A BILL FOR AN ACT

CONCERNING THE CREATION OF A REFUNDABLE INCOME TAX CREDIT FOR QUALIFYING SENIORS THAT REPLACES THE SENIOR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION, AND, IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, ENACTING THE "SENIOR HOUSING SECURITY ACT OF 2019".

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at http://leg.colorado.gov.)

The state constitution authorizes the general assembly to lower the maximum amount of the actual residential value of residential real property that is subject to the senior property tax exemption (exemption).
Section 3 of the bill lowers the maximum amount to $0 for all property tax years beginning on and after January 1, 2020, which has the effect of eliminating the exemption. It does not affect the property tax exemption for disabled veterans. Under section 4, a county assessor is no longer required to mail notices to seniors about the exemption, and under section 5, an assessor is not required to accept applications or otherwise administer the exemption unless and until the general assembly enacts legislation to increase the maximum actual value of residential real property that is subject to the exemption. If the exemption is made available in the future, seniors must reapply for it.

Section 6 creates an income tax credit that is available for 10 tax years beginning on January 1, 2020, for a qualifying senior. A qualifying senior must be 65 years of age or older at the end of the income tax year for which the credit is claimed and have income that is less than or equal to $65,000, adjusted for inflation, or a surviving spouse who is at least 58 and meets the same income qualification.

If the qualifying senior's adjusted gross income for the taxable year is less than or equal to the base income amount, which is $12,000, adjusted for inflation, then the credit is equal to the maximum credit amount, which is $700, adjusted for inflation. The amount of the credit decreases by $50, adjusted for inflation, for each income grouping above the base income amount. The amount of the credit that exceeds the qualifying senior's income taxes due is refunded to the qualifying senior.

Section 6 also creates the credit stabilization cash fund. The state treasurer is annually required to transfer money from the cash fund to the general fund, or vice versa, depending on whether the total amount of the credits exceeds an approximation of what the state would have had to pay to backfill the senior homestead exemption.

If some or all of the credit is paid to the senior as a state income tax refund, and therefore taxable income, section 7 allows a qualifying senior to deduct an amount equal to the refundable amount of the credit from taxable income for purposes of determining state income taxes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Short title. The short title of this act is the "Senior Housing Security Act of 2019".

SECTION 2. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

(a) The senior property tax exemption was adopted by Colorado voters in 2000 in order to help seniors afford to stay in their homes;
(b) At the time, much lower average home values meant that the tax exemption was effectively means tested based on home value;

(c) As home values have grown significantly, the tax exemption is now awarded equally to any senior with a home value exceeding $200,000;

(d) The most significant variation in the tax exemption now occurs from county to county, with seniors in many rural Colorado counties receiving a far smaller benefit than seniors in the Denver metro area;

(e) Colorado's affordable housing shortage is hurting seniors, making it more difficult for low-to-middle income seniors to afford housing, even after receiving the tax exemption;

(f) The ten-year residency requirement has discouraged seniors from moving or downsizing because they will no longer receive the exemption;

(g) Seniors who rent are facing similar challenges to seniors who own their homes;

(h) An income-based, means-tested tax credit will provide more help to the seniors in the state who need help the most staying in their homes, whether they own or rent;

(i) A refundable income tax credit is simpler to administer than the current exemption and would relieve counties of their current administrative burden;

(j) The current exemption consumes an increasing share of the state budget every year and has twice been zeroed out to help balance the budget; and

(k) Setting aside dollars to anticipate future program growth will reduce the likelihood of future cuts to the program.

(2) Therefore, in order to help more seniors stay in their homes, allow seniors to downsize, and ensure the long-term sustainability of this funding for senior housing, the general assembly hereby:

(a) Lowers to zero the maximum amount of residential property that is subject to the senior property tax exemption, as authorized by section 3.5 (2) of article X of the state constitution;

(b) Establishes in statute an income-based, means-tested refundable income tax credit for seniors to help them afford the high cost of housing; and

(c) Establishes the senior Coloradans trust fund to hold money saved in the initial years of the new tax credit and pay for future growth of the tax credit as senior population growth outpaces overall population growth.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 39-3-203, amend (1) introductory portion as follows:

39-3-203. Property tax exemption - qualifications. (1) For the property tax year commencing January 1, 2002, for property tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2006, but before January 1, 2009, and for property tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2012, BUT BEFORE JANUARY 1, 2020, fifty percent of the first two hundred thousand dollars of actual value of residential real property that as of the assessment date is owner-occupied and is used as the primary residence of the owner-occupier shall be exempt from taxation, and for property tax years commencing on or after January 1, 2003, but before January 1, 2006, and on or after January 1, 2009, but before January 1, 2012, AND ON OR AFTER JANUARY 1, 2020, fifty percent of zero dollars of actual value of residential real property that as of the assessment date is owner-occupied and is used as the primary residence of the owner-occupier shall be exempt from taxation if:

SECTION 4. In Colorado Revised Statutes, amend 39-3-204 as follows:

