be there. The peace officer must allow the person a reasonable opportunity to obtain evidence of his or her authority to be on the premises.

A declarant:

- ! Agrees to indemnify a peace officer and his or her agency for acts and omissions made in reliance upon the declaration; and
- ! Is liable for actual damages, attorney fees, and costs for any false statements made in the declaration.

If the declaration includes a statement that the property has been altered or damaged, or if the peace officer sees evidence of alteration or damage, the peace officer shall collect the personal information of the persons removed and provide it to the declarant. A person removed from the property pursuant to the bill who alters or damages the property is guilty of a class 1 misdemeanor.
