Summary of Legislation

Recommended by the Joint Budget Committee, this bill repeals the Office of Marijuana Coordination, effective July 1, 2017.

Background

The Governor's Office of Marijuana Coordination was created by Senate Bill 14-215 to coordinate all state agencies that provide information or education on marijuana, or promulgate rules regarding marijuana use, sale, and regulation.

State Expenditures

In FY 2017-18 and thereafter, this bill will decrease expenditures from the Marijuana Tax Cash Fund by $191,590, and will decrease the FTE allocation by 2.0 FTE. As there is no funding for the Office of Marijuana Coordination included in the FY 2017-18 Long Bill, no change in appropriations is required.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect July 1, 2017.
