This bill extends all state department rules adopted or amended between November 1, 2020, and November 1, 2021, through May 15, 2022. The bill will minimally increase state and statutory public entity workload in FY 2022-23.

Appropriation Summary: No appropriation is required.

Fiscal Note Status: The fiscal note reflects the enacted bill.

Summary of Legislation

This bill provides for the continuation of certain state department rules and regulations that were adopted or amended on or after November 1, 2020, and before November 1, 2021. The bill also postpones the expiration of all Public Employees' Retirement Association (PERA) and state Board of Equalization rules and regulations that were adopted or amended during this same period.

State Expenditures

In FY 2022-23, state department workload will increase to align policies and procedures with state law. The extension of rules will result in a workload decrease if departments do not need to re-promulgate or adopt emergency rules. Any workload impacts resulting from the bill can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

The State Board of Equalization in the Department of Local Affairs will have an increase in workload to update materials and procedures to reflect state law, and a decrease in workload from not having to adopt emergency rules or re-promulgate rules that are extended.

Statutory Public Entity

PERA will have an increase in workload to update materials and procedures to reflect state law, and a decrease in workload from not having to adopt emergency rules or re-promulgate rules that are extended.

Effective Date

This bill was signed into law by the Governor and took effect on April 25, 2022.
