The bill requires the Governor to consider diversity when making appointments. It minimally increases state workload on an ongoing basis.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation is required.

Fiscal Note Status: The fiscal note reflects the introduced bill.

Summary of Legislation

The bill requires the Governor to consider geographic and demographic diversity when making appointments to certain boards, commissions, committees, or task forces beginning January 1, 2022.

State Expenditures

The Governor's Office of Boards and Commissions may have increased workload for conducting outreach. This increase is expected to be minimal and no change in appropriations is required.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect 90 days following adjournment of the General Assembly sine die, assuming no referendum petition is filed.
