Final Reading
April 12, 2018

1           WHEREAS, Nolan went to school during the day and worked 2 nights and weekends, saving up enough money to eventually rent a room, 3 and graduated two years later with his high school diploma; and

4           WHEREAS, Nolan was a "jack-of-all-trades" and could do
5 anything and do it well: He worked as a mechanic on hydraulics, as a 6 salesman for a large lumber company, and refurbished old cars in his 7 spare time to resell them; and

8           WHEREAS, Nolan moved to Pagosa Springs, Colorado, in 1998 9 and put his handyman skills to use working at a local hardware store, and 10 then was hired by the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) in 11 2004; and

12           WHEREAS, Nolan loved serving the public by plowing snow, 13 providing avalanche control, and keeping the public safe on what he 14 considered his roads; and

15           WHEREAS, Nolan also loved the beauty and wildlife that 16 Colorado has to offer, and he enjoyed hunting, fishing, and most of all 17 time with his grandchildren; and

18           WHEREAS, On February 2, 2018, fourteen years after beginning 19 his career with CDOT, Nolan was struck by a motorist while maintaining 20 one of his roads outside of Pagosa Springs and died from his injuries on 21 February 11; and

22           WHEREAS, Nolan Olson was a hardworking, dedicated public 23 servant who will be missed by his family and by his extended CDOT 24 family; now, therefore,
