generally prohibits hospitals and ambulatory surgical centers from employing a CST who does not satisfy these requirements.

However, the new requirements do not apply to an individual who:

- ! Was employed as a CST in one or more hospitals or ambulatory surgical centers for a cumulative period of at least one year during the period beginning December 31, 2015, and ending December 31, 2020;
- ! Is employed as a CST by a hospital or ambulatory surgical center on December 31, 2020; and
- ! Remains continuously employed as a CST after December 31, 2020.

Additionally, an individual who does not satisfy the new requirements may function as a CST in a hospital or ambulatory surgical center for up to 18 months so long as the individual continues to make a good-faith effort to satisfy the requirements during this time.

A hospital or ambulatory surgical center may employ a CST who does not satisfy the new requirements if the CST qualifies for one of the described exceptions.

At the request of an individual who was employed as a CST by a hospital or ambulatory surgical center, the hospital or ambulatory surgical center shall verify in writing the individual's dates of employment or the contract period during which the individual provided services.
