CONCERNING THE PEACE OFFICERS MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT GRANT PROGRAM, AND, IN CONNECTION THERewith, ALLOWING CERTAIN AGENCIES TO APPLY FOR GRANTS FROM THE PROGRAM AND EXPANDING THE PERMISSIBLE USES OF MONEY AWARDED AS GRANTS UNDER THE PROGRAM.

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at http://leg.colorado.gov.)

Under current law, only county sheriffs' offices and municipal police departments may apply for a grant from the peace officers mental health support grant program. This bill expands the applicable agencies to include other types of law enforcement agencies, such as state police departments, and expands the permissible uses of grants awarded under the program. The bill also clarifies that grants awarded to peace officers for mental health support shall be used for support services, including the purchase of mental health services, training, and support programs. This expanded use of grants and the widening of eligible agencies to include state police departments is intended to improve the mental health support available to peace officers across Colorado.
health support grant program (program). The bill opens the program to additional "eligible applicants", which include other types of law enforcement agencies as well as organizations that provide services and programs that promote the mental health wellness of peace officers. The bill also specifies new permissible uses of grant money and requires grant recipients to report to the department of local affairs concerning their use of grant money.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:
