SENNATE BILL 19-185

A BILL FOR AN ACT

CONCERNING PROTECTIONS FOR MINOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING VICTIMS, AND, IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, REQUIRING A POST-ENACTMENT REVIEW OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS ACT.

Bill Summary

(Note: This summary applies to this bill as introduced and does not reflect any amendments that may be subsequently adopted. If this bill passes third reading in the house of introduction, a bill summary that applies to the reengrossed version of this bill will be available at http://leg.colorado.gov.)

The bill clarifies definitions in the "Colorado Children's Code" concerning victims of human trafficking of a minor for involuntary servitude and for sexual servitude.

Shading denotes HOUSE amendment. Double underlining denotes SENATE amendment. Capital letters or bold & italic numbers indicate new material to be added to existing statute. Dashes through the words indicate deletions from existing statute.
The bill creates immunity for a violation of a prostitution-related offense if probable cause exists to believe that a minor was a victim of either human trafficking of a minor for involuntary servitude or for sexual servitude.

The bill establishes an affirmative defense for all criminal violations, except class 1 felonies, if a minor proves that he or she was:

1. A victim of human trafficking of a minor for involuntary servitude or sexual servitude; and
2. Forced or coerced into engaging in the criminal acts.

The bill also requires a minor who engages in prostitution-related conduct to be referred to the county department of human or social services or the child abuse hotline and that if a law enforcement officer encounters such a minor and there is probable cause to believe that the minor was a victim of human trafficking of a minor for sexual servitude, the officer shall report the suspected violation to the county department of human or social services or the child abuse hotline.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds and declares that:

(a) Human trafficking is a serious problem in Colorado and across the nation;

(b) Among the diverse populations affected by human trafficking, minors, especially homeless and runaway youth, are particularly at risk of being trafficked for sex and involuntary labor;

(c) Minors who are forced into involuntary servitude and commercial sexual activity are more properly identified as victims and not as criminals; and

(d) Human trafficking in all forms creates a cycle of violence and impacts victims, families, and communities.

(2) The general assembly further finds and declares that:

(a) As a result of the diverse systems that touch these minors' lives, professionals in the child welfare, law enforcement, treatment, nonprofit, and faith-based communities must collaborate to develop a multidisciplinary approach to protect children and youth who are victims of human trafficking. This multidisciplinary approach needs to emphasize prevention, protection, prosecution, and partnerships.

(b) Protecting minors who are victims of human trafficking from further trauma by recognizing them as victims rather than criminals is beneficial for the minors involved and therefore in the public interest.

(3) It is therefore the intent of the general assembly to:
(a) Offer pathways that direct victimized minors away from juvenile delinquency by making available to those minors appropriate and comprehensive rehabilitative services;
(b) Offer protection and provide consistency in the treatment, care, and support of minors who are victims of human trafficking so they may continue to heal from the traumatic environment of being trafficked in a restorative justice manner; and
(c) Help create a safe haven for minors who are victims of human trafficking to come forward without fear and identify their traffickers and perpetrators.

(4) Therefore, the general assembly declares that the general assembly joins the federal government and other states around the nation in passing legislation to further combat human trafficking and protect minors who are victims of human trafficking.

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 19-1-103, amend (1)(a) introductory portion, (1)(a)(VIII), and (23.5); and add (62.5) and