39-3-204. Notice of property tax exemption. No later than May 1, 2013, and no later than May 1 of each year thereafter in which an assessor sends a notice of valuation pursuant to section 39-5-121 (1)(a) that is not included with the tax bill, each assessor shall mail to each residential real property address in the assessor's county notice of the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1). As soon as practicable after January 1, 2014, and as soon as practicable after January 1 of each year thereafter, each county treasurer shall, at the treasurer's discretion, mail or electronically send to each person whose name appears on the tax list and warrant as an owner of residential real property notice of the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1). The treasurer must mail or electronically send the notice in each year on or before the date on which the treasurer mails the property tax statement for the previous property tax year pursuant to section 39-10-103. No later than May 1, 2008, and no later than each May 1 thereafter, each assessor also shall mail to each residential property address in the assessor's county notice of the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1.5). No later than May 1, 2007, the division shall mail to the residential property address of each person residing in the state who the division believes is a qualifying disabled veteran notice of the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1.5) for the 2007 property tax year. However, the sending of notice to a person by the division does not constitute a determination by the division that the person sent notice is entitled to an exemption. The notice shall be in a form prescribed by the administrator, who shall consult with the division before prescribing the form of the notice of the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1.5), and shall include a statement of the eligibility criteria for the exemptions and instructions for obtaining an exemption application. To reduce mailing costs, an assessor may coordinate with the treasurer of the same county to include notice with the tax statement for the previous property tax year mailed pursuant to section 39-10-103 or may include notice with the notice of valuation mailed pursuant to section 39-5-121 (1)(a).

SECTION 5. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 39-3-205, add (5) as follows:

39-3-205. Exemption applications - penalty for providing false information - confidentiality. (5) Notwithstanding any provision of this part 2 to the contrary, an assessor is not required to accept an exemption application for the exemption allowed by section 39-3-203 (1) or otherwise administer the exemption unless and until the General Assembly enacts legislation to increase the maximum actual value of residential real property that is subject to the exemption. To first claim the exemption after the increase, an individual must file a completed exemption application in accordance with this section, regardless of whether the individual previously received the exemption.

SECTION 6. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 39-22-542 as follows:

39-22-542. Credit against tax - seniors - credit stabilization trust fund - creation - definitions. (1) As used in this section:
(a) "BASE INCOME AMOUNT" MEANS:

FOR PURPOSES OF THIS CALCULATION, INFLATION AND THE PERCENTAGE CHANGE IN STATE POPULATION ARE THE SAME RATES THAT ARE USED IN CALCULATING THE MAXIMUM ANNUAL PERCENTAGE CHANGE IN STATE FISCAL YEAR SPENDING UNDER SECTION 20 OF ARTICLE X OF THE STATE CONSTITUTION.

(c) "FUND" MEANS THE CREDIT STABILIZATION CASH FUND CREATED IN SUBSECTION (7)(a) OF THIS SECTION.

(d) "INCOME GROUPINGS" MEANS THIRTEEN APPROXIMATELY EQUAL INCOME RANGE GROUPS BETWEEN THE BASE INCOME AMOUNT AND THE MAXIMUM INCOME AMOUNT.

F OR INCOME TAX YEARS COMMENCING ON AND AFTER JANUARY 1, 2020, BUT BEFORE JANUARY 1, 2030, A QUALIFYING SENIOR IS ALLOWED A CREDIT AGAINST THE TAX IMPOSED BY THIS ARTICLE 22. IF THE QUALIFYING SENIOR'S ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME FOR THE TAXABLE YEAR IS LESS THAN OR EQUAL TO THE BASE INCOME AMOUNT, THEN THE CREDIT IS EQUAL TO THE MAXIMUM CREDIT AMOUNT. THE AMOUNT OF THE CREDIT DECREASES BY AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO SEVEN AND FOURTEEN ONE-HUNDREDTHS PERCENT OF THE MAXIMUM CREDIT AMOUNT, ROUNDED TO THE NEAREST DOLLAR, FOR EACH INCOME GROUPING BEGINNING WITH THE FIRST ONE ABOVE THE BASE INCOME AMOUNT.

(3) THE AMOUNT OF THE CREDIT ALLOWED UNDER THIS SECTION IS THE SAME WHETHER IT IS CLAIMED BY ONE TAXPAYER FILING A SINGLE RETURN OR TWO TAXPAYERS FILING A JOINT RETURN. (5) TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY FEDERAL LAW, THE CREDIT ALLOWED UNDER THIS SECTION IS NOT INCOME OR RESOURCES FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY FOR THE PAYMENT OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE BENEFITS AND MEDICAL ASSISTANCE BENEFITS AUTHORIZED UNDER STATE LAW OR FOR A PAYMENT MADE UNDER ANY OTHER PUBLICLY FUNDED PROGRAMS.

(6) ON OR BEFORE JUNE 15, 2021, AND ON OR BEFORE JUNE 15 OF THE NEXT NINE YEARS THEREAFTER, THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE SHALL CALCULATE THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF CREDITS ALLOWED UNDER THIS SECTION THAT ARE CLAIMED FOR THE PRIOR INCOME TAX YEAR AS OF THIS DATE AND NOTIFY THE STATE TREASURER OF THIS AMOUNT.

(7) (a) The credit stabilization cash fund is hereby created in the state treasury. The fund consists of money transferred to the fund in accordance with subsection (7)(b) of this section. (II) If, for the fiscal year, the credit stabilization amount is less than the income tax credit amount, then the state treasurer shall transfer the difference between the two amounts, or the account balance, whichever is less, from the credit stabilization cash fund to the general fund.
