The fiscal note identifies the centrally appropriated costs as $10,128, including $10,000 for health, life, and dental and $128 for short-term disability. This bill's appropriation clause includes funding for these two centrally appropriated costs. The cost of AED and SAED is not identified in the fiscal note, however, should be included in FY 2023-24, increasing the FY 2023-24 fiscal impact of the bill by $8024.
