20 1945, 3 million had been executed; and

21 WHEREAS, Today, while we remember the horror that was the 22 Holocaust, we focus our attention to the passing of time and the few 23 remaining survivors who can tell us their stories first hand; we must 24 acknowledge those who ensure that we never forget; and

25 WHEREAS, "Never Again" has been the mantra of generations
26 who survived the atrocities in Europe, with the goal being to never relive 27 this history and to guide us to learn the basics of respect for humanity;
28 until now we have always had first-hand eye witnesses and survivors
29 living in our midst; and

30 WHEREAS, Even with first-hand eye witnesses living amongst us, 31 there have been those who have tried to erase the history of the 32 Holocaust, to revise the facts and deny what occurred; now, more than 33 ever, we must bear witness, as our children and grandchildren will be the 34 last generations to know this story directly from those who lived through 35 it; and

1           WHEREAS, In Colorado, there are several organizations dedicated 2 to the retelling of the accounts of genocide; and

3           WHEREAS, Many students in Colorado learn the history of World
4 War II, including the Nazi genocide; and

5           WHEREAS, The history of Colorado's Holocaust survivors is 6 written in books and recorded in oral history projects around the country
7 and in Israel; and

8           WHEREAS, We recognize that, among the 3 million Polish Jews 9 and 2 million Polish gentiles murdered during the Holocaust, there are 10 many stories from which we can learn, including those from individuals
11 like Pawel Frenkiel, a leader during the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising; Ala
12 Gertner, who died a martyr for aiding the underground resistance; Janusz
13 Korczak, who after many years of working with orphans in the Warsaw 14 Ghetto refused freedom so that he could remain with his orphans when 15 they were relocated to the Treblinka extermination camp; and many 16 others who perished in Polish concentration camps, including 17 Auschwitz-Birkenau, Belzec, Chelmno, Gross-Rosen, Majdanek, 18 Plaszow, Sobibor, Stutthoff, and Treblinka; and

19           WHEREAS, We gratefully acknowledge the 6,620 Righteous 20 Among the Nations, those who risked their lives during the Holocaust to 21 save Jews from extermination by the Nazis, people such as Stanislaw
22 Grocholski; Jan Karski; Tadeusz Kosibowicz; Tadeusz Pankiewicz;
23 Helena, Mirosława, and Ursula Przebindowska; Oskar Schindler; Irena
24 Sendler; Rudolf Weigl; Antonina and Jan Zabinski; and many other Poles 25 or those working or living in Nazi-occupied Poland, whose accounts of 26 struggle serve as lessons from which we can all learn; and

27           WHEREAS, We recognize there are the few remaining survivors
28 of the Holocaust who exhibited a tremendous will to live and persevere 29 despite the horrors they endured, yet can never forget the atrocities that 30 were inflicted on them, their families, and their friends; and

31           WHEREAS, We should never forget the terrible experiences of 32 those who suffered and lived through the Holocaust, and we are reminded 33 of the importance of those lessons by the resurgence of anti-Semitism 34 around the world; pernicious Holocaust denial; and recent episodes of 35 ethnic cleansing, genocide, terrorism, crimes against humanity, wars on 36 civilian populations, and mass killings in so many parts of the world,

1 including Syria, Iraq, Nigeria, Bosnia, Cambodia, Rwanda, and the 2 Sudan; and

3 WHEREAS, We must also recall that in the aftermath of war,
4 Palestine, then controlled by the British, became a destination for many 5 of the survivors in Europe; that on May 14, 1948, the State of Israel 6 became a place of refuge for those who endured the ravages of the 7 Holocaust; and that today, Israel is a thriving democracy and close ally
8 and friend of the United States; now, therefore,
