- Under article 10 of title 14, to modify a decree respecting child support or maintenance; to make or modify an order granting or denying parenting time rights; and to modify an order allocating decision-making responsibilities;
- Under the "Uniform Child-custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act", to exercise temporary emergency jurisdiction;
- Under the "Uniform Child Abduction Prevention Act", to modify an order concerning the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities; and
- Under the "Uniform Parentage Act", to modify an order for child support or for allocation of parental rights and responsibilities.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) (a) The general
3 assembly finds and declares that:

4 (I) On January 13, 2020, the Colorado supreme court issued its 5 opinion in In re: The Parental Responsibilities Concerning W.C., 456 P.3d 6 1261 (Colo. 2020), in which it held that the district court does not retain 7 jurisdiction to modify parenting time or decision-making orders based on 8 a change in circumstances when those orders are being appealed;

9 (II) The supreme court reasoned that the statutes at issue did not 10 specifically grant trial courts continuing jurisdiction after the perfection 11 of appeal;

12 (III) Under that same reasoning, the supreme court may prohibit 13 the modification of child support and maintenance based on changed
14 circumstances while appeals are pending;

15 (IV) Further, the supreme court declined to carve out an exception
16 to its rule for cases involving emergency parenting time matters.

17 (b) Therefore, the general assembly declares that a district court
18 has continuing jurisdiction to modify family law orders based on changed

1 circumstances as described in House Bill 21-____, specifically reversing
2 the supreme court's holding and decision in In re: The Parental
3 Responsibilities Concerning W.C.

4 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 14-10-122, amend

13 and, except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, the 14 provisions of any decree respecting child support may be modified only 15 as to installments accruing subsequent to the filing of the motion for 16 modification and only upon a showing of changed circumstances that are 17 substantial and continuing or on the ground that the order does not contain 18 a provision regarding medical support, such as insurance coverage,

14 basis of facts that have arisen since the prior decree or that were unknown 15 to the court at the time of the prior decree, that a change has occurred in 16 the circumstances of the child or the child's custodian or party to whom 17 decision-making responsibility was allocated and that the modification is 18 necessary to serve the best interests of the child. THE TRIAL COURT
