Summary of Legislation

Under current law, the food pantry assistance grant program in the Department of Human Services (DHS) is set to repeal on June 30, 2023. The bill extends the grant program indefinitely, and requires a General Fund appropriation of $3.0 million to the program for FY 2022-23 only. The bill does not require any appropriations to the program in FY 2023-24 or later years.

The bill expands the scope of the grant program in three ways. First, it makes hunger-relief charitable organizations eligible to receive grants. Second, it allows $100,000 to be awarded annually to a nonprofit entity to provide technical assistance to a grant recipient for training food pantries and assisting in locating and purchasing Colorado agricultural products. Finally, it broadens the kinds of agricultural products that may be purchased with grant money, to include products that hold cultural significance for indigenous people.

State Expenditures

The bill increases General Fund expenditures for the food pantry assistance grant program by $3.0 million in FY 2022-23. Expenditures are for the grant program as required in the bill. No expenditures are required beyond FY 2022-23, but appropriations may be made at the discretion of future General Assemblies.

No startup costs are required as the program already exists in the department. As allowed under current law, it is assumed that the DHS will continue to be able to retain up to 5 percent of total funds available for its administrative expenses, and to contract with a third party to administer the grant program. The Department of Agriculture currently assists grant program administrators with accessing information on Colorado agricultural producers; continued assistance is assessed as a minimal workload increase that can be accomplished within existing appropriations.

Other Budget Impacts

General Fund reserve. Under current law, an amount equal to 15 percent of General Fund appropriations must be set aside in the General Fund statutory reserve beginning in FY 2022-23. Based on this fiscal note, the bill is expected to increase the amount of General Fund held in reserve as shown in Table 1, which will decrease the amount of General Fund available for other purposes.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect upon signature of the Governor, or upon becoming law without his signature.

State Appropriations
