Summary of Legislation

The bill requires the Department of Human Services (CDHS) to conduct an assessment of the services provided by the state's veterans community living centers. The assessment must evaluate:

- the changing demographics of the veteran population in Colorado;
- the treatment needs specific to younger veterans;
- best practices for services and treatment related to post-traumatic stress disorder and other behavioral health issues;
- the benefits and limitations of providing service through existing veterans centers;
- alternative models of care; and
- the impact on long-term care facilities of the changing health care needs of veterans.

CDHS must submit a report of their assessment to the state, veterans, and military affairs committees of the General Assembly by December 1, 2020.

Background

CDHS manages and operates five state veterans community living centers that provide services to veterans and their spouses, widows and in some instances, parents of deceased veterans. Services provided include long-term care, short-term rehabilitation for individuals seeking to return home following a qualifying hospital stay, memory care services for individuals with dementia, short-term respite care, and end-of-life/hospice services.

The five centers are located throughout the state in Aurora, Florence, Monte Vista, Rifle, and Walsenburg. Each facility is Medicare and Medicaid certified and licensed by the Department of Public Health and Environment. Additionally, the centers are certified by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to receive federal funds in support of the care of veterans.

State Expenditures

In FY 2020-21, the bill increases cash fund expenditures in CDHS by $300,000 from the Veterans Community Living Centers Central Fund to conduct an assessment of services provided by the state's veterans community living centers. It is assumed that this work will be done by a contractor and costs are based on similar studies conducted by CDHS. The assessment is larger in scope than previous assessments of veterans centers conducted by CDHS, requiring the evaluation of veterans' needs across the state, visits to each center, and an evaluation of the needs of a specific group of veterans.

Effective Date

The bill was deemed lost on June 16, 2020.

State Appropriations

No appropriation is required as the costs under the bill will be paid from the continuously appropriated Veterans Community Living Centers Central Fund.
